

GEORGE R. SCULL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, September 24, 1881.

Orders are in market.

Winter goods have been rushed.

Knickerbocker's new advertisement.

November 20th will be Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving will be the next legal holiday.

The harvest moon has done itself credit.

First arrival of Fall and Winter Goods at

W. H. PARKER'S.

The boxes of two children were found a bit behind the sod in Johnston's Saturday.

Small comforters (big enough for two), at Devin's next to Mansion House.

For a good store and warranted, go to J.

Hildebrand's Hardware Store, Somerset.

Valentine Adams, of Leacock, Lancaster county, has made 30,000 gallons of cider this season.

The German Baptist Conference, in sesion at Williamsport, has chosen Pittsburgh as the next meeting place.

Cruden, single and double all sizes, color black. Ten Devlin's for them, 215 east of Johnston.

The immense cattle farms out West are being run up into farms for immigrants, and the average price of $7 to $8 per acre.

Advertising belongs to Captain William A.

Wells, of Holland's Island, Md., ran against one that was tied to a loaded gun in a menace patch for his "reception and arrival."

Mr. Decker Miller, of Hillsboro, Somerset county, in the city, where he proposes refranchising for some time, to undergo treatment for an affection of his hands and feet, which he thinks is erysipelas.—Johnston news.

Henry A. Habel, a B. & O. night operator at Johnston, was stricken with cholera and died at his work at his job, Wednesday night last week, and died instantly. His relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

relatives were to Sand Patch, where his

This has been the warmest September in twelve years.

Delegates from eleven Republican clubs met at Somerset for a conference, Tuesday noon.

Court Scribe Vogel has returned from a month's visit among western friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nisely, of Ligonier, were in Somerset for a few hours last Wednesday.

Rev. C. W. Granger and wife have returned from a six weeks' visit to friends in the

"Hoosier State."

Register and Recorder Hiltman has had

Mr. William E. Puller, of Confluence, as his guest the past week.

A party of four or five Pittsburgh attorneys were here for several days, at the Somerset House for every day.

Dr. S. J. McMillen and family returned home yesterday, after a two weeks visit among friends in Maryland and West Va.

Mr. E. E. Kierian, has been confined to his room at the Somerset House for several days, suffering from an ulcerated sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Scott, of Minerva, O., were in Somerset for a few days last week, the guest of their uncle, lawyer John R.

Scott.

Miss Kate Eudley, who holds a clerkship in the Census Office at Washington, is spending her vacation at the home of her parents in this place.

Hon. Franklin Bond, ex-member of Congress, of Milton, Pa., and Hon John Johnson, a prominent Bedford lawyer, are at the Somerset House.

Miss Mary, daughter of F. J. Koenig, Esq., left for her home at Confluence, Monday.

She will become a student in the Women's College, of that city.

Landlord Vanover of the Park Hotel, has an addition to his house well under way.

When completed it will enlarge the office to almost double its present size.

A child 7 years old was picked up at Homestead by a detective last week, he saying it had been stolen in Portland, Oregon, and for a reward of $3,000 was offered.

N. B. McHugh, D. J. Horner and Oliver

Keeper left for Scranton, Tuesday morning they will represent the Somerset Independent Republican Club in the State League

Convention.

George M. Neff and Samuel Snyder have purchased H. H. Flick's "Mayfield Farm," near Leavittsville. This is one of the best places in the county, 75 or 80 acres being in a good state of cultivation.

The U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

U. S. Conference in session at Bedford, Saturday, met in the following order:

MEETING OF THE UNWASH-

ED AND UNTERIFIED

DEMOCRACY.

THEY HOLD THEIR COUNTY

CONVENTION AND HAVE A HALCYON

AND VICARIOUS TIME.

The warring factions of the Democratic party in this county have been unusually active the past few days. It would appear strange to some that a party in such a hopeless minority as the Democrats are in Somerset should have anything to fight about.

They do not have any office to contend for, and party nominations are only empty honors—never sought after, but bestowed upon the faithful by "Boss" Coffroth, who has had a mortgage on that party since long before the war. The general has been possession of the party since long before the war, and he has been so ever since.

Several years ago a small handful of Democrats in this borough threw off the Coffroth yoke, declaring that they were old enough to think and act for themselves in political matters, as they are compelled to think and act for themselves in business matters.

Each year this small band has been increasing in numbers and today has a following in every election precinct in the county.

This morning two rival political shops were opened up. The larger and more presentative one, of course, was located in "Boss"

Coffroth's back office, while the opposition shop was located in front of lawyer Valentine Hayes' office.

The "Boss" believers were busy throughout the morning conducting delegates into the back office of their chief, while Chas. H.

Fisher and A. L. G. Hay were equally active in looking after the wing of the party, and endeavoring to bring their delegates out of the way of Coffroth's cohorts.

A. L. G. Hay had announced himself as a candidate for Chairman of the Democratic

County, several weeks ago, and being an able young limb of the law, with political aspirations, his chance of election was regarded as favorable, until "Boss" Coffroth concluded that he would look after this campaign himself, inasmuch as prospects for a hot fight on the judicial question are looking after the wing of the party, and

endeavoring to bring their delegates out of the way of Coffroth's cohorts.

A. L. G. Hay had announced himself as a candidate for Chairman of the Democratic

County, several weeks ago, and being an

able young limb of the law, with political

aspirations, his chance of election was regarded as favorable, until "Boss" Coffroth

concluded that he would look after this

campaign himself, inasmuch as prospects

for a hot fight on the judicial question are

looking after the wing of the party, and

endeavoring to bring their delegates out of the way of Coffroth's cohorts.

A. L. G. Hay had announced himself as a candidate for Chairman of the Democratic

County, several weeks ago, and being an

able young limb of the law, with political

aspirations, his chance of election was regarded as favorable, until "Boss" Coffroth

concluded that he would look after this

campaign himself, inasmuch as prospects

for a hot fight on the judicial question are

looking after the wing of the party, and

endeavoring to bring their delegates out of the way of Coffroth's cohorts.

A. L. G. Hay had announced himself as a candidate for Chairman of the Democratic

County, several weeks ago, and being an

able young limb of the law, with political

aspirations, his chance of election was regarded as favorable, until "Boss" Coffroth

concluded that he would look after this

campaign himself, inasmuch as prospects

for a hot fight on the judicial question are

looking after the wing of the party, and

endeavoring to bring their delegates out of the way of Coffroth's cohorts.

A. L. G. Hay had announced himself as a candidate for Chairman of the Democratic

County, several weeks ago, and being an

able young limb of the law, with political

Farmers Being Victimized.

An expense is being made at Greensburg of the National Union, and a committee of Mr. Union, Pa., and hundreds of the farmers of the county, who claim to have been victimized, are coming to take a hand in the matter. It appears that at least 1,000 farmers and stock raisers of this county have