ine in all colors at Biesecker &

ed and don't forget-J. B. Holderaniware Store. sees of Pillsbury's Flour and you use ony other brand. vaix bridges were swept away in ion county by the recent flood. d Water, bottled, recommended by ians, to be had only at Biesecker &

by place in Somerset where you can at Keller's grocery. ninute and a half, how will they sour and a half?

estmoreland County Agricultural strial Association will hold their tober 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th.

mg man in Franklin, while on his than has the HERALD, is marriage license, was arrested for the planing mill. HOLBROOK BROK, & PARSON.

rs of the Herane all back numbers of Somerset county. th lith to present date, and can y of workmen is building bridges, vote in the fall, ck carried away, filling in and a these interesting facts, in order om to enjoy a morning nap. al Option for Michigan.

made by the court, How Can They Beat Us? an't do it! Not so long as we keep of our success, and the reason our always crowded with customers. C. B. VOUGHT.

and Furs, I will pay the highest e for all kinds of hides, pelts and so want 500 cords of Rock Oak and lisek. 100 cords wanted at once, H. G. CUNNINGBAR. Down to Bed Rock.

ex, at the store of Five Brothers.

ohn, Ben, Ruby, and Nick, now

Brothersvalley Items. ew harns were raised in this towne guest of his brother, S. S. Forney. ishle says, " the voice of the people is or of God." Therefore, I suppose we potato bug is making his appearance, words "Jesus King of Glory."

arva deposited on the vines.

of the building. to intimidate enough voters.

No more elections till November

Dr. Albert P. Brubsker and wife of Philadelphia are in town for a three week a visit. Miss Etta Crawford, of Vennero county, is visiting her school friend. Miss Mame Amendments of late, but the Amendments to the Rules pulled through by a handsome majority, all the same. Brother Coffrotts of the Democrat is taking a tom with "old Nep" as Cape May this week. During his absence the Denotors is SURRENDERS, HIMSELF AND IS being edited by the festive "Fess." The Board of School Directors have decided to extend the school term in this bor- A HERALD REPORTER VISITS HIM IN HIS should have made it nine months. Two elections in one week was most too nds of trusses at Biesecker & Sny- much for the average woter. The turn-out at Saturday's primary was rather alim. A ough from six to seven months. They the following postmasters in Somerset coun- lealers were convicted and sentenced to ten ty S. P. Poorbaugh, Glencoe; James M. years in the penitentiary, was the scene of Cover, Jenner X Roads; Robert E. Ross, another transdy Saturday evening. different odors of extracts at Bie- Addison; Wesley Moore, Knhn, Pittsburgh Tuesday morning.

ed elsewhere in these columns, it will be occupied was owned by the coal company year before the war he went to Grantsville, plainly but elegantly, tersely but graphseen that at the Republican primary elec- and stood at the corner of a row of miners' Maryland, where he met my mother and ically you go to town next week, don't been, Esq., for District Attorney, and evening Spiker and his wife quarreled; he took to drinking and squandered away his call and see J. B. Holderbaum's Frederick Weller for Poor Director.

amother column, the great horse sale of Ste- Buskey's house, seized a gun and shot his and one sister. My sister is married to Peter Young people, who aspire to say and write Beriu Borough... vens & Zimmerman will take place on July step-father in the pit of the stomach, inflict- Beachy, of Grantsville. One year after my made at the celebrated Pillsbury at Keller's grocery.

2d. We expect to see horsemen here from by and a half ent a green apple and a all the neighboring counties on that day. It will be a positive sale and a great coance to self up and was brought to Somerset Mon- last. My mother is thirty-nine, and Spiker get well bred borses.

soin water at Biesecker & Sny- ent owner. It has a larger subscription and of Sheriff McMillen, Constable Hoyle called death we moved to Meyerslale. Spiker more expressive than is implied in the few Middlecreek ..... Store. The only place in town better advertising patromage to-day than at at the HERRED office. "John Spiker," said boarded at our house and was married to words. "Well, the reservoir came, and Johns n can get this delicious and cooling any time in its previous history. Few countage and lived at mother by Squire Cook. Soon after the law went visiting—some on very long vision of the mother by Squire Cook. Soon after the law mother by Squire Cook.

aser. Prices very reasonable. Yard and says he cannot do without the news dea of the magnitude of the damage friends of the candidates permitted those see what was wrong. When he went to go cooked on insylvania railroad lines by the gentlemen to make the fight for themselves. up the steps of the house, his mother said : ood may be formed from the state-at nearly 5,000 men are employed, to the Republicans of the county, and we cases working 16 hours a day. This have no doubt will receive the full party to Jacob Buskey's, about a rod away, and Went to Confluence and worked on Ken moment after."

and at 8:30 a. M., arriving at the heavy loss of all his household property to stand aside, or he would shoot him. at 1 30 r. M. Returning, special and part of his office fixtures, the issue of leave Johnstown at 500 r. M. the paper so soon after the wreck shows and didn't seem to know what he was do-five days before last Christmas. I helped will be charged for the round trip. both pluck and courage. Our best wishes ing. When Patterson came into the house. Spiker dig coal for several weeks and then

I am so glad that Jesus loves me," sound- The gun was heavily charged with ing loud and clear through the parrow windows of the prison. The melody was of short duration however, as the vocalists seemed to be suddenly struck with the

What a remarkable exemplification of the terrible flood at Johnstown is furnished by step-daddy, and gave himself up. I was swear if he didn't do so and so he would get option measure and it only that gorge which was forced open by dyna- me and placed Patterson in my charge. mite. A railroad bridge at the bottom, on I kept him at my house Saturday night. A law to accomplish the same top of that a botel, above that a section of Spiker died about 12 o'clock Sunday. It ed in 1887 and under its provis- Gautier steel works, and upon that founda- was a little after 6 o'clock Saturday evening when the shooting occurred. A number of quarrel from the time they were married up using to ifccuse the liquor traffic buildings. This immense pile was hurled persons witnessed the shooting. When Spithree of them adopted Prohibitogether in an almost impregnable mass, by ker fell they picked him up and carried him strike and beat my mother and she would that terrible rush of waters. When stone, into the house. They sent for Dr. Speicher brick and iron are tossed about like chips who came and probed the wound and pickso taken under it became void. and feathers the wonder is heightened that edout quite a number of buck-shot. Sanmeasure is designed to avoid the any flesh and blood has survived to tell of day morning he vomited freely and threw

By the death of John Hicks, who passed palniessly away at his home in this borough Wednesday morning. Somerset county lost in his eighty-third year and removed to Som- by Henry Patterson. sale, but are willing to share profit patrons. That's the why and erset from Dauphin county many years ago. Cameron and that venerable statesman nev- dreds crowded around there all day. er neglected an opportunity to send his regreat army of Somerset county people Notwithstanding his advanced age, Mr. Hicks was physically as well preserved and mentally as bright as in middle life. He leaves nd one daughter, Mrs. Harry Baer.

ription-very cheap. Glass Ware city this morning for the purpose of adjusting losses by the flood. The Company had but he refused to take it, saving that he sleeping a short time when Rauch shook me had conferred upon him, and said that he thirty-six risks here, all among well-known people, and Mr. Moore was greatly surprised to find only one of them had perished. This one was Mrs. Mary E. Hurst, librarian at the Cambria Library, who had a policy for $1,000. Mr. C. T. Schubert, the editor of the Freie Press, had a policy with this Company for $4,000, but it lapsed December 22, 1888. The total amount of Johnstown risks was $110,000. That the Company should to kill, but only intended to hit I im in the t week-one for Lewis Eskin and have to pay only one risk among so many s indeed remarkable. Mr. Moore says he has found no objections among the policysolders, however, all of them meeting him with a smile and being only too glad that they were alive .- Johnstown Tribune.

The services in the Presbyterian Church. to be satisfied with the vote of let of this place, were, on last Sunday morning, badly, and was constantly quarreling with orn crop is almost two weeks behind of the Sabbath School children. The audi- a dozen and a half witnesses to the shooting. wing to the heavy rains, but favora- ence room was handsomely decorated, by her through July and August will the ladies with spruce, fern, laurel, cut flow- was buried Monday afternoon," ers and potted plants. The pulpit recess, the acob Rayman, a most estimable old organ loft and wall were draped with long ed last Thursday, after a long and festoons of space; the pulpit itself was lness. She was buried at the Pike banked with flowers, and high above it, on the wall, worked in field duises, were the s as lively as ever. The farmers The bright eyes of the children danced with pleasure, whose contagion was caught vis by their elders. The singing and recitations for the purpose of having a talk with Patterby the little ones was very creditable, not son, "Milt" McMillen, the genial and he hay crop promises to be the largest only to themselves, but to the superintend-obliging deputy sheriff, of whom the prison- I only intended to shoot him in the legs. has been harvested in this section for ent and truckers, who drilled them. A duet ers all have a good word to say, opened the There was a big lead of powder in the gun by years. All that is desired is fair weath- of female, and a quartet of male voices added big iron door, and giving the Hunnin scribe and it raised when I fired. He was very for a few weeks in which to make it. much to the musical portion of the enter- a gentle shove, which landed him inside the close on to me and was running right at me he directors last Friday staked offground tainment. The audience numbered some prison proper, hastily turned the key, with at full speed when he fell; the shot didn't a new school house, to be located close to three hundred, almost crowding the seating the remark: "I'll be back in an hour or seem to check him. I took the gun to the doing a good business. Satisfactory reasons Johnstown have each contributed a fee of unfinished—and the telegrapher and the enestilence of Wesley Landis. They are capacity of the little church. A collection two," and disappeared. ready to receive proposals for the erco- was taken up by four little misses which At the "dining" table sat "Dave" Nicely, Lichliter what I had done and delivered my-netted nearly twenty dollars. We had expected it would be war along All this is very encouraging to the young of "seven up." Dave held several leading helped. He had knecked mother the 18th, but not quite so war. The paster, Mr. Sutherland, who has only occu- trump, and he smiled pleasantly as he held around 'till I was afraid he would kill her Best at this place passed off very quietly, pied the pulpit a shoat time, and comins, as up his "hand" to the HERALD man. Carrie and me. I had been afraid of his killing

TRAGEDY.

Step-Father, John Spiker,

IN DEFENSE OF HIS MOTHER.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Cett

STORY OF HIS LIFE AND OF THE KILLING.

Elklick township, the home of Christian & little over one-half of the Republican vote Yoder, and the place where the infamous McClellandtown Gang committed their last John Spiker lived with his wife and fam-

Mrs. Earl Ogle, who came to Somerset three-fourths of a mile from the town of was wrocked, and since then has been the Mrs. Spiker by her former husband, John him, he said: and Henry Patterson, his step-son, was a one of the old and wealthy families of the sentences, must strike the reader as a happy By reference to the official table publish- driver in the same mines. The house they State. My father was a wealthy man. The method of saying and describing a thing tion, held Saturday, George W. Pile was houses. Jacob Buskey occupied the house married her. My mother is a daughter of nominated for Associate Judge; L. C. Col- adjoining the Spiker domicile. Saturday Thomas Johnson, of Grantsville. Father thing-something for which its readers began to beat her; she called her son Henry fortune. He died when I was but nine years It is an article that should be preserved, and Aliegheny No. 1... As will be seen by their advertisement in to her assistance; Henry ran into Jacob old. I have one brother, younger than I. read, and studied frequently and closely. Alleghens No. I.

With this issue the Hennin enters upon following facts in regard to the killing: a pretty fair education; went to school to the sixty-second year of its age and its thir- constants novies story of the Killing. Charley Snyder, who was from Somerset and of the trained reporters sent out by city pa- Lower Turkeyfoot. ty-eighth year under the control of its pres- After placing his prisoner in the custody studied law here. Shortly after father's pers. A multitude of words could not be Meyersdale florough. try newspapers have a wider circulation Grassy Run, near Reese's mines, about three wedding he ordered me out of the house. I its indeed never to come back." And as to Northampton

HE WAS PROTHING AT THE MOUTH, The prisoners in the county jail regale turned around, and, putting his hand in his

NO. 5 SHOT AND BUCKSHOT. gun and went at once to 'Squire Lichliter, at little mad he would strike my little brother Salisbury, and told him that he had shot his and kick him and cuff him around and at the show, and the 'Squire sent for on him and he had to swing.

'Squires Lichliter and Fuller held an in-

HE WOULD SWING FOR A GOOD CAUSE. every person there came up and shook hands | when I heard with him, and gave him good bye. He went up to his mother and kassed her, saying :

" MAYER I'LL NEVER SEE YOU AGAIN." He seemed to feel very badly, and on Saturday night be cried, and said he hadn't in-Spiker was a man of violent temper, and

He attacked his brother at one time, and tried to get away with him. He always treated Patterson and his younger brother come in here he's levoted to the instruction and entertainment | and abusing his wife. There were probably Spiker was taken to Grantsville, where he

A VISIT TO THE COUNTY JAIL.

THE PRISONER TELLS THE STORY OF THE

Monday afternoon the writer once more the gun and fired. When I fired the gun engaging a colored brother in a friendly game self up. I am sorry, but it couldn't be

"constitutional" on the upper corridor, and | stay away from him, that he had a revolver RIDDLED WITH SHOT. "constitutional" on the upper coording, and stay away for Nicely was in his cell busile writing, and would probably on a treatise on the fascinating came of draw-poker. The other prisoners. AN ELKLICK TOWNSHIP of lesser note, were sitting around on steps; but had no thought or intention of killing or in cell cloors, looking as though they him. They have two little girls living would give ten years of their miserable ex- They had three children, one of them is istence for a few breaths of freals, pure air. dead. I am surry for what was done but I The weather hasn't been favorable for Henry Patterson Kills His Ross Bird was the one inmate of the odorif- couldn't help it." erous place that cosmed perfectly satisfied Val Hay, E-q., one of the leading mem on and makes an effort to keep everything retained by the prisoner. Patters in seeme i clean and tidy. Ross is more or less of a to fully realize his position, and spoke re-philosopher, and makes the best of his pros- gretfully of what he and done, but seemed to ent unfortunate situation. Stretched at full length on the coal-box back of the stove, apparently in a sound sleep, was young Patterson, the last man who had placed his name on the Sheriff's have been employed in describing the Johnsteen A slight tap on his head awakened town flood, and some of the descriptions quest that the reporter accompany him to his cell

Henry Patterson is a rather good-looking young man of about twenty years of age. He was neatly dressed in a suit of dark-The Postmaster-General has appointed and most atrocious outrage, for which the polka-dot necktie. He were a dark-blue slouch hat, set well back on his head. He dark-blue and his hair and moustache are than any other production of modern times; ily at Grassy Run, a mining village, about dark-brown. His appearance is that of a and like that immortal production, its excel- would do so. well-bred young man.

with her five-year-old son a few days after Saljsbury. With them lived Henry Patter- Taking a seat on the narrow bed in his day morning and lodged in jail by Consta- was ten years younger than she. My broth. simple words, mostly monosylables, tell the Jefferson..... ble Jacob Hoyle, from whom welcarned the er lived with us; he is 15 years old. I had fourths of a mile north of Salisbury. Henry left and walked through the cold and snow the scene itself, nothing yet in print so Ogle. Patterson is about 20 years of age. Spiker to Williams Station, where I got work in graphically portrays its horrors as the fol-Mr. and Mrs. Alex Landis, of Waterloo. | Patterson's mother about 25 years of age. Spikes to Williams Station, where I got work in lowing: "In a moment Johnstown was married Patterson's mother about nine years | Hoblitzell's brick-yard. I was only thirteen | lowing: "In a moment Johnstown was | Rockwood Burns | lows, are visiting friends in Somerset countage. She is about forty years old. They then, I worked there for three years, when the same house. Spiker mother persuaded me to come back home. I married rathers a subscriber of the lived together in the same house. Spiker mother persuaded me to come back home. I sped the wreck in a swirl, the angry water. e on hand a large number of good Hensen long before he removed to the west, and Patterson were both employed in Reese's went home, but my step-father and I soon sped the wreck in a swirl, the angry water, ch we will sell in quantities to suit a little more than twenty-five years ago, mines. Spiker and his wife were constantly quarreled, and I went back to William's quarreling and fighting. Saturday there was again. I stayed there a short time, the town and the helpless multitude on its Southampton... from his old home. He was accompanied a circus at Salisbury. Mrs. Spiker wanted when they wrote me that they had back, the flood meantime shaking with rage east by Mr. and Mes. J. A. Lichty and by to go to the show and Spiker refused to al- moved to Grantsville and asked me to come and dropping here and there a portion of its ha's H. Fisher has bought of the Mr. Isaac Barron, all of whom are natives low her to go or to give her money to go. home. I went to Grantsville and took a burden-crushing grinding, pulve izing all. This started a quartel, and young Patterson. young man with me. As soon as Spiker Then back, with great frame buildings float-Saturday's Republican primary election to avoid hearing it, went_up to the ball saw him he ordered him out of the house. I ling along like ocean steamers, upper deck was an unusually dull one, and a very light ground, a short distance from the house. As said, 'I guess that is meant for me, too.' He crowded, hands clinging to every support Mail orders promptly filled vote was polled in every voting precinct of soon as he left the house Spiker commenced said it was, and we both left. I went back that could be reached, and so on to the great age stamps to Fisher's Book Store the county. The principal light in Somerset beating his wife and she called to her son, to William's and stayed for about four stone bridge, where the houses, piled mounting the county. borough was for committeeman, and the 'Hen, come back quick.' He went back to months and then went to Indian Creek and tain high, took fire and burned with all the fury of the hell you read about-cremation

> TOM NEVEL'S CAMP TRAIN. "MY GOD, HEN! HE'S GOT A RAZOR! Went back home after several months, but Woodruff, editor of the Johnstown Democrat ed him, to see what he was going to do. | tween that place and Salisbury. My bondshas a temporary building erected, and exWhen he heard him say he was going to men were Francis McKinnie and ex-Senator tell. The survivors were moving, but they
> S. S. Marvis & Co.'s Biscurr Works. pects to resume the publication of both the shoot Spiker he tried to take the gun from Getty. After my mail contract had expired | knew not whither. Over and under the weekly and daily in a few days. In view of him, but couldn't. Patterson told Buskey I went to Westernport and worked for the Spiker ran out the back door. Patterson went to selling fruit trees for Jas. F. LeClair, followed him about fifty yards, when Spiker Brighton, New York. The fruit tree business didn't suit me and I went over to themselves with singing spiritual songs each hip-pocket, said : "You s- of a b-, I'm Grassy Run and got a job from Tom Reese. vening. Rev. Sell appears to be choir mas- not afraid of you or your gun," Saying this I was a driver in the mines. I told mother while "Joe" Nicely is leader. Their voices he drew a pistol, or razor, and made a dash if I could get a house I would let her know. can be heard all around the Court House for Patterson. When he got within 15 or I finally rented a Company house. They squire. One evening last week persons in 20 steps from Patterson, he raised the gun, wanted to come over at once. They moved the neighborhood of the jail were startled and fired. The shot struck Spiker in the pit over on April 9. Spiker was there a month on hearing the familiar words of the hymn, of the stomach, right below the breast bone. and a half living off of me and I was keeping the family besides. I had to support them and him. I finally went to Reese and The shot all went in in a circle of from told him the load was getting too heavy on four to five inches. After he was shot Spiker | me and asked him to give Spiker a job. He ran after Patterson about a rod, when he put him and my brother both at work in fell to the ground. Patterson dropped the the mines. Whenever Spiker would bet a

He said and did this more than a dozen orable Friday afternoon and night. times in my presence. It was a perpetual to the time of the shorting. He would often have to sell what little farniture she had in the house to get something to eat. She took in washing, and did every thing she could to support the family, while he

He went to Grantsville last Friday, with Shafer, Philip Smith, Esq., of Rockwood, John Johnson, mother's brother; mother and Emanuel J. Seese, Esq., of Ogie Townquest, Sunday evening. The jury rendered a told him be had better stay and attend to ship, were elected Vice Presidents of the Converdict that the deceased camelto his death | his work, as the work was good. He left | vention, and M. D. Reel, of Shade Township one of her oldest landmarks. Mr. Hicks was from the effect of a gonshot wound inflicted the house mad. There was a small circus in and E. M. Lichty, of Meyersdale, were elect-Salisbury Saturday. I went to the house about | ed Clerks. J. D. Swank and Capt. Wm. H. The affair created intense excitement in dinner time, and asked her if she was going Sanner were appointed Tellers. After the He was a life long friend of the elder Senator the neighborhood, and people by the hun- to the show. I told her that she might as roll had been called Fred W. Biesecker, Esq. well take the little ones and Joe, and go, and was elected Chairman of the County Com-I took Patterson to Meyersdale Sunday that she should leave the key at Mrs. Low- mittee for the ensuing year by a unanimous evening and kept him there over night, in ry's, so that I could get it when I quit work. vote of the Committeemen present, and Mr. Hicks was a most estimable citizen and he the lockup. He told me he knew he had He got home from Grantsville before she A. J. Hileman was elected Chairman pro enjoyed the trust, respect and friendship of a done wrong, but he couldn't help it. That if got home from the show. He waited at the tem. mines till she came. She didn't wait till the The returns of Saturday's primary were show was over, but came home before, I handed in, and the vote cast up and the reand that he would have to put up with it. think for the purpose of getting there before sult announced. On motion of John R. Everybody sympathized with the boy and he did, so as to avoid a quarrel. I quit Scott, Esq., the Chairman appointed a Coma widew and one son, Esquire L. M. Hicks, said that Spiker had gotten just what he work at 5 o'clock, and when I went down to mittee of three, consisting of W. E. Boyts, deserved. Patterson carried the mail for the house they were quarreling. They were S. P. Poorbaugh, and R. H. Dull to wait quite a while between Grantsville and Salis- still quarreling when we are supper. After upon Mr. Biesecker and notify him of his L. Davis, on the South Sole; J. W. Barkbury, and everybody spoke well of him and supper I got my ball and but, and went up election. The Committee waited upon Mr. liked him. While I had him in my charge on the hill. I went into Herman Rauch's Biesecker and in a short time returned with Farrell's Drug Store in M creliville ; Posta number of men came and offered to bail shanty and threw myself on one of the him and he, in a few well-chosen sentences, him, and offered him money, $5 and $10 bills, bunks, and fell asleep. I had only been thanked the Convention for the honor they didn't need it. When I started to take him up, and said we would go up to the ball would endeavor to discharge the duties of the Form Monday's Johnstown Tribune. away there was a large crowd around, and ground. We got as far as Fairview plane, position to which he had been elected in a The belief that has existed for some time

MOTHER CALLING ME. She said. 'Henry come down here.' Lasked ner what she wanted. She said come down privilege, and made a rattling speech of 15 The dynamite explosions that dislodged tended to kill Spiker; that he didn't shoot Henry come in here, you'll have to do the Amendments to the Rules which bodies. keep the baby from falling out. I stepped Convention last June. He said that he had into the air pieces of human bodies flew in over it and just as I did so she was standing > him on the railroad. He wheeled around tion adjourned. and slapped his hand on his hip-pocket and said, you sou of a b-, I'm not afraid of you or your gun, and came running toward me. that one of us had to take it there and then. It was either him or me, and I pulled up pulled up. I had no THEA OF KILLING BIN. house and went to Salisbury and told Squire 'given for selling. Address . Somerset County Votes Wet

I got the gun to defend mother and myself BOTH AMENDMENTS OVER-WHELMINGLY DEFEATED.

Only Ten Polls Go Dry. won every man who lost a cent by the flood with his lot. He has full charge of the pris- bers of the Somerset county bar, has been THE FRIENDS OF CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION SADLY DISAP-POINTED. think that he was in no wise to brame.

BEFORE MY BEART OUT

Described.

lencies are not seen at first glance.

The HERALD of the 19th inst. did a good in your own home, perhaps a mile from its fore your eyes, and the same fate your own a

Committeemen.

The Republican County Convention me in the Court House at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, and owing to the fact that a large number of the committeemen could not get here till noon, adjourned till 1 o'clock p. m.

The Convention was called to order by C. C.

offered and adopted.

M. D. Reel, of Shade, John R. Scott, Esq.,

four teachers for the school year.

For Sale or Trade.

Glibbons' Glade, Fayette County, Pa.

Anniversary Sermon.

SAMUEL BISINGER.

D. H. WOLFENSEERGER,

Secretary.

The Horrors of Johnstown Vividly Court on Thursday, of the vote polled in Somerset County on Tuesday, are: Against the Prohibition Amendment, 2,451 For the Prohibition Amendment...... 2,079 1.372 Mujority against ...... eviaged skill in word-painting, particularly Against Suffrage Amendment...... 4,299 those in the New York World and Cincinna-For Suffrage Amendment..... ti Elaguirer, but none of them are at all com-Majority against..... parable with the simpleand life-like account

Only ten of the thirty-seven precincts in again swept away." contained in the Johnstown Tribune, in its the county gave a majority for the Prohibfirst issue after the disaster. I know that striped ciothes, with a blue-spotted shirt and every one capable of appreciating a readable itory Amendment and none of them were the Johnstown flood, in which her bome son and his younger brother, children of cell, and in response to a question asked use of taking phrases or nicely turned periods, it merits the distinction of an exception- tion of Pennsylvania, at the election held in goest of Mrs. F. W. Biesecker, left for T. Patterson, Esq. Spiker was employed as "John T. Patterson, formerly of Philadel- ally fine specimen of descriptive writing the different districts of Somerset County, a miner in the coal mines of Thomas Reese, phia, was my father. I am connected with Several of its paragraphs, and many of its Pennsylvania, on Thursday, June 18, 1889;

> things as they ought to be said and written. Brothersvalley... could not do better than to take it as a Conemangh The opening sentences, composed of a few Elklick... sail story better, and far more pathetically, than nine-tenths of the labored productions Jennertown Borougo. baffled for a moment, running up hill with | Somerset No. 2. Upper Turkeytoot.... Wellersburg. Majority against Prohibition, 1372.

Maj. Against Suffrage Amendment, 3817. Houses for Johnstown. foundation ; dear ones slowly consumed be- From Saturday's Johnstown Tribune.

Pirresunge. Pa., June 21, 1889. wrecks they went, in and out of the ruins- Mr. James McMillen, Chairman, Jahnstoon, Po.

"Our story—how shall we tell it? In a ruin and out, and present a very neat appearance. have been moved back again. we saw a copy of Webster's Unabridged, and They are one story high, and the floor is ten None of the houses, so far as learned. not later than Sunday morning.

riers down, old enmitties and grudges buried clothing, stoves, stove furniture, and the and William J. Lewis. intended for each house prepared by my struggles to tell of the horrors of that mem- nish each house with a barrel of flour, if ately, marched down to the scene of the you think it is desirable and would be what fire.

Convention of Republican County Pittsburgh last night to see Governor Beaver in Harrisburg to-day. I think that insuce of two weeks you will have several hundred houses erected in Johnstown and fully fur-

> With kind regards, I remain, very truly S. S. MARVIN, Chairmain Purchasing Committee. The list of articles for each house, mentioned by Mr. Marvin and enclosed with his two bake-pans, one iron pot, one tea kettle, paragraphs in St. Cere's account: three joints pipe, six knives and forks, sixtwo-quart pitcher, two one and one-half-pint bowls, two bedsteads, one table (with and cotton mattresses, four huse pillows. Blank applications for dwelling houses will be left with the Burgesses of the several boroughs; W. J. Murphy, at Moxham; A. hard, at Cambria City. Bridge; at Kredel & master Wilson, at Mineral Point, and the quick.' I ran down and found her stand. or 20 minutes in length. He refuted the the timbers and others debris also uncover ing on the front porch crying. She said, charge that had been made that and toss into the air the remants of human something; he is kicking and slapping me had just been adopted had been made in the This afternoon, between 2 and 3 o'clock, a around and you will have to do something. interest of any one person, and branded as charge of dynamite was exploded near the I started to go up the steps. They had a false the assertion that the change in Rule second arch from the east end of the bridge. little board nailed at the head of the steps to 20 had not been offered and adopted by the From the great body of wreckage tossed in the precise language that they had been corpses had been blown up. They were doubtless all close together near where the dynamite was discharged. he started out the back door. I overtook the ensuing year, after which the Conven- sufferers, who realized anew the awful charso recently visited. Chas. P. Craig, Esq., of Duluth, Minn., has been in Somerset for several days, the Miliville morgue, but, as far as has been learned, none of them have been i dentified.

Burgess at South Fork. manner that would meet with the approba- that a large number of bodies were still in valley. tton of the Republican voters of the county. the mass of wreckage at the stone arch Col. E. D. Yutzy rose to a question of bridge is daily being verified.

wards the prosecution of the South Fork of being in danger." Fishing Club for damages to property caused by the bursting of the dam. The O'Connor Brothers, leading attorneys of Cambria

"The second dispatch, dated 12.53, says:

"The river rises rapidly. There is three the music for the occasion. Mr. Koehler exfect of water on the ground floor. The wacounty, have been retained to conduct the ter rises still-one thinks-A country store, in a good location, and case. As soon as one hundred residents of "Then nothing more—the phrase remains $10, suit is to be entered. Constable Martin | tire house disappear.

Presbyterian Church, Somerset, by the pas-Isabored under some disadvantages.

Isabored under some disadvanta highest court, if necessary, to secure dam- counted 115 corress and said to my-self this The bolt entered through an "pen window. | Cincinnati, Obia.

ages. Other suits are also threstened. When OFFICIAL RETURNS OF THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY ELECTION Horace Rose, the atterney, receives he will OF SOMERSET COUNTY, PA., HELD SATURDAY, 22 JUNE, 1880. st once bring a test suit against the club for $15,000. Several business flores will also institute suit for damages. The merchants have selected the firm of John Thomas & Sons, who lest $150,000, to make a feet case. It will be carefully prepared, and if it is will receiver heavy damages. There has been some speculation as to whether or not the South Fark dam will be rebuilt. The attitude of the survivors of the flood in regard to that mater is shown by the words used by Constable John T. Martin in The official totals as computed by the a conversation with your correspondent. He said:

"If the fishing club attempts to rebuild the dam there will be trouble. If it cannot be restrained by law we will shoulder muskets and shoot the person that makes the first move towards reconstructing the dam. 482 The people of Johnstown have suffered too . 3,817 | much to incur the risk of having the town TEN TROUSAND LIVES LOST.

Jourstows, June 22 - All the local physiarticle will agree with the statement that in at all decisive. The result was a sad disapcians met accidently at the Bedford Street its simplicity, its expressiveness, its touching pointment to the prohibitionists, as they had Hospital last night. They represented all is about 5 feet, 112 inches in height, and weighs probably 150 pounds. His eyes are dark-blue and his hair and moustache are than any other production of modern times.

Its simplicity, its expressiveness, its touching pathos, it comes nearer to that model speech of the martyred President at Gettysburg, than any other production of modern times. lost in the flood. On account of the general knowledge of the people possessed by the With no attempt at ornamentation by the Tabolar Statement of the votes polled on physicians the estimate is looked upon as re-

Eleven bodies were recovered to-day. Among those found were James Murtha, wife, and three children. The building com-public square. August Bumgardner, a resident here, and too late to help." a foreign laborer, both employed in clearing A little later every thing came in the Association of Somerset District, met in the up the wreckage near the Pennsylvania flood. Some people were saved, no one Mt. Olivet Church, on Berlin Circuit, May Railroad bridge, were reported dangerously knows how. An entire family found ref- 30, 1889. sick with blood poisoning in their arms. uge on a great wooden bed, fleating in the Rev. G. J. Coleman presched an interest recovery of either. The foreign laborer was with episodes of this kind. ner is at his home in Kernville.

people have opened additional headquarters the world-in America." near General Hastings' headquarters. This "They appear to be trying to make it even -D. S. Poling. orgamzation is still doing much good.

FIRE COMPLETES THE FLOOD'S WORK. About half-past 120 clock to-day word was Johnstown Business Men who Sursent up to the Philadelphia firamen, whose control of the guard. Immediately the three Among the business classes that suffered the eaten up a number of buildings and were and the comparatively small loss of men. feeding on more.

showed itself. Within three-quarters of an were lost. hour the flames were under control, though | On Clinton the only business men lost 2079-3451 482 4239 many of the houses and much of the debris were M. S. Maley and S. Lenhart, while J. Baumgardner. in the burning district were still affame. M. Shoemaker, Emil Roth, S. Ludwick.

ket street, near the school house. From (these two latter druggists), C. O. Luther, C. H. Cook. The following letter from Mr. S. S. Mar- and lumber, until all but three wrecked, a few others, were all saved. vin, Chairman of the Pittsburgh Purchasing structures in the district bounded On Main street J. Streum, Josiah Swank. The Best Methods of Conducting the Figot a Harper's Ferry muscet; he put a beavy load of time shot and buckshot in it, beavy load of time shot and buckshot in it, beavy load of time shot and buckshot in it, beavy load of time shot and buckshot in it, by Market and Wainut streets, and by Main to the sights and experiences of the morning of Johnstown, contains gratifying information.

Touchingly sad are the plantive reference to the sights and experiences of the morning of Johnstown, contains gratifying information.

Saturday evening was devote the blackest of all black Fridays: Committee, to Chairman James McMillen, by Market and Wainut streets, and by Main Geo. Universaght, A. Goldenberg, A. Eldridge, nances of the Sanday School-A. L. Burket. back upon their foundations.

The three brick school houses on the Marhoping, yet dreading to find a friend. We DEAR STR : It was not until yesterday that ket-street lot, which had been but slightly there for 13 months and came home just go upon the streets—streets which were— I became aware of the size and appearance damaged by the flood, were entirely destroyhape, press upon the face or form of still houses are portable, and fold up, like the which though floated from their foundations, other friends not yet uncovered." Again: cover of a book. They are painted inside were in such good condition that both would the thought came that the book did not con- by twenty. You will find that they are very were occupied by people, though some of tain words enough to picture the ghastly quickly set up. We expect that twenty-four them contained household goods. In some horror. Never did words seem so weak and of these houses will arrive in Johnstown cases these were rescued, but the fire spread so rapidly that others were consumed before A whole volume is comprised in the brief We have also ordered furniture for the they could be reached. Dr. Walters lost closing sentence of the artible: "The mis- twenty-four houses. It may not all arrive $500 worth of books, household goods, etc., ery is our own, not to be shared with by in Johnstown until Tuesday, as some of the which he had saved from the wreck and had any, and not to be dismissed until the pres- articles, that we wanted were not here in the stored away in his house. Among the other entageneration has passed away. Those who quantity we required. However, the most houses burned were those of D. J. Jones, J. are left are brothers and sisters now, all bar- important articles, the mattresses, best W. Stevens, E. W. Jones, David E. James, in the common wreck of hope and ambi- chairs, will be there probably by to-morrow An immense crowd of people gathered the mine of its immates. (Saturday). I have had a list of the articles about the fire, and the work of some of the firemen was greatly impeded by some of the turn to the article again - read it, and re-read assistant, Mr. Dilworth, and it will be for more inquisitive ones. About 3 o'clock tienit, and note how one of the grief-stricken warded to you to-night. In addition to the eral Wiley ordered out every soldier in and burdened souls of the flood-swept town articles enumerated, we are prepared to fur. camp, under arms, and they were immedi-

STORY OF THE FLOOD.

How the Catastrophe Was Told in the Paris Figaro. A correspondent, Jacques St. Cere, in the Paris Figaro of June S, gives the following account of the Johnstown disaster. Only a Frenchman could describe Lake Conemangh as 12 miles square, 200 feet deep, and held up by a dam 160 feet high. What supported the remaining 40 feet of water he does not account of the wet weather; the corn will be remaining the liquor element, either directly mention. The description of the watchman a failure all over the country unless we get, or indirectly. on the railway bridge at Pittsburg, who, at | more sun-shine and less rain. Five chairs, one small rocker, one pair red ter counting 115 bodies passing beneath, said Win. Rodgers, of Shade township, whom cently made by the Hon. Judge White, of eight sheets, one cooking stove, one skillet. rich. Following are translations of several cape from the Johnstown flood by the help prohibition in the most reasonable and over teaspoons, three tablespoons, six cups, six frightful inundation which ravaged part of about again in a short time. Mr. R. ownsone White's position to withholding a great saucers, six plates, one cream pitcher, one the United States, and a more dreadful catastrophe has never in America been caused by water. On May 31, after the rain had fat- in repairing and partly rebuilding his house. knives), two spring beds (all metal) two husk len in torrents in Pennsylvania and Mary. He intends to paint it in the very larest land, the city of Johnstown disappeared style. When finished will be one of the finest with its 25,000 inhabitants. Three leagues residences in Middlecresk township.

ed standing. Little by little the barricule the taxable property. rose to a great height, and more than 15,000 If the large sum derived from liquor lipersons floated in the debris, cried for help, cense is cut off by the adoption of a prohibiwhich no one could give. Then the town tory amendment, the other property ownitself disappeared, house by house, street by ers must increase their taxes to make up the street. All at once fire broke out on the wa- deficieticy. ter, and all those who had not been drown- Mr. Frank Rogers, of Shade township, has in the door and said, 'My God Henry don't and that they were published in the HERALD gathered together indicated that at least six surrounded on all sides by the waters. "This hortible scene was described by Mr. August Koehier, the well known pro from Johnstown, 800 persons having disap- the hotel Saturday, 22nd, on Friday evenacter of the calaminity with which we were peared from these trains. Nothing can give ing Mr. Walcher gave a grand opening, at The mutilated bodies were all taken to the pre than the last dispatches received at Pitts- - say, now; take what you want; everything burgh. The last dispatch, deted May 31, is free to-night, boys; I takes beer. 12:30 P. M., sent by the Johnstown tele- Mr. Walcher was to be initiated with a Norg. -- The vote on Amendment to Bules was 1250 for, and 861 against. Majority for, 251.

mittee this morning commenced the con- is something serious. At that moment I Ministerial and Sunday School Construction of the fifty business houses on the thought some bridge might have been carried away and I knew nothing until it was The Ministerial and Sunday School Con-

DISTRICTS.

The sun blistered their bared arms and the debris. A gamin of twelve years, croach- ing sermon on Wednesday evening previous. fetid water poisoned them. The arms of ing on a plank, had come 10 kilometers topic-Peter's Fall and Restoration. both men were swollen out of all proportion without moving for fear he should overturn Rev. T. Bach was president ex officer; they, and the physicians express fittle hope of the his raft. The American journals are filled A. L. Burket, secretary; Rev. G. J. Coleman, assistant secretary : Rev. S. J. Caton, chairsent to a Pittsburgh hospital and Bungard- "The material losses one cannot even up man of reportorial staff.

proximate. We canm belp smiling when There were eleven ministers in attendance. Two new cases of typhoid fever were re- we see with what naivies, with what pride Essays were read on the following subjects ported among the workmen and were taken the American journals announce in im- and discussed by the convention: to the Red Cross Hospital. The Red Cross mense letters: The greatest calastrophe of greater than these of the old world."

vive the Flood. engines are scattered about town, that the In the Johnstown disaster the list of fafires in the First Ward had got beyond the fallties presents some rather remarkable facts. secured ?-C. E. McCauley. On Thursday evening Rev. E. C. Rickenengines on this side of the river were taken loss of houses, stores, offices and shops, one brode preached an ablesermon; topic-Sowto the scene, but considerable difficulty was cannot fail to notice the large number of ling and Resping. experienced in finding convenient plugs, and wives and children that went down amid before water was thrown the flames had the wreck of bridges and crash of buildings, ey. Of the merchants along Clinton, Main and So soon as the attachments were made, the Franklin streets, in Johnstown proper, and J. Real excellent work of the Philadelphia firemen on Morris street, in Kernville, only a few one of the piles of debris that had been fired Ruths, Ed. Fronheiser, F. Bantley, Charley brode. close to a number of frame houses on Mar. McAteer, Dr. Zimmerman, Dr. DeFrance, Women's Work in the Sunday Schoolthese the flames spread to adjoining houses L. Horner, M. Quinn, C. Foster, J. Geis, and Whas should be the Qualifications of a probably one-third could have been moved er, C. Cover, J. Caldwell, M. Levergood, P. Amendment. Schrey, T. Geis, Abe Cohen, Geo. Keiper, D. W. Houpt read a strong essay, after which C. Phillips, John Stenger, Scott Dibert, the question was thoroughly discussed. Charles Griffith, Curt. Campbell, John Thom- A quarterly meeting was held over Sunas, L. M. Woolf, Wm. Masterton, F. Speedy. day. Wm. Stewart and Lon Cohen.

> Alver Akers, and John Brudy are alive; and Out of fliteen lawyers three were lost, viz ;

Marbourg, J. Brinkey and F. Wilson. Washington street sustained the heaviest be avoided, whenever practicable, losses in property and lives, as all stores, shops, hotels, and saloons were swept away. lower ends of Main, Lincoln and Vine streets and destroys many of our fellow-beings though the water covered nearly every tion as expressed in our conference resolu fore the reservoir broke. Items From Over the County. Jacob Koopley, of Quemahoning Townnew barns this season-12 in number.

The corn crop has got the yellow fever on church members co-operating with or pat-of a colored man. He is confined to his bed "We begin to have some details of the with stomach troubles but he expects to be Resolved. That we endorse said Judge W. P. Barron, of Middlecreek township, prohibition.

from the city there was a reservoir, the Wm. Hanna, of near Harnedsville, has Office with F. J. Kooser, Esq.

es than any other county in the State, and offered the amendments in the Convention all directions, and the remnants afterward ed were burned on an immense funeral pile, his sine new barn about completed. Size three railroad employes—sole survivors of prietor of the "Kochter House," of around and got the gun. I got the gun and he started out the back shore I overled the fixed three kilometers up the stream Johnstown. Mr. Walcher took charge of the Executive Committee for great crowd of people, many of them flood three kilometers up the stream Johnstown. Mr. Walcher took charge of a better idea of the rapidity of this catastro- which our genial friend August, with his Draught, Speedy Roadsters, Saddle and Business Herres.

> grapher to her colleague of Pittsburgh, grand dance but owing to the vet evening the Rockwood House, Saturday evening, > July 6, 1889, for the purpose of employing
>
> The dam at the Fork has given way.
>
> The dam at the Fork has given way.
>
> We hear the water, The town has the air
>
> Lookout mountains, or as August says on it was postponed till some other evening.

COMMITTEEMEN.

vention of the Ministers of the Evangelical

The best methods of instructing our prople in the doctrines and polity of our church Regeneration and Sanctification-P. Rec-

The Evangelical Preacher, his office and work-T. Bach. What is a genuine revival, and how is it

The Divine Law of Marriage-E. F. Dick-Vitality of the Bibbs-J. B. Cobum. Pastor's Relation to Young Converts- A. The Necessary Elements of Acceptable

Faith, its Relation to Salvation-S. M. The Pressing Demands of our Missionary The origin of the fire was probably from Frank Maloy, Wm. Updegrave, the two Work on Somerset District-E. C. Ricken-

> Sunday School Teacher !-- 41. J. Colergan. cussion of the proposed Constitutions

On Franklin street all except W. W. Pike, adopted by the convention :

on Morris street not one business man was WHEREAS, Some people, thoughtlessly arrange funeral services on the Sabbath when it might be avoided, thereby making H. G. Rose, Theodore Zimmerman, and unnecessary labor on the Sabhath and dis-The medical profession suffered more than rupting the minister's regular work, to the any other calling. Six prominent, well- detriment of the same, and the injury of his publicly, that funerals on the Sabbath should

RESOLUTIONS ON THEFERANCE. and nearly every residence lost from two to intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, we can-building. The people there generally left tions in favor of the prohibition of intexifor higher ground when the back-water cating liquors as a beverage by Constitution reached their houses, which was hours be- al Amendment. Resolved. That we are glad to avail ourselves of the privilege of voting on said amendment in the near forme. Rooked. That we do all we can, in a leship, had a barn raising on Wednesday, June girimate way to secure this end by voting 10. Quite a lot of Statwart Republicans and for it, by preacting and secturing in its faothers were there. Size of barn 40x80 feet. vor whenever practicable, and by scattering Revited. That we endorse the speech reblankets, one white blanket, two towers, to himself, "This is something serious," is we are always gird to see, made good his en-> many licenses as being a step toward total COMMITTEE. HARVEY M. BERKLEY,

--- OF---IOWA HORSES!

Tuesday, July 2, 1889,

AT IT O'CLOCK, A. R., SHARP,

Among them will be some land 4 year old colts.

D. B. ZIMMERMAN.

VALLEY OF DEATH."

and twenty others have paid the amount re- "But the most terrible thing was that for Schuston, Pa., Jun 22-A terribe thunquired and fifty more have signed an agreement to join with those who will appear as plaintiffs.

Dut the most terrine thing was that for many hours no one knew what had happened and fifty more have signed an agreement to join with those who will appear as plaintiffs.

A thrilling account of the award floods and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening, doing much damage. Several this evening, doing much damage. Several this evening, doing much damage. Several their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of House, and Thouse are sevening and their appairing ruin. Graphic description of the sevening and the sevening one side using all means, both fair and he did, after the church had been without a Durst was sitting near the stove, in which me far the last eight years. After I had tor, Rev. J. H. Sutherland, June 30, at estimated that the members of the club the catastrophe. A watchman on the rail-

Terrific Storm at Scranton.

D. B. Zummerman three days before eac.

We will make an effort to sell every horse on day of sale, without reserve. All borses must be asseparescribed, or no sale. Two and four months

Johnstown Nor Orees. | TORROR,

i, to accomplish their ends, but they failin inister for a considerable period, he has been agreed to intimidate enough voters.

A watchman on the railboy, was seriously injured. The boy was seriously injured. The Past, Present and both the members of the clubinto accomplish their ends, but they failinto accomplish grandest in the United States; it was four torn down his old barn and will replace it leagues square and 200 feet deep. It was with a handsome new one. separated from the valley by a dam 160 feet high. The dam appears to have been in a in this State, as well, can be proud of the the firm of D. 6. Refine Co., Seetin, Pa., destring to refire, has, this lat day of June, 1803, sold all very had condition. The company which big majority that was rolled up at Tuesbuilt it and compelled the city of Johnstown day's election against the Prohibitory to pay a rental, had neglected to make the Amendment. It says that they don't want most necessary repairs, and the dam was their taxes increased any higher as a whole. overthrown by the water which fell in the The farmers in this county pay higher tax-"The nearest villages were pulverized, and it is a plain, common sense proposition that the flood, rolling debris of all kinds arrived at Johnstown. All this rubhish heaped it—mity a large portion of its revenue, that revenue its fature. Settlement Thenang the public for their generous patron up to the future. Settlement the flood, rolling debris of all kinds arrived at Johnstown. All this rubhish heaped it—mity a large portion of its revenue, that revenue is the future. Settlement the flood is the flood of the revenue at Johnstown. The first part of the revenue at Johnstown. The flood of the revenue at Johnstown. at Johnstown. All this rubbish heaped it- trity a large portion of its revenue, that reveself against a railroad bridge which remain- nue must be made up by increased taxes on