THE Third party managers in Georgia claim that the Democratisatuifed the hallot boxes. The size of the Democratic majority makes it look that way.

Tun Southern Domocracy doesn't resort to oralory to offset the arguments of Third party speakers. The back number egg 1 the favorite weapon for such emergencies down there.

Two points are of great importance a the coming election. The first is to get out the Republican vote, and the next to instruct the voters how to prepare their ballots under the new law.

OLD BRE'S DANA has tired of yelling "force bill" and "negro domination" to his "stuffed prophet," and has braved the dangers of Europe and the cholera rather than keep it up un il November.

The Kolb men of Alabams are loud in Magwamp and a malcontent. Like oththe polls. They are not asgross either.

There is no reason why the Republi-ans in Pennsylvania should lose their Asserthe late election in Georgia, cans in Pennsylvania should lose their heads over this difficulty about the bal-lot. The specimen ballot, as prepared by here are a few facts worthy of consideration by Republican voters:

At the election in 1890, the total Dem-ocratic vote polled was 77,539, while the position polled only 28,350 votes, giving the ticket shall be printed in type no smaller than brevier. These are the Democrats who are howling "No force bill; no negro domination !"

APPARENTLY the Democrats of Georgia 'outdid" themselves in counting the votes cast at the election last week, and a general shout is sent up by their brethren throughout the country over their sur-

Immediately after the death of Lord Tennyson, the representive of the Associated Press had an interview with Sir Andrew Clark, one of the physicians who attended the poet to prevent the ticket being printed on a laureate. Mice Ate up His Fortune.

KINDETON, N. Y., O.S., S .- Elward Kelly, an agod farmer living near Griffin's Corneris known in the neighborhood as somewhat of a miser. He planes no faith in banks or socurities except greinbacks. Some time ago he sold a tract of land for a large sum of money, which he added to his accumulated hoard, making in all nearly $10,000.

This week he had occasion to examine his treasure, which he kept secreted in an old boot box concealed among a quantity of bank's officers on the steps of the bank newspapers. He was surprised to find that some mice had entirely destroyed his fortune in preparing for themselves winter
