The house and lot are in the best part of the town on a corner or Main street while a whice alley, or rather street, on one side and on the cear. Across this alley at the rear is an orchard and on it a large stable with room for three horses and four cows; also a large carriage house, etc. This orchard is filled with fruit trees of the choicest kinds and is very productive. This I will sell with the house.

There are about 25 acres of land just outside of the borough limits for cultivation and for pasture. The purchaser will get a property provided with all those things with which a man surrounds himself in his permanent home. For terms call on or address,
