

The Dream Woman.

I was the victim of Brazilian fever, and every one had given me up. I heard the priest say at my bedside that I would not live until morning. I was sinking into a heavy stupor when the door opened into a white-robed woman...

A Case of Mistaken Identity

There were eighteen men and one small boy in the ladies' avenue car. I saw a young lady street on State yesterday afternoon. As it turned on Madison street the ladies, most of them fatigued by chasing after summer dress bargains in the stores, began to file in...
