Seven Men Frozen to Death.

St. Patt., Minn., March 20 .- Advices from Cut Bank, Mont., the present terminus of the Great Northern extension, state that the heavy storm of six weeks ago totally suspended work of all kinds, throwing 2,000 men out of employment. A large number of men started to traverse the deep snow to ammir, 110 miles farther west, and many perished from cold and exposure. The record so far is seven dead from freezing, while large numbers had arms and legs severely frozen. It is also certain that a great many have perished of whom no traces have been found and whose bodies have made food for wolves and coyotes.
