

CONTRARY to all expectations, the announcement of the death of Jay Gould did not create the slightest flurry in the stock market.

The second session of the Fifty-second Congress of the United States opened at noon Monday. The session will end on March 4, 1893.

The State of New York will be enriched at least $700,000 by the one per cent inheritance tax on the fortune of the late Jay Gould. The law is of Republican origin.

There is one thing to admire in Grover Cleveland. He never lies about the size of his string of fish or the number of ducks he captured. It is the highest possible test of honesty.

When Mr. Croker gives it out that "Mr. Morphy is the candidate for Senator," the rest of the fellows had just as well close up their shops. Croker and Cleveland understand each other.

Governor PATTON will soon be called upon to appoint two judges—one in Lackawanna and one in Beaver County. There is a lively scramble for the position among the Democrats in both counties.

It is estimated that England's wheat crop for this year is about 55,000,000 bushels, or less than two bushels for each inhabitant. She must purchase at least 150,000,000 bushels more from some outside source.

WHAT with the talk of restoring the duties on sugar and increasing the tax on whisky a good many old time Democrats are disposed to shake their heads and ask what kind of a Congress this is that they have elected, anyhow?

ALABAMA is ready to help Georgia in demanding the repeal of the tax on State banks. The South is very much in earnest about this pledge of the Democratic party, and if it is not redeemed Southern Democrats will want to know why.

GENERAL WILLIAM LILLY, Congressman-at-large, died, after a long illness, at his home in March, Friday. He is seventy years of age and it is feared by his friends that he will never be able to take his seat in Congress.

FATHERLY observers of political events have noticed that the Republican party is not letting go of its protectionist principles, while a considerable section of the Democratic party is running away from the protegee Democratic doctrine that protection is unconstitutional.

A MONTH ago Grover Cleveland had no desire to get away from "the dear people." On the contrary he moved from Gray Gables to New York on purpose to be where the people were thick. But things have changed, then he wanted an office, now it is the other fellows who want one.

The Harrisburg Patriot thinks that "Some of the Statesmen who are now saying nothing about it will, as they contemplate a return trip from Washington six months after Mr. Cleveland's inauguration, be strenuous advocates of the proposition for a natural law to improve the country roads."

This cost of the Homestead rule to the State, according to the estimate of Adjutant General Greenland, for the pay, maintenance, and transportation of the troops will foot up $450,000. Warrants have already been drawn for $375,223.49. The bill of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company aggregates $52,000.

REPUBLICANS will be gratified if relieved of all responsibility in law making. The Democratic announcement that "Vice President Stevenson will have the casting vote," and Democrats have a clean chance, it is to be hoped is true. Democrats have not had a chance to show their hands for more than thirty years.

The Harrison electors had 20,000 majority in the State of Michigan, but five of the electors under the Democratic re-electing bill want for Cleveland. With a Republican Governor and a Republican Legislature in both branches next year we shall probably see the speedy repeal of the re-electing scheme in Michigan.

DEMOCRATIC patriots are just now deeply grieved that during all these years the old veterans of the Union army have been fed on beefsteak and white bread. Had it not been for this, the party might have many millions in the Treasury handy for use for all the little schemes of benevolence for which the party is famous.

It is now said that the Democratic managers will insist upon an extra session of Congress in order to add New Mexico and Arizona to the Union and for Senators to the Democratic side of Congress. The four more may be needed to assure Democratic control of the upper house. This will also mean the addition of four free silver Senators, with all the evil that that portends.

The Democratic pension smashers are aching for a chance to get a whack at the pension rolls. According to their views about 90 per cent of the persons now drawing pensions are not entitled to them. A reduction of the pension rolls by the enactment of the system will mean the cutting off of thousands of men who are to-day drawing money to which they are justly entitled.

The Chicago platform, upon which Mr. Cleveland was elected President, says: "We denounce Republican protection as a fraud—a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few." Why then, is there "no necessity for haste" as Mr. Cleveland and the organs are asserting? The action of the party demonstrates that their answer in the platform was "fraud" and a falsehood.

The election of Cleveland, and with it the possibility of a chance for a share of the "spoils," seems to have even infused it somewhat into the highly-esteemed, the Democrat; so much so that last week it picked up its long ears and brayed as it went to do in days of yore. As proof positive that it is a "Democrat" it must need that it is a "Democrat" still, and as such should have a say in the leaves and Selas are to be parcelled out.

One of the Farmers' Alliance war cries in South Carolina when they elected Till as Governor was "No free passes on the railroads," and when Tillman came into power the anti-Farmers' Alliance Legislature took them at their word and passed a law prohibiting the issue of passes of free passes. This year the Farmers' Alliance people have the Legislature and they have already prepared and offered a bill repealing the non-free-passes bill, and the loudest shouters for its passage in Tillman himself and his organ in Charleston. They are reformers with a big R until they get into power, and then they want to grab everything in sight.

General Dix was inaugurated on Thursday as President of Mexico for another term. Pennsylvania manufactured 1,232,899,889 cigars last year, nearly 100,000,000 in excess of last year.

Mayor Gentry of Pittsburgh, bar order of the Chief of Police to close all the disorderly houses in the city. It is estimated that the order will close 238 houses.

The fastest million race was recently made by a Philadelphia & Reading engine which drew three loaded cars from Philadelphia and Jersey city and ran a mile in thirty-seven seconds.

Asked his opinion of the candidacy of Mrs. Lease for United States Senator, ex-Senator Ingalls simply said, with a satirical smile, "She's a great man, isn't she?"

Flourne Hythe is held by the Supreme Court of California to be the illegitimate daughter of the deceased millionaire, Thomas A. Hythe, and is entitled to inherit his estate of $4,000,000.

The plurality of Harrison over Cleveland in Ohio, as officially announced, is 107,210.

The result of the election in North Dakota is said to depend upon a decision of the question whether 129 Indians in Roseau county had a right to vote. The Electoral vote of the State will go for Harrison, otherwise it will be for Weaver.

President-elect Cleveland is having great luck shooting on Hog Island off the Virginia coast. He bagged 13 snipe in an hour on Wednesday, bringing down fifty-three in one shot.

Stephen White, who is to be hanged at Louisville, Ky., on December 30th, was married Friday in his cell. He has been married eight years, but he joined the Catholic Church Tuesday and wished to have the ceremony performed according to the rites of that church.

William Tucker died Friday in Sussex county, Va., from overfeeding. The evening before he ate one gallon of venison hash, half a gallon of coffee and crackers mixed together, and half a gallon of water and crackers, a pound of dry sugar, and a lot of pork and bread.

John Harris, of Philadelphia, died Thursday morning of mysterious circumstances. The coroner's physician investigated the case. He found that Harris's face had been filled with small pimples which he was in the habit of squeezing, until his face was in a mass of sores. The autopsy revealed the fact that blood poisoning, superinduced by the constant squeezing of the pimples on his face, was the cause of his death.

In a general examination of candidates for admission to the Bar at Albany, N. Y., the committee of Judges declared that the applicant best qualified to become a lawyer, was Miss Grace E. Robinson, a slender young woman, with wavy brown hair and an attractive face. If admitted, she will be the first of her sex to practice at the Bar of Albany county.

Jay Gould died at his home in New York city, at 9:15 o'clock Friday morning. The direct cause of his death was emphysema. He was very peaceful. Up to within a few minutes before his death he was perfectly conscious. He called all the members of his family around his bedside and spoke to each one of his sons and daughters individually. He became unconscious just before his death.

WILKINSON, Pa., Dec. 1.—Ex-Governor Henry M. Hoyt died at his home early this morning.

He was in the grasp of the fatal illness for several months and his death was not unexpected. He was afflicted with Bright's disease.

Ex-Governor Hoyt was born in Luzerne county in 1830, and was therefore 62 years old.

2-4 Cents Per Pound. The Johnston food wire is all sold, but we have received from the factory a lot of barb wire which will be sold at two cents per hundred and a guarantee to stand stretching. This is a good bargain. Call and see it.

Removed! Dr. G. J. Healy has removed his Dental Rooms and Residence to No. 64 Bedford St., four doors from City Hall, Cumberland, Md.

A Notorious Outlaw Caught. St. Louis, December 1.—Elihu Worth Wyatt, of the notorious Dalton gang of train robbers and desperadoes, for whom a reward of $10,000 is offered by the Kansas authorities, was surrounded and captured at the home of his uncle in Cary, Ind., a little village twelve miles from Terre Haute, early this morning.

He showed fight, but a gun barrel thrust in front of his face weakened him. Wyatt was one of Bob Dalton's most desperate followers, and although not in the Coffeyville raid, he is wanted for many crimes.

Officers say Wyatt is the man who led the attack on an express train near Carey, Kas., a few nights after the Coffeyville raid in which a small amount of booty was obtained. They also say that he is the author of the famous letter sent to Liverman John Klober, whose gun had each good reputation at Coffeyville in helping to exterminate the Dalton gang.

DIED. DUCKLEY.—David Dickley, aged 65 years. He was born in Adams county, Pa., and moved to Fayette county years ago, where he died.
