

NOT A FEATHER PLUCKED.

The following dispatch was received just before our going to press—

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9. HERALD, Somerset, Pa.

Not even a feather plucked from the tail of the Rooster. Cleveland carries the solid South, Illinois, Wisconsin, New York, Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey and probably other Northern States. Weaver seems to have about twenty-five votes in the Electoral College.

ED. B. SCULL.

"Where were YOU when the Cyclone Struck US?"

We heard something sharp.

It was a sure enough loud clide.

It's pretty tough, but we'll have to stand over for another four years.

One thing is settled, we know where we are at.

It is estimated that Weaver will have about twenty-five votes in the Electoral College.

Texas is a large grain of comfort in the magnificent majority rolled up by the Republican of Somerset County.

Every candidate on the Republican ticket will have a plurality of between 2400 and 2500.

J. D. Hicks, the Republican candidate for Congress, will have between 4,000 and 5,000 majority in the district.

Pennsylvania gives Harrison and Reid about 65,000 plurality. The Legislature and State Senate are both Republican which insures the re-election of M. R. Quay to the United States Senate.

At least one-third of the States in the Union voted under the Australian ballot system yesterday for the first time and for that reason the count has been retarded more than upon former years.

The Republican National Committee claims that the solid South has been broken at last. Little Delaware will give her three electoral votes for Harrison and Reid. West Virginia is also claimed by the Republicans.

A dispatch from Uniontown says that P. F. Jones, deputy collector of internal revenue for this district, has been elected Sheriff of Fayette county by a handsome majority. He is the only Republican on the ticket who carries that county.

The great majority of electors who voted yesterday in Somerset borough and township expressed themselves as highly pleased with the new method of casting their ballots. There have been no cases where electors refused to vote on account of the new system in these two precincts.

Somerset township cast 518 votes yesterday, fifty-nine less than were cast at the Presidential election four years ago. It should be remembered that about twenty-five voters were cut off from this township and added to the new township of Lincoln. Somerset borough cast 227 votes, one less than four years ago. The total registration in the borough was 416.

Last electors from Cambria county say that Hulseborth Murphy, Republican, has been elected district attorney over Frank J. O'Conner, Democrat, by a majority of from four to five hundred. Cambria county gives the Republican National ticket a small majority and it is claimed that the entire Republican county ticket has been elected.

At the hour of our going to press Wednesday evening all but three of the districts in the county had been heard from. An estimate based upon the returns received indicates that the county has given a majority of not less than 2400 for the entire Republican ticket. The Republican vote appears to have been cut much less than the Democratic all over the county.

A number of votes were rejected by the election officers at Rockwood yesterday on the ground that the voters had money bet on the election. It is said that from twelve or fourteen votes, in all, were rejected, but as the wages were between Republicans and Democrats, and the votes of all parties were rejected, the Republican majority in that precinct was not affected.

Long before the polls had closed last night the streets were crowded with boys of all ages and sizes. Everyone of them was provided with a tin horn or drum and before long they were making the night so noisy as it was possible to make it. The crowd on the streets was democratic in the strictest sense and cheered the news received as long as they had breath enough left to make a sound.

A Disturbing Element. From the N. Y. Tribune.

At a recent prayer-meeting in New Jersey a Democratic brother prayed that God would cause the Democratic party to hang together, whereas a Republican brother shouted: "Amen, amen." This led the Democratic brother to make the following amendment in his prayer: "Not O Lord, in the sense our Republican brother meant, but in the spirit of accord and concord."

"Any word will do, Lord; any word will do," answered the Republican. The pastor immediately made a rule that hereafter political should be kept out of the prayer-meeting.

AT BEN'S CAMP.

Crowds of People Flock Around the Headquarters.

FAITH IN MR. HARRISON

That Nothing Seems Able to Shake the Lead Bit.

Chairman Carter is Not Worried About the Loss of New York—Says That They Can Ever Spare Indiana—Some Slight Losses in the West—Claiming West Virginia as a Certainty—Episodes During the Eventful Hours.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Early in the evening the gratifying news was received from Cleveland county, the honor of J. Harrison had made a gain of 1,120 over the vote of 1888, but when at 10:25 o'clock the announcement was made that Indiana had gone Republican by 10,000 majority, the enthusiasm knew no bounds. The crowd by this time were wild at the good news announced. From some men, who, according to their way through the mass of yelling and singing enthusiasts, it was learned that the same enthusiasm was existing down town among the Democrats, but naturally the news was discounted among the men who were almost all Republican. As the reports continued to arrive saying that state after state was falling into line for Harrison, the crowd became more and more demonstrative.

Carter is Holding Out.

At 10:35 o'clock the announcement was made that Chairman Carter did not concede the state of New York. He sent a message to President Harrison, saying: "We have them dead. A little later we will send them to the waiting crowd from his nest on the third floor that he crys was "Ben, Ben Harrison." The crowd took up a yell and it with a will. At 10:40 o'clock Colonel H. L. Swells sent word downstairs that he did not give up New York to the Democrats by any means. That, of course, was in accord with the prevailing feeling. They were claiming everything, and to their happiness the crowd sang campaign songs between the times of announcements.

Carter Makes a Speech.

At midnight Mr. Carter, chairman of the Republican national committee, said: "The abnormal Democratic majorities in New York and Brooklyn will be difficult to overcome by Harrison going throughout the state. Our Democratic friends seem to have understood their party needs in the state of New York when they enacted the present constitution. Fortunately, the national committee relied upon three distinct combinations, and two of them remain intact, even if the loss of New York be conceded. With Indiana, the election of Harrison is assured, and the Republican victory in that state is certain. I am in receipt of a telegram from a reliable and thoroughly posted citizen of Indiana, who says: "Full Republican votes have been polled throughout the state and up to 10 o'clock tonight indicate Republican gains, and the committee in confidence the state has been carried for the Republican ticket."

Can Eldest Without New York.

"The vote of Indiana added to other Republican votes in the electoral college insures the re-election of President Harrison. Limiting from consideration the state of New York, the Republicans can still elect, with the vote of Connecticut, West Virginia and Delaware and without the vote of Indiana. But having the vote of Indiana assured we are not out of our chair in line Benjamin Harrison will be the next president of the United States by virtue of the fact that he has received a majority of the votes cast in the electoral college in obedience to the decision of a majority of the people of the respective states.

NEXT HOUSE IS DEMOCRATIC.

Judging from incoming reports it is almost a dead certainty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Late at night the reports so far received indicated that the Democratic majority in the next national house of representatives has been but little if any decreased. In New York the Republicans appear to have elected ten of the thirty-four congressmen, a Democratic gain of one. New Jersey and Connecticut have not apparently changed their present division of representatives, except that the Democrats in New Jersey have gained the additional member accorded by the new apportionment. The south has rolled up almost solid delegations from every state. Alabama has an additional member in the Fifty-third congress, and it is a Democratic gain; Arkansas, Mississippi, Georgia, Kansas, a new member and recovery of the district now represented by Tom Watson, Alliance member. The Republican gains are one in New Hampshire, eight in Ohio and one in Oregon. Although the Republicans carried Rhode Island by a majority of one, the reports are that no selection for congressmen was made, necessitating another election. Owing to the absence of reports from the central and western states and the uncertainty as to the results in congressional districts, it is impossible to even attempt to approximate the total representation of the several parties in the next house, but it will be Democratic.

Don Dickinson is Jubilant.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mr. Don M. Dickinson, of the Democratic campaign committee, said at a press conference: "We desire to boast of the result. The grand result speaks for itself. It shows that the producers of the country have demonstrated that they shall be no longer betrayed by excessive taxation for the benefit of great monopolies, but are determined to uphold local rights against the abuse of centralized power. In Michigan we have achieved a great success in electing a governor and several presidential electors. The uprising in the northwest is the most significant event of the year. In view of the splendid performance of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, there is nothing sectional about the victory which is a success for sound political and economic principles every where."

A Quiet Election in Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—The election has been the quietest held in the history of the city and county. An unusually large vote has been polled and the large registration was nearly all in at 8 p. m. It is believed that the vote for Harrison was well over 100,000. The registration of state will run slightly behind the presidential ticket owing to local issues.

Fifteen Arrests in Trenton, N. J.

TRENTON, Nov. 9.—Fifteen arrests were made here yesterday for bribery at the polls. Among them is the Democratic State Senator, Michael H. Mercer, and Mercer county, John Webb, a letter carrier, and William H. Skirm, Jr., a son of the Governor. The case will be heard at the state senate in a few days.

Oregon Possibly for Weaver.

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—The vote in Oregon has been comparatively light. Very few returns came as yet received. It is impossible to say much about the result. It is thought that Pierce, one of the Weaver electors, has been elected.

An Election Judge Sidelined.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 9.—Daniel Borcia, aged 62, a Democratic judge of the election in the Second ward, shot himself dead with a pistol before daylight yesterday. The case was trouble over financial and family matters. The election went on in his house.

Mississippi is Republican.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Reports from all over the north-west indicate that the fine weather has caused a large vote. In Mississippi an immense vote has been cast. It is predicted that the city has gone Republican by 30,000 at least.

Speaker Crisp is Re-Elected.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Georgia will send a solid delegation to the next congress. This time the delegates were not in every district, but were strong in every district. Speaker Crisp is re-elected by an increased majority.

Weaver Will Carry Nebraska.

NEBRASKA, Nov. 9.—Late reports from Nebraska still carry fragmentary.

How the Election Returns Were Received at Headquarters.

A GREAT DEAL OF REJOICING

As the Incoming Results Showed Heavy Democratic Gains.

How the Election Returns Were Received at Headquarters.

A GREAT DEAL OF REJOICING As the Incoming Results Showed Heavy Democratic Gains.

Chairman Harry Claims the State of New York Early in the Evening—Both Parties Took Very Light Votes—The New Ballot Laws Cause Much Delay.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—New York City complete gives Cleveland 174,885; Harrison, 88,760. Cleveland's majority, 76,125. The Democrats have carried New York state by 88,131 majority.

Michigan in Line for Grover.

MICHIGAN, Nov. 9.—The returns were received from Michigan, showing that probably 20,000 Democrats claim the election of all congressmen and the People's party received less votes than was expected.

Heavy Democratic Gain in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 9.—Indications are that the state will give 30,000 Democratic majority. Cleveland carried the city by 6,800 majority, a gain of about 2,000 over 1888.

Grover Carries New Jersey.

TRENTON, Nov. 9.—The New Jersey returns are scattering and meager. It is estimated that Grover will be elected by the state by 7,000 plurality. The result of the gubernatorial contest is in doubt.

Harrison Wins in Grover's Birthplace.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 9.—Caldwell, the birthplace of Grover Cleveland, gives Harrison 184, Cleveland 154.

Nothing Definite in Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 9.—The weather was cold, and the returns late. Both parties claim the state.

the Vote in States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—From the best information obtainable the following table gives the result in the various states: New York, 88,131; Indiana, 11; Louisiana, 8; Delaware, 3; Connecticut, 6; Florida, 4; Georgia, 18; Illinois, 34; Indiana, 11; Kansas, 13; Louisiana, 8; Maryland, 8; Mississippi, 9; Michigan, 6; Missouri, 17; New Jersey, 10; New York, 88,131; North Carolina, 12; Texas, 15; Virginia, 12; Total, 250.

Republican Gains in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Nov. 9.—There is little probability of any definite returns from Kansas being received at present. The Populists have insisted that the law providing through the state and up to complete, when taken from the box, was complied with to the letter. This is a matter which has been carried to such an extent that no figures of any consequence have been reported. A few scattered reports have been received, which show decided Republican gains.

We Are Strictly in It!

Somerset County Gives an Old-Time Republican Majority.

Some set county gives President Harrison a majority of 2450, just 47 less than his majority of four years ago.

Some set county gives President Harrison a majority of 2450, just 47 less than his majority of four years ago. The Republican figures on the balance of the county ticket has about the same majority as the head of the ticket. The Prohibitionists polled less than 200 votes in the county, and the People's party less than 50. Following is an unofficial report of the votes of the county by districts on the Presidential and Congressional ticket.

Following is the unofficial vote of the county for Presidential Electors and for member of Congress:

Table with columns: DISTRICTS, Pres, Cong. It lists various districts and their respective votes for President and Congress.

First Blood for the Republicans.

The first blood came in at 8 o'clock. It was from Suffolk county and showed a Republican lead of over 200 over the vote in 1888. "The claim diggers have got in their work. That is on account of the fact that the law providing through the state and up to complete, when taken from the box, was complied with to the letter. This is a matter which has been carried to such an extent that no figures of any consequence have been reported. A few scattered reports have been received, which show decided Republican gains.

Third Party Carries Oregon.

There was considerable cheering when it was announced that Weaver has carried Oregon, and there was much rejoicing still when a telegram was read that the state of Washington probably went for Cleveland. This was rapidly followed by the returns from 800 city electors in the state showing a Democratic majority of 38,858, which created great excitement. The returns from the inland counties were equally cheering, showing a Republican loss in nearly every case. Chairman Harry was overwhelmed with congratulations, but he would not commit himself. "It looks very much like a Republican slaughter," he said, but it is too early in the game yet to tell.

Good Outlook for the Democrats.

The wins began to tick at 6:20 o'clock. The first news was "72 election districts in the state of New York give Cleveland 9,720, Harrison 3,022." Then the returns by bunches of election districts in New York city began to pour in. It was indicated at first that in some parts of Cleveland's majority would be about 60,000. Then the Democratic majority ran along steadily at about 100,000. It was not until 9 o'clock that the first news from outside New York city was received. It was Cleveland 55,467, Harrison 31,128.

Chairman Harry remarked:

"That is a magnificent result. It shows that the people are strictly in it. The big Democratic districts have not been given over to the Republicans. That is what it means. It means that 200 districts had given Cleveland 73,864 and Harrison 41,970. This was unequalled in the history of the state. The first news from outside New York city was received. It was Cleveland 55,467, Harrison 31,128.

From Virginia came the news that 10 counties gave a Democratic majority of 2,600.

The Thanksgiving Proclamation.

President Harrison Ennumerates Blessings to Be Grateful For.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Harrison has issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation as follows:

"The gifts of God to our people during the past year have been so abundant and so special, that the spirit of devout thanksgiving awaits not a call, but only the appointment of a day when it may have a common expression. He has stayed the pestilence at our door; He has given us more love for the few civil institutions, in the creation of which, His directing providence was so conspicuous; He has awakened a deeper reverence for law; He has widened our philanthropy by a call to succor the distressed in other lands; He has blessed the schools and His bringing forward a patriotic and God-fearing generation to execute His great and benevolent designs for our country; He has given us great increase in material wealth and a wide diffusion of contentment and comfort in the homes of our people; He has given His grace to the sorrowing; He has given us a Day of Thanksgiving to God for His mercies, and of supplication for His continued care and grace."

The President's Thanks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The President today requested the publication of the following expression of sympathy with me and our family in our great sorrow from individuals, from societies, from church conventions, from public meetings, from political clubs and committees of all parties, and indeed from all our people, have been so tender and so full of respect and love for Mr. Harrison that I reluctantly abandon the purpose of making a personal acknowledgment of each.

"We are grateful, very grateful for this great outpour of good will and for your generous interest. May God give to each of you in every trial that grace and strength which you have asked for us."

BEAUMAIS HARRISON.

District Attorney Missing.

STROUBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—District Attorney C. W. Holbrook, of Monroe county, has been missing since the early part of October and no one has any idea as to where he is. His business has been neglected and great anxiety has been caused by his absence.

A Battle With Brigands.

Twelve brigands armed to the teeth rode into San Juan, Mexico, under the leadership of the notorious Antonio Gildardo and completely raided the store of Richard Vendon. They secured several hundred dollars in cash, driving the proprietor, clerks and about 20 customers into the street at the muzzle of their pistols.

The police netted the brigands, and as the latter emerged from the store a fusillade was opened. Gallardo and two others of the desperate band were killed at the first volley. The nine other brigands returned the fire and a pitched battle then ensued, the brigands fighting their way through the ranks of the police. Six of them escaped and three were seriously wounded. Four of the police were seriously wounded. The stolen money and property were taken to the town.

Lacerated by a Rooster.

Reading, Nov. 4.—John Glepe, living near Fortville, Berks county, was attacked by a large game rooster which was the victor in a recent cock fight, last night.

His face was so badly lacerated that both eyes are swollen tight shut and his nose badly lacerated.
