The Alabama Election

At the election in Alabama the other day, t is said in the news report, there was the note that the interest-bearing debt of the largest vote ever cast. It is even reported that a large part of what the Southern chivalry call the "damniggers" voted. In view of this extraordinary fact there are several points about this election that are worthy of especial notice.

The "damniggers" who voted, for the most part voted the Democratic ticket. It is probable that many of them in other parts of the South would be heard from as having voted on election day if this were the ticket to hang the Governor in effigy, had King
