

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

NATIONAL.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. BENJ. HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, OF NEW YORK.

STATE.

FOR ELECTORS-AT-LARGE, E. F. JOYCE, WILLIAM WOOD, J. F. DUNLAP, WILLIAM B. SAYES.

FOR CONGRESSMEN-AT-LARGE, ALEXANDER McJOWELL, WILLIAM LILLY.

JUDICIARY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, JOHN DEAN, OF Blair County.

COUNTY.

FOR CLERKS, EDWARD SCULL, OF Somerset, Subject to the decision of the District conference.

FOR ASSEMBLY, EPHRAIM A. MILLER, OF Bradford, JOHN C. WELLES, OF Milford township, FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, J. A. BECKETT, OF Somerset.

FOR POOR DIRECTOR, J. D. WIGGLES, OF Somerset township, PRESIDENT Benjamin Harrison.

One good term deserves another.

Now can Whitelaw Reid his title clear.

The Republican platform is a credit to the party.

Watch for the dark horse at the Chicago convention.

Some thinking Republicans cannot be stamped by noise.

There will be no sniping in the tents of the Republican party.

It is votes that count, after all, in conventions as well as at the polls.

When the convention settled down to business it didn't waste much time.

Every Republican in Harrison man to-day, whatever he may have been last week.

The Democrats assemble in the Windy City next Tuesday. What are they going to do.

The reason why Ohio didn't get more places on the ticket is obvious: There were no more places.

Mr. Cleveland has gone to "Burdard's Bay," but he is not hunting for the political bird of that species.

The voice from Oregon has no music for the Democratic ear. She follows closely little Rhode Island's lead.

What the Democrats want now is a man with no record and no reputation, with no platform to stand on.

The Minneapolis Convention has nominated a winning ticket, just as every patriotic Republican was sure that it would.

It will be a fight between the old leaders Harrison and Cleveland, and the former goes into the contest with the prestige of victory.

The Republican party, following the homely advice of the immortal Lincoln, wisely refused to sweep horses in the middle of the stream.

The Republican ticket doesn't suit the free traders. But let us remember that there was no thought of pleasing them when it was nominated.

Don't bet; but the horse that has once won the race against the best blood in the field, and to-day is in better condition to run than then, is safe, to say the least.

PRESIDENT HARRISON beat Mr. Cleveland when he had all the power of the Federal administration behind him. He can do it again, and much more easily.

The Democrats should pause before nominating Cleveland, and reflect that Lord Sackville West will no longer be able to lend him his powerful assistance.

Bombs of Iowa, was a Republican and supported Blaine in 1884. His nomination for President by the Democrats would serve to considerably complicate the situation.

There is no more candid and unequivocal plank in the Republican platform than the silver plank. Senator Teller hasn't bolted it. If it suits him it will suit Colorado.

As one of the most distinguished Republican leaders said recently: "Men are nothing; the party is everything." The result of the election next November will be felt for the next quarter of a century.

Look at the ticket, dear Mr. Mugwump and Democrats. Take it into the sunlight and weigh it, measure it, test it as you will. There are no flaws in it, and it doesn't need the protection of a fly trap.

The Democratic Congress insists upon appropriating $100,000 for further experiments in rain making. An equal sum for experience in rain stopping would be much more to the purpose in this latitude.

PRESIDENT HARRISON'S RECORD is the Republican platform for 1892. It is big enough and broad enough and strong enough to hold all factions, all interests and all sections. Now is the time to get on board.

CHAS. MCKER, of Pennsylvania, won the crown of prophecy at Cincinnati. He placed Harrison's vote at 521 twenty-four hours before the ballot was taken—fourteen votes less than the actual number.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY is like Aristotle Ward's patriotism in wishing to sacrifice all his wife's relations in the service of his country. No Democrat is advocating retrenchment that effects his own object.

WHATSOEVER DIFFERENCES may have arisen in the party ranks during the anti-convention struggles, they are already forgotten, and all Republicans are united in their determination to make a successful and successful campaign.

No Democrat has the temerity to suggest a Southern man as a candidate for President. The old game of hoodwinking Southern States to seduce the solid South by choosing a Northern candidate will not be changed this year.

The Senate acted wisely in determining that there should be a free and open debate on the free silver question before the meeting of the national convention. To get rid of important questions by gag law and arbitrary parliamentary rulings is a Democratic, and not a Republican method.

That is a curious threat made at a meeting of a few people in Boston to threaten that if the Republican party doesn't stop the lynching of negroes, which is done usually in Southern States, the colored voters will leave the party and, presumably, vote with the party which provides most for the lynching episodes.

The ground is now cleared for a national exhibition of Democratic "harmony" at Chicago. Our friends the enemy have been very much disturbed over the exciting scenes at Minneapolis, and have been complaining of the Republican convention as a best given. Let us now wait and see whether the Democratic lion and lamb will lie down together.

Fun and will fought, the early battle's won, and high deserving holds the prize—Now clap firm hands and count the work well done.

And march whose grander honor lies. Let not the rumor that ambition breeds, When heated factions strive for place, Impair your strength, but where the chief taint lies Press manly on and win the race!

The present Democratic programme is not to reduce duties, but to abolish them—those on wool, binding twine, cotton ties, etc. There are conditions under which a reduction of duties, by increasing imports may increase the revenues. But the abolishing of a duty cannot, conceivably, have any other effect than to reduce the revenue. And yet the Democrats are granting that the government is bankrupt, without enough revenues to pay its obligations. This is a fine example of the consistency of Democratic policy.

The first State election of the year and the first election of members of the Fifty-first Congress is full of satisfaction and good omen to the Republican party. Despite unusual conditions and the presence of serious disturbing elements, the State of Oregon returns her natural Republican plurality, and elects both her Republican Congressmen and a Republican Legislature by very handsome majorities. The State ticket consisted of only candidates for Judge of Supreme Court and Attorney General. The count on the latter is not completed, but the Republican candidate for Supreme Judge has at least 1,000 plurality.

Let all Republicans remember that if the Democrats win this fall they will undoubtedly get control of every department of the Government and have full sway. The four years Cleveland spent in the White House, handicapped by a Republican Senate, will be as "innoxious as a daisy" itself compared to the exploits of the Democracy when in full power and free to let themselves loose. Owing to the peculiar situation, the Democrats, if they win this fall, will probably carry everything with them. They have not had such a chance since the war, and they are getting ready for such a fight as is not often seen. If there ever will be a time for Republicans to sink or lose or throw away their votes it is at this year.

The appalling disaster at Oil City and Titusville from the effects of the recent flood and fire is only second in magnitude to the terror of that of Johnston. In one respect the disaster of the oil river surpasses in horror that of Johnston, in that in the fire itself followed the flood destroying in its wake whatever life and property escaped the flood. It is now supposed that fully three hundred lives and several million dollars worth of property were destroyed. The appeals for aid have been promptly and substantially responded to. Governor Pattison and a committee visited the devastated cities on Tuesday and arranged with the local committee for the proper distribution of funds for the relief of the suffering. All who can do so should contribute something to relieve the people of this devastated region.

AFTER an animated contest in which the merits of every man mentioned received frank and unfeigned consideration, the representatives of the Republican party in that State, at the late convention held at Jackson, have chosen Mr. Harrison as their candidate for the Presidency. The convention having spoken, his choice is accepted with cordial unanimity by the Republican party. The contest no concluded will leave no sting. If free discussion had taken the place of deliberation, it might have been different. But the exact content of the fact. The utmost freedom of argument prevailed. The clear flame of free speech has purified the air.

In President Harrison the Republican party has a candidate for whom neither apology nor defense is required. His record as a soldier, as a legislator and as a President is known of all men, and the more it is studied the more admirable it appears. The President has been the soul of his own administration. However able his lieutenants, he has been the commander-in-chief; and the stamp of Harrison is on all the great achievements that have marked his three years of government. The two features of President Harrison's present term that will take rank among the great events of this generation are the enactment of the McKinley law and the outspoken and aggressive assertion of American rights in the controversy with Great Britain and with Chili. Prompted by a patriotism that knew no gulf, save the honor and the interests of the United States, President Harrison was as resolute in dealing with powerful England as with the South American Republic.

President Harrison has performed his duty in directing the internal affairs of the country with eminent sagacity. He gave hearty approval to the McKinley Law. The same man who in New York, had made his mark as a journalist and a diplomat, succeeding the great Horace Greasy, of the New York Tribune, has kept that journal in the front rank of American newspapers, a power throughout the land, a staunch advocate of protective principles and always for the right. As a diplomat in Paris he earned for America the respect and admiration of France, and secured from that country favors that had been refused to less skilled diplomats who had made earnest endeavors for the good of this country. Mr. Reid is a fitting companion to President Harrison on the ticket, and the fact that the gentleman was a warm personal friend of the political alliance of the most pleasant, and a Democratic, and not a Republican method.

THE PLATFORM.

Strong Statement of Party Principles.

The representatives of the Republican of the United States, assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible Republic, whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican party, reorganizing their country and the majestic march of the Republican labor, reaffirm the principles of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, workshops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles.

PROTECTIVE DUTY.

We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth and expansion. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the protective legislation of the Republican Congress.

We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products of our American labor, there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home.

We assert that the prices of manufactured goods of general consumption have been reduced under the operation of the Tariff Act of 1890.

We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff laws piecemeal as a means of giving advantage to cheap foreign labor, and lead every chief product of a number of States, and ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We defend the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff laws piecemeal as a means of giving advantage to cheap foreign labor, and lead every chief product of a number of States, and ask the people for their judgment thereon.

THE SILVER PLANK.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor the redemption of the National debt. The Democratic platform demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of the value of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen, demand that every dollar in circulation shall be made up of as good as any other.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps already taken by our Government to secure an international conference, to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

FREE BALLOT AND FAIR COUNT.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unobstructed ballot, to elect his officers and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he poor or rich, native or foreign born, white or black, the universal right guaranteed by the Constitution.

The friend honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our Republican institutions and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the parity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every State.

SOVEREIGNTY OUTRAGES.

We denounce the cruel inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain Southern States of the Union.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our merchant marine by home-built ships and the creation of a Navy for the protection of our National interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers, extending alliances with none, and the protection of the rights of our fishermen.

We reaffirm our approval of the Moore Doctrine and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the Republic in its broadest sense.

We favor the most strict measures of law and regulation for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

IMMIGRATION.

We favor efficient legislation by Congress to protect the life and limbs of employees of transportation companies engaged in carrying an interstate commerce, and recommend legislation by the respective States to protect employees engaged in State commerce, in mining and in other industries.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of race, color or nationality. It sympathizes with the cause of Home Rule in Ireland, and opposes the present suggestion of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate result of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We therefore declare anew our agencies of speech and press, and our agencies of instruction and information, which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but, while justifying upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any form of Church and State.

We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the conditions of trade among our citizens. We hereby declare our opposition to such trusts, and we insist that such legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service, now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, declaring the reduction of letter postage to one cent, at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the Postoffice Department, and the highest class of postal service.

CIVIL SERVICE.

We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in the Civil Service, and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.

REGISTRATION CANAL.

The construction of the Nicaragua Canal is of the highest importance to the American people, both as a measure of National defense and to build up and maintain American commerce, and it should be controlled by the United States Government.

REVENUE.

We favor the admission of the remaining Territories at the earliest practical date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the Territories and of the United States. All the Federal officers appointed for the Territories should be selected from local file residents thereof, and the right of self-government should be accorded as far as practicable.
