ARVEY M. BERKLEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, BJEERSET, PA. ent F. J. Eccust, Esq.

Colores' Building.

C. HOLBERT, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, SQUEETEL, PA. Now with John H. Uhl. EORGE E. SCULL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Romerock, Pa.

S. ENDSLEY, ATTAW, BORROW, PR. RED, W. BILINECKES, Printing House Bow, opposite &

1. 6. OGLE | Could Not Open His Eyes. I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their COTT & OGLE, ATTURNETS AT LAW, SOMERSET, PA. remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparlia and it soon cured him. I have hever doubted that it saved his sight, even if nor his very life. You may use this tes-timonal in any way you choose. I am always ready to sound the pruise of J. EGOSER, ATTURNEY-AT-LAW, SUPERING Pa.

M. H. KOONTZ,

ALENTINE HAY, ATTURNEY-AT-LAW, saler in Real Estate. Will attend to all

HN H. UHL.
ATTORSEY-AT-LAW,
Somerset, Pa. ly arrend to all business entrusted EIN O. KIMMEL. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa.,

Office on Main Cross Street ES L. PUGH, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Essential Block, up stairs. Entrance tree Street. Collections made, estates be cramined, and all legal business at will promisiness and fidelity.

L. C. COLBORS. EN & COLBORN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, s entrasted to our care will be maintaily attended to. Collections area, Section and adjusting coun-ing and conveysaning done on rea-

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somerset, Pa., in Senserset and adjoining com-

FROTH & RUPPEL, ATTORNEYS AT LAW, on extrusted to their care will be a purctually attended to. Office on Street, opposite Mammoth Block.

W. CARUTHERS, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, SOMEDIET, PA. I Union street, next door to Printing s. Night calls at office.

L.P. F. SHAFFER, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. of woming Once next door to

R. H. S. KIMMELL, ed vicinity. Unless protessionally is found at his office on Main St

L J. M. LOUTEER, PHYSICIAN AND SUIDSEON, RIS MMILLEN.

Undivided Profits $200,000. INSURES TITLE TO REAL ESTATE.

Executor, Administrator, Guardian, umirating & Lubricating Oils Trustee, Assignee, Receiver, &c. aphth and G asoline, RELIABLE INVESTMENT SECURITIES. Rents boxes in its Superior Vaults from $5.00 per annum upwards. ODUCT OF PETROLEUM. Receives deposits and loans on mort-

If you wish the most uniformly gages and approved collaterals. JOHN B. JACKSON, - President. patisfactory Oils -IN THE -AMERICAN HOTEL.

American Market, 0 wned nd Operated by misplied by Imported Cigars.

The undersigned has on hand a large stock of SOMERSET COUNTY WHISKY, Old Rye,

Year old at $2 55 per gallon. Addr as all orders to Nos. 157, 159, and 161 Bal-more S., Cumberland, M.1. S. P. SWEITZER, Prope

Somerset Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1827.

VOL. XLI. NO. 23.

Clifford Blackman

A Boston Boy's Eyesight

Saved Perhaps His Life

By Hood's Sarsaparilla-Blood Pol-

Rend the following from a grateful mother:

My little boy had Scarlet Fever when 4 years old, and it left him very weak and with blood

o inflamed that his sufferings were intense, and poisoned with canker. His eyes became

Hood's Sarsaparilla

secause of the wonderful good it did my son,"

ABBIE F. BLACKMAN, 2888 Washington St.,

HOOD'S PILLS are hand made, and are per-

-THE-

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

--- OF ---

Somerset, Penn'a.

-0-

DEPOSITS RECEIVED IN LARGE AND SMALL

AMOUNTS. PAYABLE ON DEMAND.

ACCOUNTS OF MERCHANTS FARMERS.

-DISCOUNTS DAILY .-

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

LARUE M. HICKS. W. H. MILLER,

made absolutely Burglar-proof.

OF SOMERSET, PA.

CAPITAL $50,000.

--:0:--

Wm. H. Koontz, Vice Pres't.

--- :0:---

DIRECTORS:

Sam. R. Harrison,

Customers of this Bank will receive the most States. Charges moderate.

Accounts and Deposits Solicied. mar6-6 m

FIBELITY TITLE AND TRUST CO.

121 & 123 Fourth Ave.,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

Authorized to act as

DEALS IN

- - - $1,000.00

Milton J. Pritts, Cashier.

Chas. J. Harrison, Pres't

JAMES L. PUGH, CHAR. H. FIRHER,

FREI W. BIEFECTER.

GEO. R. SCULL,

Get HOOD'S.

for seven weeks he

CAPITAL

JOHN R. SCOTT.

soned by Canter

SOMERSET, PA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1892.

calm, rational courtship flowed on in its | ny Man Society," then. Good-bye dears.

the guests, and looked about for a suitable boarding-house, as Helen refused to listen to house-keeping. But one evening, when the wedding was but two weeks distant. Channey came in an hour too early for the "Missionary Meeting" and after a hurried word of greeting to Mrs. Hunt, rushed on to Helen, who was calmly copying a "Treasurer's Report" in the back parlor.

news for you. Put away your papers for a moment. Oh, he cried, his voice quivering with pain, "how can I give you up? My darling? My darling!" No wonder she was startled.

though I have no knowledge. Heaven of making puddings, and running do- "My own, my treasure, I cannot ask so mestic affairs. But when a woman like great a sacrifice. We have played in-

> "You cannot give me up. It would live without your love." "Pretty well for philosopher!" thought in the right place in spite of their nontalk so near to her, and now and again wiping her eyes. After a time they fine mind, a well cultivated intellect, in providing liberally. She did not drop not be more than $10 per acre. This tion, but it seemed to Harold as if a large with her.

tiny mite of a baby.

"I was afraid you were not well," Mrs. Hunt said. "You were not at the hall my greatest comfort, my deepest happiness, is to know that all a mother's love

"Aunt Lizzie!" This was after a long silence. "Yes, dear."

C. B. McVAY. - Secretary and Treas with her to the lectures on "First Aid to tender young souls committed to their the characters which the metal types escape without assistance.

president, ex-treasurer, ex-librarian, ex-man, entered hastily, asking :

"Now, Aunt Lizzie!" protested Helen.

duties, while Mrs. Hunt superintended to her misguided sisters who prefer to be the preparations of the trousseau, invited good wives and mothers."

dows of the soul-of the soul that is good | gelic. and pure. For my beauty training I recommend nothing that will do any harm; but there is plenty of time in life-plensaid Mrs. Hunt. "Do you think these break my heart, Chauncey. I cannot ty of time between working hours for the girl to take care of herself, and to make berself levely, and that is what I want all Mrs. Hunt. "I knew their hearts were my girls to do. I want them to be full of love in their hearts, and I want this love

faces,-Home Journal,

Railways Instead of Roads. time, Chauncey having had an offer of a a year, or a term of years, and they repan uncle controlled the offer. But the the rent of electric wagons, and operation the rent of electric wagons are rent of electric wagons and the rent of electric wagons are rent of electric wagons and the rent of electric wagons are rent of e coming home to the little house, thoras we can make in advance, founded on severe and make it sure. Do sorrows the big pane of glass was gone. gentle sympathy and petting. Yes, pet- in operation, warrants us in saying that continued adherence to the great plan of the glazier refused to give it up. "It whas central power-station—there would be, in skies—still press on, and never relin- glass no s." the larger part of the Union, about 100 quish the great object of your ambition. miles of railway. Then the total cost of | -Once a Week. $60 for each 100 acres of land.

It must be conceded that this does not man, and he listened in great consternaseem like a very heavy tax when we tion for a confirmation of his fears. It ered available, the great saving in the and swore. last evening to hear Mr. Jordan! Such a the greatly enhanced value of improved movements and the profanity overhead. lescended to a compliment; not once had splendid lecture! I am sorry you miss- farm lands. If the interest charge "Yes, papa." amounted to $100 per year, and the farm- The brave girl strove not to betray in "There! there, donteeky, mamma's holders of the electric companies, it nal observer, that she was almost scared gineering Magazine.

Judicious Reading.

Almost any one who thinks a moment in which he has gratified them will be sick at heart and deeply agitated. could give them was theirs while I had astonished at the vast amount of reading "When is he going?" them. I would not recall one kiss, one he has done; and, if he reads hastily, he will be surprised at the little thought he has given to his mental food.

Too much attention cannot be given ed, "right now." to entertaining and instructive literature. From books a man may learn ed down the stairs. When I stuck up my conceited nose at | what the closest observers and the ablest the womanly woman, and tried to be a thinkers in all past ages have learned come of her own, and her aunt's love | manly one. When I talked as if Chaun- only by painful experience and thought, and wealth gave her a luxurious home, cay was merely a fellow-worker in a he may learn what the most phenome- I hope, sir. No violence, please." She had no duties in the home circle. "Cause," while I loved him better than nal geniuses of the last century never Mrs. Hupt managed her own household my life. When I did not see that while dreamed of. Or, if his tastes lie in a dif- with an apprehensive glance at the stairaffairs, and being in perfect health and women may do noble work in public ferent direction, he may find in books way. Letitis stood rooted to the parlor full of energy, did not call upon Helen duties, may use their brains for the bene- and newspapers entertaing, spirited comfor any service, content to see her happy | fit of humanity at large, the happier ones, | panions, illumining life with beauty, ro-

The nature, science and his'ory of a the Injured;" she attended the "Wo- charge, and keep from temptation the have stamped on paper. By a judicious man's Temperance Mission," on the reg- little feet they are permitted to guide." | course of reading the professional man nlar meeting evenings; she contributed | "I never thought you were a fool, Hel- the man in public life, the journalist, the S. P. SWEITZER, Cumberland, Md. to the "Flower Mission," the "Working en. The work you did was noble work, scientist, the merchant, the merchant, Art Class," the "Beauty for the Masses" and there are many who will perform it the farmer, -- in brief, any worker in any lectures. Wherever Helen's radiant faithfully and well, having no other du- field-may gather stores of knowledge, then and there and come down stairs to lovely face was seen, Mrs. Hunt's more ties to distract them. But I am glad you which will be of the most immediate and > Philosophical Cogitations. So many silly sheep go to wolves

The man who amounts to the most Every man's definition of happiness is Hindsight is like looking through until something pleases them before they

Mother's Patience.

less as a mother's patience? The pretty haby cries and squirms about just when everything is being done for its comfort, | mental. yet she does not, as an outsider feels like doing, give it an emphatic little shake or | service. Of course, my dear girls, you want a pat that might be called a slap if be- An indulgent confessor makes a poor your eyes to look clear and bright, and stowed by another. No, she bears with it, reformer. brows to be well shaped. About your sings to it, murmurs sweet words into the eyes: They will never be clear unless unheeding ears and would think anyone away pleasures. your digestion is in good order, and they utter'v ridiculous who saw anything re- An idea is more prolific than a grain will never be bright unless you have markable in her increasing goodness. It of mustard seed. made up your mind to give happiness to must be a part of motherhood, for it The true philanthropist belongs to the some one else, and then it is reflected in comes to the very young parent as well largest brotherhood. them. As to your eyebrows: If they as to the woman who has raised manyhave an aggressive way of standing up, children before the last vexatious atom ing to stress of need, and do not shape themselves well, just appeared.

We make our to-de dip your finger in the vaseline every | The society girl who looked positively our to-morrows of to-days. night, press them down to place, making aghast when a baby was brought in for When a man's word is not as good as them shape the desired curve. If they her inspection and would leave a car if his bond, keep watch on his bond.

are very heavy, brush them with a tiny any small creature commenced to cry, When marriage is anything but an soft brush, but do not, under any consid- takes her own baby as though brought equal partnership it is a mistake. to cut them, for they will only grow in does not get excited or ill-tem, ered when systems to gold in their pockets. thick, stiff and ugly. If, through some he wriggles and squirms, cries or kicks. To please people with whom you talk, pencil, which may be gotten in any col- responsible bit of loveliness decides that | misplaced. or, only costs ten cents, and yet drawn he was sleepy and cuddles down content. There are few people who do not at you fell behind at school, and I will tell where the brows ought to be, will give | waiting patiently for this result all along. | upon the truth. the expression to your face that was She will rise ten times in a night without there when the brows had not disap- one murmur, even when eyes are heavy- convincing each man of the correctness up with cheap dirt-miserable dime novpeared. By the by, I wish that none of with sleep and weary limbs would so of his own views. jurious, and when the use of them is once | limited supply of patience, and growl fre- sions of youth have left. commenced it has to be kept up. If you | quently at the demands of the latest arri- | The best maxim for the guidance of an do what is right, it is going to look out val in the family-fatherhood is not inquiring mind, is this: Try to see in straight from your eyes and tell the story mother-hood by a great deal. With the every error the deeper truth which alone to all the world; it is going to make latter comes that great well spring of can explain it.

Take the Sunny Side of Life.

Never relinquish the great object of your ambition, whatever it may be. Let it be, more or less distinctly, ever present in your mind. Let it exert a controlling influence over all your actions. In the first place, have some definite aim to to speak out in the loveliness of their your life-some distinct and leading object of your ambition and be ambitious to accomplish it. An aimless, objectless life is a dull and dreary, waste. It lacks with necessary tracks, poles and wires at path even when grief and gloom over over. shadow it. Press on, through good or

Only a Coup.

The two souls with but a single thought theirs. Harold was not an athletic young cost and maintenance of horses and wag- "Letitia!" called a voice which Harons, the enormous economy of time, and old instinctively associated with the ers were themselves chiefly the stock- her voice the fact, patent to the most cas-

"Is that fellow here yet?" demanded the voice. "Yes, papa."

Harold felt himself to be the individual to whom reference was made. He upon his literary tastes, and the manner shrank from the publicity. He looked

With a wild look in his eye the lover sprang forward and seized his hat. "Right now, sir," he harriedly exclaim-

An ejaculation of impatience was waft-"I say," the voice was louder now,

"when is he going-" "Directly, sir; directly. No violence, Harold was bastening toward the loor,

"Shut up," roared the voice. "I say shut up." Harold was having an awful time with

"Letitia!" "Ye es, papa." "When is that fellow going to propose

Will it be this season or not till next?" And pape had to get into his trousers bless the blissful young couple. It was merely a coup on the old man's part. Effects of Fishing. They look pretty closely after their there of the deacon calling on the pastor And just then Chauncey Brown, ex- a description of the life of his neighbor. with the complaint that he swore. The No one will take advice, but every one good man was dumbfounded and ask for respondent of the N. Y. San. Editor secretary to a dozen causes, the calm self- who makes a mistake complains because a bill of particulars, whereupon it was Dana lays aside his grave political prob-But for Mrs. Hunt, it is appaling to

"Is papa's pretty puppet better, and is microscope at something we looked at imagine the garbs she would have asits horrid old toothy pegs done aching? through a telescope before it happened.

"Is papa's pretty puppet better, and is microscope at something we looked at its horrid old toothy pegs done aching? through a telescope before it happened.

"I've had a damn good bite!" the good and for man. She is for this world and we could not make this offer did we not man responded cheerfully, "So have I!"

> some things we need in the house. Husband-What are they. Wife-Well, to begin with, dear, con't The great value of Hood's Sarssparilla "Well, the future president of the laugh, and to cry without waiting for you think we need a new bonnet?-De- as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by fallen somewhat below the average.

WHOLE NO. 2156.

en this month, have you?"

"How did that happen?"

"Don't know, sir."

"Yes, sir."

Seeing the Point.

"Empty out those apples, and take the basket and bring it to me half full of dry

Suspecting nothing, the boy obeyed.

"And now," he continued, "put the

"But, father, I can't put them in."

"Put them in, I tell you."

Pearls of Thought. Folly's pains are wisdom's gains. Money is rarely a substitute for mind. What is useful is intrinsically orna-Love bath no dearer privilege than his

She that wasteth crumbs throweth fitting opportunity arrived.

The value of an article varies accord-We make our to-days of yesterdays;

apples back into the basket." the son said : eration, permit anybody to induce you up to the situation from childhood. She | Some men convert the "brass" in their any more."

accident, you have an absolute lack of She has learned the jargon of the nursery always know a little less than they do. eyebrows, I do recommend one simple and whispers and sings to the tearful A suspicious circumstance connected deception, and that is the soft eyebrow baby until the cries cease and the little ir- with pride is that it is apt so often to be ket half full of chips and then fill it with cleverly over the brows, or the place edly in its mothers's arms that had been some time shy when they run suddenly you. Your mind is like that basket. It kin. Discussion hath its purpose—that of have been for the past month filling it my girls would ask me about depilato- much enjoy repose. It is to be regretted In maturity reason sometimes builds a ries. I think all of them more or less in- that fathers as a rule do not possess an un- palace out of the ruins which the pas- and said:

them beautiful, bright wells of thought; love in which abides an enduring patience | An old man once said of a young man it is going to make, in reality, the win- that to an outsider seems positively an- who had recently become his friend: "I reading history, art, science or travels posed of Northampton and Fairhope, to love him for his spirit of joy." The may grow wiser every day; but a man spirit of joy is a disposition to easy de- may read fiction a hundred years, and 10, 1892. light in simple things.

Sometimes we see a maiden in the transition period between girlhood and womanhood, so innocent, so lovely, so not whether to deem her soul the trans-

The Triumph Was Hers.

There is just now a triumphant little this saving must of course be set the cost blushingly and proudly exhibit to the was entirely destroyed and the other had come, or how largely her influence with of the railroad, the electric-power station, light of day, and for which you may only a small corner broken off. The same energy that Channey had thrown ing expenses. What would be the pursue it earnestly and steadfastly. No Now the lady had two small pictures

"See here, I paid you what you asked ed and served, and Helen ever ready to face that could be served from a single sunshine, amid storms or under peaceful carried off my own glass. I want that "Vhell, you pay feefly cents. Der rules | flavoring cakes and puddings.

of der shop say so." "I don't care anything about the rules of the shop. You've taken my glass and lessens the labor wonderfully. I want it."

and the little woman retreated. band, without any preface, walked up oughly before adding the boiling water, and started out with it.

The husband laid the gissa down as two the air tas been restored to it. officers from the Chicago avenue station hurried up. The situation was explained, and the police told the husband to take the glass if he was certain of the there is no such thing as real prosperity property. When he looked around however, it had disappeared.

They were outwitted. Justice Kersten was appealed to recover the property under a criminal warrant. It wouldn't stick. Then the little woman decided to bide her time. It came.

rung the bell. Did the glazier leave a hammer there the other day?

rules of this house that we keep all the tools left here. If he wants his hammer tell him to return my glass." Ten minutes later the boy was at the door with the pane of glass. The landlady took it. "Tell your boss I was mistaken-he didn't leave his hammer here!" And the door closed with a bang.

Later it was learned that the hammer was left next door .- Chicago News, prominent a part in the worship of the time as they had done in the old religion short work of them, asked, "How daily walk and conversation of their by the bishop and his clergy. Hymns clergy down in Ohio, according to the St. and anthems were sung, and processions Paul Pioneer Press. A story comes from were made by the priests and people in We authorize our advertised druggist honor of the sacrifice. - The Million, he had gone fishing with a worldly man | "she is for soul, for thought, for love, for is for earth and heaven."

The following are programmes for the Teachers' Local Institutes to be held at various places throughout the county during the present month :

Teachers' Local Institutes.

PROGRAMME for a District Institute of the ninth district, composed of Middlecreek and Upper Turkeyfoot townships and Casselman borough, to be held at the Dwire school house, on Saturday, December 17, 1892.

Forenoon Session. Resitation, Miss Sadie Pyle. "Friday Afternoon Exercises," A. J.

Primary class drill, F. E. Younkin. Methods of teaching advanced arithmetic, Chas. Eicher.

Drawing-1. How to teach it, A. S. Snyder. 2. Benefits derived therefrom, J. H. Schmücker. Afternoon Session. A boy returned from school one day Select Reading, John Nickel.

with a report that his scholarship had School requisites, J. H. Moore. Literary qualifications of the teacher, "Well," said his father, "you have fall-P. E. Weimer. The proper use of the dictionary, Miss.

Lou A. Moore. Aims in teaching advanced reading, J.

S. Brougher. The father knew if the son did not The use of the chart in first lessons in He had observed a number of dime novreading, W. A. Leer. els about the house, but had not thought The use of the globes and maps in the it worth while to say anything until a public schools, E. E. Barclay. Discussion, "The nec ssity of district supervision," opened by J. P. Barron. Evening Session. Declamation, Minnie Peters. Select Reading, J. H. Moore. The teacher's relation to the parents of his pupils, J. H. Shultz, When half the apples were replaced, Deciamation, John Putman. Composition, W. A. Leer. "Father, they roll off; I can't put on Select Reading, Peter Kreger, Emulation, H. D. Pyle. Oration, F. E. Younkin. Declamation, Daisie Heinbaugh. "Pot them in! No, of course you can't Composition, Ephraim Trimpey.

put there in. Do you expect to fill a bas-Declamation, Annie Meyers. Debate, "Resolved, that curiosity leads apples? You said you didn't know why man farther than necessity." Affirmative, A. S. Snyder; negative, F. E. Younwill hold only so much, and here you Closing remarks, Chas. Eicher. The above programme will be interspersed with music and queries. Directors and citizens are heartily invited to be present and take part in the

W. A. Leer, J. H. Shults.

PROGRAMME

be held at Bridigum school house, Dec.

Afternoon Session. Song, " Welcome." Essay, O. W. Boyer. How to teach the chart classes, C. W.

Recitation, Miss Mary Cramer. Song, "The Old Mountain Home," Queries.

School punishment, D. H. Banman. Song, " Home of Bliss. Evening Session. Song, "Beantiful Home." Reading, Miss Milliron. How to teach spelling in primary Queries. Song, "Our School-boy Days." Recitation, Miss Will.

Will the World's Fair be a benefit to are willing to let their mothers wait on and S. M. Brant; negative, G. H. Brondthem, and black their boots while they water and O. W. Boyer. Paper, S. M. Brant.

Sing, "Sweet Sammer." D. H. Banman, Ida Milliron, Cost. Mary Cramer.

PROGRAMME for a Local Inscitute of the teachers of Jefferson township, to be held at the Barclay school house, on Saturday, Nov.

19, 1892, beginning at 10 o'clock a. m. Orange peel dried and grated makes a Forenoon Samion. fine, yellow powder that is delicious for Opening of Institute. Song by Institute. Manuscript work, C. R. B. Cramer. Language lessons in second an 1 third grades, Clarence Moore. Afternoon Session. Sing by Institute. Vocal music, W. V. Putman. Patriotism, G. F. Barclay. Primary arithmetic, E. F. Shanlis. Reward cards, E. F. Miller.

Evening Session. Question for debate: "Resolved, that curiosity will had a man farther than mer, G. F. Barelay, E. F. Miller; negative, Wm. B. Putman, Clarence Moore, E. F. shaulis.

The programme will be interspersed with queries and recitations. We extend a cordial invitation to all friends of education to attend these ses

Wus. B. Patman, Hiram Beck, E.F. Shaulis

PROGRESSMEN for Institu'e to be held at the Wable school-house, in Black township, Nov. 19th, 1802:

Devotional Exercises, J. W. Wegley. How can we make our Institute a success? Ida Shuff. Recitation, Cordie Shultz. Morality in our schools, T. R. Pritts. School-room discipline, P. P. Mognet.

Recitation, Lizzie Baker. Patriotism, H. G. Will, School-r.om apparatus, W. R. Sechler. Becitation, Alice C. Will. Mind culture, W. H. H. Baker.

Bacitation, Miss Pritts. Our fing, G. M. Baker. Music in our schools, Josie Shaffer. We invite all friends of education to meet with us and assist us in our work. Let every teacher come prepared to take

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electre five cents for a spoonful of cold beans?" Bitters has gained rapidly in popular fa-The proprietor continuing firm in his vor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alters-But late that afternoon a telegram was tives-containing nothing which permits incense, and Grimalkin wastreated in all handed to the restaurant keeper, for its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is respects as the god of the day. But on which he paid twenty five cents. It ran recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of Stomach, Liver or was reversed. A number of the tabby Don't you think your price a little Kidneys. It will cure Sick Hendache, THAVELER. Indigestion, Constipation, and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guarwill be refunded. Price only 50 cents

> Has a Human Voice. The Mins, one of the Grackle species

cal countries domesticated, far excel the perrots, both in picking up the wordsand speech of those by whom they are surmanded and in the distinctness with which they speak the words and sentence learned. The hill mina is a small bird, shining coal black in color, with a bright orange stripe about its head, orange legs and a sharp, salmon colored bill, and can speak and laugh in perfect imitation of man, joining in most intelligently in conversation. London Tit-Bits.

even channels. Together Chauncey and Be sure you train that youthful maiden's Was there ever anything so exhaust-Helen attended to their various public mind to be a shining light in the future

Your Eyes and Brows.

She knitted quietly, listening to the came into her, making their confessions, as blushingly as if newly betrothed. The wedding came off at the appointed position in a large wholesale business. Not even Helen knew how much of the liberal salary came out of Mrs. Hunt's in-cally spoiled her husband. His slippers and dressing-gown were a cost of $3,500 per mile. always ready, his dinner carefully cooksuch honor as proted that the lovely head held brain above the average capacisoothe him if he was weary.

any useful channel, and he took up various and sundry "causes" and threw his whole soul into them while the fever Absolutely devoted to each other, this original pair of lovers prided themselves upon a philosophical contempt of any such nonsense as love. Not once in their dignified courting had Chauncey Browne he given Helen a caress beyond a regula- ed it!" lation kiss at meeting and parting-a kiss so strictly conventional that they would have exchanged it with as much cool-Collections made in all parts of the United privacy of Mrs. Hunt's cozy parlor. They never talked of their future home nakes the Eden of most love-dreams. work together, the noble aims they were to sersue hand in hand, the philanthro> eyes, intended to convey love's messages, kindling with flery enthusiasm over a 'Cause" with an immensa C.

Livery Establishment, weekly lecture to the "Art Class" and home, husband and children, and is not where rigs of all descriptions can be had at moderate rates. The bar of this Hotel is stocked with the flaest grades of Whiskies, Wines and Beers. Also on hand a large stock of to Chauncey, and accepting his criticism Do you hear that Miss Lizzie Mamma and suggestions, as it seemed good to her, can call you toosy-wootsey, precious pet, She visited friends for subscriptions to all her undertakings; she took th ecorrespondence of the "Temperance Mission" into her own hands, and gave herself no to anything so trifling as dress. But | see you."

"Helen," he said, "I have terrible

"If there is anything that does make I have nothing left to offer you, Helen, me fairly sick, it is to see girls who gave but a little house and five hundred dolfair promise of developing a noble intel- lars a year my mother left me. My fathlect, dropping down to mere domestic er's fortune is gone in the 'Corn & Oats idiots the moment they are under the Bank' failure. I must work now, dear, Miss Helen Ferguson's finely-chiseled help me, of any money-making art. And nose and daintily curved lips executed a my wife must keep my little house, and superb sneer, and Mrs. Hunt, who was help me live honestly by economy and or had come back to her round cheek, "Some must run the domestic affairs, Helen," she said quietly, "while the Channey had never seen before. others attend the great public duties." "Oh, it is all very well for you to laugh | her voice had no hard ring, but was genat me, Aunt Lizzie," Helen said, "but the and caressing. "I will keep your the fact remains there are plenty of we little house, Chauncey, and help you live men of average intelligence quite capable honestly."

Amabel Lowry can sit for one mortal difference, dearest love, but now, when hour saying 'cutchyeon' didsy-widy' to a we must part, let me tell you once how little pink idiot of six weeks, I am dis- I love you, my life's blessing, my dear-"Oh! You have been to see Amabel,"

"SOME OTHER DAY."

While brave souls, with undaunted front,

Meet there as they appear, And face them out, and bear the brunt

Take trouble when it shows its head,

Don't give it time to thrive and spread.

When the unpleasant things in life

The weaklings try to leave the strife

Until "some other day."

Without a show of Year.

And crush it at one blow ;

Nor one hour older grow;

The most fallacious thing on earth

As they come passing by; At half our troubles we could scoff

When pleasures come or troubles rise Meet them the self-same way;

Take them when here, if you are wise,

SHINING LIGHTS.

But face it, kill it at its birth,

Without a stop or stay,

Is that "some other day."

If we would only try,

And not "some other day.

control of a man."

We never put our pleasures off examine the proportions of that interesting young man's feet!' exclaimed lielen SURPLUS . . . $8.000. lofily. A soft little laugh from her aunt an-

"I am sure, I can not tell! I did not

"Your time will come, my dear," she socks will fit her baby ?"

"Never, Chauncey does not expect it. STOCK DEALERS, AND OTHERS SOLICITED. He understands that marriage between us is a union of souls devoted to lofty aimes, of minds eager to obtain and utilize knowledge, and he will never expect me to sink down to the level of a domestic drudge." "How about hearts in the union you speak of!" asked Mrs. Hunt, "Rubbish!" said Miss Helen, "We are not a pair of love sick idiots." She sailed out of the room as she spoke her head well up, chin out, and should-EDWARD SCULL, : : : PRESIDENT ers set back squarely. A gaunt-raw bon-VALENTINE HAY, : : VICE PRESIDENT ed old maid of forty? Not a bit of it. HARVEY M. BERKLEY, ; ; CASHIER. A delicious maiden of nineteen, not too tall, gracefully slender, but well rounded, with a beautiful face, large, liquid-brown eyes, a profusion of chestnut hair, and The funds and securities of this bank dimples that were simply distracting. A are securely protected in a celebrated Corline Burgiar-proof Safe. The only Safe Vassar girl, who had graduated with

ty. Mrs. Hunt laughed again when she "What a dear, absurd darling she is !" she thought. "And Chauncey is just a match for her." This was fortunate, as Chauncey Established, 1877. Organized as a National, 1890. Browne was the promised husband of Heien Ferguson. He was a enthusiast. Having unfortunately inherited a large fortune, he had no need to exert a really ness in a crowded ball-room as in the of the bower of love and happiness that They conversed upon loftier topics -their pic schemes they were to make realities. It was really bewildering to listen and to word of love. look ; to hear such lofty sentiments, to see such young, beatiful faces, soft tender

Helen was an orphan, with a small inmatured beauty was also to be found. realize that a woman can give her no- practical value to him. And how Helen worked! She gave a blest aspirations, her truest wisdom to hunted up all her authorities in the pub- an idiot, even if she spends hours talknot with any lavish submission of the and sing Mother Goose to you now with took the least time to hope. femining to the masculine in intellect. a clear conscience."

that she was fitly und becomingly attired; to comfort the what is it, Helen? - procession. and Janet, her maid, was too proud of little idiot?" the young mistress's beauty to neglect The wedding day was appointed; the 'Woman's Emancipation frem the Tyran- something to cry about.

"Give me up?" she said, turning very "I must dear. I have lost everything!

knitting socks for a newly-arrived mem- house-wifely skill?" Helen was close beside him. Her colber of the great human family, looked up > her eyes were full of a soft, tender glow "I will still be that wife," she said, and talk, if he was not tired, or to caress and

Out of her own corps of efficient servants Mrs. Hunt had spared a "treasure" track for a district 10 miles square would to her niece, so that the actual drudgery be $350,000. This represents a capitaliof the house was spared her; but just as zation of only $5 to the acre, and an ancarefully as she had conducted the affairs | nual interest charge of 30 cents per acre. | and hearts that beat as one, had been in of her mission and societies, just so With a central power station large executive session in the front parlor efficient did Heien manage the limited enough to operate all the wagons or cars since 9 o'clock, and it was now verging income, studying to combine comfort that would be called into use at one time on the witching hour of 12. with economy, and avoid waste, while in the district, the capitalization need Possibly it was the fiction of imagina-

all her outside duties, but home was first | would mean an annual interest charge of | body stirred uneasily in the room above Two years after the wedding day Mrs. Hunt entered a sitting room where Helen, in a low rocking chair, was nursing a consider the nature of the service rend- came. The large body fell over a chair

"Baby was not well," said Helen. own precious! I think she is teething | would still represent an economy.-Ea- to death. Hush, hush, tootsey-wootsey! Chauncey says I humor her too much, but auntie, how can I help petting my own baby?" "Don't try, dear. All my darlings have gone before me to the better land, and

"What a horrid little fool I was!" in her own way, careful only to see that if not the most useful, and those who mance, wit and sympathy. her way never led her out of the con- use their brains and hands to make home JAMES J. DONNELL, Vice President fines of womanly propriety. She went life cheerful, to train to God's service the man's occupation may be shown him by the lock. It looked as if he might not possessed lover, the energetic business none was given him.

amed in sheer, unaffected indifference Oh, Aunt Lizzie, pardon me. I did not Every man who takes part in your procession expects in return that you will Mrs. Hunt, in her quiet, gentle way, saw You are forgiven. I will leave you some day blow a horn in the band in his People are too much inclined to wait dissolving dress of her soul.

The road-wagons and short-lived top- stimulus and piquancy and zest and en- lady on Dearborn avenue, near Chicago buggies and carriages of the farmer cost joyment. In choosing an object of am- avenue, and only a block away is a glahim a very pretty penny in the course of bition choose a worthy one, in behalf of zier who is suffering the horrors of deresent a service which the electric rail- nobler faculties of your nature, may be- In the Dearborn avenus house were into a "Cause" he threw into his business, mastering the routine of duty, stud-of course be made here, because condi-of course be made here, because condiing stock, figures, prefits and contingentions differ so widely in different sections right on in the pursuit of your knowl- fit them and would be so much shead. cies with fervor and enthusiasm and of the country; but as close a calculation edge. If your progress be slow, still per- But when she had paid the workman oughly weary, and ready for Helen's the cost of the electric railroads already come to you? They come to all. The She sent the domestic over for it, but of Helen's acquaintance more systematithe United States could be equipped do as much as anything to brighten your blandly. Then the little woman went In a district 10 miles square—the sur- evil report, through darkness or through for putting in those panes and you've to have lost none of its acid.

accompanied by her husband. The hus- with flour mix the flour and sugar thor-to the counter, took up the window-pane to prevent lumping. "Police! Police!" shrieked the excited

"Oh, yes," replied the landlady, stout-The glazier needed it very badly,

Cat Worship. In the middle ages animals formed as troit Fire Press.

Three mornings later the gl. z er's boy has any God or not. The more house a man builds on the

"That's all right. Tell him it's the ed by those who have been the most faithful to Christ on earth.

of Egypt. The cat was a very important | much ?" personage in religious festivals. At Aix, in Provence, on the festivals of Corpus response, Christi, the finest tom cat of the country, wrapped in swadding clothes like a child, was exhibited in a magnificent shrine to public admiration. Every knee was bent price, the man paid it and departed. every hand strewed flowers or poured the festival of St. John poor Tom's fate tribe were put into a wicker basket and high on beans?" thrown alive into the midst of an im- -Harper's Magazine.

after time. She is for everything that is thousands of people whom it has cured, successful following.

The boy turned on his heel, whistled "Whew! I sea the point." Not a dime novel has been seen in that house from that day to this. Other and older persons might well see the same point. A mind filled with fiction hates and rejects truth. A person for a Local Institute for Section 13, com-know no more when he finishes than when he began. There is real sin and sorrow and suffering enough in the world for us to pity unconsciously graceful, that we know and relieve, without wasting our tears Burrell. over the troubles of some fictitious "Maparent robe of her body or her body the tilda Jane," and there is work and enterprise and energy enough in real life to engage our powers, without resorting to cheap novels for inspiration and excite-But unfortunately, the girls who will shed as many tears over some heroine's fictitious sorrow, as they would while pealing a panful of onions, are the very persons who would turn up their noses grades, Alice Boyer. road can largely abolish. But against enlisted. Have an aim that you may unthe boys who wax heroic over the great doings of some count, here or cut-throat, are too lazy to earn an honest living, and the country? Affirmative, J. H. Miller > lay in bed after sunrise, or smoke cigars or swear to prove that they are men. Epicurean Morsels.

Worcestershire sauce over hot lamb ting. Not the weakest-minded woman probably 90 per cent, of the roadways in usefulness which you have laid out will der rules of der shop," he explained, chops is held to greatly improve the palatableness of them. Scald rhubarb before cooking it. It takes much less augar, and yet it sooms

> Pour boiling water over raisins and let them stand a anoment before seeding. It In using melted chocolate in cooking first mix with it a part of the sugar before adding it to the other ingredients. Later in the evening she went back, 2 In making souces that are thickened

A chemist advises that cannod fruit be opened an hour or two before it is used. workman, rushing out on the sidewalk. It becomes far richer after the oxygen of necessity." Affirmative, C. R. B. Cra-Figs and Thistles.

No matter what appearances may be

The devil cheats us out of a great many sions. blessings by teaching us to be close with oar money. The man who is not thankful does not know half the time whether he really sand the more he will have to lose when the storm comes. Every time we find a new promise in our Bible the angels open the windows of heaven a little wider.

The best places in heaven will be fill-

A Sweet Revenge.

"Haven't you got anything solid to eat?" said a traveler, discontentedly eyeing the profision of pies and small cakes on the counter of a restaurant at one of the way stations. 'Shall I give you some beans?" said

the proprietor, with his most persuasive

The traveler assented, and making

"Twenty-five cents," was the bland "What?" cried the traveler; "twenty-thus:

to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Conanaption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are all sted with a Cough, Cold, or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy explained to him that the week before lems to give this beautiful answer: as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the for other worlds. She is for all time and know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Wife-I want to talk with you about worth anything. She is for life. She Trial bottles free at J. N. Saymen's drug store; large size, 50c, and $1.

Guaranteed Cure.

The detective's business should be ly for the afternoon, but for the forenoon part in the discussions, and come, not on-per bottle. So'd by J. N. SNYDER, Druggist.

of birds found in tropical and sub-tropi-

COOR & EERITS AND FREASE & KOOSER, BOWNISH, PA. NO. 88 FRANKLIN STREET. PHNSTOWN SUPPLY HOUSE.

STEAM AND GAS FITTERS of in our new building

EFARTMENT we carry a full leather siching. Steam and injectors, Lubricators, Steam tiling, Etc. Prices quoted on y my, is the best-arranged for orn Pennsylvania. hing to the Phumbing, Steam ried in stock. merly, give careful attention to the BOT WATER REATING bus-ner estarts in this like embrane by buildings in the county, with