

The Somerset Herald.

EDWARD SCULL, Editor and Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, October 4, 1906.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

NATIONAL.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. BENJ. HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WHITEHALL REID, OF NEW YORK.

STATE.

FOR ELECTORS-AT-LARGE, JONES, WILLIAM WOOD, J. F. DUNLAP, WILLIAM B. SAYEN.

FOR CONGRESSMEN-AT-LARGE, ALEXANDER McDOWELL, WILLIAM L. LELLY.

JUDICIARY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, JOHN DEAN; ex-Officio County.

COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESS, JOSHUA D. HICKS, of Blair County.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, J. A. BECKEY, of Somerset.

FOR POOR DIRECTOR, J. D. WOODRUFF, of Somerset Township.

Voters, pay your taxes on or before the 25th day of October.

The Democratic gerrymander in Wisconsin is not feeling as frisky as it was before the Supreme Court said upon it.

ALBERT STEVENSON was welcomed to the South as a Moses. General Weaver was driven out with bad eggs. The South prefers copperheads to old soldiers.

Official statistics prove that in Canada the average yearly earnings of factory employees is $275. While in New York State, within sight, under the McKinley law, the average is $451.89 per year.

This ballot to be voted at the coming election will be about thirteen by fifty-six inches in size. It will take a ballot box as large as our old Commonwealth was to hold the ballots for some of our townships.

It is pleasant to read that the opinion against the wicked Democratic gerrymander of legislative districts in Wisconsin was written by the Democratic Chief Justice Kinney of that State, a great lawyer and an honest man.

BROTHER WOODRUFF was presented, as it were, with the Democratic nomination for Congress. Now watch how he deftly things of Alabama will dismember him on election day. "Beware of the Greeks when they bring gifts."

AMONG the iron-workers in England 25 per cent. own their own homes. Among the iron-workers in the United States 20 per cent. own their own homes. This explains why the iron-workers favor protection in this country.

The decision of Attorney General Hensel that September 15 was the last day for filing certificates of nomination was inevitable, under the law. The name of Josiah D. Hicks, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, will be regularly placed upon the ticket and his election will follow as a matter of course.

The favorite argument of Democrats against the abolition of slavery was, "Do you want your daughter to marry a nigger?" The favorite argument of Democrats to-day against protection to American industries is, "Do you want negro domination?" The country paid no attention to the first bogey but abolished slavery. It will pay no attention to the present bogey but protect American interests against England.

The People's candidate for President, Gen. J. B. Weaver, and Mrs. Lease, the Kansas "cyclone," were shamefully treated by a mob of Democrats in Georgia, and prevented from speaking in behalf of the cause of their party. Free speech is evidently not popular with the outlaws who have terrorized that State all these years, and who propose to prevent any innovations even if they have to cause a carter in eggs in doing it.

No country in the world is so preposterous as the United States, and none is keeping stride with us in our forward march. In no other country is labor so amply rewarded, or the laboring man so well housed, or his wife and children so well cared for. In no other country does the farmer receive so great a remuneration for his toil or have the benefit of so ample and profitable a home market. No other country in the world could have provided food and paid the enormous debt with which we were burdened by the war for the Union, and no country in the world has better credit, or stands higher in the markets of trade and commerce.

And yet with grand present and glowing future we have it daily dinned into our ears by the Democratic party, that the Protective system under which we have prospered for the last thirty years is a fraud, a robbery, and unconstitutional, and must be wiped out. Hear ye! good men and true! and answer at the ballot box!

In his letter of acceptance Grover Cleveland makes a bid for the soldier vote by devoting a paragraph of hyperbole to the men who served the nation in the hour of danger. The voters know Mr. Cleveland. They know Benjamin Harrison. No amount of flattery by the Democratic candidate or of fabrication by his party organs can obliterate the record. Herewith is the first absolutely accurate statement published showing the facts in regard to the treatment of the Union veterans by Mr. Cleveland and President Harrison.

During his four years of office Mr. Cleveland signed 1,240 pension bills and vetoed 224. Up to the present time Benjamin Harrison has signed 1,576 special pension bills and vetoed none.

Veterans of the Union, which will you support, the politician who sent a substitute to the front and as President took a malignant pleasure in adding to his pension voters every member of which his clumsy wit was capable, or the loyal comrade who shared your perils with you, and whose pen has gladly signed every bill to relieve your needs that has come before him?

EXIT THE GOOLEY GANG.

The Leaders Died With Their Boots On. Ramsey is Captured.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 2.—Frank Cooley, the leader of the famous Cooley outlaw band, was shot and killed to-day at his father's home by a posse under Sheriff McCormick, of Fayette County.

Cooley has been in the habit of spending his Sundays at the old homestead, and Sheriff McCormick, learning of this, quietly had the place surrounded last night.

Thirty of the famous Cooley family are still alive and at liberty. Jack and Frank are dead, killed because of their lawlessness; Albert is in the penitentiary and Dick in the workhouse.

The story of the killing of Frank by the sheriff's party yesterday is a thrilling one. Jack Ramsey, who was lying beside his rifle in the sun jumped up and broke into a run for the woods close by, but Cooley was game and began to shoot, showing no signs of fear.

Sheriff McCormick was in the lead of his party, and Cooley did not then and there drop his rifle and flee. Not until the sheriff was close to him did he fire. When the last ball was fired the sheriff was so close to the bandit that he was knocked down by the wind of the bullet which whizzed within an inch of his head, and he dropped his rifle and fled.

The coroner's inquest did not develop who shot Cooley. Other members of the gang were to the right of the two principal combatants, firing at the outlaw, and were in a better position to hit him than the sheriff was. It is evident that a bullet from the gun of the party to the right hit the outlaw, the ball striking him in the back and a large old fashioned smooth bore rifle shooting an extra large ball.

Sheriff McCormick testified before the coroner that when he reached the wounded outlaw he was dying and could only say "You have done your duty."

Several letters were found on Cooley's person, one dated last March and directed to Frank Pierce, Solida, Mo. Its contents indicated that the letter was from his home at Smithfield to the outlaw himself, who has not during the hot time that was in progress for him here and had gone under the name of Pierce to the west. The other letter was a recent one written by a dentist in the southern part of Fayette county to the outlaw, asking him to return to the county to obtain his license.

It is believed that Frank should deliver himself to the $1,500 reward, the writer modestly only wanting $300 for his services in making the transfer, the balance of the blood money to be at the disposal of the outlaw, who is giving himself up and saving further trouble. It was evidently not considered very favorably. The wound in Frank Cooley's back, which last night was taken to confirm the story that he was the man young Primary had shot at Gibbons' stable on Monday night of a week ago is now unaccounted for in the light of a new story that comes from a reliable source this morning. The relation says that he knows that Jeff Swann, one of the gang, is now lying mortally wounded at his father's home, above Haystack, and that he was the one Primus shot.

The posse that pursued Ramsey hunted for him all night. They had him surrounded and headed off from the mountains, but in the darkness he eluded them. They did not give up, however, and just before the news reached here that Milton McCormick, Rev. Hunter and A. J. Hicks had captured Ramsey several miles above Fairchance, and now have him in custody in McCormick's house at Fairchance. He had exhausted his ammunition, and had to surrender. They will bring him to jail at once. This effectively breaks up the gang, and the people of the community feel free from the have for two years. The thanks of the community are being showered in on the sheriff for his persistence and courage in the hunt for the outlaws. Sheriff McCormick is also deserving of much of the credit for the last success, for it was he who went to the country and shadowed the gang until he learned their habits and enough of the country to plan the raid that was so successful yesterday.

The question of who is entitled to the reward of $1,500 for killing the outlaw is freely discussed. The killing was offered for Frank Cooley alone, as he was considered the most dangerous man of the gang; it was not offered for him and his associates for the delivery of his body to the jail or for the keeper of the jail. Sheriff McCormick will not bring the body to jail, the body being in his custody as keeper of the jail by being guarded at Late Cooley's house. The date for Cooley's funeral has not been set.

A Campaign of Cowardice. One feature is prominent both in the letter of acceptance of the free trade candidate for the Presidency and in the arguments of his supporters, and that is a cowardly policy to achieve by indirection what they are unable to accomplish by direct means. The free traders, Cleveland, Russell and the rest, reminds one very much of the attitude of the Copperhead Democracy in 1861, when Adlai Stevenson and his associates were exclaiming against the brave men at the front the feelings expressed in the old war song:

Tell the traitors all around you That their cruel words we know, In every battle kill our soldiers By the help they give you.

The Democracy then was for peace with secession as the Democracy to-day is for free trade. But the Copperhead speakers and writers were open in their declaration of terms for what they wanted, and they announced the war, and did what they could in an indirect and cowardly way to cripple the arm of the government. The loyal people, however, saw the real issue at stake, and decided against secession. From the moment that the result of the election of November, 1864, was known, the final collapse of the Confederacy began, and the insurrection terminated a few months later.

The enemy by which the industries of America are to-day being threatened is just as great as the enemy of 1861, and the free traders of Great Britain, like the following of Jefferson Davis, look for success to the treachery and misrepresentation of their allies in the councils of Democracy. At the present juncture no change of spots, so the Democracy cannot change its methods, and cowardly subterfuge is still characteristic of the champions of free trade now, just as it was characteristic of the champions of secession and of free trade thirty years ago. The same fraudulent methods are resorted to, and the same result will be recorded at the close of the polls in November. It is a mistake for a politician to declare for free trade, and to claim that the American people are fools.

A Corpse in Her Parlor. CORDELA, Ga., Oct. 2.—The embalmed body of a man, upright in a glass-headed casket, holding a gold-headed cane in the hand, and with a profusion of diamonds and other jewelry, decorated the parlor of Mrs. George W. Martin's handsome residence in this town. The embalmed body is that of her husband, who died on July 1 last.

Mr. Martin was worth $200,000. He and his wife were infidels, and agreed to die together if possible. After he was buried Mrs. Martin had the body disinterred and has kept it in her parlor ever since.

Talking 1,000 Miles Apart. SURETS NEWS, Ind., Sept. 23.—The American Long Distance Telephone Company, which has for some time been constructing a line from New York to Chicago, working from both terminals, completed the line to this city to-day, and will finish it to Chicago.

This city was the connecting link. South Bend was connected with Chicago at 10:10 A. M. The line worked perfectly.

A whisper here was distinctly heard at Pittsburgh, and an ordinary tone of voice at New York. Later in the day Boston was reached, making the longest distance that the human voice was ever transmitted—over 1,600 miles. This test, also, was perfect. The entire line is now in working order in a short time.

Hold For Treason. PRINCEGEON, Oct. 1.—Nothing done since the first attempt at Homestead, except possibly, the attempt on the life of H. C. Frick, has caused more talk than the act of Chief Justice Paxson in issuing warrants for the arrest of thirty-three Homestead non-combatants. This is the first time that the charges of treason have been brought in any State for acts arising from a strike or labor trouble, and it is the talk among the attorneys that it certainly is proper that the great industrial and commercial center of the country should be so treated to settle this question as to whether armed resistance to law is treason. All the judges of the city, consulted over the cases yesterday in their chambers in the court house. District Attorney Burleigh and Judge P. C. Knox were sent for, and held a long consultation with the Chief Justice, after which the Justices again consulted, and then District Attorney Burleigh and Mr. Knox were instructed by the Chief Justice to prepare information on County Detectives and Home-stead—Opened by Mrs. Maggie Swartz, of Queensborough.

4. The difference between reciprocity and free trade—Opened by North Park Grange.

5. Queries and their discussion by the Pomona Grange.

The different subordinate Granges in the county are earnestly requested to send a respectable delegation to the Pomona. The meeting promises to be one of unusual interest, and we desire that it be as large in numbers as possible.

There will also be an evening session which will be addressed by able speakers on several special and important topics. The meeting will be open in the afternoon and evening, and the public are very cordially invited to be present.

S. U. SMOKER, S. U. President. J. S. MILLER, Secretary.

Return Postal Cards. The Postoffice Department will place the new return postal card on sale early in October. Postmaster General Wainman has approved two designs, one for domestic and the other for international service. The half of the double card (the domestic), which a reply is desired is 3 1/2 inches wide by 5 1/2 inches long. On the top of the card the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and "United States of America" are engraved. In smaller type are the words: "This side for address only." In the upper right hand corner is a vignette of General Grant. This is encircled by a frame, with the words "Message Card" at the top and at the bottom the words "Our Card." The face of the return card is similar to the message card. But instead of words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" there is substituted "Postal Card." The international card is slightly smaller than the domestic. At the top of the card are the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and a French translation and "United States of America." The message and reply card are one piece of cardboard folded together and creased in the middle.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

NEW COOKING POWDERS! ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs. A. E. UHL.

Hold For Treason.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

1. Opening of Pomona.

2. Regular order of business.

3. Address of Welcome by Mrs. Martha O'Connell.

4. Response by Hon. J. C. Waller.

5. The relation of farming to other occupations—Opened by Vale Grange.

6. Queries and their discussion by Pomona.

1. What farmers should read to promote their own interests—Opened by Milford Grange.

2. How to buy and how to care for farm implements—Opened by Highland Grange.

3. Home-making—Opened by Mrs. Maggie Swartz, of Queensborough.

4. The difference between reciprocity and free trade—Opened by North Park Grange.

5. Queries and their discussion by the Pomona Grange.

The different subordinate Granges in the county are earnestly requested to send a respectable delegation to the Pomona. The meeting promises to be one of unusual interest, and we desire that it be as large in numbers as possible.

There will also be an evening session which will be addressed by able speakers on several special and important topics. The meeting will be open in the afternoon and evening, and the public are very cordially invited to be present.

S. U. SMOKER, S. U. President. J. S. MILLER, Secretary.

Return Postal Cards. The Postoffice Department will place the new return postal card on sale early in October. Postmaster General Wainman has approved two designs, one for domestic and the other for international service. The half of the double card (the domestic), which a reply is desired is 3 1/2 inches wide by 5 1/2 inches long. On the top of the card the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and "United States of America" are engraved. In smaller type are the words: "This side for address only." In the upper right hand corner is a vignette of General Grant. This is encircled by a frame, with the words "Message Card" at the top and at the bottom the words "Our Card." The face of the return card is similar to the message card. But instead of words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" there is substituted "Postal Card." The international card is slightly smaller than the domestic. At the top of the card are the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and a French translation and "United States of America." The message and reply card are one piece of cardboard folded together and creased in the middle.

Who are anxious to accomplish the best results for the least money, should examine the Circulars and before they buy: it is a good baker and a perfect master, and every new feature of practical worth is embodied into its construction. It has pleased thousands of housewives, and will please you. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

A Farmer's Windfall. CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Farmer W. A. Freeman has sent into the post office by a letter from a London lawyer, stating that a suit had been decided in his favor, and that he was to receive $2,000,000. The Buckingham palace is located on the ground in question. The estimated value of the whole estate is $5,000,000. Mr. Freeman's grandfather, who is dead, was a native of London.

Her Secret. The secret of the success of the Cinderella Stoves and Ranges, is the superiority of the material and workmanship that enters into their construction. They are made of the best iron, have no dirt pockets, and are sold guaranteed to be good bakers and perfect roasters. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

St. Charles Hotel. The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in another column of the St. Charles Hotel, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The house is located corner Wood street and Third avenue, in the heart of the business portion of the city. Street cars pass the door to and from the depot and Exposition building. The house is one of the cleanest, most comfortable and home-like in the city; rooms large, well ventilated and furnished; parlors handsomely fitted up and decorated; electric light and natural gas throughout. The table is unexcelled, and supplied with all the delicacies of the season.

Visitors going to this city will find this first-class in every respect, the prices moderate, attention good, and our word for it you can get nothing better in the St. Charles your home while in Pittsburgh.

2-14 Cents Per Pound. The Johnston food wire is all sold, but a lot of barb wire which will sell at 2 1/2 cents per hundred pounds. Guaranteed to stand stretching. This is a good bargain call and see it.

What Katie Missed. Papers were filed in New Castle, Pa. Thursday in a breach of promise suit by Katie R. Schmidt, who claims $30,000 because she says Andrew Pfaltz courted her for two years, promised to marry her, and then married a dressmaker named Myrtle Rube, who could not meet and keep house, like Katie Schmidt. Katie says that Pfaltz acknowledged that she was a good housekeeper and would make a good wife, and that he promised both, but also needed some one who could tend meat shop, cut meat, and keep books. That is why she is not Mrs. Pfaltz and another is.

Nancy's Record Equaled. TENNESSEE, Sept. 30.—For the second time this week the harness record has been reduced as Macart yesterday paced a mile here in 2:04 equalling the phenomenal mile trotted by Nancy Hanks on the same track the day before.

Pagan Sacrifices in Russia. LONDON, Sept. 29.—A correspondent of the Chronicle in Russia says that human sacrifices are still perpetrated by some of the pagan tribes nominally under Russian rule, and describes the horrors of the annual sacrifices to the god of their tribe by the tartans of the Malmur district. A peasant was recently hanged by his feet to a tree and his head held severed from his body. The breast was then cut open and the heart was plucked out, with which the face of the god was rubbed.

NEW COOKING POWDERS! ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs. A. E. UHL.

Hold For Treason.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

1. Opening of Pomona.

2. Regular order of business.

3. Address of Welcome by Mrs. Martha O'Connell.

4. Response by Hon. J. C. Waller.

5. The relation of farming to other occupations—Opened by Vale Grange.

6. Queries and their discussion by Pomona.

1. What farmers should read to promote their own interests—Opened by Milford Grange.

2. How to buy and how to care for farm implements—Opened by Highland Grange.

3. Home-making—Opened by Mrs. Maggie Swartz, of Queensborough.

4. The difference between reciprocity and free trade—Opened by North Park Grange.

5. Queries and their discussion by the Pomona Grange.

The different subordinate Granges in the county are earnestly requested to send a respectable delegation to the Pomona. The meeting promises to be one of unusual interest, and we desire that it be as large in numbers as possible.

There will also be an evening session which will be addressed by able speakers on several special and important topics. The meeting will be open in the afternoon and evening, and the public are very cordially invited to be present.

S. U. SMOKER, S. U. President. J. S. MILLER, Secretary.

Return Postal Cards. The Postoffice Department will place the new return postal card on sale early in October. Postmaster General Wainman has approved two designs, one for domestic and the other for international service. The half of the double card (the domestic), which a reply is desired is 3 1/2 inches wide by 5 1/2 inches long. On the top of the card the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and "United States of America" are engraved. In smaller type are the words: "This side for address only." In the upper right hand corner is a vignette of General Grant. This is encircled by a frame, with the words "Message Card" at the top and at the bottom the words "Our Card." The face of the return card is similar to the message card. But instead of words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" there is substituted "Postal Card." The international card is slightly smaller than the domestic. At the top of the card are the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and a French translation and "United States of America." The message and reply card are one piece of cardboard folded together and creased in the middle.

Who are anxious to accomplish the best results for the least money, should examine the Circulars and before they buy: it is a good baker and a perfect master, and every new feature of practical worth is embodied into its construction. It has pleased thousands of housewives, and will please you. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

A Farmer's Windfall. CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Farmer W. A. Freeman has sent into the post office by a letter from a London lawyer, stating that a suit had been decided in his favor, and that he was to receive $2,000,000. The Buckingham palace is located on the ground in question. The estimated value of the whole estate is $5,000,000. Mr. Freeman's grandfather, who is dead, was a native of London.

Her Secret. The secret of the success of the Cinderella Stoves and Ranges, is the superiority of the material and workmanship that enters into their construction. They are made of the best iron, have no dirt pockets, and are sold guaranteed to be good bakers and perfect roasters. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

St. Charles Hotel. The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in another column of the St. Charles Hotel, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The house is located corner Wood street and Third avenue, in the heart of the business portion of the city. Street cars pass the door to and from the depot and Exposition building. The house is one of the cleanest, most comfortable and home-like in the city; rooms large, well ventilated and furnished; parlors handsomely fitted up and decorated; electric light and natural gas throughout. The table is unexcelled, and supplied with all the delicacies of the season.

Visitors going to this city will find this first-class in every respect, the prices moderate, attention good, and our word for it you can get nothing better in the St. Charles your home while in Pittsburgh.

2-14 Cents Per Pound. The Johnston food wire is all sold, but a lot of barb wire which will sell at 2 1/2 cents per hundred pounds. Guaranteed to stand stretching. This is a good bargain call and see it.

What Katie Missed. Papers were filed in New Castle, Pa. Thursday in a breach of promise suit by Katie R. Schmidt, who claims $30,000 because she says Andrew Pfaltz courted her for two years, promised to marry her, and then married a dressmaker named Myrtle Rube, who could not meet and keep house, like Katie Schmidt. Katie says that Pfaltz acknowledged that she was a good housekeeper and would make a good wife, and that he promised both, but also needed some one who could tend meat shop, cut meat, and keep books. That is why she is not Mrs. Pfaltz and another is.

Nancy's Record Equaled. TENNESSEE, Sept. 30.—For the second time this week the harness record has been reduced as Macart yesterday paced a mile here in 2:04 equalling the phenomenal mile trotted by Nancy Hanks on the same track the day before.

Pagan Sacrifices in Russia. LONDON, Sept. 29.—A correspondent of the Chronicle in Russia says that human sacrifices are still perpetrated by some of the pagan tribes nominally under Russian rule, and describes the horrors of the annual sacrifices to the god of their tribe by the tartans of the Malmur district. A peasant was recently hanged by his feet to a tree and his head held severed from his body. The breast was then cut open and the heart was plucked out, with which the face of the god was rubbed.

NEW COOKING POWDERS! ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs. A. E. UHL.

Hold For Treason.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

1. Opening of Pomona.

2. Regular order of business.

3. Address of Welcome by Mrs. Martha O'Connell.

4. Response by Hon. J. C. Waller.

5. The relation of farming to other occupations—Opened by Vale Grange.

6. Queries and their discussion by Pomona.

1. What farmers should read to promote their own interests—Opened by Milford Grange.

2. How to buy and how to care for farm implements—Opened by Highland Grange.

3. Home-making—Opened by Mrs. Maggie Swartz, of Queensborough.

4. The difference between reciprocity and free trade—Opened by North Park Grange.

5. Queries and their discussion by the Pomona Grange.

The different subordinate Granges in the county are earnestly requested to send a respectable delegation to the Pomona. The meeting promises to be one of unusual interest, and we desire that it be as large in numbers as possible.

There will also be an evening session which will be addressed by able speakers on several special and important topics. The meeting will be open in the afternoon and evening, and the public are very cordially invited to be present.

S. U. SMOKER, S. U. President. J. S. MILLER, Secretary.

Return Postal Cards. The Postoffice Department will place the new return postal card on sale early in October. Postmaster General Wainman has approved two designs, one for domestic and the other for international service. The half of the double card (the domestic), which a reply is desired is 3 1/2 inches wide by 5 1/2 inches long. On the top of the card the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and "United States of America" are engraved. In smaller type are the words: "This side for address only." In the upper right hand corner is a vignette of General Grant. This is encircled by a frame, with the words "Message Card" at the top and at the bottom the words "Our Card." The face of the return card is similar to the message card. But instead of words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" there is substituted "Postal Card." The international card is slightly smaller than the domestic. At the top of the card are the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" and a French translation and "United States of America." The message and reply card are one piece of cardboard folded together and creased in the middle.

Who are anxious to accomplish the best results for the least money, should examine the Circulars and before they buy: it is a good baker and a perfect master, and every new feature of practical worth is embodied into its construction. It has pleased thousands of housewives, and will please you. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

A Farmer's Windfall. CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 29.—Farmer W. A. Freeman has sent into the post office by a letter from a London lawyer, stating that a suit had been decided in his favor, and that he was to receive $2,000,000. The Buckingham palace is located on the ground in question. The estimated value of the whole estate is $5,000,000. Mr. Freeman's grandfather, who is dead, was a native of London.

Her Secret. The secret of the success of the Cinderella Stoves and Ranges, is the superiority of the material and workmanship that enters into their construction. They are made of the best iron, have no dirt pockets, and are sold guaranteed to be good bakers and perfect roasters. Sold by James B. Holderbaum, Somerset, Pa.

St. Charles Hotel. The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement in another column of the St. Charles Hotel, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The house is located corner Wood street and Third avenue, in the heart of the business portion of the city. Street cars pass the door to and from the depot and Exposition building. The house is one of the cleanest, most comfortable and home-like in the city; rooms large, well ventilated and furnished; parlors handsomely fitted up and decorated; electric light and natural gas throughout. The table is unexcelled, and supplied with all the delicacies of the season.

Visitors going to this city will find this first-class in every respect, the prices moderate, attention good, and our word for it you can get nothing better in the St. Charles your home while in Pittsburgh.

2-14 Cents Per Pound. The Johnston food wire is all sold, but a lot of barb wire which will sell at 2 1/2 cents per hundred pounds. Guaranteed to stand stretching. This is a good bargain call and see it.

What Katie Missed. Papers were filed in New Castle, Pa. Thursday in a breach of promise suit by Katie R. Schmidt, who claims $30,000 because she says Andrew Pfaltz courted her for two years, promised to marry her, and then married a dressmaker named Myrtle Rube, who could not meet and keep house, like Katie Schmidt. Katie says that Pfaltz acknowledged that she was a good housekeeper and would make a good wife, and that he promised both, but also needed some one who could tend meat shop, cut meat, and keep books. That is why she is not Mrs. Pfaltz and another is.

Nancy's Record Equaled. TENNESSEE, Sept. 30.—For the second time this week the harness record has been reduced as Macart yesterday paced a mile here in 2:04 equalling the phenomenal mile trotted by Nancy Hanks on the same track the day before.

Pagan Sacrifices in Russia. LONDON, Sept. 29.—A correspondent of the Chronicle in Russia says that human sacrifices are still perpetrated by some of the pagan tribes nominally under Russian rule, and describes the horrors of the annual sacrifices to the god of their tribe by the tartans of the Malmur district. A peasant was recently hanged by his feet to a tree and his head held severed from his body. The breast was then cut open and the heart was plucked out, with which the face of the god was rubbed.

NEW COOKING POWDERS! ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs