A Youthful Financier.

There is a 12-year-old boy in Harlem, known to his friends as Churile, who, if he keeps on, will be a railroad financier when when he grows up. Like all small buys, Charlie is a base ball fiend. About two weeks ago he organized a club, bad binnelf elected treasurer, while a been companion was made captain. Then all of the thirtsen members went out to hustle for funds, so they could purchase pretty uniforms. The plan was a success and fully $25 was realized. At this point the financiering commenced. A meeting of the club was called and five boys, deluded by Charlie's statements that there would be more money to divide if they voted as he diected, gave their voices in favor of expelling the other six members.

This brought the ciub down to seven. Then a new combination was formed consisting of the captain, treasurer and for the medicinal power of its springs as two others, who were assured that they the State at large is for the excellent were on the inside.
