FOR 1892. R. G. Horr on the Tariff

The Republican party, triumphant in 1800 wherever national issues were at suke, it news, aggressively and travely, the light to 1801. The New Field Tolking, line ablest, may be sufficient and best of Keputuleum papers lend 19th. The New Field Tributes, the ablest, most reliable, and best of Keputulean papers and the way.

During 19th, Roswell G. Horr, of Michagan, the withy orator, will containe in The Tributes hirecarkable articles on the Tariff, Reciprocity Coinage, and the Currency. These topes are all understandable. The Republican policy with regard to all of them is right, patriots and impregnable; and that has been thrown in the people's eyes, and the air has been filled with Eg by tying and tricky Tariff Reformers. The Tribute prints from 1 to 2 exceedingly entertaining articles every week explaining these questions.

Mr. Horr begins at the beginning of every unbject and makes it so clear that everyone can independent and poone can answer him. As and neighbor what he thicks of Mr. Horr's writings. He will tell you that they are genial, clear, entertaining, and perfectly unanaerable. A specialty is unable of most eving all questions, asked in good faith, on the Tariff, Reciprocity, Coinage, the Currency and the projects of the Farmers' Alliance.
