Window Shades, Trunks and Satchels, Rubber Clothing, &c. We take genuine pleasure in having our friends inspect the above novelties.

The Columbus of History. The Columbus of history is one of its least pleasing characters. He was evidently a sea-rotter and a buccaner.

The Sunflower. In return for the corn which Uncle Sam proposes to teach the Russians how to eat, it is seriously suggested that we should adopt a few hints from them respecting the usefulness of the sunflower.

Specimen Cases. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree.

A Fatal Success. The little woman was blue and looked tired, and of course the neighbors dropped in and tried to sympathize with her.

Indian Courage. The annals of our country can show us many a hero for his numbers to trained regular troops of the white race as the American Indian.

Columbus no Saint. But who was this famous navigator and what were his character and aims? The common legend paints him in saint-like and superhuman colors.

Danger in Reaching Land. A little boat usually brings its occupants safely to the shore, but if you are ever cast away by shipwreck, choose that you may sight a ship rather than land.

Cold Comfort. Mr. Silmure. "To tell the truth, I am a little afraid to ask your father for your hand."

A Prophecy. Dasha-way. "There is one thing about it, I'll never marry a girl who doesn't dress well."

Happy Homes. A woman may do her level best to make a happy home for her husband and children, but if she is treated as a slave and only given her board and clothing in payment for her services.

Now Try This. It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs.
