Many Why go to Indiana State Normal 7 persons are inclined to think, however, that the saws were handed in by some of the fe. male relatives of the Nicelys when the office? onducting them was off his guard.

The fact that thirteen saws were concealed in his own and his brother's cell may account for Joe Nicely's shaming insanity. Sheriff Good had noticed that the lock on Science, Mathematics, Science, Classics. Joseph probably realized that the jail officials were unusually vigilant, and thought by shamming manity to throw them off their guard.

When it became known on the streets that birteen saws had been found in the Nicely boys' cells men stared at each other in blank amuzement and shook their heads.

The resources of the Nicelys are wonderfu and it is within the possibilities that they may be among the missing when the day set for their execution arrives.

Sheriff Good should lose no time in placing a death watch on these desparate criminals, as self-destruction could very easily partially paralyzed, since which time he has be accomplished with such instruments as
