

It is not a religious question that divides the Presbyterian church. It is the color of the human skin.

It is not very likely that the President of the United States will go off on a fishing excursion on Memorial Day.

Mrs. ERNA C. FOLGER, mother of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, was married last week. The ex-President has now a new daughter-in-law.

Ohio is a Republican State, but it has the habit of going the other way occasionally. The Democrats are claiming that this is one of its bad years.

COMPASS TAXES, the Commissioner of Pensions, says that not less than ten thousand discharged soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy are to-day the inmates of almshouses.

THE PRESIDENT HARRISON has given fitting recognition of the colored Republican election by appointing ex-Congressman John H. Lynch, of Mississippi, to the fourth Auditor of the Treasury.

Mrs. ELLEN BUCKLER, the wife of a well-to-do farmer living near Wooster, Ohio, is a regularly organized member of the United Brethren denomination.

A BILL was passed by the late Legislature, has been signed by the Governor, and is now a law, which prohibits the killing of a cow or bull.

EVERY citizen who has a proper conception of his duty should extend the franchise to all who are capable of exercising it.

It is announced that President Harrison will make a trip to Franklin county, Pa., during the coming summer to see his mother's birthplace.

STATE CHAIRMAN ANDREW and KILMER are both of the opinion that the poll tax amendment to the Constitution will carry by an immense majority on June 18.

Have your ward executive committee called together as early as possible, instructing your members to act in conjunction with the Democrats in reference to the amendment to the Constitution.

It would appear from this that both parties in Philadelphia are organized in favor of the amendment to abolish the tax qualification, but outside of that city we find the press in many instances opposed against it.

Very little has been said thus far either for or against the proposed amendment to the Constitution abolishing the poll-tax. The fact that so little interest has manifested in this matter would seem to indicate that there is not much necessity for the change; or, at least, that if there is any necessity it has not made itself apparent to the majority of voters.

A tax, amounting to a dollar or two, has been made a qualification for the exercise of the suffrage for almost a century. That requirement was put in the Constitution of 1790, and has remained, notwithstanding the several subsequent revisions of that instrument.

The convention of 1873 refused to eliminate it, and now it is proposed to be stricken out by amendment, not in response to a popular demand, but at the instance of politicians who wish to stop an abuse and a burden at the same time.

It has become a custom among the political committees of both parties, especially in the larger cities, to pay out thousands of dollars annually in the way of poll taxes as a penalty in securing the votes of those against whom the taxes are assessed.

As soon as Martin shall have a questionable method of drumming up voters is not to be denied, but the abuse is one which should be corrected, not by abolishing the tax as a qualification, but rather by forcing the citizen to either pay it himself or lose his vote.

The man who gives little for the franchise as to exercise it for the sake of a dollar, or to be willing to exercise it only when some one else pays his poll tax, is not very good voting material.

The citizen who really values the suffrage for the opportunity it gives him to take part in securing good government will never be content with these upon others even as light a sum as the tax, much less place himself in the attitude of being induced to vote for the candidates of the party that has squandered his money with the tax collector.

Shade Items.

What is the shade with a daily walk?

Jonathan Miller's new dwelling house is nearing completion; it will, when finished, add greatly to the appearance of Jericho.

Annasie Mangum, whose barn was destroyed by fire some time ago, is erecting a very fine and extensive building.

James Gallagher, Jr., formerly of this place, who has been living in Johnston for several years, is now returning back to the new town.

One of our young men having acquired a set of blacksmith tools, says he is ready to do all kinds of work promptly and with fidelity.

Isaac Ankney, our new mail carrier, has purchased a fine horse and gig, and says "he will make an excellent driver."

Many of our voters favor the amendment and will cast their vote in the direction of incorporating into our constitution the clause prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

It is a pity that the Board of Directors of the Board of Agriculture, to a man named Driscoll, of Chicago. An old man by the name of Diemer, of Kansas, described the front of the same lot with a feat. Driscoll erected a building on rollers, ready to shove it to the front as soon as Diemer should vacate.

Recently the Council passed an ordinance empowering the Marshal to eject every person whose claim for a lot had been rejected by the Assessor's Board. This act to execution, would affect over a thousand persons.

The city government made a test case of the Diemer-Diener contract. The Marshal proceeded to remove Diemer and his tent, immediately a mob of 1,200 men collected and drove the Marshal away. The mob was about to attack the City Hall when Captain Cavanaugh arrived upon the scene and dispersed them, after which the city authorities resumed the work of ejecting Diemer. Diemer fought like a tiger and had to be dragged from his tent to the street. Driscoll's building was rolled forward. The mob attempted to tear the house to pieces, but this time the city authorities were able to repulse the angry mob without the aid of soldiers. Last night soldiers guarded the principal streets, and more trouble is anticipated when the work of ejection is again begun.
