

nd to all instrume corrusted to his care and adjusting counties, with prompa-delity. Other on Main Cross Street, o's Mook Store. every kind and at money-saving prices on every item. Write our Mail Order Department for particulars, or for samples, or for copy of our ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Summerset, Pa. Illustrated Catalogue and Fashion Journal.

Marmasokh Block, up stairs. Entrance Cross Street. Collections made, estates its cantined, and all legal business al-with promptions and fidulity.

HITE

•

Boggs & Buhl, sores, and the like, take only 115, 117 119, and 121 Federal Street, blood and general debility, becoming finally, so reduced that I was unfit for work. Noth for that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. suits me." 1 take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases." - C. Evick, 14 E. Main st., Chillicothe, Onio. has be ?"

"No. Tell me exactly how it happened "" "Certainiy! Grantly invited his cot I, of course, left the table after desert ; dazzled now ?" about an hour later I was passing through At last he rose to take his leave, asking mirk : think she would suit me. What will wondering why she could not get " that There are natures so gracious that the you bet that I don't make her break her man " out of her mind. To say that their future intercourse VOW ?" was pleasant is a dull phrase to describe " A thousand dollars," said Harry. " Done !" said Mr. Cooke. When our it. Each being bent upon making a conparty starts for Saratoga in May, the quest of the other, their best powers charming widow will join us as Mrs. Hor- were exerted, their richest treasures of wit, accomplishment and thought, disace Cooke." "I went up stairs, but I determined to played ; and somehow Mr. Booke began put you on your guard, for to-night, at to feel ashamed of his wager, and Mrs. our house, you will mest him." Dayton wished she had never seen Hor-"Never fear for me. I'll have him at ace Cooke. my feet in a week," and again the silvery It was one lovely day in early spring laugh rang through the parlor. that he called to take her to ride, and GRO. R. SCULL. Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Cooke were found her sad and dispirited. Fortunes standing a few hour's later in the for- would not have made her confess it, but tain ?" asked a passenger, guiltless of a Mrs. Forbes - and went to the next place mer's brilliantly lighted parlors. There the gay widow was in love. EDWARD SCYLL, : : : : : PRESIDENT were beautiful women and handsome They were out of town, driving through VALESTINE HAY, : : VICE PRESIDENT men all around them, but the star of the an avenue of splendid trees, when Mr. "I'm not always off the Banks." ANDREW PARKER, : : : : : CASHIER, evening was not there. It was a fancy Cooke began to talk of love. It aroused party, and Mrs. Harrington, a lovely lit- the widow from her depression, to ward per over some biunder of a workman, side. the blonde, in a piquant flower girl's off the thrusts she felt he was making at and spoke his mind not only freely but Now, dear reader, this is not a funcy dress, made quite a charming |contrast to her secret. the tall brigand beside her, whose fine "Love !" she said, scornfally. " Bah ! ashamed of the outbreak. are securely protected in a celebrated Cor-liss Burglar-proof Safe. The only Safe figure and dark, handsome face, suited A school boy's first passion before he "Oh, well, papa, I dare say he didn't wall his dress. " May I tell your fortune?" said a name. An old man's doting is called "Those people are probably used to being and peace."-Christian Advertic. sweet, low voice beside the couple, and love !" they turned. One quick glance passed "Yet the holiest, highest feeling of "I am not his superior," said the genbetween the speaker and Mrs. Harring- the heart of man in his prime of power tleman, testily. "I was very probably ton, and then the hostess passed on to re-has no higher name," said her compas his inferior this afternoon. I lost my to leave in five minutes. An elegantly toman, and the natural growth of the present these two accomplishments-" Stay, lady, let me tell your fortune," said the gypsy. "No, tell my friend's. Mr. Cooke, I it is with men. From the time they down, he answered with perfect politebeg your pardon, Conrad, you will listen, walk to school beside the hoydenish girl ness." beg your pardon, Conrad, you will listen, and she moved away. Mr. Cooke's eyes until they are seventy they fancy they There is no more unmistatuable sign of the window and is about to throw out the "This difference in colors is due to the and experience proves that it is almost were riveted upon his companion, and he are in love. Every pretty face calls forth good breeding than patience and goodmechanically offered his hand for her the protestation of a passion you just humor in trying circumstances. A lady perusal. She was a startling, beautiful figure. and to the fifty-first flame is offered the through a rough and jostling crowd, said Her scarlet skirt, short and full, was em- battered, worn-out heart, as if it were that after the experience was over she broidered in gold with strange figures, bran new and fresh." and the tiny foot it left exposed was cased in a scarlet boot embroidered in the same way. The body of the dress was of Sam'l Suyder, Jonas M. Cook, white muslin, made full, but cut so as to leave the neck and arms bare. A brilliant Harrison Snyder, Noah S. Miller, scarf was bound from the right shoulder to make a full bow at the left side. A turban of white was on the hair which fell beneath it it in rich, black masses, almost to the wearer's feet. A Money and valuables secured by one of Div-buid's Celebrated Safes, with most approved time graceful figure, medium height, large, black eyes, a rich, clear complexion with low, tender cadence. a bright color, completed the picture. " Your fortune," she said, as she dreamily scanned the palm of his hand, "to woo where you can-" Oils! Two waltzers whirled in between the ouple, and when Mr. Cooke again looked the gypsy was gone. It was a long time before he saw her again ; but at last he found her. She was standing alone near a table, lazily turning the leaves of an annual. It was in a little sitting-room leading from the parlor, and she was its sole occupant. " Will you not finish telling my fortune ?" said he, coming in, " Oh," she said, " I dare not. My spell was so violently broken I am afraid to renew it." "Afraid ! I read your face wrongly. I should have said the spirit shining through your eyes scorned fear." Satisfactory Oils "So, while I studied your hand, you speculated about my face ?" him, and not try to read it ?"

He has never even as much as seen yon, FOR ERUPTIONS And all disorders originating in impurity of the blood, such as boils, enrouncies, pimples, blotches, salt-theum, scald-head, acrofulous laughing merrily. "Ah, me, he has mis- seat at the instrument to recall to her hand. taken me ; I have had enough of matri- memory a favorite air. His voice was " How are we to get home ?" she said, mony, and my present life of freedom good, his accompaniment showed skill abruptly. her companion, Mrs. Grantly Harrington. power.

and taste, and bent upon dazzling the "We must walk to the nearest house, "I admire the man's impudence," said widow, he sang with much feeling and and then hire a carvinge." "Do you remember this?" he asked, they said in that long walk, but Iknow you'll like them. Mr. Bargest isn't a which, to be properly appreciated, must Martha, after finishing his own song. She replied by singing the first notes. The first not She replied by singing the first notes. A bold chord supporting her occasionally inst clause was kept I know not, but earin, Harry Vaughn, George Coates, and she gradually let her voice out in all its ly in the following fall Mrs. Dayton be- Mr. Burgess' family, but Miss Wilhins tontion should be given in laying out this irresistible Horace Cook to dine with rich beanty, and his blended with it. He came Mrs. Horace Cooke. him yesterday. After presiding at dinner sang low, listening intently. Ah ! who is Kindly Courtesy.

You'll find her a very nice woman. She ing with a thicket of foliage is that it doesn't look bulf as good as she is. She sinuts out the views of immediate and is the kindest person in sickness you ever distant scenery, and the house, as an obsaw, and the gives a great deal to the ject of the local lundscape, is hidden from 12001. "Now, I will not tell you, reader, what

Now, there was an awful skeleto

Good health is particularly necessary for the teacher, as the labors of the school-room draw so constantly and heavily on the vocal, mental and nervous forces. Teachers need to be continually on their gnard against anything which view. If the structure has any artistic

"Your neighbors over the way, I guess merit, it should in itself form a feature being. This precaution has also a moral Of course, the more liberal and thordation on which the teacher's work is based ; but there have been many great teachers, for the possession of knowledge by no means implies the ability to impart it. It is safe to assume that natural talent in this direction is the best possible test of the "born teacher." In addition to what is usually included in a liberal education, a knowledge of the comparatively modern science of psychology is indispensable, familiarity with the laws which control the development of mind being the material upon which the teacher enclosively works. If she succeeds in her work without this knowledge her meress will result "more from of science has but lately been accorded its proper place in our curriculum, but every day strengthens its claim to be considered the corner-s one of every ednestional structure. Martin Luther asserts in hispast-iron style of rhetoric, "Unless a schoolmaster knows how to sing I think him of no account." Such a test would materially decrease the number of pedagogues ; old fightion iden is, that all the red and ing is sufficient reason for its use, even if golden glory we see now is caused by no other existed; but it is peculiarly frusts. A true and scientific explanation valuable as a source of enjoyment to language, those causes are there: The hand of the teacher. Nothing so much green matter in the tissue of a leaf is helps to make instruction clear and imcomposed of two colors, red and hine. pressive as simple and rapid illustration, and experience proves that it is almost patience and kindness of good breeding abort time before, and how tenderly his It has long been recognized as a genseem theirs by inheritance.

times in fifteen minutes.

frained from speaking. In disagreeable preciation for Carrie Stokes, who was perhaps nearer the facts to state that, in the arrangement of farms harmony will speech of the sea captain, irritated by an to school and prepare herself for a prove more pleasing than contrast.off repeated quary.

teacher. "Is it always foggy off the Banks, capsuspicion that he might offend.

violently, that night professed himself sketch. Miss Wilkins is a woman of thesh abused by their superiors."

The Lady and the Cigar. "Man." she said, scornfully. "Man like a fish-wife, and though he looked as eigar, when the old lady says: tried to dignify. They love fifty times, who, with a friend, was making her way turned to see how her companion had

"You wrong us," he said, roused in borne it. his turn by the keen satire in her tone "I was in a state of burning indignaand look. "Though each admiration of tion at having been pushed and almost boyhood and youth may call forth a trampled on," said she. "But Mary! passing feeling, it is evanescent and pass- She was as sweet as a May morning, and es like a ripple on deep water. But when placid as a summer sky. I thought she some pensants, where he could smoke instance, why one of two frees growing the depths of these waters are stirred the must have been treated better than I, but undisturbed. hurricane of real, carnest true love, it is on looking more closely, I found she was no subject for jeers ; but if not calling for patiently holding up her skirt which a return, it at least merits sympathy and had been torn from the waist, and that comfort, and he let his voice fall int a her cherished parasol was lost." Doubtless the one woman was quite as Mrs. Dayton felt uncomfortable, and uncomfortable as the other, but Mary the laughing response which rose to her knew how to meet the ills of life, but lips died there, She longed to tell him her friend had not yet learned. All her belief in his doctrine. They were honor to her who meets not only great going slowly, quietly along, each occu- sorrows but daily misfortunes with a pied with their own thoughts, when the cheerful countenance! She is the genn- There is a vacant sent next to an old scream of a locomotive startled the ine lady, the true "giver of bread" to fady; just take it." horse, and he dashed forward at a full friends and family.

"Are you quite well, Jannie ?" asked There was a rush, a crash, and they an anxious mother, who had reached her were on the roadside-the horse a man- daughter's home to find it invaded by gled corpse ; the carriage thrown violent- scarlet fever. "Yes dear, except that my face aches."

ly back several feet ; Mr. Cooke insensible on the grass, and Mrs. Dayton on "Your face? From your teeth ?" "No, mamma, from smiling. You see, the other side of the road, uninjured.

Mrs. Dayton sat up, and with a nerv. not only are the children sick, but the ous, hysterical laugh, called her compan- water pipes have burst, there's a church ion's name. He did not answer; she quarrel to be settled, I've scorched the went to his side; he was still white, in- front of my new exshmere, and Alfred sensible, and she thought him dead. has had so many headaches this week With a wild cry she raised his head to that he couldn't write his sermon. So roundings is the first point to which atdidn't say a word about it. She didn't grounds. A house should not appear to touch a the scholars who have proved very poor understand skeletons, perhaps, She have risen out of the green lawn like a didn't tell them anything at all about tree. It is necessary that some evidence the elegant robes she mude the week be- be apparent of suitable preparation for about an hour later I was passing infough and receiving permission to call again ; "I grease the wheels of life with monand Mrs. Dayton took up a book, threw ey," said a wealthy man, "and my wife went to Saratega. She didn't even allode ine with the lines of the ground plan. "So this charming widow, Mrs. Day- it aside, practiced a few moments, and does it with politeness. She gets along to the scandal that set all the village gos- Zigzag and curving walks close to the "So this charming widow, Mrs. Day-ton, has vowed never to marry again. I stopped when she found she was singing with far less friction than I do, how-size to wagging their tangues the week straight lines of a large, or even the most > damphter had ministered to him in his eral principle that round-headed trees "What made you tell her so many declining years; how little Toning Siz- contrast best with the perpendicular lines times ?" asked a sympathetic bystander vens got ran over and how the village of Cothic architecture, and those of a who had heard a railway official answer doctor took him to his own house and pointed or conic shape with the horizonthe same question for an old lady six treated him till his broken be was all tal lines of Gracian. It may be question- good luck than good looking to," or be sound again. She told Mrs. Forbes IT ed whether either of these rules is abso- the outcome of a happy intuition which, "Why, she didn't understand," replied she ever wanted nice faundry work done lutely correct; cettain it is that there he, simply, evidently a little surprised at Tommy's mother would do it for her and may be found compositions of expressive the suggestion that he could have re- give satisfaction. She had a word of ap- beauty, where the rule is reversed. It is there was not one word that Mrs. Fothers " Probably not one person in a thous-"How do I know?" snarled the explain. could recall that reflected unfavorably on and knows why leaves change their colher feiles townsteen, she had seemed or in the fall," remarked an eminent bot- is of the greatest service to the teacher. A gentleman who one day lost his temand blood, though she does not bear that of the causes of the coloring of leaves children, and a go at aid in the preservaname, and she carries with her every- would recessitate a long, and intricate tion of order. Even a little knowledge leaves pinafores is dignified with that mind," said a too aristocratic listoner. where "an atmosphere of grave, meny discussion. Stated briefly and is proper of drawing places a mighty power in the The train from Paris to Versailles was When the sap ceases to flow in the au- particularly in the primary grades. At dressed gentleman entered a first class tree ceases, ovidation of the tissue takes improperly so termed, for they are really in his prime of power! I'll tell you how if he would have liked to knock me carriage. He has a burning cigar in his place. Under cortain conditions the essentials-are required in most schools when he perceives an elderly lady in the different conditions it takes on a yellow teachers of to-morrow, are receiving thor-difference in combination of the original Box't you know that you are forbidden constituents of the green tissue, and to as instinctive for them to sing and draw to smoke in a first-class carriage when there are ladies in it ?" are and sail. A dry, cold climate produ-

> > Manurillian Aprovalitaria

Why the Leaves Turn.

Grangers for Delamater.

"My dear madame, you see I was just ees more brilliant falinge than one that about to anticipate your wish by throw- is damp and " arm. This is the reason ing away my eigar. However, I will not that our American antimns are so much disturb you further, and howing very more gorgeous than those of England. at Niagara Fails on their wedding jourskilly he left the car, and purchasing a There are several things about leaves ney. They had wandered rapturonsly think-class ticket he took his seat among that even science manot explain. For side by side, of the same age and having There was sitting near the gantleman the same exposure, should take on a horribly of garlie, and who was about as should turn yellow, or why one branch tributed handsomely to the support of disagreenblen neighbor as can well be im- of a tree should be highly colored and several princely hack drivers ; paid for autined.

"My good fellow," said the gentleman, tint, are questions that are as impossible "did you ever ride in a first-class car- to answer as why one member of a fami- with great success by prowling photoliage T er eichty. Maples and oaks have bright-"Well, here's a Ecket that I can't use, est colors, "- Full and Farm, Just you go into that first class carriage.

The mun, why was sadly in need of ! lisinfectatits, did as he was toid. A few ninutes after he entered the first class seringe the doors were closed and off went the train, which does not stop at any of the stations between Paris and Versnilles. You can imagine whether or not the gentleman got even.

Be Merciful to the Beasts. bandry for fourteen yours," snid Mr.

There can be no excuse to treat animals Contshall last night, "and from my ruelly. Brutal treatment to man or knowledge of the members I am sure my darling."

Time Works Wonders.

Mr. and Mrs. Calendala C. Rate were about arm in arm, listening to the roar of the mighty cataract. They had bought bead-work moccasins and pin cushioons from Indian squaws who spoke with a a wretched looking tramp, who smelled brilliant red in the fall and the other strong Tipperary accent; they had conthe rest of the tree have only a yellow the right to look at the falls from all the eligible points of view, and been hunted ly should be perfectly healthy and anoth- graphic banditti.

And now they stood in the Cave of the Winds.

The thunder of Ningara overpowered them. The earth trambled benenth them. They looked at each other, and H. M. Cutshall, of Crawford county, a their lips moved, but if any sound came farmer member of the Executive Com- from them it could not be heard in the mittee of the State Grange, and one of deafening roar. Calendula pressed the the best-known farmers in Northwestern little hand that lay confidingly on his Pennsylvania, said the other stay that arm, and led his fair young bride from the built of the grangers would vote for the cave with all possible speed. Senator Delamater, nitwithstanding the "Japonics," he said, tenderly, when frantic efforts of Leonard Rhone to have they had regained the open air, "do you them do otherwise. "I have been a know why I could not bear to linger in member of the Order of Pairons of Hus- that horrible place ?" "No. Why was it ?"

"I could not hear your beloved voice, beast should be alike put under the law. that the most of them will vote for the Five years had passed. Mr. and Mrs.

"Never."

