

Hicks on the Weather.

How Irk H. Hicks in Word and Work makes the following prognostication for February.

The first February storm period will center about the 3d. By this date warmer weather, low barometer, and well defined storm movements will be advancing from western regions. By the 10th, heavy storms of rain and snow will have visited in their eastward progress most of the country. The chances for dangerous blizzards are many to the northward about the 14th, 18th and 22d. About the same date the first battle between the warm equatorial currents will take place around the southern bank of storm movements. Sharp thunder storms with rain, turning to hail and sleet, will be the normal results. Cold days will follow until about the 26th and 29th, when the temperature will rise and secondary storms will again pass from west to east. At the winding up of every storm period, whether your section has been touched by actual storms or not, look for winds to shift to north and for the return of cold.

The 10th is the central day of the next regular period. This means that by that date it will be growing warmer in western parts of the country, storms will be organizing, winds shifting to east and south, and clearing low great atmospheric pressure will prepare the path for the storm king in his stride toward the Atlantic. By the evening of the 13th he will "get there," leaving in his rear a fresh supply of polar air, with snow to the north, and gorge streams, overflowing narrow valleys and overflowing low regions. The reactionary movements of temperatures and storms will center on the 21st and days touching it. Look for the different phases of all periods of disturbance from one to three days earlier in the West than in the Atlantic regions. Remember that the winds blow in the direction of the center of the disturbance, giving warmer winds from the east and south when the center is in the west, and colder winds from the west and north when the center of the storm is in the east.

About the 25th all these indications will show to all observers that storm conditions are becoming well defined in the west. The 26th is the central day of the period. The new storm on the 27th, an equivalent of the storm on March 2d, and the growing strength of our central equatorial will add to the disturbances which are sure to result from about the 26th to 29th. The storm will most likely exhibit all the characteristics of blizzards in the north, changing to rain and sleet, and finally to storms of tropical and cyclonic tendency in middle and southern sections. No one need be caught unawares, as the elements will give timely warning to him who will heed, indicating clearly the kind of phenomena to be expected locally. General cold will be on as February merges into March.

22-44 A Word.

The supposed possibility of a war with Chile has induced the Western Union Telegraph Company to lower its rates to that country. Hereafter the regular rate will be $2.44 per word, Superintending Office yesterday received notice that the rates heretofore were $1.61 per word.

Talking by wire to the Chilean country is an expensive business. Secretary Blaine's ultimatum addressed to Minister Green on October 10th, 1891, and consequently cost nearly $2,500.

The Chilean Minister at Washington yesterday received a 300-word cyprier from Chile, which must have cost $420, and which, had it been sent by other means, would have cost ten times that amount.

The line from here to Chile is almost in a direct line. The wires are used to Galveston, where the Gulf cable to Vera Cruz, Mexico, extends directly across Mexico to the Pacific Ocean, and thence by cable to Santiago de Panama.

Dogs of War Were Ready.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Navy Department officials now admit that the Government was fully prepared to make a wintered-off almost concentrated attack on Chile's ports, and enforce its demands against that country if the emergency had arisen. The Pacific squadron (consisting of the San Francisco, Charleston, Albatross, Boston and Yorktown) would have been speedily reinforced by the South Atlantic squadron, led at Montevideo (consisting of the Chicago, Atlanta, Bennington and the Philadelphia and Concord, of the North Atlantic squadron). The two last named vessels are now on their way to Montevideo. The Concord arrived at Bahia to-day, and the Philadelphia is probably beyond that port on her way to Montevideo. Should she touch at Bahia it is probable that she and the Concord will be ordered back to the West Indies.

The Miantonomoh, Newark and Venetia also were held in reserve for possible war service.

When Doctors All Agree.

It is a fact well established, that February and March are the most trying months to aged and enfeebled persons. Pneumonia, influenza and kindred chest affections, are most liable to get in their deadly work. There is but one thing to do: build up and fortify the system with a pure stimulant. Medical men all concur in this country agree that Kabin's "Silver Age" at $1.50 per quart, and "Diagnose" at $1.25 per quart, stand without a peer. If you want fine six year old Guckenleiner, Finch, Gibson, Overholt, or Bear Creek, you can have them at $1.00 per quart or six quarts for $5.00. We are recognized headquarters for the choicest brands of Wine, Liquor, Cordials, etc. etc. etc. express anywhere. Send for complete price list, mention this paper too.

Why She Killed Freds.

At the time great stores of coal, ammunition and provisions had been piled up on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts so the fleets should be amply supplied in case foreign ports should be closed to them. Arrangements had been made for the immediate use of a number of transports and auxiliary cruisers and the steamship Ohio was to be fitted out at Boston as a repair ship. Four steamers were chartered from the Earn Line Steamship Company, laden with coal and sent to Montevideo. It is believed that one of these steamers, the Montevideo, was to be fitted out at Boston as a repair ship. The vessels were to be used as coliers and would ply between the naval fleet and home ports.

The steamer Boston had been chartered for similar service on the Pacific coast, and other arrangements made so as to secure a delivery of 10,000 tons of coal a month at a cost of $100,000.

WHO WOULD HAVE SEIZED A CHILEAN PORT.

The plan contemplated the early seizure of a Chilean port for use as a base of operations. These preparations entailed great expense, roughly estimated at about $2,000,000. The foregoing estimate includes coal, the additional expense attending the pushing of work on vessels now in the harbor, and the extra work at the different yards and shops.

The orders of officers and men to the Ohio have been revoked and the work of fitting her out suspended.

TEN DAYS IN WASHINGTON.

The third popular excursion to Washington, via B. & O. R. R., from Pittsburgh, Wheeling, Parkersburg, Lexington, and Intermediate stations to Washington Junction, Md., was announced for Thursday, February 18th. The popularity of these winter trips to the National Capital via B. & O. is due to the exceedingly low rates, the excellence of the train service, with Pullman accommodations, and to the fact that the B. & O. is the shortest route.

The journey is delightful as well as instructive, while in Washington are more interesting sights than in any other American city. The museum, the art galleries, the White House, the public buildings—all to all of which admission is free—are attractions at all times appreciated.

Tickets from Pittsburgh, Wheeling, and Intermediate points to Washington are valid to Baltimore, and as they are good for ten days make time is afforded for side trips to Mt. Vernon, Old Point Comfort, and other adjacent points.

For time of trains and rates of fare consult appended table. For Parlor or sleeping Car accommodations and descriptive pamphlets address Newark, B. & O. agents. Train leaves B. & O. at 10:30 a. m. on Thursday, Feb. 18th, 1892. For rates, etc., see Circulars, B. & O. R. R., 100 N. 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa., or at any of our agents.

THE EXPLOSION OF A BOMB.

is not more sudden or unlooked for than the attack of some malignant disease which would not occur were the blood in order. To insure blood is due a great variety of pills that make life a burden.

All the year round, you may rely upon Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify the blood and invigorate the system. It's not like the carapillaries, that are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May. The "Discovery" works equally well at all times, and in all cases of blood-taints, or humors, no matter what their name or nature. It's the glorious blood-purifier, sold through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

"Is life worth living?" "That depends on the liver." Dr. Pierce's Pills are the best Liver Pills.

The Jews After Death.

Is the case of almost all Jews, the disjunctive of alliance between the celestial elements and the material body is denied by a lighted taper (as the symbol of immortality), a hygienic vessel of water, for ceremonial purification, and a napkin or towel. "Tahara," washing or purification, shortly precedes the funeral, and is usually performed as a privilege by volunteers. Stroud is plain or cotton, coffin without ornament, and burial without ostentation, because death levels all distinctions. Therefore poor and rich are entitled to the same respect, and the embarrassment so often occasioned by costly funerals is avoided. The last look upon the remains is customarily accompanied by a slight rest in the breast of the mourner's garment, to express grief. When the coffin is deposited in the grave, as it is in the Jewish custom, "May he repose in peace." Near relatives and friends, in succession, throw earth into the excavation, repeat the ninety-first Psalm, and then return to their homes. Among the reformed Jews, and with many of the orthodox, the funeral commiseration is of similar style and continues to those of Christian.

Waiting for the dead in a purely orthodox Jewish "house of mourning" is inexpressibly sad, and elaborately so. A sorrow which, like that of Rachel, refuses to be comforted. "Shiva," or the seven days of mourning, begins when the domicile is reached. During this period, unless unavoidable necessity compel, the bereaved do not quit the dwelling, or attend to any ordinary vocation. Mourners assemble morning and evening, and prayer is offered for the repose of the deceased. Friends pay visits of condolence, and deeds of beneficence afford some relief to anguish. Including the Shiva, and following it, is a general mourning of thirty days—of twelve months for a parent, in which is total abstinence from activity or pleasure. Throughout the period of mourning for a parent the bereaved of both sexes attend every service of the synagogue, and recite along the kaddish. Standing in sable garments while others sit, they repeat what is not a prayer for the dead, but a eulogy of divine sovereignty, and an avowal of resignation to the All-Perfect Will. Jewish law requires separate cemeteries, but is not invariable observed.

Death of the "Hero of Malvern."

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—General Henry A. Barnum, "the hero of Malvern Hill," is dead. He contracted pneumonia at a ball General Barnum was shot through the body at Malvern and left for dead by his companions. The next day another body supposed to be his was buried and a funeral oration delivered here. All the while the general was in the possession of the Confederates.

Chicago councils have resolved to allow no new buildings in that city more than 150 feet high.
