A vote for Delamater is a vote for Protection. The flip of the flopper is once more heard in the land.

REPUBLICANS vote against free trade when they vote against Patterson.

LOOK OUT FOR 2,000, at least, from Somerset county on the 4th of November.

PENNSYLVANIA will hold a Democratic funeral on November 4. No flowers.

The Democratic leaders are dead, have been sleeping, or are conducting a "will hunt." Which?

GREENVILLE was the banner township in 1888. Which will be the banner township in 1890.

We have votes enough to elect every man on the ticket. Let us get them out. Close up the ranks!

The Democratic party in Pennsylvania not only believes in free trade, but in the free interchange of lies and bores.

See the cheer ring down the line, boys, for Delamater and the whole ticket!!! Hip! Hip! Hurrah! Tiger!!!

It is the plain, clear, bountiful duty of every true Republican to do all he can to get out the full vote at the coming election.

How small a man makes himself when, after failing to secure a nomination for office, he turns around and knifes his successful competitor.

The Democratic Congressional Conference for this district has not yet made a nomination. Another effort will be made at Bedford this (Wednesday) evening.

EX-SENATOR WALLACE has left the Political Circus and is nursing a bad cold. He probably couldn't stand the Spirit of Jefferson and Chalmers F. Black in the same car. It is pretty tough.

OF COURSE everybody is for "Jack" Hileman for Register and Recorder. He is affable, courteous and accommodating, and will make a worthy successor to Recorder Swank. Vote for Hileman.

CAPT. W. H. SANBORN will be the next Prothonotary of Somerset county by a large majority. Our Democratic friends might as well agree to make his election unanimous. Vote for Sanborn.

As for myself, I want to say that I will never be willing to stand upon the grave of the Republican party and assist the enemy to write its epitaph on a Democratic tombstone.—Adjutant General Hays.

The office of Auditor is one of the most responsible in the county, and it is of the most importance that competent men are chosen to the position. In Messrs. Shaffer and Brougher we have just such men. Vote for Shaffer and Brougher.

MR. JOHN HANER will make an efficient county Treasurer, and being an active, hard working Republican, he is entitled to and should receive the vote of every Republican in the county. Vote for Haner.

The arbitrators appointed by State Chairman Andrews to name a Republican candidate for Congress in the Twenty-first district met last week and named ex-Senator George H. Huff of Westmoreland county, as the candidate.

Some of our Democratic friends are in great glee over the fact that they support Patterson. They claim that Somerset county, with her majority of 2,800, is the majority of the State. What say you to this, Republicans?

The extra session of the Ohio Legislature, called by Governor Campbell to get rid of some offensive Democratic officials in Cincinnati, is likely to prove a boon to the Democracy of Ohio. Ask every Democrat with an extra session. Ask Patterson.

This Patterson people are losing their grip. They are boasting about their majority. This is the last card of the defeated general. The tide has turned, and they foolishly hope to turn it by reckless and wild boasts.

No one can contemplate a Democratic victory in Pennsylvania. The Republicans of the State should be like an army, and a victorious army. There is nothing like the prestige of success. The Republican party of the nation relies upon Pennsylvania to set the standard and maintain it.—Senator Edmunds, of Vermont.

ISAIAH GOOD, the good-looking and popular Republican candidate for Sheriff, will make one of the most efficient officials the county has ever had. He is possessed of good business qualifications and is in every way fitted to discharge the duties of the office for which he is a candidate. He was honestly and fairly nominated at the primary election, and is justly entitled to the earnest support of every Republican in the county. Vote for Good.

Men who a few years ago were denouncing Lincoln as a tyrant, are now calling on Lincoln Republics to help a Democrat climb into the Governor's chair. The Lincoln Republics are now calling on Lincoln Republics to help a Democrat climb into the Governor's chair. The Lincoln Republics are now calling on Lincoln Republics to help a Democrat climb into the Governor's chair.

Good management of alms-house affairs is of vast importance to the taxpayers of the county. Mr. Wm. Dickey, the Republican candidate for Poor Director, is a successful farmer who knows the value of a dollar and who will see to it that the alms-house is conducted economically. Vote for Dickey.

It is of the greatest importance that the Republicans should have a majority of the next Legislature, as that body will have to act in appointing the State and in electing a United States Senator. For that reason, if for no other, every Republican in the county should vote for Miller and Wells.

There is a Republican in Somerset county who is not proud of his glorious record? The "froxy ones of thunder" are known throughout the State for their fidelity to Republican principles. Year by year our majority has increased, until now our county is hailed as the Republican star that never sets.

The Republican Congressional Conference met at Altoona Wednesday evening of last week and in session till Friday evening, when, no nomination being made, an adjournment was taken to Ebenezer at 7:30 Monday evening. No nomination has yet been made, and up to date there has been no change in the voting, each ballot resulting in Mr. Scull receiving 6 votes, Mr. Coates 3 and Mr. Hicks 3.

Do the Republicans of Somerset county know that a quiet, meek and unassuming man, who has been elected to the position of Poor Director, is a successful farmer who knows the value of a dollar and who will see to it that the alms-house is conducted economically. Vote for Dickey.

PATTISON PILLORIED. CHAIRMAN ANDREWS' MAGNIFICENT ADDRESS! The Democratic Candidate and Boss Shows Up in the True Light Thee Shaken in the Campaign.

Chairman Andrews, Thursday issued the following address, which is a brilliant and powerful presentation of the truth, and presents the political situation in a manner not to be mistaken.

The Pennsylvania campaign of 1896 will pass into history as a whole devoted to the part of the Democratic candidate and leaders to personal abuse of Republican candidates. The plan of campaign was deliberately adopted in New York, and it is to this hour under the direction of New York leaders and almost wholly in the interest of Cleveland. His faction dominates the councils of the party, every effort is bent on the election of that gentleman, but by certain disgraced, so-called Republicans in our midst. We caution all good Republicans against this stealthy and unmanly warfare. There is no claim now, as there was in 1882, when John Stewart was supported by many Republicans, that they were sustaining a good Republican, although that support indirectly led to Patterson's election. Now the leaders are being made to influence Republicans to vote directly for Patterson, the regularly nominated Democratic candidate.

We ask Republicans, one and all, to stand by the petty slanders that have been used to thrust into this campaign, and stand by the principles and the candidates of their party. Let all personal animosities and lickerings cease; let the machinery of that gentleman, but by certain disgraced, so-called Republicans in our midst. We caution all good Republicans against this stealthy and unmanly warfare. There is no claim now, as there was in 1882, when John Stewart was supported by many Republicans, that they were sustaining a good Republican, although that support indirectly led to Patterson's election. Now the leaders are being made to influence Republicans to vote directly for Patterson, the regularly nominated Democratic candidate.

Recall the fact of strike which brought this result. How Mr. Harris, one of the leading Democrats of the party, who had been elected to the office of Poor Director, betrayed his friend Randall and turned all the machinery of the post-office at Philadelphia against his political patron; how Caldwell did the same with the custom house; how only Col. Gecker and Mr. Fox remained true to the interests and views of the party. The same is to be seen in the case of the other members of the party. How many of the party have been elected to office, and how many have been defeated. How many of the party have been elected to office, and how many have been defeated.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1896.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

"No," says the mugwump, who is almost invariably a Free-trader, "Pattison was elected in '82 and Blaine carried the State in '84." Our answer is that Deaver had been elected in '82 all the election villages usual to New York could not have counted on Blaine in '84, and so now, with Delamater and the entire State ticket elected, the safety of the McKinley bill is assured for at least a decade.

The Republican majority can be maintained in both Houses of Congress; a Republican President can be safely elected in 1892, and the best hopes of the party realized. A break in Pennsylvania may mean the loss of all, and the man who permits personal prejudices engendered in many instances by paid agents, in others by those who would ask the world to shoulder their revenge, commits a folly too great for comprehension. This folly will not find the ignorance upon which it most fastidiously rests, and one which has been many of its losses magnified. Lincoln shamelessly traduced as a baboon; Grant denominated a butcher, Logan an ignorant, Garfield a bribe taker, and so on through a catalogue long and too nasty to repeat. The same is to be seen in the case of the other members of the party. How many of the party have been elected to office, and how many have been defeated. How many of the party have been elected to office, and how many have been defeated.

The slanders against our chief standard-bearer, all dispersed, are no longer worthy of notice. Let us remain then to the past and stamp them into the dirt from which they sprang and where they belong, and let us stamp all future lies, for to our knowledge, most are on the way. Let us face the enemy without fear and meet their invecives with fresh assault, and push to a victory like that given to Harrison in '72, to Hoyt in '78, and to Deaver in '80, when similarly assailed, and with courage and with our own closing ranks we can and will do even better.

Tired of Mormonism. CHAMBERSBURG, October 16.—There was glad home coming of fifteen people to Quincy township yesterday. A year ago eight persons, with seven children, left Tomstown for Utah. They had imbibed the doctrines of the Mormon sect, and had left their homes, and believed that the Mormon religion and the Mormon country would speedily better their spiritual and physical beings. They sold a certificate to their property in this county and went to Utah. Stephen McPerrin was the leader and with him went his family and his friends. Yesterday Mr. McPerrin led his little band of followers back to Tomstown, poorer in body than when they had left Quincy township, but determined to stay here. They had imbibed the doctrines of the Mormon sect, and had left their homes, and believed that the Mormon religion and the Mormon country would speedily better their spiritual and physical beings. They sold a certificate to their property in this county and went to Utah.

Shot his Wife and Himself. BOSTON, Oct. 18.—About 6 o'clock this morning Daniel H. Wilson, aged forty-three and living at No. 78 Levee street, shot his wife, Annie, in the left temple while she was in bed, killing her. He then shot himself in the breast, inflicting a possibly fatal wound. He was a driver for the Adams Express Company, and two weeks ago was taken ill and had been confined to his home ever since. He was a faithful man and it is thought despondency caused his rash act.

Will Likely Repeat. History is very likely to repeat itself in the so-called Independent Republican movement now so noisily engineered in this State for the benefit of ex-Governor Pattison. Its inspiration, life and soul come wholly from scorn and disappointment men like Wharton Barker, Mays, Emery, Butler, Sam Loeh, Sam Dick, ex-Supt. Wickham, etc., every one smearing under some personal grievance, and now playing into the hands of the enemy, and seeking the destruction of the party that has heretofore honored them with its offices and honors, and made them all that they are or ever have been in political life. Revolutions to be successful, must have high, honorable and patriotic motives to propel them, and not merely those of a selfish, selfish and disappointed character. Eighteen years ago, in the National campaign of '72, when Sumner, Chase, Greeley, Trumbull, Grant, Brown, Schurz, McClure, Curtis, etc., kicked up their heels, and organized the revolt against the re-election of Gen. Grant, the country fairly leaped in breath and indignation at the array of eminent and distinguished leaders, and looked for a political upheaval the like of which had never been seen or heard of. And yet, when the motives actuating the revolt, came to be analyzed, and it was found that every one was nursing some private grievance or other, the movement weakened, and finally collapsed, with the result, that the "silent soldier" was re-elected by the largest popular and electoral majority ever given to any candidate for President. The revolt now on foot, is fostered and guided by Emery, Mays, Loeh & Co., will not unlikely have an ending similar to the one noted above when the ballots come to be counted in November.
