New York Press: ix-Postmuster General Frank Hatton has sen in New York for several days. Whatime he has not spent in praising Mr. Blue's Cuba and Porto Rico sugar letter haseen spent in denounc ing the Federal Elecon bill. Hatton's oldtime animosity for A. Blaine is well known. It was so deep that a thought nothing Mr. Blaine could say or . was worthy of praise. When I commenteen his change of attitude toward the Sectary of State Mr. Hatton replied: "Well must tell you a story about General Logs. He was making a speech one night wen a long-haired individual bobbed up ithe audience to interrupt him on accountf statements he made about the solid finicial policy of the Republican party.
