a Printing House Row, opposite Cour EGRGE R. SCULL, J. G. OGLE. TOLNEYS AT LAW, SOMERSET, PA.

J. KOOSER. S. ENDSLEY.

L BAER, W. H. RUPPEL

OFFROTH & RUPPEL, entrasted to the are will be purchashy attended to. Office on the opposite Manmoth Block.

M. H. KOONTZ, ATTORNET-AT-LAW. servet, Pa.

EN O. KIMMEL. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa., to all business untrusted to his care AMES L PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, n Nammoch Block, up states. Entrance (was Street. Collections made, estates also examined, and all legal business at-with promptions and fidelity. L. C. CULBORN. LEGEN & COLBORN.

entrusted to our care will be faithfully attended to. Collections HENRY, F. SCHELL, and Pension Agent. Office in Mammoth TALENTINE HAY, ATTORNEY AT-LAW. iso Dealer in Real Fatate. Will attend to all

JOHN H. UHL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, vill promptly attend to all business entrusted

DR. P. F. SHAFFER. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

W. CARUTHERS, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, SCHEESET, PA. Scheese Main street, mort door to Luthern with. Night calls at office. R. H. S. KIMMELL mices his professional services to the citizens shower and vicinity. Unless professionally use he can be found at his office on Main St. R. J. M. LOUTHER, is located permanently in Somerset for the R. J. S. M'MILLEN, to special attention to the processation cannot seek. Artificial sets inverted. A tiers guaranteed satisfactory, Office in the state M. M. Tredwell & Co.'s store, come Cross and Patriot streets.

See in Knepper's Block up-stairs, where he

CURTIS K. GROVE, SOMERSET, PA

SPRING WAGONS, BUCK WAGONS. AND EASTERN AND WESTERN WORK Furnished on Short Notice. Painting Done on Short Time, work is made but if Thoroughly measured Wood, and the Root free and Steel, Substantially Constructed, Neatly Pluished, and Wattached to give Satisfaction.

All Work Warranted.

Call and Examine my Stock, and Learn Prices

Ella. Economber the place, and call in.

CURTIS K. GROVE, SOMERSET, PA

WANTED:-

CUT TO ORDER. W. C. WHITE LUMBER CO.,

No. 19 Rullimore St., Camberland, MA.

Benn's National Liniment ----------

Swellings. FOR MAN OR DRAWN

The Somerset Herald

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XXXIX. NO. 15.

S:JACOBS OIL

FRHEUMATISM.

CIJACOBS OF

REMEBYMPAIR

FOR RHEUMATISM.

Suffered Nearly Thirty Years.

For nearly 30 years I suffered with rheuma-tiam in arm and shoulder; could not hit my arm. Less than two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil cured me.

THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Ballimore, Md.

The Use Of

cure it. What is needed is a medicine that

Aver's Pills,

which, while thorough in action, strengthen as well as stimulate the bowels and excretory stipation, which at last became so had that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the than any other pill I ever took." — Mrs. B. C. Gribb, Burwellville, Va. "For years I have been subject to constipation and nervous headaches, caused by de-rangement of the liver. After taking various remedies, I have become convinced that Aper's Pills are the best. They lave never fulled to relieve my billions attacks in a stort time; and I am sure my system retains its tone longer after the use of these Pills, than has been the case with any other medicine I have tried."-H. S. Siedge, Welmar, Texas.

Effective

Ayer's Pills,

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Dealers in Medicine,

-THE-

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

-- OF ---

Somerset, Penn'a.

-0-

DEPOSITS RECEIVED IN LARGE AND SMALL

AMOUNTS. PAYABLE ON DEMAND.

ACCOUNTS MERCHANTS, FARMERS,

STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED.

- DISCOUNTS DAILY. -

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

FRED W. BERSHOKER.

GEO. R. SCHLL.

LARUE M. HICKS. W. H. MILLER,

JAMES L. PUGH, CHAS. H. FISHER,

JOHN R. SCOTT.

"For eight years I was afflicted with con-

CUTS,

SPRAINS

BRUISES

M BALL

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 2045.

It is to Your Interest

JOHN N. SNYDER.

None but the purest and best kept in stock, ing, as certain of them do, we destroy them, rather than impose on our customers.

You can depend on having your

PRESCRIPTIONS & FAMILY RECEIPTS

any other first-class house and on many articles much lower. The people of this county seem to know this, and have given us a large share of their patronage, and we shall still continue to give them the very best goods for their money.

Do not forget that we make a specialty of FITTING TRUSSES.

had trouble in this direction, give as a call.

SPECTACLES AND EYE-GLASSES in great variety; A full set of Test Lenses. Come in and have your eyes examined. No charge for examination, and we are confident we can suit you. Côme and see us.

> Respectfully, JOHN N. SNYDER.

THE LEAST MONEY?

WE HAVE THEM.

Dishes.

AND ROCKINGHAM WARE, IN GREAT VARIETY.

BASKETS, LOOKING-GLASSES, HANGING LAMPS, STAND LAMPS Lamps of all Descriptions.

Novelties and Oddities in China THE PLACE FOR

FANCY & STAPLE GROCERIES IS AT THE STORE OF

ED. B. COFFROTH, SOMERSET, PA

VALENTINE HAY, : : VICE PRESUMENT ANDREW PARKER, : : : : CASHIER.

The funds and securities of this bank Valuable Real Estate.

are securely protected in a celebrated Corliss Burgiar-proof Safe. The only Safe made absolutely Burglar-proof.

OF SOMERSET, PA. 1111-0-1 Established, 1877. Organized as a National, 1890

CAPITAL $50,000. -- :0:---

Chas. I. Harrison, Pres't Wm. B. Frease, Vice Pres't. Milton J. Pritts, Cashier. -----

DIRECTORS:

Sam'l Snyder, Jonas M. Cook, John Stufft, Harrison Snyder, Nouh S. Miller, Wm. Endsley

Money and valuables secured by one of Die oid's Celebrated Safes, with most approved tim Collections made in all parts of the United ates. Charges moderate.

Accounts and Deposits Solicted. mari-6m

Oils!

The Standard Oil Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa-makes a specialty of manufacturing for the Domestic trade the finest brands of Illuminating & Lubricating Oils Naphtha and Casoline,

That can be made from Petroleum. We challenge PRODUCT OF PETROLEUM. If you wish the most uniformly Satisfactory Oils cepting."

He bowed stiffly, and then I was left

-IN THE-American Market.

supplied by

DMINISTRATRIX' NOTICE.

If thou wert by my side, dear love, And I could walk with thee, The path unto the mountain crest No toll would seem to me. But now my feet walk wearily, And heavy are mine eyes, And dread and dark the winding way, That leadeth to the skies.

My hand within thine own, Perchance my weight would hold thee back Or lostering by the way,

But now by different paths, my love, We mek the self same goal, So far apart no charm am I, No hindrance to thy soul. And the' my heart doth sche for thee My lips for thy lips long.

And bush my pain with song. And when upon the mountain crest We stand where souls are free, The bliss that doth elude us now Must come to thee and me. Not one brief thrill of joy, of pain-One smile, in tears to end, But an eternal crown of love, see thee tolling upward still,

A DEADLY SORROW.

Harsh, drastic purgatives to relieve costive-tiess is a dangerous practice, and more liable to fasten the disease on the patient than to in effectually opening the bowels, corrects the costive habit and establishes a natural daily action. Such an aperient is found in force were gathered there.

"Was he insane?" I asked. The Scotland Yard detective blew the froth from a foaming tankard and drank | tions. long and deep of the famous brew, and heaving a sigh which was expressive of inv from a window. Her face, with long the satisfaction with which the cooling fair hair hanging negligently before her draught had filled him, he sadly re-

" No, it was a deadly sorrow!" " Tell us the story." if you gentlemen will keep quiet and ask | saying :

avenge; however, in the latter supposi- met her father who said, as if he menaction I was entirely mistaken, and I told ed me : him one day how he seemed to affect "'Booth,' said I, a trifle nervous, 'I your pardon; but the sorrow that sits stroying your life." "Yes, Mort," he replied, "I have a trouble-a lingering sorrow-that is steal. I take my pistol-and Booth raised his ing my life away, and yet I long to die; but see here, Mort, I must trust some one, or this thing will surely drive me

"Booth,' said I, 'If I can be of effaced by death, and I will endeavor to relate it in his own words.

THE DETECTIVE'S STORY. One day I was bending over my desk, in our chief's office, writing busily, when Abraham Lincoln once, more pathetical all at once something fair and white stood | ly than jocosely, remarked, "and the before me : a figure in floating draperies, a face that was perfect, and a pair of won- either. But I tell you right here," and drous eyes gazing upon me, while a sweet the long, dark hand came down on the

"I have just returned from school, and must see papa." And the sweet voice had a ring of impatience in it. Of course I provided her with a seat rimer, my chief, the most hanguty, purse proud man in the great city, made his a superior smile, "but can you tell the of his party; a Democratic candidate rether clerk replied. arms, kissing her tenderly. I stood aside until the meeting was whispered something to her father; he turned to me :

and she, with a bow and a sweet smile, tion and answer: followed her father.

"Ah, by the way," he added, languidly, as they were about to leave, " my daughter. Miss Larrimer intends giving a eception on the 28th and has invited is safe."- Youth's Companion.

I bowed in acknowledgment. The in-"Miss Larrimer is very kind," I re- lous to show the progress he had made alone; but between my pen and the pa- up." face of a woman whom I was destined to love until I died.

The night of the reception came. I ascended the marble steps of Mr. Larriushered into the grand drawing-room. A glittering of jewels, the rustle of silks and satins, lovely faces all around, mortified; "to the foot of the class wid undertook a defense. and over it all the perfume of the rarest Behind a screen of blossoming plants and as I entered they were playing 'Mon Reve.' know to the contrary, the gurrul may be Ah, mon reve, indeed; it was but a perfectly right.—Harper's Magazine. Reve.

dream, after all, in whih I lived that

A glimmer of pale bluesatin and frosty lace, the faint perfume ofwood violets; I glanced up; a small gloved hand was shyly extended, and a sweet, well remembered-ulas, too well renumbered-voice spoke my name. I wasin her presence

She danced with me-not once, but many times-quite ignoring her father's black looks, and the very evident dissatisfaction of more than one eligible

She seemed to note their disappoint ment with girlish delight, and my heart grew cold, for I thought that so in time she might deal with me ; but I determined to be happy for one night; after toat heaven only knew what might tear us hours can fly, until at last the reception was a thing of the past. After that, Lillian and myself were very frequently thrown into each other's society, and a passion strong and deep-

But the hours flew by as only happy at least on my part-sprang up between We were inseparable, and we had sworn only to live to be united. We read classc poems to each other, and when the Sorrows of Werther" were traced line by line she would shed tears of grief. Ours seemed an ecstacy of love and passion that could never die. One day I was detailed on a case that compelled me to cross the Atlantic, and after an absence of six months, in which I was successful in "working up" the case, I returned and left for Lillian's home, full of love and hopeful anticipa-

On reaching there I saw Lillian lookbreast, seemed the fairest on earth to me. I tried to climb up the vines as I saluted her with a kiss from my hand.

When she saw me, her face grew paler "I would that it were only a story, but and she looked at me with a cold stare, "You come too late. I am married to another. Do not let your sorrows be as deadly as those of poor Werther."

She laughed a low, mocking laugh, as the keenest men on the yard-a strange her face disappeared from the window, That was my death wound. I went to my room and sat with my saw in my life. Yet, somehow, in look- upon a beautiful park, and brooded over thought that he had suffered some great | The next day I again crossed the park sorrow, or had some great wrong to and as I neared the house of Lillian, I

"Lillian is dead! She spoke to yo last! Why did you come here?" I turned on my heel and walked rapid may have presumed, and if so I crave ly away. They said that Lillian fell dead after she told me not to let my sorrows upon your face tells me that you are pin- be as deadly as were those of Werther. Since that day-ten years ago-my life agony has been so deep in my heart that weapon, cocked it and put the barrel to his head-and feel like ending my sor rows as Werther did his. I sprang forward, but it was too late a loud report followed, blood flowed any service to you, I'm yours to com. from Booth Stanfield's right temple, and his fine face, disfigured with powder and ball, was turned towards the heavens.

Shifting the Load.

"Even my wife sometimes tells me that I must be different from other men,' compliment is not intended for me. table with sharp emphasis, "that I have schooled myself to think occasionally of something else besides the trouble immediately at hand." "Oh, but that with you must be a natural faculty, Mr. Lincoln," the President's companion replied. "Most people are so constituted that they cannot do it. The thing that hurts them is the only thing

"There never was a more outrageous to feel pain?" "I would like such a receipt myself," call on Mr. Mortimore and see what you the rear. I don't say that this is always in this way snirch all who lend them- ing to end a parley of his own seeking can learn from him about that extensive easy, but I have found this out-that to selves to such a movement. diamond 'robbery and report when I ease another's heartache is to forget one's self. When things get to squeezing too

I bowed. Then Larrimer moved away hard, I often find comfort in this ques-"'Abe Lincoln, are you doing the best you know how?"

be, 'I am, please God!' then the country vitation was extended as one flings a his labors in his first parish, received a visit from one of the older fathers. Anx-

"Biddy, Maloney," he began, "stand per before me there came the vision of a A slip of a girl, with blue eyes and

"Shure," began Biddy, glibly, "tis mer's stately mansion with a wildly beat- sayson of tormint upon which the soul ing heart, and not long afterward I was inters to fit it for the blissid state to "Och !" cried the questioner angry an > purgatory ye're afther givin'," But here the old priest interposed with "Not too fast. For aught you and I

The Slime of the Campaign.

Information has been gathered through plan of campaign of those who are con- life poor. But a year old when his parpiring for the defeat of the Republican ents came from Herefordshire, England, icket in this State. The campaign is to he has made his way to the top by dint sonal, a bitter and dirty one. The re- ders, of Montana, who made his first ten- heavy tools. only personal issues, knowing that if streaks of luck are.

have personal injuries or lost opportuni- despite the report was always busy. ties to revenge. This part of the work is left to several Barkerite committees

Several are necessary, in order that the ment given the appearance of grand prodirect responsibility.

sive photo-lithographs are being prepar- Jones only smiled. ed outside of the State, all of them de- "It's a big thing," persisted his visitor, Republican candidate, and Senator Quay, claim was and his reasons for being so threader. To the foregoing might be the Chairman of the National Republi- sanguine. After several hours' talk the added thousands of trifling but useful arcan Committee. The leaders of this plan miner asked for an advance of $1000 with tickes from which handsome incomes are of attack are William L. Scott, who de- which to buy tools and food. Jones de- derived or for which large sums have sires to be U. S. Senator; Wharton Bark- murred. A thousand dollars was a big been paid. er, who having failed to get a Cabinet enough sum, saved as it had been, with Few inventions pay better than popuposition from Republican Presidents, is much trouble and labor. But after all, lar patented toys. A clergyman realized now apparently ready to take his chances $1,000 cut no figure in comparison with $2,000 a week by the invention of a Webster himself. with Cleveland; and Senator Emery. the profits of a gold mine. Jones finally strange little plaything, to be seen for a who has been defeated for a Congression- told the miner he would see what could long time in every toy shop window and al nomination in his own district, and be done. who is largely actuated by personal After nightfall, when the Chinamen hatreds. The Democratic hand, and employed in the neighborhood had taken ball"-a wooden ball with an elastic atpossibly the wealth of Scott, will guide their departure, Mr. Jones allowed the tached-yielded the patentee an income the guerilla forces, for he expects, through embers of his fire to die out. When sat- equal to $50,000 a year and an income of been paid, and Mr. Webster told him to defections worked up against the State isfied that no one was about he scraped no less than $75,000 per annum to the in-ticket, to capture the Legislature-know- away the ashes, raised the stone on ventor of the "dancing Jim Crow." The to the matter. After the man had gone ing full well, crafty politician as he is, which the fire was built, and weighed inventor of "Pharaoh's serpents," a toy Mr. Webster asked his clerk to look over that, whatever injuries the head of the out the necessary gold dust to make much in vogue some years ago, was the a quantity of bills and see if he could find ticket, injures all of it. Indeed, one $1,000. These little precautions were al-I went to my room and sat with my might as well strike an enemy's head, ways taken in that region, where even and brought the inventor more than $50,- two receipts were found, indicating that and exclaim "I mean no injury to your cobbers were more plentiful than for feet," as to cut off the head of a politicar tunes. ticket with the expectation that the in- The tools were bought, Jones lending ury stops there. It permeates the entire the money and the miner promising him many years, and a very ingenious toy, body, and injures not alone all of the one-third of the profits of the mine. For known as the "wheel of life," i) said to ticket represented, but all of the measure | months the solitary miner labored, but | have produced upwards of $500,000 pro-

> amount of injury within the compass of ing his money again. uen who desire to promote it, that makes hem work with a common purpose. All inform the miner, but the latter inof these leaders are wealthy, and money sisted there was, if he could only strike unbitions. If the Republicans were less eventually with his search, but provisgenerous, or less confident of ultimate ions were out, and he asked for some triumph over every personal attack, they meal and bacon. Jones smiled again, would "fight the devil with fire." but it will probably be enough for them to ex- cheerfully observed as he dug out a side of them who is not paid for her work expose the general plan and its details as of bacon and gathered up a sack of corn actly as though she were a man. I behey appear, to excite the resentment if meal for his luckless partner. For four lieve fully in this. It is true that women not the contempt of all fair-minded men. | months nothing was heard of the eld have, in many quarters been underpaid The first shape given to the battle cry fellow, and Jones presumed he had eith- for their labors; but I am convinced, of the opposition is that "Delamater er gone away or had died at his post up from evidences I have seen, that this is Quay's man." Pattison was Cassidy's the gulch. Both suppositions were erro- state of things is gradually becoming man, and is now Singerly's, but the Re- neous. The miner dashed into the store less. Let women be given a fair chance publicans are not as yet playing the one day irradiated with joy. He had in business. They will often do work baby act and shouting the chorus. Dela- really struck his bonanza. The mine even better than men. nater has carved his own fortunes, won was sold for $3,000,000, and, faithful to high recognition in his own county, and his promise, the honest miner gave Jones editorial contributors came to see me, listinction in the State Senate before one third of it. Senator Jone's prosperi- saying: 'My husband is ill and unable Quay befriended him, while Pattison was ty dated from that time.

> Cassidy's protege from the first. It is easy to say that any candidate is some leader's man, but such talk is only intended for gudgeons. Those whom it in- lin was busy in the press room on his doing so.' 'Certainly,' I said. If you gret it, and in time see the world as it | bookstore and spent an hour or more in always has and always will be, subject looking over the books. [Finally he seem-But after all, these leaders, where the the price. primaries are free, as they are in the Republican party, can only exercise a modified influence. They have to follow voting is permitted. This is inot true of swered, the Democratic party, for its primaries the wishes of certain leaders. Pattison reflects simply the wishes of Scott and

The Ideal and the Real.

Twas in the afterglow. The spring day had closed ever so gently, with the sun ter" sinking in the west (the same old place), "Yes," said Franklin cooly, "and I and nature was waiting patiently for had better have taken that price then night to overtake it. Algernon and An- than a dollar and a half now." gelina were looking up a house in which to erect their Lares and Penates and be- the man quite by surprise. Without a parlor table and the inmates requested to

"Oh, dear, no. Let us have a cottage veranda, where we can sit and watch the on the individual," said Mr. Skute, who the emergency. She quietly filled in all sun go down." "It would be nice. But what's the matter with taking the first ten dollar rent we strike?" 'Tis ever thus. Poetry descends to prose the moment the pocket book is touched .- Hartford Post.

"Of course," she continued, "I admit that all women are vain. The men are broke off, "the nectie of the handsomest

Senator Jones' Grub Stake.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, is one of arious but reliable sources touching the your self made men. He commenced yond this invitation he will not act per- the following remarkable manner: He profits of £1.250,000. nor will his State Committee take any made famous-Tuolumme, the veracious the Democratic lines, but a plan has been | few years Jones had amassed a few thous | powder on cloth. matured, after frequent conferences, and dollars. Up the mountain a piece which places the work of distributing the lived a solitary miner. He was poor, most offensive literature upon those who | had the reputation of being shiftless, but One day he called on Jones.

"Say, Jones, I think I've got a bonanza which are now in process of formation. in that claim of mine," he said. Jones smiled. He had heard these ascertained. responsibility may be shifted, the move- stories before. He knew how great exportions, and the leaders hidden from Time, labor, and money were usually and principle advocated. Scott knows he did not strike the lead. He grew wan fits to its inventor. this and Barker and Emery both know and hollow-eyed, and occasionally dropt. He is a novice in politics who does | ped in to see Jones. The latter had by | toys has been the "chameleon tep," the not, and it is the knowledge of the this time abandoned all hope of ever see- sale of which has been enormous. The "There's no gold up there," he would

"It's like throwing it in a rat hole," he women editors of it, and there is not one

For Shoppers. One morning when Benjamin Frankfluences happily live long enough to re- newspaper a lounger stepped into the have been writing them you can go on more or less to the direction of leaders. ed to settle upon one and asked the clerk

> "One dollar," echoed the lounger, "Can't you take less than that?" "One dollar is the price," the clerk an-The would-be purchaser looked over

"Yes; he's busy in the printing office," gentleman was in the store waiting to see him. Franklin soon appeared, and "What is the lowest, Mr. Franklin, line for the Ledger, Mrs. Blank has The man seemed surprised, and wish-est price for this book." "One dollar and a half." "A dollar and a half! Why, you said, "Well, come now, tell me your low-rather sensitive on the subject of age quizzing among the thicker-ekinned boarders. The blank left at the house This was a way of trade which took by the enumerator was spread out on the Hood's Sarsaparia a few days, find gin the ever-peaceful, ever-joyous life of word he laid the money on the counter, fill in the various spaces as to their varitook his book and left the store. - Youth's one antecedents, etc. Secreey was of

> They Knew Them. on circumstances, but it depends more

"When I first came to this town I had next, clear hand, but here they were half a crown. Now what do you suppose stumped.

lady, smiling sweetly, "I am afraid that "Oh, that's an easy one," said Billson. "Anybody who knows you, Skute, would the enumerator will not be able to make know what you did with that half this out," pointing to the item in ques-know, and if he can't read it, they can at farmers' movement, even to the extent of surrendering party principles and organization. In some of the Southern States the Democratic party has offered itself a willing sacrifice and has been swallowed bodily by the Farmers' Alliance. It has sacrificed its organization and so-called principles to save a few offlore. In this State the same party b'd for the farmer vote by nominating for Secretary of State an alleged farmer who has swung around the circle in politics and is not much more of a Democrat than he is a farmer. He bears about the same relation to the Democracy that the zebra does to a horse, and is about as much of a farmer as chem is wheat. He is the Democratic bid for the support of the Farmers' Alliance. His other name

The Farmer's Party.

It is not surprising, as politics go, that there should be an anxiety in some quarters to form an alliance with the

From the Indianapolis Journal.

The Republican response to the farmeyelet at each end of the mouth of coat ers' movement is very different. Withbe an extraordinary one, and on the part of hard work and the exercise of consid- or trousers pockets to resist the strain out any sacrifice of principle or dignity, of the opposition it is to be made a per- erable shrewdness. Like Senator Saun- caused by the carriage of pieces of ore or without going out of their way to hunt up a spotted fawn or long-lost brother sponsibility for this state of affairs begins strike out of a claim he staked out in a In a recent legal action it transpired in with a strawberry mark on his arm, they with Pattison himself, for in his letter of graveyard, Senator Jones' first streak of evidence that the inventor of the metal have nominated for the head of their acceptance he begged his party to press luck was purely accidental, as nearly all plates used to protect soles and heels ticket one of the most pronounced lice from water sold upward of 12,000,000 publicans in the State, and one of the higher ones dominate the public thought The story goes that when Jones was in plates in 1879, and in 1887 the number best known farmers, a man who has he will have no chance of election. Be- California he stumbled across his pile in reached 143,000,000, producing realized never wavered in his devotion to Repubsonally save as a Democratic candidate, lived in a certain county that Bret Harte As large a sum as was ever obtained anything but a practical farmer. The for any invention was enjoyed by the price of his farm would not induce him direct responsibility for the flood of nas- chronicler asserts and during the gold inventor of the inverted glass bell to hang to stand on anything but a Republican ty literature which is to be launched excitement kept a small grocery store.

over gas to protect ceilings from being platform or vote anything but a Kepubupon the State. The Democratic State He did a thriving trade; prices were high blackened, and a scarcely less uccrative lican ticket. He has never run after Committee will confine its work within in those days in California, and after a patent was that for simply putting emery strange gods in politics, and does not now. He is a Republican from way back Frequently time and circumstances are and a farmer from way back. That is wanted before an invention is appre- the kind of a man the Hon, Milton Trusciated, but it will be seen that patience ler is. His nomination illustrates the is well rewarded, for the inventor of the Republican way of doing things, and roller skate made over $1,000,000, not- shows how readily and completely it can withstanding the fact that his patent respond to all popular demands and pophad nearly expired before its value was ular movements without going outside of its own organization. It is so with all The gimlet pointed acrew has produced good movements and all practical repectations were frequently never realized. | more wealth than most silver mines, and | forms. They can be best accomplished party, as it is the best party for all other

It is a Good Plan to Keep Books.

The advice which Daniel Webster gave to a neighbor of his in the following anecdote might be followed with advantage by many people. Indeed, the reader will be likely to think that it might have been followed to good advantage by Mr.

One one occasion a man presented to Mr. Webster a bill for payment. "Why, Mr. N," said the statesman,

"it seems to me that I have paid that

In due time Mr. N-call just at the "John Gilpin," was incredibly large for dinner hour, as it chanced, and Mr. Webster invited him in to dine. After the meal was over they proceeded to the business in hand. "Mr. N-, do you keep books" Mr.

> "No," was the reply. "I thought so," said Mr. Webster. Now I advise von to keep books. If you had kept books you would have known that I had this receipted bill, showing him one.

Mr. N- was greatly surprised and nortified and apologized as best he could Said Mr. Childs to me recently: "Some for his mistake. of the best writers on my paper are the

"Yes, it is always a good plan to keep books," continued Mr. Webster, showing him a second receipt. Then, knowing Mr. N-to be an honest man, he suggested that perhaps receipted bills had been presented but really left unpaid, and insisted that Mr.

N-should take the money. - Athorite

Kaiser William's Son. Here is a recent Berlin story concerning small " Ellet Fritz," the five year-oldson of the Emperor. The laws of Meum and Tenm have evidently not yet become apparent to this young man. It is relatd that he and the crown prince had been visiting a lady at Potsdam, and olaying with her children. When they such a beautiful little toy mouse that squeaked and run around on the table. Oh, papa I wish I had such a little " And you," said the Kaiser, turning to Ellet Fritz, "do you wish you had such a mouse 91 returned the Emperor asked the latter if

"Oh, yes," he replied, " and they had he had had a good time.

"Oh, no," answered the small chap ; because I have that one here in my pocket." "'Isn't there " I asked. 'But do you Great was the horror and consternation think that they have been as good as of the royal parent. The tutor was at once requested to take the youngster di> dered to make an apology for having stolen the toy. Off he went, the beloved mouse still grasped tightly in his little hand, which was thrust deep in his pocket. Conducted into the presence of his hostess, he rectly back to the lady, and the boy or-make you an humble apology for having stolen your mouse," but never a bit did he take it out of his pocket or offer to rea year past Mr. Blank has not written a turn it, and not until his tutor insisted would be surrender the much coveted toy been doing her husband's work, and she To his small mind good words were quite enough, and there was no seed to follow them with deeds.

"Don't Care W Eat."

It is with the greates confidence that Hood's Sarsaparilla is loss of appetite, ind ache and similar trables. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion, and make one " real hungry." Persons in delical health, after taking themselves longer for and enting the plainest food will unexpected relish. A Legal Fee.

"I have steen a coat," said a man to

"Oh, yet, we can prove that you were

How much will you charge?" What sort of a coat is it?" Wetl, I went charge you anythingjust give me the cost, -"Low for Tel Bits.

er a few days before the ceremony, please don't throw any rice at us. Rice "Jane, what is the baby playing with?"

She had worked it. Every man present put up his hand to his neck.

New York property," said the real estate man—"a front door is more valuable that not a soul in the house but herself at once. She might get it in her mouth

OTT & OGLE.

U. TRENT.

WHITE LUMBER,

Rhoumatism, Br ta Sprains and or sale by all livings. Price, Sec., Sec., and $1 per bottle. W. B BENN, Mrg., Allegheny, Pa.

PHYSICIAN AND SUBGRON,

R. WM. COLLINS.

BUGGIES, SLEIGHS, CARRIAGES,

Employ Only First Class Workmen. Spaining of All Emds in My Line Done on Sear, Notice, Prices REASONABLE, and and when Drugs become inert by stand-filled with care. Our prices are as low a

We guarantee satisfaction, and, if you have

EVERYONE WANTS TO KNOW WHERE TO GET THE MOST OF OF THIS WORLD'S GOODS FOR

YELLOW, GLASS,

PUBLIC SALE

BY VIRTUE of amorder of sale issued out of the Orphans' Court of Somerset County, Pa., we will expose to public sale of the premises in Somerset Township, three-fourths of a mile west of Lavanaville, on MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1890,

At 1 o'clock p. m., the following described and valuable real exate

A certain farm, the real estate of Jacob B all containing 100 acres more or less, about 13 SUGAR CAMP that will set about 575 keelers; two dwelling houses, one a large brick house—a very large barn and other outbuildings, about five miles west of somesset, near to church, whools and stores. This is a good and beautiful farm in the highest state of cultivation, and produces good crops of grass and grain; also, fine fruit trees on the farm, with good running water, also linestone. The grain sowed out on the farm is reserved. Possession given April 1, 1961. The purchaser has the right to plow and use the farm preparatory for the next summer's crops.

TERMS OF SALE. third to remain a lien on the farm, after and 30 per-cent of naid money carbon day of sale. The balance in three equal animal pay ments, without interest; payments and dowe to be secured by judgments.

Fersons desiring further information about the farm can easilou the Administrators on the farm can easilou the Administrators on the farm or their attorney, John H. Chi, Ess., at Somersell, W. F. COUNTRYMAN, E. L. COUNTRYMAN, E. L. COUNTRYMAN, Administrators and Trustees. ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of Freeman Paul, dec'd., late of Green ville Twp. Somerset Co., Pa.

Letters of administration on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned by the proper authority, notice is berely given to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same will present them duly authenticated to estiement on Saturday, the th day of Cot. 1880 at the late residence o dec'd in said twp.

JOHN PAULA Administrator.

Scott & Ogle, Attorneys. EXECUTRIN' NOTICE. ate of Levi Brubaker, dec'd., late of Somerset Township, Somerset County, Pa. Letters testamentary on the above estare having been granted to the unde signed by the proper authority, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment and those having claims or demands against the same will present them duly authoritiented for settlement on Friday, Oct 21 180, at the other of J. O. Kimunell, in Somerest Bot.

KANCY BRUBAK ER,

DRUNK ENNESS-LIQUOR HABIT-IN ALL THE WORLD THERE IS BUT ONE CURE, DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.

DIVIDED.

Yet if then wert beside me, love, The then canst win alone.

Then mightest stumble, following me:

Seeking the sweets and flowers, my feet Might tempt thine own to stray.

When soul with soul shall blend.

BY A. H. SNORDBICKER. "Five years ago to-day Booth Stanfield. detective friend of mine, committed suicide." remarked a Scotland Yard detective, who had joined our party around a table in the Chelsea Gardens, one very warm evening when a half dozen of the bowels became regular and natural in their navements. I am now in excellent health."

-Wm. H. DeLaucett, Dorset, Ont.

"When I feet the need of a cathartic, I take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more no questions until I get through, I will do "Go ahead : we're mum." "All right! Booth Stanfield was one of man, but a strong one among the strong and I thought I heard a fall. ones. In person he was over six feet in height, and well proportioned, and for ing at his face I could not get over the my terrible loss.

ing under some great trouble that is de-

"He told me his story, which made an impression on my mind that can only be low voice asked "Is my father, is Mr. Larrimer-in?" Then, as she observed my glance of surprise, she added :

Mr. Larrimer would soon return, and Miss that they can consider. It is the insist-Mr. Larrimer would soon return, and mass concept pain. Only here and there can where the party lead in all cases where there we chatted pleasantly, and before be found one able to rise above it." we scarcely realized it we were on friend-over then I noticed that the girl had was the laughing answer, "but I was only Cleveland, and a vote for him means the "My daughter, Miss Lillian, Mr. Booth Stanfield !" he said, hurriedly, and there help and comfort to his neighbors. Now, rectly responsible for a campaign of per- that you can take for that book?" was a careless indifference in Mr. Larri- we've no business to go round like a black sonal stander and mud slinging. The mer's tone that galled my pride inex- gloved, grim-visaged undertaker. It is dirtier part of the work is to be done by prompt answer. pressibly—it was as though I was an in- you business and mine to consider first committees, all of them self-constituted, ferior, and my presence just tolerated. what we can do toward lifting the loads who with one hand will distribute dirt clerk asked me only a dollar just now.

sponded. "I shall take pleasure in ac- he called up a class in catechism for ye, Biddy Maloney. It's the m'aning of a band of music was discoursing sweetly, a quizzical smile.

fallacy than that-outrageous because of are mere shams, with little semblance of the books awhile longer and then inquir-A heavy footstep, and then Lionel Larthe mischief it can do," said Mr. Lincoln, liberty. A Republican candidate reflects ed. "Is Mr. Franklin in?" "Oh, yes," interrupted the friend, with with some degree of certainty the voice appearance and had his daughter in his world how to throw off trouble-how not flects only the policy of the hour and speaking of the ability to shift the load desire to promote the power of these of pain or trouble, so that it might not men. To gain their ends they are willing the stranger said: incapacitate a man from being of some to invite and promote, without being di-"Come, Lillian," said her father, "let of others. A good story is better than a and with the other invite the most re- "True," replied Franklin, "and I could us go home. It is such a comfort to have long face; a jolly song has more get up spectable elements to associate in the have better afforded to take a dollar you back again. Mr. Staufield "-turn- and get' to it than a dirge. The only rule movement. If we mistake not the slime than to leave my work." ing to me carelessly-" you will please I have is to try and put myself a little in will slip from one hand to the other and

"And when Abe's reply can truthfully

"What, Biddy," said the young father, "is meant by the howly state of matri-

The clerk told Mr. Franklin that a onsekeeping, etc. "Shall we take a flat with six rooms

They were talking of the vanity of women and one of the few ladies present and a place to slide the ashes into the cellar?" asked he. with three bay windows and a beautiful not. But, by the way," she suddenly ent put up his hand to his neck.

"One dollar," the clerk answered.

"One dollar and a quarter," was "One dollar and a quarter: Why your offered it yourself for a dollar and a quar- a guest, a maiden lady, cultured and clev-

"Just so," said Billson, one of the milionaire's audience.

I did with it?"

"Well, what did I do with it?" "Why, you've got it yet." "You will observe one thing about the cilice, of course."

The Rewards of Ingenuity." The rubber tip at the end of lead pencils has yielded $100,000 in England. A large fortune has been reaped by a is Claude Matthews. miner who invented a metal rivet or the American who first thought of put- through the Republican party, and as a wasted on what looked like something ting copper tips on children's shoes is as general rule, are never accomplished in It has already been shown that exten- rich, but what developed into snares; so well off as if his father had left him $2,- any other way. It is the best farmer's (00,000 in United States bonds. Upwards of $10,000 a year was made signed to injure Senator Delamater, the and he proceeded to explain what the by the inventor of the common needle > even in the streets of London. That favorite American toy, a "return

One of the most successful of modern Webster inquired. field of invention is not only vast and varied, but it is open to everybody without respect or favor of any kind to sex or age, station or means.

Women as Journalists.

The sale of the little wooden figure

"One morning the wife of one of our to do his work any longer. For a number of months past I have been writing his editorials for him, and I have now come to ask you to allow me to continue

"Some time after this the husband died. On going to the office in the moring one of my editors met me with a face a yard long. 'Mr. Blank is dead.' said he, 'and I don't know what we are going to do without him. His articles were such a special feature, and there is no one else in the country with ability enough to write them."

"Better, he replied.

usual of late?"

doing so: but my nothing of the change

"'No, indeed; it is just there where the improvement is noticeable. The older he grew the better became his work. And that makes it all the more discomforting to realize that we can never secure any one who could to them onetenth as well." "Oh, yes we can,' I answered. 'It may interest you to know that for more than

"on the hill," in Washington, resides, as er. Like some other nice people, she is

"But are you sure there has been no falling off these last few months?"

is quite capable of continuing to do so.' "And she does to-day." How She Outwitted Them. In a semi-fashionable boarding-house course out of the question, and considerable curiosity was evinced as to how our ancient maiden would treat the query as "Success in life may depend somewhat to her age.

When her turn came she was equal to Think you an prove me innocent?" is noted for his great wealth and penuri- the desired information, and when the a hundre miles away when the coat was ager eyes were at the " age they found they could make nothing of cious." it. Everything else was written out in a

> "That?" said Miss Arabella, placidly. is so cheap and vulgar, you know." "Ob, that is written in German, you

" Why, Miss Arabella," said the land-

Now, Tommy," she said to her broth

"With the flat-iron, mum,"