A Mountain Murder.

A terrible tragedy, one which is yet veiled in the deepest mystery, occurred in Sallick township, Fayette county, Sunday, August 1st.

Every one knows of the noble and tragic death of Hetty Ogilvie, but few have watched the consistent and well ordered course of her life.

Hetty Ogilvie was born in the beautiful mountain village of Somerset, Pennsylvania, and there she grew to be a cheerful, helpful, and kind hearted young woman.

Her father for many years Recorder of the county. He died a poor man. There were few educational advantages in Somerset, and though Hetty had a strong, well developed mind, had little school training.

Starved into Stealing. QUERT, Mass., August 6.—The woman burglar who was arrested in Braintree last night told a pitiful tale in police court this morning. Her name is Susie Brown, and she had been employed for years as a cook for wealthy Boston families. She pleaded guilty to breaking and entering, and exclaimed as she did so: "I have been starved to death and had to steal."

Her story seems to be true, for when caught last night she had in her possession eggs, sweet potatoes and a loaf of bread. She had not attempted to steal money or articles usually taken by burglars. She was held to await the action of the grand jury.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar. The Chief Reason for the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that this medicine actually accomplishes all that is claimed for it. It not only has the power to purify the blood, but it also purifies the system, and it is the only medicine that will do this.

Merit Wins. A popularity and a success greater than that of any other blood purifier, and it is the only medicine that will do this. It is the only medicine that will do this.
