A curious story about a story is told it connection with "A Frankenstein Family," by the Rev. John Bradley Gilman, which is to be published in Hurper's Buzur May 20th. The central conceit in Dr. Bradley's tale is identical with that in Rev. Edward Everett Haie's recent extravaganza, "Susau's Escort." Before the latter story was published in the May number of Harper's Magazine, Dr. Brad ley and Dr. Hale happened one day to com pare notes about their literary work, and discovered that the same idea for the basis of a short story had occurred to both of them about the same time. The coincidence ends, however, with the idea. The development of the idea in both stories is altogethe

SAPOLIO is one of the best known city luxuries and each time a cake is used an hour is saved. On floors, tables and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans and metals it has no equal. If your store-keeper does not keep it you should insist upon his doing so, as it always gives satisfaction and its immense sale all over the United States makes it an almost necessary article to any well supplied store. Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.
