Secrets.

Let a girl in beginning her life resolve to have no secrets in it, and that life will be happier and sweeter and better than it could be without such a resolution. I do not mean by this that she should cultivate the habit of telling her private affairs to strangers, or of gossiping about herself; but let her always feel free to speak, if occasion requires it. The thought, "What will mother say to this?" ought to always be present in the mind of any girl who has a good mother.

"Don't tell this." "Don't mention that." "On no account allude to this," are requests that usually tell of double dealing and treachery, and if reported to the person not to be told must give offence of a very serious sort. However, I am now speaking rather of the effect on one's self of the habit of having secrets, and of doing things slyly. It comes to having by and by a sort of double life, and is precisely the sort of thing that leads to the loss of character, to being slandered, or to deserving the disapprobation of respectable people.

The lives of wicked women are full of secrets. Their conversation, while they still have shame enough to wish to be be thought good and proper, is a tissue of falsehoods.

To tell the truth, to have nothing to hide, to be able to refer without a blush to all of one's actions, alone can keep a woman safe from all possible doubt as to her respectability. A girl should be able to say just where she has been and what she has been a'bout; and she should never leave home without telling just where she is going and why.

All the talk about the "equality of the sexes" does not alter the fact that if a girl is to marry—and what sensible lassie does not feel marriage to be a happy possibility?—she cannot live an independent life. She can have no secrets from her husband. He becomes her legal protector, and it is his privilege and duty to know all about her. A right-minded wife has no visitor her husband may not see, no friend he may not know, no letter he must not read; and the girl had better accustom herself to being without secrets if she wishes to be a happy matron.

Innocent secrets are not worth keeping; wicked ones are almost impossible to keep. The first are all too apt to lead to the last. Have none at all and be comfortable.

Life is Misery

To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description. There is no other remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum, and every form of blood disease. It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial. Be sure to get Hood's.

Manners.

Manners are the first thing which strikes the stranger, the key which locks and unlocks the door of good society, the beginning of charm, the innocent and unconscious cause of repulse, the subtle magic of fortune and success, the irresistible source of love and hatred, the acceptance or rejection by the world. To perfect manners there is almost no good thing that is not accessible; to rude manners there is almost no good thing that is attainable. Oftimes more than talent, more than beauty, more than wealth, more even than birth or wisdom, good manners are a perpetual fascination, a fountain of pleasure, the best letter of introduction and the firmest cement to friendship and love. Manners have made the fortunes of many men in business and politics. They are a passport to the favor of the rich and the poor, learned and ignorant, aristocratic and plebeian alike. They are the final perfection that may crown virtue, and the last finish of wisdom and genius.

A Condemned Man's Nerve.

One of the coolest and most deliberate attempts at suicide recorded is that of Benjamin Hunter, the murderer of John Armstrong, in Camden, N. J., in 1879. Hunter was confined in the "murderers' cage" in the county jail under charge of the death watch. He complained of chilliness one night, and was permitted to wrap his lower extremities in a blanket. He had previously torn off the rim of his tin cup with his teeth, and had it concealed in his trousers pocket. Talking on commonplace topics to his guard, Hunter secretly took the jagged strip of tin from his pocket, and, concealing his movements with the blankets, began cutting into an artery in his left leg.

The blood spurted out in jets, and the flow was concealed by Hunter spreading the blanket out like a skirt. He became so weak that he was unable to continue the conversation, and the guard's suspicions were aroused. He made an examination, and found that the murderer was bleeding to death. Physicians were summoned, a ligature was applied and Hunter's life was saved. He was afterward hanged, and it was pretty generally believed that he was dead from fright and sedatives before the cord tightened around his neck—N. Y. Press.

Not Up on Sewers.

He was a young man of 20 with a far-away look in his eyes, and she was a girl of 18 with a turn up nose and the light of curiosity in her eyes. They had scarcely seated themselves in a Woodward avenue car when she asked:

"Why is this street torn up, Tom?"

"Building a sewer," he replied.

"What do they want of a sewer?" she continued.

"To run off the water."

"But why do they want to run off the water?"

"Because—excuse me."

He hurried on to the rear platform and took a seat on the railing, and as the conductor looked at him rather sharply he explained:

"Next thing she'd have asked me what is a sewer, and how in sugar do I know! I never saw a sewer. I'm not in the sewer business. I suppose it's something or other undergrund, but I'm not going to give myself away, you know."

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Lavansville Council No. 483 Jr. O. U. A. M. held at Lavansville, Pa., on December 30, 1890, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Counsellor of the Universe to remove from our midst the wife of our brother, Frank B. Friedline, therefore be it

Resolved, That we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High; but we do not the less mourn with our brother in this sad affliction in the loss of his companion.

Resolved, That we extend to our brother Franklin B. Friedline and family, upon whom fall the heavy burden, our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement, reminding them that it is God's will that is done, and to him they must look for strength to bear their affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this Council, that they be published in the county papers, and a copy be sent to Brother Friedline and family.

A Delightful Series of Tours to Washington via the P. R. R.

For several years past the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has run a series of excursions to Washington, D. C. at a season when the National Capital is in a whirl af pleasure and social activity, and these tours have met with marked success. This year the company has just announced a series of three, to leave Pittsburgh January 15th, February 5th, and March 5th.

Excursion tickets, good for ten days from date of sale, admitting of a stop-off in Baltimore in either direction within the proper limit will be sold from Pittsburg at $9, and at correspondingly low rates from other stations in Western Pa. The tickets will be good for use on any regular train of the dates above named, except limited express trains; and in addition to the regular service a special train of parlor cars and day coaches will leave Pittsburgh at 8 a. m. and run through to Washington, stopping at principal stations. The return coupons will be valid for passage on any regular train within the return limit, except the Pennsylvania Limited.

Washington is one of the most interesting cities in the Union. It is esteemed by many the most beautiful city in America, and the fact that it is the seat of government and the location of the handsomest public buildings in the land, makes it intensely interesting to every citizen.

Both branches of Congress will be in daily session, and, in fact, every branch of the public service may be seen in the actual work of conducting the government. The public buildings, embracing the Capitol, White House, Treasury, State, War, and Navy Departments, the great Smithsonian Institution, the National Museum, are open to the public every day, and offer a field for interest and study that cannot be excelled anywhere. The great Washington Monument, the highest memorial shaft in the world, is in itself worth a trip to see.

The rates are unusually low, and the imitation of the tickets ample for a most pleasurable trip.

He Yelled "Kemp's Balsam."

I yell, "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. I always do when I hear a man cough, and I can't help it. It saved me, and it will cure you. I was threatened with pneumonia last winter, and it broke it up. It helps the children out when their throats are sore, cures their cough, and tastes so good. The first dose helps you." So writes A. R. Arnold, engineer on the West Shore Railroad, at Cansjoharie, N. Y.

Winter Travel to Florida.

That Florida is to be the haven of refuge and recreation this year is manifested by the travel already directing itself there. To meet the demand of many who cannot afford the time nor expense of several months' sojourn in the land of sunshine and soft breezes, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has announced a series of five tours to leave New York January 20th, February 3d and 17th and March 3d and 17th at the remarkably low rate of $50 from that city and $48 from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. Tourists will travel in Pullman Palace Cars in charge of a Tourist Agent and Chaperon. A limit has been made allowing one hundred and fifty passengers only to each tour, so that applications for space and tickets should be made well in advance.

The round trip includes Pullman accommodations and meals en route in a dining car attached to the train, and tickets will be sold from all principal stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad system to a connecting point with the special. For detailed information and descriptive itinerary application should be made to Pennsylvania Railroad ticket offices.

C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

Soft Soap for Trees.

Among all the things suggested and remedies recommended as beneficial to fruit trees I have found nothing better than a free use of the common home-made soft-soap. Whether applied with a brush or a broom to the trunks and large limbs of fruit trees, or in a shower of soap suds on bushes, it is always a preventive against insects, and especially useful against the bark lice. To make it most effective the rough, loose bark that affords hiding places for insects should be scraped off before applying it; but I do not think it best to scrape as severely as many do, who leave their trees looking as though the bark had been injured by the operation. However this may be the use of soap suds as a wash seems to keep the bark in a healthy condition, besides being obnoxious to tree insects. The stronger and more slimy it is when put on the better, for it will not be so soon washed off by rains. About two applications early in the season will usually be enough. By comparing trees in the fall that have been scraped and washed in this way with other trees that have received no such care, the general appearance of the soap-washed trees will be greatly in their favor.

A Matter of Importance to You!

If suffering from long-standing Chronic Diseases, Diseases of the Blood, Skin and Nervous System, as those suffering from

EYE, EAR NOSE AND THROAT TROUBLES,

J. J. McCLELLAN, M. D., Specialist on Chronic Diseases.

MORITZ SALM, M. D., Specialist on Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

They will visit this country every four weeks, thus saving their patients the trouble and expense of visiting the city, as they are the only physicians and surgeons in this country who carry their own Manakins, Models, Diagrams, etc., to illustrate and make plain to all afflicted the cause and nature of their diseases.

DR. MORITZ SALM, the great German oculist, will be here and perform all operations on the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat without pain and in less time than any other living oculist. This will give his patients and others who are in need of medical treatment an opportunity to consult this distinguished physician, whose duties at the Institute will permit only monthly visits to your community.

Major J. M. Davidson, ex-President of the Lawrence County Wool Growers Association, and a citizen well known in the county, freely gives the following testimonial of the ability of Drs. McClellan & Salm. The Major says:

I was suffering greatly from Polypus and Inward Piles. I had tried local treatment and much medicine with no avail. I read the advertisement of Drs. McClellan & Salm and I concluded to give them a trial. At their last visit to the city they declared me cured, and they discharged me. I feel now like a new man. They did everything they agreed and treated me courteously. They did me a world of good and relieved me of all suffering.

I have been suffering from Insomnia (sleeplessness) and general nervous prostration dependent on the former disease for more than three years. Doctors could do me no good. I could not go on my feet for more than a hour at a time; appetite was miserable. I went to the Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York city, but without the least benefit. I put myself under the care of Drs. McClellan & Salm, who visit New Castle every four weeks, and I am now as well as ever; hale and hearty; minus all defect or health. MOSES S. GARNER, Box 161, New Castle, Pa.

MADE THE LAME WALK WITHOUT CRUTCHES.

For eight months past I haven't been able to walk without a pair of crutches. During first month's treatment with Drs. McClellan & Salm I have been able to put one aside and at the next visit came to their office without any. I am certain that I'll be entirely cured soon. Although under treatment of home doctors, began to grow worse and worse. MRS. J. B. EMERY, Wampum, Pa

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

I have been under treatment of Drs. McClellan & Salm for two months for Catarrh and Deafness and consider myself greatly improved so far. MRS. J. COCHRAN, Rock Point, Lawrence Co., Pa.

YOUNG LADY'S EYE STRAIGHTENED.

On May 13th Drs. McClellan and Salm performed a cross-eye operation on my eyes without pain or loss of blood, and to-day my eyes are as straight as any one's, and I can see a great deal better. MARY FRYE, Rock Point, Lawrence Co., Pa.

CATARRH.

I have been suffering with Catarrh for some years. Tried several doctors, but no good resulted until I consulted Drs. McClellan & Salm, MD'S. I have been the last four months and I have so greatly improved that I know I'll be cured when the course of treatment will be ended C. G. MCKINLEY, Moravia, Pa.

EIGHT POLIPI REMOVED FROM THE NOSE.

Drs. McClellan & Salm have removed eight Polypi out of my nostrils to-day without almost any pain or loss of blood, and in by far less time and in a more satisfactory manner than I had done before at Pittsburg. I can draw more breath with comfort and pleasure through my nose. G. W. ECKLES, 117 Oak St., New Castle, Pa.

CATARRH AND DEAFNESS.

I have now been under treatment of Drs. McClellan and Salm for three months for a bad case of Catarrh, and was very hard of hearing, but now I am greatly improved in every way and can hear a great deal better, and I am getting stronger and heavier. SAMUEL RAMSEYER.

Hooker, Butler Co., Pa., Sept. 4, 1890.

Diseases of Women, such as have baffled the skill of all physicians and remedies, quickly cured. Cancers, Tumors, fibroid and polypoid growths cured without the use of a knife or caustics. No cutting, no pain, no danger.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

"Some lives are like Horse shoes the more worn the brighter." Busy wives who use SAPOLIO never seem to grow old. Try a cake.

A complete wreck of domestic happiness has often resulted from badly washed dishes, from an unclean kitchen, or from trifles which seemed light as air. But by these things a man often judges of his wife's devotion to her family, and charges her with general neglect when he finds her careless in these particulars. Many a home owes a large part of its thrifty neatness and its consequent happiness to SAPOLIO.

Grocers often substitute cheaper goods for SAPOLIO, to make a better profit. Send back such articles, and insist on having just what you ordered.

It is to Your Interest

TO BUY YOUR

DRUGS AND MEDICINES

OF

JOHN N. SNYDER,

SUCCESSOR TO

BIESECKER & SNYDER.

None but the purest and best kept in stock, and when Drugs become inert by standing, as certain of them do, we destroy them, rather than impose on our customers.

You can depend on having your

PRESCRIPTIONS & FAMILY RECEIPTS

filled with care. Our prices are as low as any other first-class house and on many articles much lower.

The people of this county seem to know this, and have given us a large share of their patronage, and we shall still continue to give them the very best goods for their money. Do not forget that we make a specialty of

FITTING TRUSSES.

We guarantee satisfaction, and, if you have had trouble in this direction, give us a call.

SPECTACLES AND EYE-GLASSES

in great variety; A full set of Test Lenses. Come in and have your eyes examined. No charge for examination, and we are confident we can suit you. Come and see us.

Respectfully,

JOHN N. SNYDER.

—THE—

WHITE

IS KING OF

SEWING MACHINES.

It was Crowned so when it took the First Premium at the Cincinnati Centennial in 1888, at the Great Contest, but more so when it took the

GOLD MEDAL

At the Universal Exhibition at Paris, France, in 1889, for being the Best Family Sewing Machine

In the world. It is applauded as such by the 800,000

Sold since its introduction in 1877

Its superiority is acknowledged, though with many regrets, by thousands who had bought other new

SEWING MACHINES

Before they had seen the merits of the

WHITE

Ladies will find it greatly to their advantage to examine the merits of "THE WHITE" before buying a Sewing Machine.

"THE BEST IS ALWAYS CHEAPEST"

in the end. An inferior Sewing Machine is a poor investment at any price.

JOS. CRIST,

JOHN C. FINCH,

DEALER IN

Golden Wedding RYE Whiskies,

146 Water Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

OLDEST ESTABLISHED HOUSE IN THE CITY, where nothing but pure goods are put up, strictly for family and medicinal use. Nothing better than Golden Wedding. Next on the list, Guckenheimer's, Gray's Monongahela Rye. These goods are leading brands, grandies of vintage of 1878 on hand. Gins, Holland and Domestic; also, Old Tom. Finch's Golden Wedding, $1 for full quart, 6 for $5; Guckenheimer's, the same; Monongahela, $8 per dozen. Wines, $5 per dozen, $3 for one half dozen. Securely packed. Also have in stock, Grandfather's Cholce, at $2 per gallon. Barrels at special rates. 4-30-1yr.

DO YOU KNOW

That you are buying direct from the distiller when you send your orders to U. E. Lippencott, the old fashioned Whiskey house? No rectifying; no compounding, but direct from the "LIPPENCOTT DISTILLERY," situated at Lippencott Post office, Greene county, Pa., which has always maintained its reputation of making pure, wholesome whiskey.

Our mail order department gives prompt attention to all orders, and at the prices we offer our goods, makes our competitors envious. We carry in stock the following well-known brands of Rye Whiskies, in quarts, gallons and barrels: Lippencott's, Overholt's Gibson, Guckenheimer, Monongahela, Grays, etc. Also a full and complete stock of Wines, Brandies, Gins, &c.
