Roun, March 5-Buffalo Bill, his cowboys and his Indians have captured Rome, and royalty is again at the feet of the wild Western scout. Wild horses from Duke Sermoneta's famous herd, on the Pontine marshes, were compared by the cowboys. Every man, woman and child in Rome expected that two or three men would be killed in the existiment, and over 2,000 carriages were driven to the scene of the trial. and an audience of 200,000 peopld braved the dripping rain. Lord Dufferin and many other diplomats were present. The horses were captured, saddled, bridled and ridden
