FRIDAY, FEB. 20, 1891, All the facts and details of this, in many All the interest and claim of An-in the history of Pennsylvania, are now be-ing prepared in book-form. In this graphic and circumstantial account, there will be given many incidents that, have never yet been published, among which will be the official notes of the detectives employed in working up the case. The notes of Chief foilkinson are recolliarly interesting in the ilkinson are peculiarly interesting in the defineation of circumstances occuring in the early stages of the case preceding the arrest of the Nicely brothers by Constable Ranch. Preceedings of all the preliminary heatnes are given; also many remarkable ocrences of the most thrilling character atending the arrest of Hareilton and the Nicelys. The detection and recovery of the pocket-book of Herman Umberger-the work of Chief Gilkinson-;s given in the latter's own language and forms probably the most interesting chapter in the whole book. The trial of Joseph and David Nicely with its many stirring scenes and incidents is given unusual prominence; all the important evidence on both sides is reprinted n full from the report of the OFFICIAL COURT STENOGRAPHER of the Court, besides the full charge of the Court, the refusal of a new trial, the sentence of the Court, the appeal to the Supreme Canet of Penn's, etc., with full text of decision of Supreme Court.
