

He attracted considerable attention, even in Chicago, where deformities and beggars description of the Grant Monument: are at every turn, for the terrible character | The architect, Mr. John H. Dancon, of of his injury. Both legs had been taken New York, has designed a classical strucsidewalk of one of the busy West Side the climate. streets a few days ago, leaning back The inside is to be pure white, with against a pile of fumber that lay at the the exception of some well chosen ornaedge of the walk. Without the support mentation in black. The foundations of he must have lost his balance, for he used the edifice are now finished, and the no crutches, and it appeared that his first course of granite ten feet in height, hands were the only propelling power he has been put under construction. The could use. The poor wretch's overcoat was longer points of the upper part of the city, is than he was, and the skirts of it were placed at a slight angle to the Riverside spread out around him on the walk, Drive, so as squarely to face the point to while before him iay his hat upturned the south on that approach where it first for alms.

He needed the aid of no verbal appeal. forms the terminus to the vista of 123d Everyone noticed him, and almost all street looking toward the west. In gengave of their substance. A gambler eral dimensions it is a square of about dropped in a dollar and felt that he had 100 feet at ground-line, exclusive of the and geese ?" earned luck for a week. Pretty girls and steps and portion projection. The total their attentive companions reduced their height of the mausoleum will be 160 feet pocket money. Even an Italian fruit from the base-line, or nearly 300 feet vender passing dropped a dime in the from the water-level of the Hudson rivhat with a thought that this was his er. From the centre of the hall floor to Easter offering, if a little late. Con- the dome is 100 feet, and the outer galtributilons were rapidly transferred to lery, 130 feet above the ground-line, will the substantial leather pocket in the afford a view of the surrounding country ragged overcoat. The man seemed to be for many miles. The interior of the getting uneasy. At last the hat was dome is supported by pendentives, figure emptied and returned to the other post subjects formed of marble mosaic, above of service on his head. Two men came which are thirteen openings into the inhurriedly out of the store in front of ner gallery. In the panels over these which the beggar had been transacting openings are placed the seals of the origbusiness and walked over to a pile of inal thirteen States, beneath disks with a sharp little laugh. the names and emblems of all the States. lumber.

"Get out," said one to the cripple Facing the south, near the beginning of "We want to hustle this lumber into the the step approaches, will be the pedestal ted. and equestrian statue of General Grant. hasement

And the deformed wretch placed his Surmounting four of the columns will be hands on the pavement, gave a hitch and placed equestrian statues of his principal a scramble, and drew out of a coal hole a commanders, and panels on the east and pair of excellent legs, terminated by west of the structure will receive bust reequally serviceable feet, which had been liefs of other officers associated with his on right principles. S'pose we set resting on the pile of coal under the victories. The black granite sorcopha- meetin' and talk it over." eidewalk. Several dollars' worth of the gus will rest in the crypt below the main coin of the republic jingled in his pockets | floor, directly under the dome, which as he entered the double-hinged, back- will receive light from the sky. action doors of the nearest institution for the amelioration of arid suffering.

Painting the Town Red.

Hugh Slicer, of the old banking tirm, Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chil-Greathouse & Slicer, told me that the blains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, laconic term, " painting the town red," and positively cures Piles, or no pay regrew out of a little argument between quired. It is guaranteed to give perfect Jakey Williams and a miner named satisfaction or money refunded. Price Rogers, which took place on a snowbank 25 cents per box. For sale by J. N. Sny- says I'm dirty as a pig. What do you before the door of the Fashion saloon in der. the spring of 1855. Certainly the town was painted red, and remined till the late spring carried away the bloody snow. If ever a brother's blood "called from the grave " the blood of that poor miner Depot during the hours at which the madid. But he should have left the withered Mexican woman alone and stuck to his mining claim, ten miles away. And Mary," the name arising from the usethso the miners did nothing.

Rogers fell a victim to what the boys sister women. used jocosely to call the "fatal five- In appearance she is distinctly rural shooter." There was but one weapon in and her countenance is of a cast that all the Sierras as fatal-to the man who would mislead the most suspicious of used it-as the five-shooter, and that minds. The properties with which she other was the Allan "pepper-box." The performs her act consists of a satchel and the reply. row between Rogers and redheaded a ticket to Bridgeport, the latter some-Williams began in the Fashion, Wil- what shopworn. Selecting a woman lisms following up with a knife and who looks sympathetic, Mary takes a Rogers firing his little five shooter as he seat in her immediate vicinity and proretreated into the street and up the snow- ceeds to give an imitation of a person bank. Here he fell dead, cot all to pieces, who is on the verge of an immediate colbut not till he had landed every bullet lapse. in his enemy's breast. This, of course, elicits an inquiry as Williams got well, and was, of course, a to what the matter is and gives Mary an "hero," He had killed his man in a opportunity to spring her little legend. hand-to-hand fight and was drunk with She has been in 'town all day shopping his importance. He did not long keep and her money went so quickly that it quiet. But his record is a low, cruel one. required the last penny of it to purchase He was in at the death of the famous her ticket back to Bridgeport. Cherokee Bob and his friends in Florence, Lunch had been forgotten and now Idaho, in 1862, and was finally knifed to she finds herself fainting with weakness the heart by a Mexican while United for the lack of the coin with which to of the window. Miss Brunt grabbed a gan State Marshal of Idaho. But the blood purchase a cup of coffee and something and fired 13 buckshot, striking Gilmore, from and the snow in Yroka! It spread and warm. spread and spread. They poured hot Supper waits in Bridgeport, but meanwater on it from the saloon, but that while only made it spread the more. The snow at length fell so deep that the open street loan money. Mary takes it, gives an became impassible, and men kept along idyllic name and address, and totters the sidewalks. But the blood came right away for the suppositious refreshmenta. up through it and spread and spread and Sympathetic female goes home, and after spread, till, as Hugh Slicer said, it a week or so it gradually dawns upon her Harper's Weekly gives the following Miss Busby had a good farm and it was well stocked and conducted by herself in a lucrative manner. Mr. Higgins pure alcohol to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACHING. Alcohol is good for leather; it is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief lived neighbor to her and had a pretty off at the thigh, leaving hardly a trace of ture, with an exterior composed of mate- good farm himself. One day he went in even a stump. He was planted on the rial as light as will stand the severity of and sat down on the porch steps and ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing too custly to use watched her shelling peas.

Farming On Wrong Principles.

"You've got a nice farm here, Miss Busby," he said at random. "I think so," she responded, with a touch of pride. "Got fields of truck growin all around." "Yes." "Got ten fine cows and a lot of other structure, which will be visible from all cattle." "Yes."

"Got some good horses and mules?" " Yes."

ber a ?"

"Got a lot of fat chickens and turkeys for a recipe which will enable us to make

"Yes." " Got money in the bank ?"

"Yes."

"Got no husband, have you?" This was so unexpected that Miss Busby almost dropped a basket of shelled peas on Mr. Higgins' head. "No," she answered hesitatingly.

cornering her. ". No."

be too soon, Maria?" inquired Mr. Hig-

Busby, and they talked it over successfully .- Detroit Free Press.

Agreeably to the provisions of an Act of As-sembly of Penrsylvania, directing the mode of selling unseated lands for taxes, passed the 12th day of March, A. D. 1515, and the serveral supple-ments thereto, the Treasurer of Somerest County, hereby gives notice that unless the School, Coun-ty, Boulding and Road Taxes due on the follow-ing unseated lands are paid before the day of sale the whole or such part of such tracet or purcel of land as will pay the taxes and costs will be sold at the Court House, in Somerset Borough, on MONDAY, JUNE 13, 1892.

for the arrearages of taxes due and costs accrued ADDISON.

"Coffee Mary."

The Monument

Injustice to the Pig Weary Mother-You little imp ! Look it yourself; you're as dirty as a pig! Willie (appealingly)-Papa, mamma hink of that?

ty harsh on the pig.

The only professional bunko "lady" in town is to be found at the Grand Central jority of the soburban trains depart.

She is known to the police as "Coffee od which she employs to victimize her ous fellow, and in answer to the old nan's question he said :

"Can't you take something off cf hat?" he asked

"Got a comfortable house and a good presents itself to the observer and it "Yes."

WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. We hold this offer open until

" Got most everything you need on WOLFF & RANDOLPH, Philadelphia. farm, haven't you?"

"Yes."

"A husband is mighty handy on farm sometimes," be ventured. "Have you got one ?" she asked with

" No;" he replied, "but-" "Have you got a wife?" she interrup-

"Have you one?" he quickly asked,

"Will this evenin' at early candle light

"Not at all, Hiram," responded Miss Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever

" Well, it seems to me, Miss Busby," said Mr. Higgins, " that we ain't farmin' " S'pose we do, Mr. Higgins."

Papa (calmly)-I think mamma's pret-

Something Off. A Maine man, notorious for his "near-

He is hard of hearing, and had missed ness," according to the Kennebec Jour-nol, lately went into a meat shop and inquired the price of a certain soup bone. The proprietor of the shop is a gener-

"Oh, I'll give you that," The customer put his hand to his ear,

ANODYNE

LIKEANYOTHER OFFIT DITENAL and RITEINAL une.

Jan. 1st, 1993.

BENERATION AFTER GENERATION

Every Sufferer

TREASURER'S SALE

We use Alcoho

Acme Blacking retails at 20c.

and at that price sells readily. Many people are so accustomed to buying a dress-ing or blacking at 5c, and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of

in a good leather preservative, painted the town red." An Old Bachelor's Lodgings.

Bachelor's Hall used to be a name for all that was forlorn and shabby-for dirt and disorder and discomfort. Nowadays deposits of what is described as "steel all that has changed. If you want to find a min who has all the luxuries of Gaswell-I thought the largest deposlife about him, call on a friend who keeps | its of steal on this continent were in the bachelor's hall, and you shall see what | Canadian banks. only the rooms of a selfish human being, who lives to think of his own comfort and nothing else can be.

What carpets he has! What curtains! What lonnges and cushions! Stained glass in his windows; all sorts of nice inventions for keeping food warm and wine cool. If you are intimate with him, he will show you the pretty things he bought in Paris and the comforts he purchased in England. If you are masculine, he will perhaps exhibit the portrants of his most charming lady friends. -those who worked him those slippers, wristlets and smoking caps. If you are feminine, he will let you know that nothing pleases him so much as tokens of a of coin may have been before it came inlady's friendship, in the shape of needlework, hemstitched handkerchiefs, embroidered table-cloths, or even pen-wipers and pin-cushions.

He could start a charity fair with his own possessions in the embroidery department, and he has everything in the line of decorative painting that man can have presented to him.

At the proper times, waiters from a hotel arrive with trays of delicacies, if he And how many are there that carry monprefers to eat at home. Snowy damask, ey in their boots or shoes and draw it glittering crystal, silver are there, A triend drops in and they smoke to their hearts' content; or, if so inclined they go out together and stay until sunrise, and no one objects.

In fact, a bachelor's residence nowaslays is a place as near man's idea of Paradise as any earthly spot can possibly be. And don't you believe the bachelor if he talks of being lonely or of being neglected. A few well placed twenty-five cent pieces always produce all the attention he desires from waiters and laund-resses. His buttons are never off; his dinner never warmed over ; his pillows never hard, or coat dusty.

And having tasted the sweets of this happy condition, who can wonder that long ago she ope the bachelor does not voluntarily resign it for the pleasure of being money-grind-

The dealer took pity on him. "Yes," he said, "call it ten cents." And the old man went home with a 400 comfortable sense of having driven a Struck the Wrong Girl.

FAVETTEVILLE, S. C., May 16 .- Seventeen miles below here Albert Gilmore, a notorious outlaw from South Carolina, entered the house of the house of the Rev. William

Miss Brunt there, forced her to prepare dinner for him at the point of a pistol. After eating heartily, with an oath he leaped out

A reward of $300 was out for Gilmore to which Miss Brunt becomes entitled, and al.e

that she has been taken in. A Reasonable Presumption. Dukane-I see in the newspapers something about the discovery of large ores" in New Mexico.

A Dangerous Habit.

"I can tell you," said a prominent physician to a representative of The Call, "what is a fruitful source of disease." "And what is it ?" "In riding in the street cars you have no doubt seen passengers, particularly women, take a piece of coin from a pocketbook and place it between the lips while waiting for the conductor to come or malarial fever, has taken you.

and a most dangerous one." "Why?" "Did you ever for a moment think," continued the physician, "where a piece to your possession, to what use it may have been put, or where its place of lodgment was? I have known many instances in which coins have been used to close the eyes of leprous Chinamen. Then again, there is a certrin class of women who are superstitious and believe that if they will place in their stocking the first piece of coin they re eive in the day luck will follow them all day long. fit or cure you.

think of money that has been used in the manner I have described being placed between the lips of any one-man or woman. Money carries with it many a blessing, but it also carries many a curse, for bright as it is, it carries upon its face the germs of many a disease which is communicated to the people in the manner I have described .- San Francisco Call.

He Had Some Feeling.

One Billie, a ten-year-old, not 1,000 miles from Detroit, is about the worst youngster on record, and, strange to say, his fond mother doesn't seem to know it half as well as the neighbors do. Not spoke his min d very freely to William.	Ц. н. Ц.

ll my son to go to the bad ked, with a flash in her	These machines high for every foot i
, I didn't," was the prompt	They supply from 2 per minute, and will y he would go there some	up to 260 feet, and a miles. They are en dread disease, may be influenza or consumption, may be typhoid along. It is a habit formed by many Consumption is Lung Scrofula. For Scrofula in its myriad forms, and for all Liver, Blood and Lung diseases, the "Discovery" is an unequaled remedy. Everybody, now and then, feels "run-down " " playedout,"-with no power to generate vitality, in fact, just too sick to be well. That's where the right kind of medicine comes in, and the "Discovery" does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five

We elaim that nothing like it has been discovered for a blood-purifier. It's guaranteed by the makers. Your money is returned if it dosen't bene-

JEFFERSON.

JENNER.

