As Republicans of Mississippi we are com-celled to withdraw our State ticket. We knew that our votes would bestolen and our voters driven from the polls, but we hoped in the larger towns and cities, at least, the semblance of free speech might still remain to us, but our candidates are not safely allowed to discuss or protest. We desire es pecialy to go before the whole people of the state and challenge the Democrats to a comparison of principles and records. Our course has always been conservative. When the armed revolution of 1879, wrested the the most promising of the younger civil en-state from us. Mississippi was the only southern state unburdened with a state lebt. She has a Democratic one to-d y The constitution of the Unit al States guarantees to each state a republican form of government. Mississippi is governed by a minority despotism, and we appeal to our country for redress. The constitution that we adopted is the only one in the south so atisfactory that it has not been changed.

Our laws stand substantialy unchanged and unrepealed, but we are Republicans. This That we are not actuated by cowardice in withdrawing from the contest is shown by our past. For 14 years ever since the infaous Mississippi plan was adopted-our path BODY AND TAPESTRY has been murked by blood. Not only the well-known leaders who died at the head of the column, but the faithful followers known only in the cabins of the lowly.
