

The Somerset Herald.

GEORGE R. SCULL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, June 3, 1922.

Persons are over the season.

Call and ceiling papers at Benford's drug store.

Buy glass for old and young at Snyder's drug store.

The broad dependence is warranted to produce dependance.

Are you going to paper your walls this season? If so, go to Benford's.

Will paper of all the latest patterns and newest styles at Benford's drug store.

A family soap increases its own weight three times in a minute when growing.

See Military Goods coming almost daily. They are cheap.

Mrs. A. E. Uss.

The "rate days of June" have a curious and sudden atmosphere this season.

Every month the school children of Pennsylvania are $20 in the savings bank.

The month long it up it has done so far, the month will be marked for delays as we may.

"Ah, there I'm stuck on you," remarked the fly, as he struggled in the boarding-house gutter.

Bartholomew stole all the carpet from the Epitaph church in Lancaster, and the supposed owner has been caught.

The most handsome line of Military Goods in the County and the largest variety at the lowest prices.

Mrs. A. E. Uss.

An Arkansas cook recently used arsenic in place of salt. It was a miserable act, but it brought the whole house down.

Having been released from a tramp for a year, he is now in the county jail.

When a man declares that he's feeling down, it's probably more than he's enjoying.

The Johnstown team has organized themselves into a society and will charge $100 a day for a two-horse team.

Henry State Superintendent of Public Schools, Henry Housh, of Lebanon, was last night in jumping from a train at Gettysburg.

Lancaster county assessors have completed their returns and place the county's real estate at $10,000,000 and money at interest nearly $20,000,000.

The author of "The-r-a-b-o-o-m-de-a-y" has been discovered in Arizona. The Sheriff is using all his persuasion against a mob of citizens and a rope.

"You might just as well be out of the house if you don't get out," is an old saying. You can only get the latest styles at Mrs. Kate B. Coffroth's.

There is some fear expressed among the farmers that there will be a small crop of corn this year owing to the continued heavy rains during the past month.

The State Teacher's Association will hold its annual meeting at Gettysburg, Pa., on Friday, June 9, 1922, at 7 o'clock.

Gov. Pennell has made an address on popular education.

Mr. Bennett, one of the celebrated gang made up of the Burnall brothers, of Lancaster, has been released from the Eastern Penitentiary after serving a term of 12 years.

Seneca Falls belongs to the Smiler family of Pennsylvania and is found very generally on the American continent, but the variety that is richest in medicinal properties is the Seneca Falls, which is the famous Ayer's Cathartic.

Members of the Herald should not forget that J. N. Snyder, the druggist, can fit their eyes with glasses as well as any optician. He has had five or six years experience in handling Dr. King's.

Some time during last Saturday night burglars entered a boarding house at Oakton, Westmoreland county, and carried away the contents of the house, including a trunk in which was some $600 in money belonging to the proprietor.

Mr. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for a while a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in enjoyment of perfect health.

To lose Wm. Benford's drug store and take the best at the hands of the man who was brought to Somerset, before you make your purchase this spring. He has a complete stock of all the very latest designs and his prices are the lowest in town.

Good roads cannot be built for nothing and they cannot be maintained without intelligent supervision. But for themselves they soon pay for themselves twice over, putting two or three dollars in the farmer's pocket for every one they take out.

"Where did you get that hat?" is often heard among the boys on the streets who are up to all the slang of the day. The same explanation is given whenever they see a hat from Mrs. Kate B. Coffroth's. It's style takes their eye, don't you know.

It is hardly necessary to inform the ladies of Somerset county that warm weather has arrived. All who put their heads out of the house this season, should be reminded that it is necessary to inform them that the best place in Somerset county to buy their spring and summer millinery, and ladies' furnishing goods, is at Mrs. Kate B. Coffroth's.

Two companies of the famous "Backtick" regiment in the Union army came from the western region of the State to the Seneca river. They built two large rafts, loaded a flag at both ends and sailed down to Harrisburg upon their primitive craft. A small portion of one raft is still at Harrisburg and may be exhibited at the World's Fair.

A historian named Korsh was drowned in the Seneca river at Wm. Benford's drug store. He went into the water to bathe and was seized with cramps. His companions who were fully frightened, had him rescued and taken to the shore. He was revived in the water, but he died on the shore.

A. K. Snyder, proprietor of the Washington House, Seneca, Berks county, a few days ago had a historic hike over the road on his premises. It had been a Revolutionary day, and there is a well-known fact that the Continental Congress fled to Lancaster, Pa., in the house of J. K. Snyder, a Jeweler. Two persons were killed, and Mrs. Emma Scheffer, of Lancaster, Pa. and her two children of Turner were killed.

That the house was blown up deliberately was certain, as Mr. Turner was never known to have dynamite in his dwelling or store. The explosion was of great force, making windows and doors in such a manner that all were injured, and it is now endeavoring to find some one to the God who caused the explosion.

The stores along the line of the flood all suffered considerably, as some of the lower floors were under several feet of water.

The rainfall of the past month, more especially of the past week, has been unprecedented in this place. Thursday afternoon there was a cloud-burst about half-way between Lebanon and Harrisburg. The rain was reported to have risen to a height of two feet in a small run crossing the pike at that point in less than a half-hour's time, and did considerable damage to the fences and growing crops along its banks.

On the same day a heavy rain is reported in Jenner township. It is said to have washed poison and corn out of the ground.

The late Thomas Lohr, of Seneca township, was the owner of a remarkable horse, or rather the animal was what is known as a roan in color and his gait was what is called a pacer. He was foaled on the 5th day of April, 1881 and carried Mr. Lohr to the polls in 1888, and was the second choice of every subsequent election, spring and fall, until January 10, 1888, when his owner died. Upon the death of Mr. Lohr his widow took the horse as an appraisement of her husband's personal property. She gave the animal to her son Thomas, having first exacted a promise from him that he would keep the horse so long as he was able to manage his food, and that when that unlucky day arrived he would shoot him, as these words were spoken by the old man to his son, he was very much pleased. The horse was accordingly shot, and the elder Mr. Lohr left ten sons, seven of whom are still living and five the Republican ticket.

Thomas Lohr, Sr., got his first vote for General Harrison and named his eldest son for him.

Listonburg and Vicinity.

Our little town was thrown into quite an excitement on Saturday evening on account of a painful accident that happened Mrs. Jane Linton and her little girl. Mrs. Linton was driving a very vicious horse, when he became unmanageable and dashed down a steep hill and then threw both off of the buggy and ran off.

Mrs. Linton had to be carried to her home but the little girl was not hurt so bad. We are glad to learn they are improving as fast as can be expected.

Mr. Samuel Fullin, of this vicinity, met with quite a loss by the heavy rainstorm that passed through this section last Friday. All of his corn was killed by lightning bolts while standing under a tree.
