

A YOKE AND A JOKE.

When he was very small he was thrown from a horse. The accident entailed some of the spinal muscles, and it appeared that he was doomed to go through life with the humiliating appearance of having a chronic case of colic.

He Reckoned He would Run.

One of the most interesting characters in American history is General Zachary Taylor. He was born in 1784, in Orange, Va., father-in-law of Jefferson Davis and president of the United States.

Accurate Stone Throwing

It is supposed that we have no men nowadays who could compete on even terms with the old archers. A man named Uri Bailey recently died in this State who was worthy of a place with the old-time soldiers.

It's the Nail on the Head

They do the right thing in the right way. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels thoroughly and effectively. They perspire, rather than force.

Confidence!

Yes, public confidence, that is the keynote of our modern advertising. The day for looking the public in the eye and we wouldn't do it if we could. Customers are never "fooled" when they buy Klein's.

The Causes of Cobwebs.

The celebrated English poet, Dryden, had a wife who was ambitious to write poetry as her husband. So she took her self up in her apartments to compose verses.

Prevention is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease.
