HOEING AND PRAYING.

Hood's No other medicine ever Sarsaparilla has won the Sarsaparilla has won the Sarsaparilla people's confils dence so thoroughly as Hood's Sarsaparilla. From a small beginning this Peculiar medicine has steadily Peculiar and rapidly increased in To popularity until now it has the largest sale of any preparation of its kind. Itself Its success it has won simply because it is constantly proving that it possesses positive merit, and Said Farmer Jones in a whining tone, To his good old neighbor Gray, T've worn my knees through to the bone,

But it ain't no use to pray. Your corn looks just twice as good as mine Though you don't pretend to be A shinin' light in the church to shine

An' tell salvation' free. 'I've prayed to the Lord a thousand times To make that ere corn grow; An' why your'n beats it so an' climbs

I'd give a deal to know." said Farmer Grey to his neighbor Jones, In his quiet and easy way,

When prayers get mixed with lazy bones They don't make farming pay. Your weeds, I notice, are good and tall, In spite of all your prayers : You may pray for corn till the heavens fall,

"I mix my prayers with a little toil, Along in every row; And I work this mixture into the soil, Quite vig'rous with a hoe. So while I'm praying I use my hoe,

If you don't dig up the tares.

And do my level best, To keep down the weeds along each row, And the Lord, He does the rest. 'It's well to pray both night and morn,

As every farmer knows; But the place to pray for thrifty corn Is right between the rows. You must use your hands while praying though,

If an answer you would get, For prayer-worn kness and a rusty hoe Never raised a big crop yet. 'And so I believe, my good old friend,

If you mean to win the day, From plowing, clean to harvest's end, You must work as well as pray." The Way to Keep Him.
