C. HOLBERT, for with John H. Thi.

FRED W. BIESECKEL to Printing Rouse Row, opposite Co J. G. OGER

F. J. KOOSER, STLAW, SQUEENE, PA. WH. H. HOONTZ Somersel, Pa., antended to business entrust > ersel, Pa. and I would agent. Office in Mammoth LENTINE HAY, ATTORNET AT LAW, Someret, Pa. of the Real Solate. Will attend to all

OHN H UHL. by stiend to all business entrusted of sarred an occleritions, &c. Of the Block.

to all business entracted to his care of allustring counties, with prompt-ing, Office on Main Cross Street, book State. MIS L PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Name of Block, up stairs. Entrance on Street. Collections made, estates to attained, and all legal business states to prospiness and felcility. LEURN & COLBORN, ATTURNEYS-AT-LAW, on entrusted to our care will be d farthfully attended to. Collections of furthfully attended to. Collection market, Bedford and adjoining course ying and conveyancing done on rea

H. L. BAER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Supported, Pa., marin in Somerset and adjoining coun-

W. H. ROPPEL OFFENTH & RUPPEL, ATTOKNEYS AT LAW. bullions entrusted to their care will AS. BILLS & COOPER

DENTISTS or Sayder's Drug Store, Somerset, Pa. W. CARUTHERS, M. D. PRINCIAN AND SUBGROS.

DR. P. F. SHAFFER, INTEGERS,

the run be found at his office on Main St.

(French of Stagotters.) PRICELLY AND SURGEON, he lound permanently in Semerat for the class of his profession. Office on Main street, our of long Steen. DRIEN WHILLEN chast is Dealistry.)

cial affection to the preservation of teats Artificial sets inserted. All controls substantory. Office in the M. K. Dreibesil & Co.'s store, corner and Factor streets.

Oils! Oils!

PRODUCT OF PETROLEUM.

If you wish the most uniformly Satisfactory Oils good at

-IN THE-American Market.

has for once. Trade for Somerset and vicinity expelled by

COOK & BEERITS AND FREASE & KOOSER, SOMERSET, Pa.

NO. 88 FRANKLIN STREET. JOHN H. WATERS & BRO. 50-Cent Dress Fabrics,

PLUMBERS,

STEAM AND GAS FITTERS. her enalcished to our new building, can safely say, is the best arranged for the bestern Pennsylvania. The technique to the Flumbing, Steam sectors carried in stock.

There'll be many interesting prices during July and August, that will pay you to enquire about. TAN AND BUT WATER HEATING box the largest buildings in the county,

The Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XLI. NO. 7.

-- OF ---

-0--0-

DEPOSITS RECEIVED IN LARGE AND SMALL

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

FRED W. BOSSICKER.

EDWARD SCULL, : : : : PRESIDENT

VALENTINE HAY, : : VICE PRESIDENT

HARVEY M. BERKLEY, : : : CASHIER.

Somerset County National Bank

OF SOMERSET, PA.

Established, 1877. Organized as a National, 1890.

-0.-

CAPITAL $50,000.

-0-

Wm. H. Koontz, Vice Pres't.

--:0:---

DIRECTORS:

Sam. R. Harrison, Customers of this Bank will receive the most Parties wishing to send money cast or west can be accommissed by draft for any amount.

Collections made in all parts of the United States. Charges musterate. Accounts and Deposits Solicited. mar5-6m

Some Great Bargains in

Bought below cost of transportation

we are selling at great bargains white and colored Bedford Cord Table Covers, stamped ready for working. Singed Canton Flannel Table and Cush-ion Covers, Singed Plush Cushion

Govers, Bargarran Art Cloth Table and Cushion Covers, all stamped with Newest Designs; Hem-stitched

Hot Biscuit and Roll Napkins. A new and large line of hem-stitched Tray and Carving Cloths from 60cts

Stamped Hem-stitched Scarfs from 35cts

INDIA SILKS.

All New Patterns and Colorings. Also, and Designs. Art Satin Squares for the Central Covers and Cushion Covers.

Waban Netting,

to inches wide, 50 cents per pard, in Pink, Bine, Olive and Yellow, THE NEW THING for Draping Mantles and Doors, and for Draping Over Droperies. A new line of Muslin, Sheeting and Linen Department, by

HORNE & WARD.

GINGHAMS

are just as desirable and make just as good Summer Wash Dresses as ever, and we doubt if you ever bought the D. & J. ANDERSON Ginghams before at

25 CENTS.

15 CENTS.

Elegant Line Of 32-Inch

STRIPES AND PLAIDS.

25 CENTS.

(25 CENT VALUE.)

A very large sale of 25 CENTS.

In brief, owing to tearing down of and rebuilding part of these stores, we're obliged to sell off our present stock of

SILKS, DRESS GOODS AND

WASH FABRICS.

new, stylish and desirable at of choicest 1892 patterns.

That's the price now on our large stock

Head-rests from 25c. up. Visit our Table Linen, Towel, Napkins, full line of Figured

Table Covers from 50 cts. up. A

AND TRAY CLOTHS

FANCY

IRISH POINT LUNCH

Milton J. Pritts, Cashier.

Chas. J. Harrison, Pres't made absolutely Burgiar-proof.

JOHN R. SCOTT.

CHAS. H. FINER,

Ggo. R. Sevill,

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1892.

From the Farm Journal. This blessed country life ; Since Jest I left my city home To be a farmer's wife.

Ayer's Pills,

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipution, which at last became so bud that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels became regular and natural in their movements. I am now in excellent health."

take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more Effective

Graho, Burwellville, Va.

For years I have been subject to consti-pation and nervous headaches, caused by de-rangement of the liver. After taking various remedies. I have become convinced that Ayer's Pills are the best. They have never fatied to relieve my bilious attacks in a short time, and I am sure my system retains its have tried."-II. S. Sledge, Weimar, Texas.

The funds and securities of this bank are securely protected in a celebrated Cor-liss Burglar-proof Safe. The only Safe Sold by all Dealers in Medicine,

NEW GOODS

It is our aim to present at eveto draw and retain trade.

CLOTHING!

Never befere have we bought such fine styles in Mens' and Youths', Boys' and Childs' Clothing. These Goods are ununapproachable in quality and

This season we are offering a larger assortment, better styles and lower prices in all grades of Carpeting, Matting, and Oil Cloths and Rugs, than ever be-

We are daily gaining trade in this department, consequently have bought a large stock, adapted to fill the wants of everyone.

A large and complete stock just received, and are now prepared to furnish all who want a specialty in this line. We introduce correct styles as soon as out. We also carry a full stock of Window Shades. Trunks and Sachels, Rubber Clothing, &c.

ing our friends inspect the above Nancy Free and her mother lived here. adown the years.

Both these are regular 40-cent Ging FIDELITY TITLE AND TRUST CO.

121 & 123 Fourth Ave.,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

FULL PAID. Undivided Profits $130,000.

Authorized to act as Executor, Administrator, Gaardian,

Trustee, Assignee, Ecceiver, &c. DEALS IN

Rents boxes in its Superior Vaults from $5.90 per annum upwards.

JOHN B. JACKSON, - President. fans, the cut glass decunters and glasses, pose, and in that lining this letter had

-as it solm bloods I said highest I The tramp of busy feet, The coassless throb of rushing life, The turns on the street.

Its interests mean and small : But then I could not say you no. And so I left it all. I thought of all I loved and left

My thoughts went backward with a sigh And forward with a unite And now-the sun sees every day Earth's misery and biliss.

And now where does it shine upon A happier lot than this ! Here are no walk to brun us in, All's open to the sky Here have I learned to love the stars,

I watch the birds and squirrels, too, And claim them for my own, And trees and graw-how could I live Where all is brick and stone? I love them still, those toll-worn streets,

Where many feet have trod; The city brings as close to want; The country near to God. To think I ever should have paused.

Uncertain 'twist the two ! I am so thenkful that I chose The country, Jack-and you.

One downy, peopling book! Of day-old chicks for all the wealth. Of cities if I could. I love my homely homehold tasks, I love the fields of grain, I love the flowere that lift their heads

I love the orchard crowned with fruit, My garden fair to see, I have the horses and the cows-

And yet, perhaps, it's something else You see I love the farmer, Juck. And so I love the form.

BACHELOR BARDIN. BY MARY KYLE DALLAR.

When we were first married we bought alittle cottage in the midst of a pretty garden-a cottage that had just four rooms and a garret in all, but we wanted no more.

Nancy Free," the real estate dealer said in his circular. We did not think much about Miss was going wild over-went with the house, and that we could make it the sure. He made every possible apology prettiest little nest in the world. We were beginning the world. Why should we think of those who had done with

Why should Jack and Lottie Dean, just married ask what had been the hopes and griefs of Nancy Free, spinster, some time dead? We live for ourselves while, as a bride would be apt to do, when looking out of the window I saw a quaint old figure coming up the road-ions of the times.

how it was that youth could change to seend. it need to be, when to my surprise he paused at the gate of my garden and en-led him to call upon the "strangers," after the good old custom so rapidly dying out. A moment more my little maid brought me his card, and with a glance at the ny thing." mirror, I burried down to greet him. window, and frailer, but his face had a sun and soaked by it certainly proved to sweet expression still.

time for years and could not restrain out, a square, white package dropped myself from approaching the door. I from some secret spot beneath this linbefore I die, for old times' sake."

think I understand."-"As young people understand such quite know how the old feel. Not quite-not quite."

as he spoke, and gave me a sad smile - - $1,000,000, he followed me into our little parlor and brows. "Nothing altered," he said. "This is the letter you sent me was in the lining it "

her grandmother's in Revolutionary, he said. "I remember seeing the cap dreamed I did not pass." INSURES TITLE TO REAL ESTATE. days. They say it is the fad of the time thrown away. Miss Free's little negro to buy it up or have imitations of it. servant, Cato, wore it. A carpenter who The brase and irons, the shovels and was mending the barn had snatched it tongs, the carved chairs, the escritoire- and flung it in the sir. Apparently it I remember them all. This is a Turkish never came down again. It was searchcarpet-there are hardly any of them to ed for, and I watched the search from be found now. Yes, Mrs. Free sat here, the window, but never dreamed RELIABLE INVESTMENT SECURITIES. and Nancy played the guitar, and I that it was in the nest. The cap was old. sang-you would not think that I sang- Cato had a new one, and that was the daisy." or, I remember, she worked at the tam- of it. But now I remember that in that bour frame while I read aloud from the offed silk lining the boy put any letters grown shabby in the spinster's little its being undelivered.

chance remain in the house?"

should be sold with all its belongs, and I branch. think the miniature you mean is here." "It was fated to be. I trust she did one of the drawers the likeness of a lady. How discourteons she must have deemed painted on ivory and set in a narrow me. I never dreamed she had written gold frame. I doubt if it really resem- I"bled any living being.

It was a beautiful doll, all pink and "I am sorry," I began. white, with blue eyes, little brown curis "Don't say you are sorry you found it! upon it with rapture.

she appeared at twenty-two. There are thank you -oh, so much !" no such women now." He paused, and We staid with him a little longer, and ception of the fair lady in whose presence | When I left him he kissed my hand. I now stand."

the circumstances. After this I begged the old gentleman to visit any portion of the house and grounds he pleased, and when he went down to the point of consi ering pension my fingers as though they were sacred We talked him over at tea time, Jack and I and made up our minds that he Mr. Robinson (Rep. Pa.) It seems to quently. He made me his confidante at He had adored Miss Nancy, he told me, and she had returned his affection, and they had become engaged to each other with the consent of the mother, speech he e to-night and nothing else. and all went merry as a marriage bell at all events she would not forgive him. she refused him the miniature which had been painted for him; she took back her lock of hair and sent him back his letters, and in all sorts of ways wreaked vengeance upon him for his evil doing. Free, however, only that her old fash- Yet I believe she intended to relent and ioned fornitore-just what every one forgive; and he also thought so, I am and overture, but she yielded not one

> At last her mother died. That great sorrow, it seemed to him, must bow her pride, and she must more than ever need a comforter, a consoler, a protector.

> Allowing time for the first burst of grief, he wrote to her, asking her to reply, whatever, her fit might be, begging her to forgive him, and once more promise to be his wife.

> "She never answered me," he said. "She never gave me one word in reply." It was on my tongue to say she had been very vindictive, but I saw that that would not do. Miss Naney was sainted in his memory, and could be suspected of no wrong whatever.

> "I erred beyond forgiveness, sweet angel," he said-"I erred beyond forgiveness;" and Bachelor Barton could not have been moved from this opinion by the whisper of an angel.

"Auntie," cried my little nephew, "There's something in the crow's nest." I was sitting in the garden and the voice sounded above my head. I looked up with a start. In the road outside arose a tall pole, and from time imme-only implore him, in dumb show, to deage, and golden locks to gray, and why thing to the ground and came sliding down after it.

"You naughty boy!" I cried, as cangut him in my arms. "It's not a bit like a nest, anntie," he said. "It's all ugly and muddy. There it back. were some feathers in it, black, and there was a dead bird, and there was that cap -a queer cap. I never saw such a fun-He picked from the grass the object be Close at hand Bachelor Barton was had cast down. It looked like a crushed older than he had seemed from my upper leather box, and had been melted by the be a queer, old fashioned cap, with a "Pardon my intrusion, madam," he peak, and lined with olled silk, and as said. "I saw the house open for the first Billy tossed it about and turned it inside my husband would do him the honor of near the corner two sweet little girls, evthings," he said. "Happily they cannot calling, as Mr. Barton was unwell and identify chums, approached from differthere was much to explain. And of entiderections, and, meeting at the crosscourse we went.

Bachelor Barton, bolstered up with that drew his face into a hundred tiny pillows, lay upon a lounge, pale as yellow crow's feet, and as I motioned the way, wax. his eyes shining under his gray night."

old Mrs. Free's furniture, that had been of an old leather cap in the crow's nest," with which he was sent to the postoffice, He moved his head slowly about no- in order to keep them clean. I think it than dandelious," retorted the tiger.ting every detail-the peacock feather was made with a sort of pocket on pur- Harper's Bezur.

"The letter, dear friends, was an an-"Once," he said, "Miss Nancy sat for a swered to my prayer for Miss Nancy miniature to a painter then well known. Free's pardon-a beautiful, forgiving, It was a speaking likeness. Does it by angelic reply. Had I received it I should have flown to her. She should have "I think it does," I said. "The heir, a been my bride. These lonely years nephew, a rich man, who lives in New would have been gladsome. I might not Orleans, wrote orders that the house have been the last leaf on a withered

I went to the escritoire and drew from not suffer also. I-I fear that is possible.

He paused. Tears filled his eyes.

frill about the neck, but as I put it into enough to faint when the truth burst the hands of Bachelor Barton he gazed upon me. I still rejoice. Up there I with a low bow, added. "With the ex- he talked to us of Nancy and old times. I courtesied. I hope I did it properly. Miss Nancy's miniature repose upon his It seemed the only thing to do under bosom-Saurday Night.

Why Pension Bills Fail.

The Democratic House actually got away presented him with Miss Nancy's bills at a Friday night session. The Recminiature, for which he kissed my hand, and shows the following interesting destanding at a long distance and touching bate over the bill to increase a pension from $45 to $50 to Ellis P. Phipps, a soldier who is aimost helpless from a gunshot wound in the arm and from hernia: most meritarious cases. Mr. Meredith (Dem. Va.) I want to make the statement that the gentleman is mistaken about one thing. This bill will be defeated by the gentleman's Mr. Bobinson of Pennsylvania. Let until, in some manner, he offended the the gentleman carry out his threat. I have faith in the Democratic party, even

Mr. Moses (Dem. Ga.) And we are going to smash your bill, too. Mr. R binson of Pennsylvania. You can smash my bill if you choose; and 1 want to say to you that in 1888 the Demagainst the soldiers in vetoing pension publican side.] You can carry out your threat if you wish. You can raise the defeat these bills.

This further colloquy will give some trol the present House which, up to a few weeks ago, had not been able to get a consider pension bills. Mr. Livingston (Dem. Ga.) And now

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of this House, when we Southern Democrats, gress and undertake to look into the merits of pension applications that are presented here, we do not want to have it flaunted in our faces that we are opposed to the flag of our country.

Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. I did not say that. I said there seemed to be a spirit-Mr. Livingston. I want to say further time ever comes to test the question, we forth. Thus we passed within a few will show you whether the men who rods of them without suspecting their fought for the gray, who fought under the rebel flag, will stand to their colors presence.

or not. Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. I am not questioning the courage of any Southern soldier, and never did. I question- them do the same thing myself; but the ed their loyalty, not their courage. Mr. Livingston. Well, we are tired of that sort of thing, and we don't want to hear any more of it. Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. Well, you will hear just as much of it as I may

[Laughter.]

Mr. Livingston. And you have got to stop these insinuations on this floor. Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. Nev-another pension through this house. I will put you on record. Mr. Livington. Well, I am ready to go on record.

His answer was a request that I and gathering in the morning. As I came ing, soon had their heads close together, but not so close but that I caught the conversation. One said to the other:

rison at Suratupa. Daisy Versus Dandelion. "I tell you," said the tiger. "I'm a

"Ah, but look at me," said the lion, "I'm a daudy." " Yes; but daisies are more popular The Toughest of Mankind.

A frontier campaigner says that he saw Geronimo and a dozen of his Apaches do the following passage of words between something in Arizona, in 1857, which he | President Lincoln and Secretary Stanton, would never have believed possible had which occurred during an interview Mr. he not witnessed it with his own eyes. Kinsley had with the President in re-

"The Apaches are, unquestionably," he says, "the most dreaded tribe of Indi- the issuance of the proclamation of emanans on this continent. As Apache can cipation in 1863. lope up the side of a mountain with the thermometer marking one hundred and were talking a clerk opened the door and twenty degrees, and when he reaches said that a woman insisted upon seeing the top he won't show a drop of extra the President. Mr. Lincoln directed perspiration, nor will be breathe a whit that she be admitted. A poor old wofaster than when he started.

men, returning from our fruitless pur- her cheeks entered the room and asked suit of the terrible Geronimo. Our hors- Mr. Lincoln for a pass that she might go penciled on the forehead and a white Bachelor Barton cried. "If I was foolish es were worn out, and so were we. It was to nurse her son, who was in a field nosone of the hottest days I had ever known pital. The President told her that it in that country. We had several miles | was impossible; that no pass could be think she waits for me—there, where the of haked alkali plain still before reaching iven to anyone outside of the military. "Miss Nancy's very self," he said, "as truth is manifest without words; and I ing the fort, where we could secure shade, and water, and what we needed pitiable. S.e pleaded with Mr. Lincoln most of all else-rest. He died that night, and the letter and beast could have stood it. The metal turned to his desk, wrote a few lines, work of our guns was so heated that no handed it to her and said : 'There is one could bear to touch it with the na- your pass; go to Secretary Stanton and ked hand. The air shimmered and get it countersigned." throbbed as it does over a newly plowed "The woman thankfully received the field at noontide of a summer day. note and withdrew to the Secretary's North, east, south and west was one lev- quarters. el stretch of plain, on which not a tree, "After her departure, Mr. Lincoln shrub or even a blade of grass grew. Far leaned his head upon his hand, and in to the westward could be seen the out- silence waited the storm he knew would lines of the fort, oddly distorted, through | follow, when Stanton had seen what the came Stanton greatly excited. desert. had once been a suitor of Miss Nancy's. me there is a spirit among some gentle- of several handred yards. In fact, there know that under no circumstances, can a men on that side of the House which is was a squad of five horsemen much far- pass be given to a civilian -why did you averse to granting pensions; even in the ther than that to the rear. All the ani- give a pass to this woman?"

I judge he made her jealous, having if it does extend over a dark continent paigners be entrapped? Low, level sand man got her pass."-Boson Herold. been in his day a beau of the first water, on that side. There are members here midst of that flaming plain, with its hormal midst of that flaming plain, wi and much admired by the ladies, but he who, when a meritorious claim comes in, rible sandy waste on which no spear of rible sandy waste on which no spear of Miss Busby had a good farm, and it tain and his Apaches ambuscaded us. It was well stocked and conducted by her- pute, but assistants and apprentices in grass could find root, that frightful chiefsounds incredible, but it is the fact.

> shooting, striking and darting hither and touch of pride. thither like so many demons. "We instantly wheeled and hurried "Yes."

> > cattle."

"Yes."

"Yes."

"Yea"

"Yes."

"Got some good horses and mules."

"Got most everything you need on

"Got no husband, have you?"

"No," she answered, hesitatingly.

"No," he replied, "but---"

"S'pose we do, Mr. Higgins."

a sharp little laugh.

"Got money in the bank."

point of no quorum when you want to back, as fast as we could, to the help of our comrades : but before we could reach them three saddles were emptied, and ing across the plain at a speed greater than any to which we could force our barn." locks at every step. We gave them a parting volley, which wounded several, but they managed to limp off with the and greez," help of others, and all were beyond daninto this hall sworn as members of Coned off over that burning desolution, but it may have been many miles, for they were capable of doing it if the chose. farm, haven't you?" "Those Apaches must have discovered our approach while we were a good way off. Knowing we were on our return to the post, they could easily calculate where we would pass. Then they burpeas on Mr. Higgins' head. rowed in the sand, covering themselves entirely with the blistering particles so farm sometimes," he ventured.

" In conversation with me about this extraordinary incident, General Crook

"'I am not surprised. I have seen cornering her. Apache is the only indian that can do it." - New York Lodger.

district that John Hickman represented, correctness of the form of such papers and he never took anything back, and the filling out of the same will be "Not of Political Importance." passed upon by a board a majority of which is Democratic.

Harrity and Hensel, Democrats, and fairly and impartially, it is declared to heroes whom all true Americans delight two pounds. Country. Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. Well, be important that Republicans, through to hot or. But he made one tremendous During the epidemic of flux in this

"Come in, sir," I said. "I shall be and to him I at once dispatched it with and on the way there was one of our the respective parties for indorsement Democratic platform as a free trade doc-five hundred bottles of this remedy have public schools. The children were just before being filed by the Secretary of the ument. It is, says this eminent Demo-Com monwealth.

Pa, says he will not be without Dr. tariff is not to be thought of or fought this remedy was equally successful. King's New Discovery for Consumption, over in this election." "Oh, I had such an awful dream last who was threatened with Pneumonia af-Her sympathizing little fellow put her ter an attack of "La Grippe," when varihead still closer and said, "What was our other remedies and several physi- in protection and it scores the Democrat- one of the most ifficult to pronounce. cians had done her no good. Robert ic pronunciamento as "a free trade plat-"Ob," said the trembling little one, "I Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. form as nearly as it is possible to make Mr. John Carpenter, of Goodland, Ind., King's New Discovery has done him one with any customs duties left in it at says: "I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Choi-It is safer for such little ones to dream, more good than anything he ever used all." Not only is it displeased with the era and Discrines remedy, for discrines as in my careless country boyhood, I was for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try platform, but it is displeased with the and severe cramps and pains in the stomwont to do, about bears.-Provident Har- it. Free trial bottles at J. N. Snyder's new National Chairman, Mr. Harrity. ach and bowels with the best results. In earth is still in its youth. Now we know brother.

> One Man-My wife is eternally gaddling about. She's never at home. Is YOURS? Another Man-Don't know. I'm never at home enough to find out. What'll you take ?

...

The German Woman.

The German woman is, perhaps, the most domestic being known, unless, indeed, it is the German man. From the young empress down she looks after the whole business of the housekeeping.

If in France there be no "freside," in Germany the flooring of the whole boose is "hearthstone," and the most homely topic may at any moment become the matter of drawing room conversation or dinner talk. The American charge d'affaires was on one occasion at a large dinner party given by Prince Bismarck in Berlin, Observing that the princess was apparently greatly disturbed about something and very restlers, finally leaving the room, be inquired of the son, who happened to be seated next to him at the table, whether his mother was ill.

"Oh, no?" replied the young Bismarck, not at all, but you may have noticed a disagreeable odor of singeing ment, and mother has just gone into the kitchen to see about it?" "Awfully poor dinner," further observed his son, who spoke English admirathe family twenty-five years, and father does not feel he can turn her off, though she does not meet our requirements now

Again he was lining with the premier, when, after dinner, in the drawing-room, be joined the princess in answer to her beckoning tinger.

"I want to sympathine with you in your family affliction," said Frau Sis-

"You are very good, princess, but I was not aware that I was laboring just now under any form of 'family affliction,' said the American.

learned of it, too !"

It was rather, a remarkable subject for a prince's drawing-room convertation; but these creatures—these b-b-s of the Princess Bismarck's sympathetic condilence-do break out like a plague in

The "Jagers," of whom the princess tion of there creatures. - Boston Globe.

Compulsory Insurance in Germany. In Germany the law of compulsory insurance against old uge and infirmity; passed in June, 1889, completes the programme of legislation for Improving the condition of the working class which was set forth in the imperial receipt of 1881. it affects more than 18,000,000 people, giving them an inalienable legal claim to support in cases of infirmity and in old The insurance is compulsory in all industrial occupations upon persons lover earn more than $500 a year also portice lived neighbor to her, and had a pretty

"You've got a nice farm here, Miss about twenty-five dollars to fifty dollars "I think so," she responded, with a a year, and is granted to every insured person who has completed his seven-"Got fields of truck growin' all around." tieth year, irrespective of his ability to earn a livelihood, provided he does not "Got ten fine cows and a lot of other already draw a pension for infirmity.

"Got a comfortable house and a good to persons who are permanently incopacitated from earning a living. In order to establish a claim to a pen-"Got a lot of fine chickens and turkers sion under a German law, contributions, regulated by the amount of earnings, must be paid for a perscribed period. The means of paying pensions are obtained by fixed contributions from the imperial treasury, added to regular payments on the part of the employers and Electric Bitters. said Mr. Higgins, "that we ain't farmin' fire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50% and $1.00 per buttle at J. N. Snyder's drugstore.

Fishing for Deep Sea Shells. "Will this evenin' at early candle light Pearl fishing means not only fishing for pearls, but also for the shells in which "Not at all, Hiram," responded Miss they are found, the latter being really the "bread and butter" of the diver and worth from $100 to $150 per ten. In a ton of shells there is always a quantity of med pearls, probably a hundredjur more; but good pearls are not to be reckuned on Some years ago the Democratic party as certainties, as one man may open ten nominated a candidate for President of tons and not find a stone worth ten dol-Gregg, Republican, compose this board. the United States who was in every way lars, while another man may take a While it is not denied that the Demo- worthy of the honor. General Hancock small fortune out of a day's gathering. Mr. Livingston. Or you will never get crats on the board will construe the law was a hero of the war-one of those The average weight of a pair of shells is > cutic journal, "illogical, untrue, and even demic referred to. It was a perfect sucabsurd." "But," it adds, "for our part cess and the only remedy that did care we regard this entire controversy as a the worst cases. Dozens of persons there subject of curious personal interest, but will certify that it saved their lives. In J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, not of political importance. For us the four other epidemics of howel complaint 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale.

drug store. Large bottles, 29c. and $1.00. Still it appeals to the Democrats not to the worst cases I never had to give more allow "so disagreeable an event" as the than the third dose to effect a cure. In election of Harrity to cool their ardor. most cases one dose will do. Besides its And why not, do you suppose? Because other good qualities it is pleasant to take." the South-the great South-is in grave 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale.

portance. Cast it aside-it is only a of sheep on the range. A few days ago Professor Proctor declared that the local issue-and take up the colored he received the following from him: "If you want me to remain here any longer What a curious time these Democrats the painted china in the corner cupboard started on its way to me, when a rude the painted china in the corner cupboard the painted china in the corner cupboard the painted china in the corner cupboard night to be sure!

ALLEGHENY, PA.

C. B. McVAY, - Secretary and Treas.

-THE-

SCHEENET, PA. SCULL. ST SEY-AT-LAW. S Distanced Street, Plusburgh, Pa. FIRST NATIONAL BANK Somerset, Penn'a.

HARVEY M. BERKLEY, toward S. J. Tower, Esq. CAPITAL - - $50,000. SURPLUS - - . $8.000.

AMOUNTS PAYABLE ON DEMAND. BUE R SCULL, ATTURNEY AT LAW, ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS FARMERS, STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED. - DISCOUNTS DAILY .-II. E ENISLEY ATLAW, SOMEON PE LaRow M. Hiers. W. H. Milles.

COTT & OGLE.

HENRY, F. SCHELL, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

JOHN O. KIMMEL.

TAR H. S. KIMMELL,

DE L. M. LOUTHER,

luminating & Lubricating Oils Naphtha and Gasoline, al can be made from Petroleum. . remailings

DRESS GINGHAMS,

JOHNSTOWN SUPPLY HOUSE.

Buhl, in STPLY DEPARTMENT we carry a full funder and Leather Beiting. Scenn and inus, Valves, Injectors, Lubricaines, Scenn re, Iron Pipe Filling, Etc. Prices quoted on sess is a dangerous practice, and more liable to fasten the disease on the parient than to cure it. What is needed is a medicine that in effectually opening the bowels, corrects the costive habit and establishes a natural daily action. Such an aperient is found in which, while thorough in action, strengthen

The Use Of

- Wm. H. De Laucett, Derret, Out. - When I feel the need of a cathartic, I than any other pill I ever took." - Mrs. B. C.

Ayer's Pills, PREPARED DT

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

ry season a Line of Goods of the Newest Patterns and Latest Styles. We have labored hard in selecting a stock for the coming season, and are glad to say that we have succeeded in buying goods that are superb in style, and at prices that have the magnetic power

CARPETS.

GOODS.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

f choicest 1892 patterns.

Besides this we have a very large line KNEPPER & FERNER, One Do or North of Postoffice.

Receives deposits and loans on mort-gages and approved collaterals.

FARMER JACK'S CITY WIFE.; like a rose. Nothing had worn out or life. Cato forgot or never told the fact of

Ten years to-day, Jack, I have lived

I thought the country would be tame

As I came down the able :

And watch the clouds go by.

This dear old farm ! I wouldn't give

To drink the manner rate. I know that they love me.

"Once the property of the late Miss

Jack bought the house; we moved in. The place had been very carefully kept clean by the agent, and I began to arrange and rearrange, to tile ribbon bows on chair, to loop fresh muslin curtairs at the window panes, to fill the old china vases with flowers, thinking of Jack the that of a man very old in years, and who had not changed his garb with the fash-His hat had a bell crown and rolling rim; his collar and coat and neckerchief were of the sort we see in our grundfather's portraits. I had him pointed out to me as "Bachelor Barton," and been told that he was rich and of a good old family, and had once been disappointed in I hid myself behind the curtain and wondering if he were once a handsome young fellow like my Jack, and if he had oved some one as Jack loved me, and

Perhaps his old fashioned politeness

happy to show you every corner of it. I a note of explanation . He held his quaint old hat in his hand that, and from that day he called fre-object of his adoration.

morial a great crow's nest had crowned watched him coriously as he came on, reach its apex I cannot say, but there he it. How little Billy had managed to was, and speechless with horror I could

We take genuine pleasure in hav- knew it well in bygone days, when Miss ing, which had kept it from destruction I came here often then, I was a very Long years they must have been, for intimate friend, I wanted to see the dear the letter had been written before the Danger of Forcing Education. old rooms once again. Miss Free was days when envelopes were used was curieighty when she died; I am eighty-five. ously folded and sealed with a large seal Perhaps the stress is applied too early But we were young people when we first on which was the letter "F." It was ad- to our little ones. I throw out this word not been held arrangements be made to it could not afford to place a theorist in the past ten years and find that it has met-twenty-one and twenty-six. You dressed in a delicate hand, to "Alwyn of caution to our good lady friends here have nominations without delay. Nomthink me an eccentric old creature no Barton, Esq., The Oaks," etc. In fact it who have them in charge. Some years doubt, but I want to see the house once had evidently been intended of the old ago I was passing down a street in Indigentleman we called Bachelor Barton, anapolis from my residence to my office, must be sent to the State Chairman of cock, the superb. It denounces the Druggist, Golcondo, Pope Co., His. Over

"Dear friends, you have told me that the quivering atmosphere, but in every missive was. He was not kept long in other direction was the naked, burning suspense. The door flew open, and in mais were plodding slowly through the "Quick as a flash came the answer: rand, which it seemed to me, was hot 'Because she don't wear hoops.' Linenough to roast oggs, their heads droop- coin knew that he should not have giving, while we were simply enduring it, en the pass, and that against Stanton's grimly closing our teeth, holding out to anger he could oppose no logical excuse. so he evaded it with that irrelevant rereach the post. " Was there anything to be apprehend- ply. The Se cretary turned and left the ed from Geronimo? Could we old cam- room without a word, but the old wo-

"Saddenly I heard rifle firing at the rear. It had a dull, odd sound, but was good farm himself. One day he went in is granted to persons who work for foosi, close at hand, and as I turned in the sad- and sat down on the porch steps and clothes and lodging only, and who reocratic soldiers, to the best of my knowlwatched her shelling peas. edge, smashed Cleveland for his action was engaged in a desperate fight with a Busby," he said at random. bills. [Prolonged applause on the Re-indication of the spirit of those who con- Geronimo and his warriors were scurryquorum together on Friday, evening to exhausted ponies, who sank to their fet-that when the time comes again, if the that only their snake-like eyes peered smiled, and said:

on right principles. S'pose we set a Warning to Republicans. meetin' and talk it over." Another warning has been sent to Rechoose to give you when I have the publican leaders in the several counties to be careful in the filling out of nomina- be too soon, Maria?" inquired Mr. Hig-Mr. Livingston. Then you will take tion papers for candidates to be voted for gins. at the coming election, under the new Mr. Robinson of Pennsylvania. No; I hallot law. County Chairmen and oth. Busby, and they talked it over soccesswill not take it back. I represent the ers are reminded that all disputes as to fully.-Deficit Free Press.

> ignorance or neglect, shall not place it in mistake. "The tariff is only a local county, in 1888, I had hard work to keep the power of Democrats to take advant- issue," said he. That settled it. The a supply of Chamberlain's Colir, Cholera age of any flaw in their papers to refuse | business men recognized at once his in- and Diarrice: Recordy on hand. Peoto print the names of any Re oblican experience as a business man. He might ple often came tox or a select or leading the candidates on the official ballots. It is urged that where primaries have expand upon its business interests, and have been selling patent medicines for ination papers in Congressional, Judicial, The New York San is coming danger-danger of "negro domination" should the Republicans win!

WHOLE NO. 2140. Lincoln's Only Reason. The late E. W. Kinsley used to relate gard to the feeling of Massachusetts on While Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Kinsley man, her clothes clinging to her worn "There were twenty-five of us cavalry- out frame, and with tears running down

"Her grief," said Mr. Kinsley, "was to be allowed to go and nurse her boy, bedbugs, you know; you must call in a "When! But it was hot. Had not the till at last the President, every muscle in Juger'. I know about it because your air been perfectly dry, neither man nor his rugged face quivering with emotion, wife told the countess—and I, of course,

> Berlin among the apartment houses, where they find easy and active egress through the fines and chimneys. spoke, seek a fivlihood by the extermina-self in a lucrative manner. Mr. Higgins druggists' shops are excluded. Exemption from compulsory instrance ceive no pay, or who are only in temporary employment. The pension for old ago varies from

> The infirmity pension varies from about twenty-seven dollars to over a hundred dollars, and is given, irrespective of ago employed. - York's Congression.

This was so unexpected that Miss Bur-This remedy is becoming so well y almost dropped a basket of shelled known and so popular as to good no special mention. All who have used Elect-"A husband is mighty handy on a nic Bitters sing the same sung of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is "Have you got one?" she asked, with guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will care all diseases of the Liver and Kidness, will remove Pim-"Have you got a wife" she interrupt- ples, Itoils, Salt Shorto, and other affections caused by impure blood. Will "Have you one?" he quickly asked, drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malerial Severe. For the care of Beadache, Countingtion "Well, it seems to me, Miss Bushy," and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. En-be a grand soldier, but the nation must night to get a bottle of the ramely. I given better satisfaction in cases of diarrhomand flux than any other medicine

The Lost Sheep. Think of that for a platform to fight A Walla Walla (Wash.) man, about upon! The tariff is an issue of no im- a year ago started a man out with a band