EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor

It is rather amusing to have a fellow who politically doesn't know whether he is afoot or on horseback, criticise the conduct of a canvass during which he remained dumb as an oyster.

ONE by one every member of the Cabinet "has been dismissed" by Democratic newspapers. The strange thing about it is that no one outside of Democratic readers has heard of it.

Ox Friday last the Senate, now in extra session, adjourned until this (Wednesday) evening, so that its members could go home and attend the elections.

A great many candidates, of both political parties, who smilingly "knew all about it" on Monday, will to-day apprecute the situation described in the following little couplet:

There was a young lady from Niger, Who rode, with a smile, on a tiger; When they returned from the fide The young lady was inside, And the smile on the face of the tiger.

THE Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette of Tuesday has the following: "Mr. Kooser at a late bour yesterday withdrew from the contest for judge in the Bedford-Somerset district. This was a commendable move in the interest of harmony and success, for certain defeat stared both him and Mr. Longenecker in the face. If the word of this withdrawal can be well circulated at so late an hour the district may yet be saved, and Mr. Reynoid's vision of a ten years' judgeship

SEXATOR QUAY has at last tired of the newspaper attacks on his personal honesty and integrity. The outrageous atder of the Treasury by Bardsley was the last straw that broke the camel's back, and he has brought criminal and civil suits against the Pittsburgh Post and the Beaver Sur. It is alleged, also, that acthe State who have loaned their columns to the publication and circulation of the gross charges against the Senator.

Tun truth of the old adage, "when a lawyer has himself for a client he has a fool to deal with," has again been verified in the matter of the will of the late Presidential candidate Samuel J. Tilden. Mr. Tilden was regarded as one of the 60.000 REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN PENNSYLVANIA. ablest and shrewdest lawyers in this country, yet after a lifetime passed in his own will so faultily worded that the Court of Appeals in New York has just decided that it is void. The amount involved is over $5,000,000, and Mr. Tilden's nephews will now receive the immense sum that he intended should go to the establishment of a public library.

MISS ERMA CONNERS, of Clark township, Ind., is a young woman of whom all good citizens of her State should be proud. She is the teacher of the district school, and her patriotism is only equaled by her pluck. A fine United States flag was recently raised with appropriate ceremonies over her school Certain evilly disposed and thoroughly "unreconstructed" persons tore it down the next night. When they were taxed with the lawless act they admitted that they had perpetrated it, and declared that they didn't propose to allow the national colors to fiont over the schoolhouse again. But Miss Conners was a soldier's daughter and did not intend to see the flag for which her father had fought dishonored. The dispatches aver that she procured a new flag, nailed it to the staff with her own fair hands, and resolutely declare! that she proposed to keep it flying during school hours, no matter what the hazzard to herself might be. The flag still waves!

Many, many men claiming to be proud of their American citizenship, voted on yesterday for England instead of Ameristartly declared that the McKinley bill is not benefitting American industries, is openly confessing that the measure is accomplishing all its friends claimed it a late issue says

"The Mckinley bill bas not greatly affect ed wages [in England] on account of the enormous stock of imports abelved in an-ticipation, but increased manufacturing by American mills will inevitably follow and affect wages [of English workmen] later on year or two. It is only this uncertainty ants from Bradford, Lords, Birmingham, and elsewhere to the United States.

Elections took place in eleven States yesterday, but only five were of special importance. Pennsylvania gives over 50,000 majority for the head of the Republican ticket, but Captain Morrison, for State Treasurer, runs a few thousand behind, owing to the fact that the granger organization supported a mixed ticket posed of Gregg and Tilden. Bees Graft an Apple.

CHAMBERSBURS, Pa., Nov. 1 .- Horticulturists who have seen it say that an apple which was picked the other day in E. B. Exactly one-half of the apple is golden russet, like the apples that grew on the same tree, and the other half is bright green pip-plo, such a variety as grew on tree 100 yards distant. In blossoming times a bee must have ransplanted a part of a distant pippin's blossom into the petals of the russet's flower. Dr. A. B. Grove has preserved this unique
