Go to Benford's drug store for wall paper.

Be liberal with your flowers on Memorial Day.

Wall and ceiling papers at Benford's drug store.

The New York City Water Commission will build an $8,000,000 dam. It will hold 40,000,000 gallons of water.

Ice cream for old and young at Snyder's ice cream.

While Capt. shot State Senator R. D. Money, of Pasquotank county, N. C., because he refused to live with his wife.

Wall paper of all the latest patterns and prices also at Benford's drug store.

It is estimated that 60,000 people in Pennsylvania own their homes through their connection with Building and Loan Associations.

New Millinery Goods coming almost daily. They are cheap.

MRS. A. E. UHL.

Ladies are now beginning to wear gold rings upon their thumbs. This is a new fad upon which the dear creatures will soon be loaded in gloves.

Are you going to paper your walls this spring? If so, go to Benford's for the paper. His prices are the cheapest.

How rain and signs of rain are the conditions in this region so far in May, producing three or four cloudy days for one of sunshine.

The most handsome line of Millinery goods in the County and the largest variety at the lowest prices.

MRS. A. E. UHL.

A farmer, Me., man received $5 from a friend a few days ago to whom he had loaned a like amount 25 years ago. Accompanying the payment was a diamond ring of large value as interest.

WANTED—Parties having second-growth ash and hickory timber suitable for making spokes to write to us for terms and specifications. Rockwood Spoke Factory, Rockwood, Pa.

The River Brethren of Pennsylvania are establishing colonies in Arizona, which is a very good thing for Arizona, if that benighted country wants citizens who do not live by run and revolvers.

Readers of the HERALD should not forget that J. S. Snyder, the druggist, can fit their eye with glasses as well as any optician. He has had five or six years experience in handling Dr. King's.

If there's the British bushel has been reckoned at 60 pounds of grain, but a change having been made in the standard weight the bushel in future will be defined by 60 pounds.

Indiana Normal School, by recent purchase, has enlarged its grounds to twenty-five acres. Nature gave them a fine forest grove, and art surrounds their buildings with beautiful floral gardens. It is one of the finest school sites in the State.

Sally's three tailed comet can now be seen between two and four o'clock in the morning. It is situated low down in the northwest heavens, between the great square of Pegasus and Cassiopeia's chair in the direction of the North star.

In all cases, where a mild but effective aperient is needed, Ayer's Pills are the best. They improve the appetite, restore healthy action, promote digestion, and regulate every function. No pill is in greater demand, or more highly recommended by the profession.

Michael Hoover, of East Donegal, Lancaster county, has a Bible which was printed in Germany 302 years ago. It was brought to this country by Mr. Hoover's grandfather many years ago. He has refused $80 for it offered by a collector of old books.

Was a desire of giving her husband a true picture of herself, a woman in Atchison, Kan. had her photograph taken as she appeared at daily housework in her kitchen dress, with a baby on one arm and broom and dustpan on the other.

Dyspepsia has driven to an early and even suicidal grave many a man, who, if he had used the virtues of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, would be alive to-day and in the enjoyment of health and competence. Sufferer, be warned in season, and don't allow the system to run down.

Go to Gen. W. Benford's drug store and take a look at the handsomest line of wall paper ever brought to Somerset, before you make your purchases this spring. He has a complete stock of all the very latest designs and his prices are the lowest in town.

And rain the month of May is boasted more than any other month of the year. Spring breezes and storms have had serious delays in their airings this year—while snow and rain and if rode have no less disgruntled mother large class. The indications, however, are that the days for such mourning have passed and glorious spring is here.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, May 8th, Joseph Parte, an Italian, was killed during the progress of a riot in the Italian quarter of Altoona. Parte was acting the part of a peacemaker when death came to him suddenly from a brick thrown by Jesse Morrella. The latter fled, but the officer succeeded in locating him in Newark N. J., where he was arrested yesterday. He refused, however, to return peaceably, and it will be necessary to take out a requisition.

"Cucumbers are a greatly maligned vegetable," said a man who insists upon having vegetables freshly picked every day from his own garden during the summer. "They are considered by the majority of persons to be unhealthy; whereas if eaten within a few hours after they are gathered they are, on the contrary, very wholesome—quite as much so in my estimation as melons. My great-grand father was hale and hearty at 97, and I remember being told that his diet consisted chiefly of cucumbers and honey."—New York Tribune.

Capt. Daniel K. Rearney, aged eighty years, the well-known proprietor of the American House at Hollidaysburg for thirty years and one of the most prominent and wealthiest citizens of that place, died Tuesday from paralysis. Captain Rearney was a prominent contractor and built the first court house and jail in Blair county in 1846. He organized and captained the famous Hollidaysburg Grays, who did such valiant service in the War of the Rebellion. He was the father of Lieutenant Lazarus Lowry Rearney, of the United States Navy who was one of the heroes of the Samoa affair, and who brought the Greely relief ship Thetis from England.

The president of the Johnstown board of health and the inspector for the district visited South Fork on Thursday to investigate the causes for the numerous cases of typhoid fever prevailing there. They found the condition of the place very unsanitary. Some of the wells are in an unwholesome state. Since the breaking out of the fever there have been ninety-five to one hundred well-defined cases and there are at present from fifteen to twenty cases, some of them just developing. On Thursday night a meeting of citizens was held at which it was unanimously agreed that water works should be constructed, preferably by private enterprise.

Last week Mr. Lemuel Martin died at his home in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, on the farm where he was born eighty-nine years before, and during that long lifetime had never been more than twenty-five miles away from home. He never attended school a day in his life, but was taught at home by his father, and was one of the best read men in the vicinity, being quite a scholar in both English and German. He was especially well versed in history, both ancient and modern, and was possessed of a phenomenal memory. He was an honest, upright, conscientious and religious man, and was known to walk three miles to pay a debt of ten cents rather than allow it to go over due.

Diphtheria, croup, scarlet fever and chicken pox are reported in town.

Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold a lawn fete in the Court House yard, on Friday and Saturday, June 17th and 18th.

A valuable cow belonging to A. H. Fenner was killed by a locomotive near the trestle below town about 5 o'clock Sunday evening.

Newly erected bulletin boards around the old Glade House lot announce the coming of the first circus of the season. It will pitch its tents here early in June.

One of our typos made a beastly bungle out of Mrs. M. M. Tredwell's local last week. We trust none of her competitors in business took offense at it as the responsibility rests with our devil entirely.

H. H. Smith has just completed the registration of voters of Brothersvalley township, 336 names appear on it this year, which is an addition of about 60 names, 30 of whom will cast their first vote this fall.

A father and son by the name of Pritts spent Monday night in the borough lockup. Both gentlemen hail from the moonshine district and were laboring under a large sized jag of "mountain dew."

Judging from the number of drunken men seen on our streets at an early hour Monday morning, there was a great quantity of "moonshine" brought to town by wiltnesses in the "moonshine" cases.

Elsewhere on this page will be found a corrected time table of trains on the Somerset & Cambria R. R. under the summer arrangement which went into effect Sunday last. Cut it out and paste it in your hat.

Next Sunday evening R. P. Cummins Post, G. A. R., and Capt. James Hinchman Camp, Sons of Veterans, will attend the Christian church in a body, and upon their request Elder C. W. Granger will deliver the Memorial sermon.

D. D. Blauch, of Johnstown, Past Grand Chief of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, will be in Somerset this evening, 25th inst., for the purpose of exemplifying the works of the Castle. A large number of Knights are expected to be present.

The Somerset Dairy Company, formerly composed of George H. Love and Russel Uhl, was reorganized Friday when Edward M. Love, the firm's book keeper, was admitted into partnership. The capital stock of the company was increased from $30,000 to $50,000.

On May 16th the three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Friedline, of Jennertown, died of diphtheria, and on May 19th their ten year-old child died of the same disease. The interments were made at Jennertown. Mrs. Friedline is a daughter of the late Herman Umberger.

The HERALD acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present at the opening of the Pittsburg Times Building, on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 31st. A description of the new Times building was published in this paper several weeks ago. It is reported to be the best equipped printing house in the United States.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Electric Light Company held Monday evening the building of the Power house was awarded to Isaac Jones. The building will be erected on the west end of Sanner street. Dimensions 36 feet by 52 feet; the roof and siding to be of iron. The building will be completed by July 1st.

A piano agent named Williams, whose home is in Bedford county, had his leg broken in a novel manner at Hooversville Thursday morning. He was driving a team of ponies, and as the train passed at that place he got out of the buggy to hold them. While standing by their heads one of them struck out with its front foot, hitting him on the leg and breaking the bones in that member.

The borough authorities are considerably potting in sewers along Main street, leading into the streams at the east and west ends of town. In case they conclude to do so, and it is probable that they will at an early date, certain restrictions will be placed upon property holders who have been violating all sanitary laws for years past by dumping filth and garbage into the gutters, it is proposed to relieve.

The town of Bedford, Pa., has its own water works, which were built at a cost of one hundred thousand dollars. And yet the Gazette confesses that only the excessive rain fall since the works were constructed has saved the town from a water famine. The supply from the reservoir being totally inadequate for the needs of the town, a month's dry spell would leave the town without water, and, as for protection against fire, a large public cistern is the only dependence. The Gazette's presentation of facts is strongly in favor of water works being operated by private companies.—Johnstown Tribune.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, May 8th, Joseph Parte, an Italian, was killed during the progress of a riot in the Italian quarter of Altoona. Parte was acting the part of a peacemaker when death came to him suddenly from a brick thrown by Jesse Morrella. The latter fled, but the officer succeeded in locating him in Newark N. Sam Buck, a young brakeman on the Somerset & Cambria R. R., met with a very peculiar and at the same time fortunate accident in the Johnstown yards Friday afternoon. While engaged in the performance of his duties he was thrown under the wheels of a gondola. Scrambling from under the moving train the calf of his left leg was caught by the wheels. The flesh was stripped from the bone almost the entire distance from the knee to the ankle and was only held by a very few shreds. The young man was removed to his home at Rockwood where his wound is healing very nicely.

One day last week a Uniontown liveryman hired a team of horses valued at $250 to a stranger who drove them to Petersburg, and sold them to Daniel Augustine, the well-known stock dealer of that township. The next day Mr. Augustine sold the team to a resident of Addison township and this gentleman sold them to Scott Sterner, of Confluence. A day or two following Sterner sold the team back to Augustine. About this time the original owner of the horses went to Addison and demanded the team. Mr. Augustine refused to give the horses up and Monday evening the liveryman, W. H. Collier, came to Somerset for the purpose of getting out a writ of replevin and having the Sheriff serve it.

About fifty-four years ago Washington Megahan, the well-known contractor and builder of this place, was working at his trade, that of a plasterer, in Blair county, when he accidentally swallowed a lathing nail. He was very much alarmed about the accident at the time but as he felt no evil results from the extraordinary diet in the course of two or three weeks he had forgotten all about it. Recently, however, Mr. Megahan has felt a peculiar sensation in the palm of his left hand and one day last week he was able to feel the outline of a small nail, and then it was that he remembered having swallowed the lathing nail 54 years before. The nail is rapidly working its way through the flesh of his hand and when it has worked up under the skin Mr. Megahan will have a physician remove it.

The editor of this column was trout fishing in the mountains above New Baltimore, last week and he wants to make an honest confession in regard to his catch. In two days fishing he took two trout, one 7 and the other 12 inches long, but he brought home probably the nicest lot of speckled beauties ever seen in Somerset; and this is how it came about. Several miles above the mouth of the stream he fell in with two friends from that region, Chauncy Lowry and Henry Walker. It soon became apparent that it was no trick at all for Mr. Lowry to catch fish. By three o'clock in the afternoon he had hooked 43, measuring from 5 to 14 inches. They were duly transferred to the HERALD basket with Mr. Lowry's compliments. Next morning our friend "Joe" Gardill concluded to try his luck and as a consequence the HERALD basket received another donation, this time of 14 trout all measuring over 12 inches.

Where Was Moses, Anyhow?

The town council and Electric Light Company are still at loggerheads in regard to lighting the streets and all propositions are off. The Electric Light Company offered to put in ten 2000 candle power arc lights for $700, for an all-night service, or a mid-night service of the same number of lights for $600, per annum.

The council rejected this proposition and agreed to pay $500, for the same number of 2000 candle power lights for an all night service, and reserved the right to renew the contract at the same figure for an indefinite number of years.

Meyersdale pays $40 per arc light per annum; Latrobe pays $65; Connellsville pays $75; Uniontown pays $75; Greensburg pays $80; Johnstown pays $108. All of the above towns have an all night service.

Bedford pays $60 per light for a mid-night service.

Let the town council make no mistake in contracting for electric lights. The people want an all-night service or none at all.

The council claim that they are in no way responsible for the delay in putting in an electric light plant, as it was understood by all parties concerned when the franchise of the streets was granted the Electric Light Company that they would erect a plant no matter whether the borough corporation took light or not. The people are unanimous in crying "let us have light," but the council seem to have a number of other little items of expense that will require close figuring to keep the borough out of debt and they are not willing to incur any debt for electric light so long as the moon continues to shine. Let us have light.

Two Parties After Brown.

There is but little doubt that Jake Brown who is wanted for assaulting little Bimmie Young is being sheltered by George Shanlis, whose home is among the foot-hills of the Laurel Hill mountains in Westmoreland county, near Kuhn postoffice in this county. Shanlis has served at least three terms in the penitentiary and was a fellow inmate of Brown's. Brown was tracked into Westmoreland county the day following the assault and last Friday morning when detectives George Fisher and two other officers were traveling through that section of the country hunting for illicit stills, they concluded to search Shanlis's house hoping to find Brown there. Shanlis's house stands in a clearing, the woods to the rear of his house being only about one rod from the back door. It was about half-past 4 o'clock in the morning when the officers came in sight of Shanlis's and detective Fisher was instructing his men how to proceed. The guide he had taken with him the night before was very deaf and in trying to make him hear the dogs at Shanlis's house became alarmed at Fisher's voice and set up a howl. Brown was seen dashing out of the back door and into the woods. He was dressed only in his night clothes. The officers tracked him through the mud for several miles before they abandoned the search.

Cure for "Currant Worms."

This is the season when the "currant worm," which has been so destructive to currant and gooseberry bushes begins its ravages. An easy and sure preventive is the use of tobacco dust, an article that can be obtained from cigar manufacturers. It is best to begin early and scatter the dust over the leaves and blossoms, in the evening or morning when the dew is on, so that it will adhere. It is best, also, to put some of it around the roots of the bushes. We have frequently made use of this article and never knew it to fail. If the first application is not sufficient a second should be made in a day or two. It is more convenient of application than most other remedies.—Lancaster Inquirer.

Spring Fever.

The gradual opening of the budding trees and the shooting upwards of the blades of grass are signs of the advent of spring. The farmer is already at work stimulating the growth of his crop by fertilizers to insure a rich harvest. Nature needs stimulation and why should not man? The system needs building up after the attacks of Grippe and cold, and the only tonic is pure whiskey. Max Klein, of Allegheny, Pa., has the endorsement of eminent physicians, certifying to the purity of his famous Silver Age and Duquesne Rye Whiskies. Sold everywhere at $1.50 and $1.25 per full quart. Six-year-old Penna Rye Whiskies, absolutely pure at $1.00 per quart or 6 quarts for $5.00. Send for catalogue and price list of all kinds of liquors to Max Klein, 82 Federal Street, Allegheny, Pa.

Would inform the progressive farmers of Somerset County that I am again in the field with a full line of Fertilizers, and by self or my agent will call to see you to solicit your orders for the coming season. My agents this season are S. B. Yoder, Pugh, Pa., Joseph Beltman, Stanton's Mills, Pa., W. H. Landis, Meyersdale, Pa., Solomon Davis, Normalville, Pa., and Peter Fink, Somerset, Pa., who is also delivering and shipping agent at Somerset, where goods will be kept in stock throughout the season.

I would thank all for their most liberal patronage during past seasons, and hope all will favor myself or my agents with your orders for both spring and fall crops.

Should we miss seeing you, just drop us a line early and you will have our very best attention.

An Indiana County Rebel.

Robert Notley, brother of John F. Notley, of Cherrytree, passed through this place on Wednesday last, for his home in Missouri. He was born in this county and went West to grow up with the country forty-six years ago. He was a resident of Texas when the war between the North and South broke out, and he entered the Rebel Army and served during the war, escaping without a wound. Two of his sons were also in the army. He is now a well-to-do farmer in Missouri, and his recent visit here was the first since he left home nearly a half century ago.—Indiana Messenger.

Crimes and Criminals.

Quarter Sessions Court Largely Attended—Fifty-Six Cases Down for Trial—B. F. Snyder Foreman of the Grand Jury.

WHOLESALE LIQUOR LICENSES GRANTED.

The regular term of May court opened at 10 o'clock Monday morning with Judges Longenecker, Pile and Biesecker on the bench.

The morning session was occupied in hearing motions from attorneys and calling over the jury lists. Of the twenty-four grand jurors summoned twenty-three answered to their names. B. F. Snyder, of Upper Turkeyfoot township was appointed foreman of the grand jury, and as a result of their first half day's labor they came into court Monday evening with true bills in eight furoie it rot cases.

There are fifty-six cases down for trial on the criminal calendar and it will probably be Saturday morning before the grand jury will complete their labors.

Of the seventy-two traverse jurors summoned all but three answered to their names when called. The three absentees were afterward excused by the Court from attendance during the week.

Constable Jacob Friedline, of Jenner township, was appointed additional tip-stave for the present term of court.

Charles Spangler, indicted at the last term of court for burglarly, was the first of the many malefactors awaiting trial to be put on his defense. Charles is an agile, wiry little fellow, about twenty-five years of age with a frank, open countenance and a very bad character. Two merchants of Stoystown, his native village, Captain Noah Bowman and C. H. Shockey, accused him of burglariously entering their respective stores and feloniously taking and carrying away goods, wares and merchandise of considerable value. The trial consumed all of Monday afternoon and the greater portion of Tuesday morning. Judge Longenecker instructed the jury that the evidence laid before them would not warrant them in finding the defendant guilty of burglary, but strongly intimated that larceny was about the size of Charles's offense. The jury were only out a few moments when they returned with a verdict of guilty of larceny in each case.

Spangler did time in the Western penitentiary for fifteen months for breaking into the store of Josiah Specht some three years ago.

If the Millers, father and son, either or both, are convicted, "Jake" Garey and "Abe" Fletcher will be put on their trial as accessories. If they are acquitted the cases against Garey and Fletcher will be abandoned.

Santelberger and "Wils" Garey cannot be tried until "Bill" Pritts has first been convicted, and as that worthy has not [illegible] there is no telling when [illegible] will take place.

[illegible] LIQUOR LICENSE GRANTED.

[illegible] attendance is an unusually [illegible] likely increase in size later [illegible] in the murder cases are [illegible] hotels were crowded to [illegible] Monday night and [illegible] people by the score. [illegible] get accommodations at [illegible] in boarding houses [illegible]. All day Tuesday [illegible] ked to suffocation.

[illegible] LIQUOR.

[illegible] witnesses have been [illegible] and in the "moonshine" cases and they are all here, many of them bringing a goodly supply of their favorite brand of "moonshine" with them. The adherents of Miller and Hochstetler appear to be about equally divided as to numbers and the various members of the different factions stand ready to fight with each other at the drop of a hat. Squads of them came into contact at different times yesterday and several ugly fights resulted. The borough "cooler" sheltered two of them from the rain of Monday night and the borough exchequer was somewhat enlarged by the fines they paid to Mayor Weifley Tuesday morning.

Elmer Fordish, indicted for murdering Niland on a B. & O. engine early in March, will probably be called for trial Wednesday afternoon or Thursday morning. District Attorney Colborn will be assisted by W. H. Koontz, Esq., in this case and Fordish will be defended by ex-Judge Boer and Thomas M. Marshall, the famous Pittsburg criminal lawyer.

The "moonshine" cases will not be called until the Fordish case is disposed of and it will probably be the middle of next week before "General Sigel" Miller and his son, "Bob" will know whether or not they will be sent to meet the Chief of the "New Constitution." Jonathan Hochstetler, on a day named by the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Worth Thinking About.

When Dry Goods merchants advise you not to come to my Store for Millinery Goods they are not at all concerned whether you buy Millinery Goods cheap and fashionable or not, but they are anxious on their own account for fear you will see how cheap I am selling Dry Goods. The same applies to Millinery Houses when they advise you not to come to my Store to buy Dry Goods. They try to make you believe that they are very much interested in your welfare. The truth is they are afraid you will find out that you can do better in their lines with me than with them. It is a Combination Scheme.

Dirge by the Band.
Prayer by Rev. John Domer.
Song.

Part 1st	A. C. Davis.
" 2d	Hiram King.
" 3d	J. M. Cook.
" 4th	Geo. H. Love.

Strewing of Flowers.

The procession will then countermarch to Main street, west to Rosina, south to Patriot street, and Reformed Cemetery, where concluding decorations will take place.

The column will then move east on Patriot to Main cross street, thence to the Soldiers' Monument in Court House square.

Song.
Oration by Conrad P. P. Saylor.
Benediction by Rev. J. A. Younkins.

A cordial invitation is extended to the different orders of the town, and to all soldiers and citizens to unite with us in decorating with flowers, the graves of comrads who imperilled their lives in defence of our country.

Chief Marshal, OLIVER KNEPPER,

Lack of Time.

Our unusual trade, especially in Millinery, this spring, has so entirely engrossed us that we had not even time to inquire whether our business friends and neighbors had been combining against us. We would be fain to accuse them of such a thing. With our hands so full, even if it were becoming in ladies, we have no time and no inclination to "kick." We envy no one's success, but invite our friends to call and see our almost endless stock of Millinery, Notions, Laces, Trimmings, Gloves, Hose, Jewelry etc., etc. and if you can do better elsewhere, go there and be happy.

Respectfully,
MRS. TREDWELL & CO.

Ananias Emert is busily engaged building a new house for himself and family.

Mrs. H. D. Lohr, who has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia for several weeks, is slowly recovering.

Farmers who have planted their corn are complaining of the wet weather, as they fear they will have to replant unless there is a speedy cessation of the rain.

There has been an unusually large fatality among the horses in Quemahoning and Jenner townships the past month. One farmer lost four and some twenty have died during the past six weeks.

Mrs. Hannah J. Rhoads has gone to live with her son-in-law, Jas. Biesecker, in Jenner township. She had been living by herself for a number of years and as she is now nearly 80 years of age she concluded that she had better give up house-keeping.

The report that Mrs. John Stuffi, who has visited Philadelphia several times for professional treatment for cancer, was about dying is not correct. Her general health is much improved and her ultimate recovery is confidently expected as a result of the operation she underwent several months ago.

Great injustice has been done to Dr. Joseph Crist of this place, by the circulation of a report that he has retired from the sewing machine business. Judging from the large number of machines he has taken away this Spring and sold we judge that trade in his line was never better. I don't know whether he is selling machines at lower prices than other agents that they report that he is preparing to go out of business. As to the doctor's going out of trade I fear it is very much like Rip Van Ripple's swearing off drinking, "this one don't count."

Our weather prophet, Fred Holder, informs us that in spite of the present apparent fair prospects for an ordinarily good fruit crop it will be far short of last year's crop, and assigns the following reasons: First, the apple and pear trees are blooming in the decline of the moon and the result will be that the fruit will drop from the trees prematurely. Second, on account of last season's large crop when the wormy fruit was left to rot under the trees; as a result the insects were not destroyed and will be much more numerous this fall and their ravages will be very great. Last season the insects did very little damage for the reason that the fruit crop the preceding season was a total failure, and they were practically exterminated through want of food.

Are the Cooleys at Work Again?

A band of robbers are terrorizing the citizens of Henry Clay and Wharton townships, Fayette county. John Thomas, who lives just across the State line in Maryland, was held up on the highway one day last week and robbed of $125, the proceeds of a sale of cattle he had made that day. The same day John Watson, a resident of Henry Clay township, was bound and gagged and his residence robbed of $8 in money and other valuables. Two horses were also taken from the stable of Andrew Moser, near Farmington, but were turned loose a few miles from town and were recovered the next day. A posse of citizens have been scouring the mountains in search of the desperadoes, but so far their search has been fruitless.

Notice to Contractors.

The school board of Jenner township will meet on Monday, June 6, 1892, to receive bids for the building of a new school house in the Maurer district.

Reduce the School Taxes.

The last legislature appropriated five million dollars of the monies in the State Treasury for school purposes. This was done expressly to relieve real estate owners from the unjust discrimination against them by the general revenue laws of the State. Now then, with this liberal appropriation, there is no need in most districts to levy more than one-half as many mills as were levied last year. School directors awaken to the interest of the people and don't heed the cry of the few non-tax paying school directors in the county, who want this extra appropriation to be diverted from its true purpose and apply it to increase of salaries, school charts, &c., &c. Now this must not be allowed; with the universal depression of all the agricultural interest of the county, low prices of produce, dull markets, general stagnation in business, this money especially intended to reduce the school taxes at least one-half, must not be misappropriated. School directors, the tax ridden people demand a reduction of the school taxes.

Unfavorable for Strawberries.

Cultivators of strawberry beds complain that so much rain is not favorable for an early crop of this delicious product, and begin to forbode evil from the effects of such continued wet ground. It often happens that the forebodings of soil cultivators are not realized, which it is hoped will be the case now with strawberry bed cultivation, as this delicious product has become of the character of a necessary of life.

A Very Diminutive Girl.

There lives in the second district of Guilford township, not far from Greenwood, a girl who is perhaps one of the smallest for her age in our neighborhood. Maggie West is her name and her father Adam West is an honest, hardworking ore miner. Maggie is 14 years old in June and is but 2 feet 8½ inches tall. Her weight is only 34 pounds. She is a bright, interesting and attractive child. It is said that should the inducement be strong enough her parents are not averse to making a contract for her appearance before the public.—Franklin Repository.
