Our physicians are the best men about town.

It is reported that Confidence is to have a weekly paper.

Myersdale claims a population of 1850 and Berlin 900.

Mrs. E. E. Klemm, of Pittsburg, is at the Somerset House.

H. B. Pilsner, the Berlin banker, was circulating among his Somerset friends yesterday.

Miss Dora Magie, of Uniontown, is a guest at the residence of her uncle, A. J. Hillman, Esq.

Judge Bar and wife have gone to Silver Lake, Pa., on their way to New Jersey, for a three week's stay.

The corner-stone of the new Reformed church at Uniontown will be laid on Sunday, the 29th inst.

Mrs. Thos. G. McCullough and Mrs. Elmer Collier, of Allegheny City, are the guests of Mrs. C. J. Harrison.

J. E. Williams has been appointed postmaster at Uniontown, and John Ross at Somerset, this county.

The application of Joseph and David Nicely for a rehearing has been refused by the Board of Pardons, has been continued.

Mr. William Walter, of Latrobe, is visiting friends in Somerset. He was a school boy here thirty years ago.

Rev. J. P. Shearer, of the Lutheran church, preached at Uniontown before a large congregation Sunday evening.

Mr. Sam Kanton's many friends will be sorry to learn that he has been recently afflicted with an attack of indomitable rheumatism.

"Billy" Waite, M. P. Kenny and "Foss" Walter, of the Somerset, & Columbia, are down in New York City and the New Jersey seaside resorts this week.

A large frame double-house, occupied by Mr. Reynolds and the family of a young married son of Dr. Fichtner, at Confluence, was entirely consumed by fire shortly after noon, Friday. Loss about $2500; no insurance.

An oxen portrait of "uncle Joe" Shuttman is on exhibition at Fisher's book store.

It is the work of his granddaughter Miss Mildred Cook, who has just returned from a tour of the world, and is a portrait of the young lady possessing more than ordinary artistic ability.

Mr. Joseph C. Baker, of the most estimable and well known citizens of Shade township, died at his home Monday morning. The manner of his death was a great shock to his family as he had been well to the point of feeling well. He was about sixty years of age.

James Anwalt, M. D., of Greensburg, is visiting at the residence of Mrs. John M. Hollenderman. Many guests are expected to be present at the dinner, to be given at the residence of Mrs. Anwalt, on Saturday evening, August 2nd, at 7 o'clock.

At a meeting of the Borough School Board last Wednesday evening, the following corps of teachers were elected for the ensuing term: Principals, W. H. Cover, Assistant, W. H. Cover, E. H. Harris, No. 2, R. E. Harris, No. 3, Miss Cora Kepper, No. 4, Miss Emma Huston, No. 5, W. W. Upp, No. 6, Miss Kate Snyder, No. 7, Miss Mattie Miller, No. 8, Mrs. Mary J. Connelly. The school term was extended to eighth month.

We find on our table the first number of the Somerset Herald, a new weekly journal edited and published by Geo. H. Subrin, a native of this county, who has been in the business for twenty years and is one of the best equipped newspaper men in this section of the State. The new journal is attractive in appearance and in the character of its news, and we have no doubt will meet with the success we wish it, and which its editor so ardently desires.

The syndicate who have been engaged for several months in drilling for oil gas near Greensburg, in Greensburg, Pa., have been compelled to abandon work. Ten days ago they laid their drill in the bottom of the hole, and all efforts to fish it out proved unavailing. Mr. Borland, who had charge of the work, although discouraged, has not given up the hope of striking oil gas in this county, and proposes to sink a well in the neighborhood of Rockwood.

Major John M. Hollenderman had a very narrow escape from serious injury Friday. He had dined at a north city hotel, and attended the Reigler sale and was accompanied by a young grandson, Howard Conwell. They both alighted from the buggy, the Major turning to the wheels to secure his cane and the boy going forward to see a friend. As the horse suddenly started, the young man was thrown from the seat, and the Major, who was powerless to help himself, several times. He sustained a number of ugly and annoying bruises.

Mr. Horace Miller, eldest son of our esteemed fellow townsman "Judge" Daniel S. Miller, who left Somerset ten years ago to seek fame and fortune in the "wild and woolly west" is home on his first visit in his native county, and he is here with the good news of his successful career. He has been a resident of St. Joe, Missouri, where he is connected with a large commission house. Like hundreds of our other western friends he can't understand why the people of Somerset will continue to live in the "old times" when there are so many thousands of acres of fertile land west of us waiting to be tilled.

The Johnston Tribune of Monday contained the following item regarding Ed. Richardson, who will be remembered as the man who had charge of the Steeple boys during their confinement in the old jail:

"Some half dozen kids were loitering in the Somerset park near the saw mill early in the afternoon of the 21st inst. Richardson, who was the signal for the boys to jump out of the water, pick up their clothes and run. The policeman followed them into the densely settled district of the Seventh Ward. It was a pretty sight—the policeman being in parade uniform and the kids in undergarments."

A telegram announcing the death of Edward Liddy, M. D., at his home in Detroit Michigan, was received by his relatives residing in this place, Monday morning. During the early years of his promising professional career he was located in Somerset, having been born in Somerset township sixty-one years ago. Removing to Detroit he soon became one of the most eminent practitioners in that city, and acquired a wide reputation. He was married and had a large circle of friends here who will be grieved to learn of his death. He had been a widower for a number of years, and leaves an only son.

Monday morning while Mrs. Wm. H. Koons and the Misses Snyder, of Springfield, O., who are her guests, were returning from a drive, the horses took fright on the hilltop west of town, and turning suddenly, upset the carriage. Fortunately for the occupants the carriage broke, and the horses were not dragged over the road by the driver, who ran a short distance. None of the ladies appeared to be injured, saving a few slight bruises, and the small boy who was driving the team was sent to town for another vehicle. Gen. Koons hurried to the scene of the accident, and returned to town in a short time with his wife, in a farmer's buggy. Mrs. Koons was suffering from a severe cold, and the doctor, who was called in by Dr. M. Louthan, upon examination, discovered that her collar-bone had been broken.

Strangest Case of Ivy Poisoning.

Mrs. Olive Kaeper, of this borough, is suffering from a peculiar and agonizing attack of what is termed "ivy poison." Mrs. Kaeper, her husband, and two of their daughters drove over the mountain to Bedford on the third of the month to spend several days at the residence of an uncle. On their return trip the ladies alighted from the carriage at different points coming up the mountain and waited for a short distance. Mrs. Kaeper has no recollection of having touched any of the poisonous vine that presumably caused her ailment, but during the trip, but shortly after arriving home her face became swollen beyond recognition. A physician was called in and he once pronounced it "ivy poison." The swelling continued in different parts of her face several days and then located in her arms and hands. It is said to be very painful and extremely annoying and can be contracted by inhaling the poisonous vapor certain species of ivy throw off.

Myersdale Republicans Ratify.

The Republicans of Myersdale and adjoining districts held a ratification meeting at the residence of the Hon. J. H. Koons, on Friday evening, July 20th, at 7 o'clock. Dr. S. S. Good presided with a full complement of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The crowd was one of the largest that ever assembled in the county for the purpose of ratifying state and county nominations. The hall was crowded with members of the party, and the meeting was a most successful one. Dr. S. S. Good presided with a full complement of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Our County Population.

Found in a Corner-Stone.

Rev. Hiram King, of the Reformed church, dropped into our office the other day and permitted us to look over a copy of the Herald. He was in the city on business, and had been taken from the corner stone of the Reformed church, recently torn down at Lavanville. The Herald was a good looking paper thirty-five years ago, and had a good supply of advertisements.

Mr. Moriah Toms.

The English sparrows and blackbirds are doing considerable damage to the wheat fields. Philip C. Mowry was thrown from a Detroit young horse and badly injured, one day last week.

A Strange Story.

Captain Josiah Hinson, of Napier township, tells a remarkable story of a wedding witnessed at Beaufort, South Carolina, in 1843. He was attached to the Fifty-fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, and one day visited the Seventy-third Regiment to see their friends. As the bridegroom returned to the ladies alighted from the carriage at different points coming up the mountain and waited for a short distance.

Passengers from Pittsburg, East Liberty, East Uniontown, Conemaugh, Scottsdale, Stoneville, Greensburg, or Johnstown, may take the evening train leaving Pittsburg for Philadelphia at 4:30 and 8:10 P. M., and proceed to the shore the next morning.

The first of these excursions was a grand affair, and similar good fortune is predicted for the excursion from Johnstown to East Liberty, and a special leave in regard to this excursion may be obtained by addressing Thomas E. Watt, Passenger Agent, Eastern District, 110 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg.

At Fisher's Book Store.

A nice line of Baby Carriages at Fisher's Book Store. City boarders and temporary sojourners can rent baby carriages at Fisher's Book Store. This is the place, also, to buy Hammocks, Novels, Magazines, Reviews, and other reviews, and all kinds of reading matter, either light or heavy. A large assortment of stationery is also kept for general literary people and people of all sorts. You will not find every day make a habit of "dropping in" to Fisher's Book Store.

A Plague of Toads.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 15.—The sensation in this city at present is a toad invasion. There are millions of the hoppers about the size of a grain of corn, that cover the streets and sidewalks of the city.

Throw the Child into the Grate.

WELLSVILLE, July 10.—A big sensation was caused here this evening by the arrest of Dr. H. B. Bagley, William Carter, a business man, and Miss Margaret Post, daughter of the Post of West Alexander, Pa., on a charge of murder. The warrants were sworn out by Miss Flossie Griggs, of this city, who says that on February last, Dr. Post brought his daughter from West Alexander to this city and left her at William Carter's residence. She was to become a mother, and Dr. Bagley was called in on the 11th of February. A child was born, which the doctor killed at the request of the mother, and Carter buried the body in the grate in the room.
