ALHAMBRA

MAIN STREET

Bay Horse 15-3 Lands high, we givt, 1220 pounds, record 2.30. Sired by Mindletown, record 2.25. He has ten in the 2.50 test, running from 2.18 to 2.50. He was sired by Rystyks Hambletorium No. 10, who has sired more speed producing sons and grand than any other horse of his day, being be one than any horse on the training purf. Alhambra's get is sought after, one meanily being sold by R. Wilson, of Bridgeport

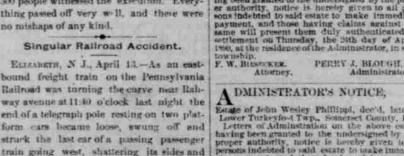

West Virginia, to a party in Kennecky for Sto00 dollars. Henry Schmacker, of Dixon, III, offered one thousand dollars for a three year old son. The offer declined, offere as high as $5000 have been made for one of his Sunol 2 tol, Palo Alto, 212] ; those dat get. We expect to put three of his get in the 2:30 class this foll. Parties wishing to breed for speed, or family drivers, occurg to his kind disposition cannot find his optals in the county. His fees are not had his real relies. There are not had his real value. Terms $25,00

Grey in color, weighing 1,800, got by Invarurie, will also OHN, stand at my farm at $10 insurances. This horse has a good reputation for breeding toppy, stylish, good, active horses.

STRATHEARN, Bay horse imported from Scotlaw by Powell Brothers, and weight Bay horse imported from Scotland ton or over. Will stand at Meyersdale and Berlin, beginning April 14th at stable of Mr. Briel, in Meyersdale. Second week at Berlin, and alle nate week about, at $15 insurance. Parties losing colts, half price : lo ing mare and colt, no charge. Strathearn is and oubtedly the finest Club Horse in the county, and is so acknowledged by our hest horsenen. If a colts have sold for more money than any other Draft Colts in the count, Walt Heffley sold one, coming three years old, to the Farmers' Stock C at Stoyestown, for $500. Two others, same age, to parties in Ohi $300-each. Peter Dumbauld sold a gelding three years old, past, 1 $280, the highest price ever realized for a gelding in the county. Joint Meyers, near Berlin, bred, and has a weanling that weighs 900 pound Weanlings repeatedly sell for $100 to $115. It only pays to breed to the best, and it is the big draft horse, weighing fifteen to eighteen han dred, with action like a pony, that commands the big prices, and in breeding to this horse you get the remarkable action. To the breeder 12 of Berlin and vicinity, it seems unnecessary to say anything. As te the stockmen of the Meversdale district, we can assure them that they never had a superior Clyde in their section.

I will also stand my i blood Clyde horse, Prince, brown in color, weighing inter-Parties wishing to breed to a chica er house can do so at $10.00 insurance. We stand as follows: First week, beginning April 14th, at Berlin; second week, beginning april 14th, beginning april 14th, at Berlin; second week, beginning april 14th, second week, beginning april 14th, beginning appil 14th, beginning appi dag April 21st, at Somerset-week about throughout the searon. This horse is we known in Berlin as a remarkable sto k getter. His dam, known as the flemming P. S.-Persons paying taxes on any of the lands advertised before the day of sale, will be charged res. w. tehing 1960 and being by old Nigger. $500 was refused for 1 er. P. HEFFI P. HEFFLEY.
