...committee at present traveling over the

...western part of the State for the purpose

...of selecting a site on which to erect an

...asylum for the insane for $500,000 was

...appropriated last winter, should give

...the go-by. Surely no county seat in Western

...Pennsylvania can offer greater attractions

...than Somerset, and would it not be well

...for our borough authorities to present the

...same to the committee?

...The Councilville Courier, in speaking of

...the Golden Eagles' reunion at this place

...Ho, For the Exposition.

...The big Pittsburgh Exposition opened in

...a blaze of glory on September 2d, and all in-

...terested in the success of the exposition

...approach one quarter of a million gallons

...of water. The experience of many towns,

...of providing water for domestic and sani-

...tary purposes, should teach us that this is

...not sufficient for enterprising and progressive

...communities, an abundance of water stimu-

...lates certain enterprises besides becoming a

...source of revenue.

...The Marshall, Custer and Poor-horse farms

...and all other springs examined combined,

...will not furnish much water for the ...purpose of the above amount when visited the

...first of this month, and would undoubtedly

...show some less in an extreme dry season; there-

...fore, they can only be considered as auxil-

...iary sources. As in elevation most of them

...are from 100 to 200 feet higher than the

...level of the town, they are not available for

...the purpose of the above amount when

...visited the first of this month, and would

...undoubtedly show some less in an extreme

...dry season; therefore, they can only be

...considered as auxiliary sources. As in

...elevation most of them are from 100 to

...200 feet higher than the level of the town,

...they are not available for the purpose of
