

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Somersel, Pa., Bam'l Snyder,

OHN O. KINMEL.

CALCELER.

2 Gettante

Oils!

DIRECTORS:

Milton J. Pritts, Cashier.

much as the brown leaves were-driven aere and there just as the wind pleased; but fortunately it blew her in the direction she wanted to go, and finally through a tumble-down gate, up a disorderly walk and into the front door a little they were minded to part company. And then the woman sitting in the chimney corner said: "Well it's about time you was gittin' have more toys than toy houses in home. You stayed so long I thought town. Not only more but hand- you must be a waitin' for the corn to somer, nicer, newer and prettier grow, 'fore you brung the meal." toys than can be found elsewhere, Whereupon the woman arose and beand what's still better, toys for gan mixing the meal for corn bread. about half regular toy store prices. Maggie ellently drew near the fire, try-This 'll be as merry a Christmas ing to unfasten the shawl with her numb people's children if beautiful toys pale, sickly looking boy of 7 and a girl of 3, came and stood one on each side of her, and laid their heads against her affectionately. "Tell us what you saw, Mag." coaxed the boy ; but Maggie replied evasively : "Oh, lots of things! More'n I could ever shown in this city ; it's a right a good boy, an' let Susie lay her head in dolls. Come to see us and bring "Not yet," replied the mother, as she said it, and Maggie, looking at the window, against which the dark pressed close years sometimes. work again, Maggie." and she could not est. took l.er old place in the corner. he'd send for it Chris'mas eve." a-lookin' for Santy Claus! He's a goin' chair by the fire. in my life for bein' out o' work. Been a-huntin' for it all evenin'." And with this declaration he managed to get his bead upon a table and went comfortably to sleep. And this was the secret of the poverty

It's the greatest Doll Assortment tell in a week! Sit down now, Joe that's ful work. the glowing coals. She sighed as she a dollar-a whole dollar ! awhile the cooking was done, and the had eighty-five cents. Maggie's eyes went from the complain- alarm flashed into her face. "I wish I could get somethin' nice for mother?" Claus the other day, an' in come mighty near settin' im crazy. He's a lookin' for near settin' im this took it. I tried to git 'im not to, but took it. I tried to git 'im not to, but and with the dearest little toys planed "People who live in badly lighted little toys planed in the set of the set "im, mother! Think o' that! Joe's 'twain't no use a-talkin' to 'im." to hang up his stock'! I tried to beg 'im out of it, but it wasn't no use. I tel' 'im we was so pore an 'hadn't been yere long, and Santy Claus didn't know we "Mother," she said, hoarsely, after a word. 'He goes ever where, with Susief; I wisht I cou'd give 'em both some'n, word. 'He goes ever where, with Susiel; I wisht I could give 'em both some'n, iest to make 'em think it was true!" 'Maggie, my girl, I'm sorry I have ta-iest to make 'em think it was true!" 'Maggie, my girl, I'm sorry I have ta-he?--an' now it's to late too make any ''Maggie, my girl, I'm sorry I have ta-have the dry, loud cough and know have the dry, loud cough and know have the dry, loud cough and know FIRST. -The great- Holiday Na enlarged to nothin' yourself, an' you've done well stockin', after all ?" "He took it Magning an' I makes he her eyes shone like stars. A hundred marching about it singing a Christmas "No danger in the world, miss," the times she caught Joe and Sazie up in her song, and the table and chairs were dealer assured her. arms, hugging them tight and laughing strewn with the handsome and costly "How old is she?" inquired the girl. have the dining-room re-papered, and fish; always have a good appetite; never for joy, though there were tears in her presents that they had received from By this time the dealer knew his man on the old paper being scraped off found in my life missed a meal save once when eyes. It was so delightful to picture the gift-laden tree. Joe's face, when he should wake and see It was just a moment-such things "Being la lady, miss," he smiled "I'd being taken down, we discovered that " ine gerostete riendileisch schiebe" house that leaned off one way while its chimney leaned off another, as though inade up her mind that whatever she is dancing children jarred the table a "How or residerate of made up her mind that whatever she the dancing children jarred the table a "How |considerate of you !" she said, | cigara. A chorus went up from around the dill the branch and At the branch oil the stockings very full, indeed. At the branch and fell. It lodged among dealer sent is a bill for $150, represent- and fain there for a number of years. We reckless as to what I can or cannot get .open fireplace: "There Maggie! Is you old moments, when she could hide her- the firmy folds of a little girl's white ing a net profit to him of $100.--Detroit sold $1000 worth and kept the remaind- Rev. T. De Witt Talmage in Lodies House self from the children, she busied herself apron and before she could move the From Prost. mending the worn old stockings so that blaze ran up and enfolded her in a they would hold what was put into dreadfol embrace. She stood still, screaming, and the them. And how she worked! The next other children ran here and there with week was cold and stormy, but that didn't matter. She couldn't afford to came parsting in from the street, threw with every day of their lives that they is the best year of all your life-the hap-but of late he has attended the lectures lose any time. A wind-storm one night an old shawl about the struggling child could learn the secret of fascinating oth- piest, the brightest and the best. Im- regularly. One of the professors observblew down a great many nuts, and asshe and kneit there, holding her fast. ers by means of their graceful, exquisite bue your heart with the freshness of the od this change of the better, and took was there first the next morning she It was into her mother's arms that manners. The secret is an open one. It morning, your soul with the sparkle of occasion to remark to his friend, Judge reaped quits a harvest. But then an evil brave Maggie gave her ! for poor people's children as rich fingers. The two younger children, a fortune overtook her, for Joe's cough "I don't think she's hurt," she said by the wayside, while these who would thoughts to make this the most triumph- young man: "Im very glad to see was worse, and she was forced to spend simply, and was about to go out on the give their dearest treasures to find it page ant year of your life. As a series of short that young man Tone Anjarry attending part of her money for medicine, and be sidewalk again, wholly unconscious of unknowingly. fore the week was out she found it neces- anything heroic in her action, when the It is only this: Fill your heart with year, let me give you these : sary to replenish their store of meat. child's father captured her and the moth- good will to everybody, and then prac-These reverses left her on Saturday er threw her arms about her neck and tice at all times the best manners you . night with only fifty cents in her little kissed her pale face, her own eyes wet know, particularly at home. If you behoard as the result of two week's faith- with grateful tears. "Yes! yes! God bless you, my dear !" so to speak, get settled on you and never But Maggie was not discouraged. One cried dignified Judge Barr, shaking hands leave you. Be just as polite to your sismore week revealed. A wild anxiety with her for the hundredth time. "And ter as you would to your best girl. Strive took possession of her to get all the mon- you were standing on the sidewalk look- to gain the good will of father, mother ey possible and to bring such a Christ- ing in? Thank God for that! Poor lit- and brothers and sisters and children patted the corn pones into their proper mas into that little cabin as had never the lonely girl. You'll never stand on exactly as you strive to gain good will shape and laid them in the skillet over been dreamed of. If she could only get the sidewalk again and watch my children play. You'll be right here in the There is no place for practicing man-She stole up to town once or twice and house with them ! Just to think how ners like the home circle ; no place, perpeeped in at the alluring windows where near it came ! I wish I could do some- mit one to say, where it is more apprecioutside, echoed the sigh. She was but holiday goods were displayed and tried thing for you right now-to-night. I ated. It will be a cultivation of heart, 12 years old, yet a good deal of hard ex- to pick out the things that she intended can't wait until to-morrow !" perience can be crowded into twelve to buy. Five more days yet before Then suddenly Maggie turned and nothing but affection for the people at Christmas. Three days, two days. The stood before him, her hands clasped and home and treat them as though they "Your pawent to town to look for last nots were taken in and sold, the her face full of passionate appeal. were worthy of as much consideration. money was put into the cigar box, and "Oh !" she gasped, "could you fill two at your hands as if they were the Presi-Maggie turned away in silence. After she was almost perfectly happy. She little stockin's?" "Two? Twenty-fifty of em !- why, So they are worthy. Then from the four sat around the table and ate the Her father came in late, and was sober where did she go, wife ?" corn bread with a little cold meat that and sure y. He complained bitterly of But Maggie was already half way sweet, magnetic influences which will looked like a farmer, staring over a what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells had been left from dinner. It was poor having come to a country that intended home. She was not conscious of run- draw the hearts of mankind toward gate at a flock of ducks in a pool. fare enough, but three of them made a to starve him and his family, and so ning-she flew. Such a look was in her you. meal. Something was in Maggie's throat, complaining he went to his rest, and face as she ran in and jerked down the there was silence in the little cabin. two little stockings that her mother did After the supper was over and the little Maggie thought that she would never not question her. Back again and into ones were sound asleep, Maggie sat down get the work done the next morning and the basement where they still awaited in front of the fire, while her mother it seemed to her that her mother made her! She held up the poor, worn, mend- when I move into my last home," said a excuses to keep her sweeping and scrub- ed stockings, one in each hand. "Mother," broke out Maggie, sudden- bing and bringing wood and water until "Here they are," she panted. "Joe open the shutter and left the southern ly, turning her big eyes upon the worn it was nearly noon. But it was all done hung 'em up, his an' Susie's, an I never sun into her sleeping room. "I think face in the corner, "I never thought about at last. In the fullness of her joy she got had nothin' to put in 'em !" it before, but folks is gettin' ready for Joe and Susie both up and danced about The judge was profoundly touched. Chris'mas. The winders is full o'things. the room with them a few times, and "Do you hear that, wife? Do you hear ing in of rooms and the habit of closing "Bou." I seen 'em this evenin'. I seen a man then, having made some excuse to get that?" he said. "I'm going home with window-blinds. I think the superb buy a doll bigger'n Susie, an' heered him them out of the house, she climed upon this little girl to-night. You want to go health of my family is to a great extent | tell the storekeeper to put it away an' a chair and took down the box that con- along? I thought so. Fill these stock- chargeable to the habit that we have of ings up, dear, and send Sam in. I have almost living in the sunshine. Every tained her treasure. "Chris'mas won't do us much good," She noticed as soon as she touched it some things that I want him to carry." bright day all of the shutters are thrown said the mother in the dreary tone that that it feit strangely light, but it did not "Papa," whispered one of the chil- open, and the entire house gets the beahad become habitual with her, "I'd occur to her, even then, that anything dren, "let Sam take our Christmas tree efit of the sunlight. It drives away druther it wouldn't come. 'Pears like it was wrong. But when she stepped down to little Joe. We don't need it any dampness and mould and microbes and aliers reminds me more o' what other to the floor and opened the box and it more." "Well done, little man !" cried his fa- mor and good health. I cannot imagine utterly emply, a look of horror and ther; and the tree was despoiled of its good sanitary conditions and darkness. ing face to the glowing coals that lay in a "Mother?" she cried pitcously, "mothheap beneath the hickory forestick. er! my money's gone! Did you move it Joe an' Susie," she said dejectedly. "Tain't no use a cryin' for it Maggie," Constants and ornaments ed boxes. I have sheets of canvass that "Pears like I'd like for 'em to knew they said her mother, in that old dreary tone. in position, ready to be lighted in the can be thrown over them before they was sech a day as Chris'mas. Them "Your pa took in. He seen ye puttin" Barnes boys tol' Joe som'n 'bout Santy some up thar last week, an' when things and was confident.

self speculated in the purchase of an everything in all the round of diet exhotel at Folkestone. We determined to cept animated cheese and odorous cod-

TOYS!! We're not a toy house, but we will produce that effect. 5000 DOLLS NATHAN'S, Wreeker of High Prices. FANCY WORK. Some Great Bargains in IRISH POINT LUNCH AND TRAY CLOTHS Bought below cost of transportation we are selling at great bargains white and colored Bedford Cord Table Covers, stamped ready for working. Sing-ed Canton Flannel Table and Cushion Covers, Singed Plush Cushion Covers, Bargarran Art Cloth Table and Cushion Covers, all stamped with Newest Designs; Hem-stitched Hot Biscuit and Roll Napkins. A new and large line of hem-stitched Tray and Carving Cloths from 60cts tamped Hem-stitched Scaris from Socts Table Covers from 50 cts. up. A full line of Figured INDIA SILKS. All New Patterns and Colorings. Also, Figured Plush, 24 and 33 inches wide, in beautiful Colors and Designs. Art Satin Squares for the Central Covers and Cushion Covers. Maggie's eyes went from Waban Netting, 46 inches wide, 50 cents per yard, in Pink, Bine, Olive and Yellow, THE NEW THING for Draping Mantles and Doors, and for Draping Over Braperies. A new line of Head-rests, from Sic.up. Visit our Table Lineo, Towel, Napkins, Wolfer the time and Lineo Purcetament by Mealin, Sheeting and Linen Department, by HORNE & WARD. 41 FIFTH AVENUE, Pittsburgh, Pa. TWOUNUSUALLY GOOD OFFERS. Seal Christmas Gifts, all over them and even hanging to the apartments have little color and less er, which were splendid.

How to Fascinate.

Doubtless thousands of young people is easy to learn that it lies all neglected the dawn. Resolve by good deeds and Cowing, who is acquainted with the God. Be content with what you have. gin at home this charming manner will, your family circle. will allow. Think ill of none, but well of all. Don't sham; he real.

Joarnal. | mind and body, this emleavor to feet

once went out on a showing excursion. dent of the United States and his family . gun and he got nothing. On his way home home will first out around you those Light Rooms.

"I will get quite enough darkness bright, cheery housekeeper, as she threw of all follies that a housekeeper can be blue-devils, and puts us all in good hu-lights and curried carefully out by Sam. Even my cellar is as light as I can possi-Maggie went with the others like one bly make it, and whatever fruit and delin a dream. In a dream she saw the jearies need to be shut away from the Christmas tree placed on the table at light I put into close supboards or covermorning. In a dream she saw the stock- are put away, and always take pains so Maggie had stood listening as though toes. In a dream she saw bundles and health ; and I for one co not intend to must have been in a dream that she living in a flat. It is almost always the ed by living examples, which in many the whole room was lined with boxes of means a beefsteak, "eine messer" a knife, and "eine gabel" a fock and "eine ser wood underneath, and one of the boards I could not get any; and knowing that Journal. A Place of Refuge.

I do not point out this fact to you that Tom Anjerry has heretofore been one maxims to carry with you through this the lectures regularly. He seems to have turned over a new leaf."

Make every day begin and end with "Turned over a new leaf be blowed," exclaimed Judge Cowing, "don't you know why he attends the lectures regu-Have a hearty, joyful family alter in larly?"

"To improve his mind, I suppose." Fill your home with as much good "Nothing of the kin L. Hog we to the reading and bright music as your means lecture room because that is the only p'ace the bill collectors don't hunt for him. He goes there to throw them of If fortune favors you, think of others. the scent."-Toous Siftings.

Why It is the Best,

Pan-Tina. Love God .- Talmage, in Ladies' Home 1-It cures Coughs and Colds. 2-Strengthens weak Large. 3-Believes and cures Asthma. 4-insures you against LaGrippe. a-Robe Croup of its terrors. Sheridan, who was no sportsman, G-Cures when all else fails. 25 and 50 cents. Trial bottles of Pan-BEverything flow before him and his I Tina free at G. W. Baxrono's drug store.

.... with an empty hag, he saw a man who It is not what its proprietors ave but the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsapa-"What will you take," said Sher- rilla cuars.

The man looked at him in astonish- Simple Questions Simply Answared.

Why do people very often allow a cold wear away. Why does the cough that at first caused no alarm become deep up any cough or cold, no matter if other medicines biled to benefit you, is to try

Pan-Tina, The great nemedy for Coughs,

Colds and Consumption, 25 and 50 cents

Lighthouse.

"Will half a crown do?"

idan, "for a shot at those ducks?"

Keep busy and you will keep healthy.

Sherid an's Ducks.

Respert all sacred things.

Maxims for the New Year.

The man nodded, and Sheridan gave to run on? Because they think it will him the half crown, taking his shot at the ducks. About a half a dozen fell clead. As he was preparing to bag seated and chronic? B-cause the proper them he said to the man: "I think, on remedy was not usel. The way to break guilty of, one of the worst is the darken- the whole, I have a good bargain of

"Why," said the man, "they' re not mine!"-Chatterbar at G. W. BENFORD's drug store. They All Keep Tima.

Many a man who is so reduct that he An ingenious and apparently satisfac- will not take red wine with fish will ride very method of making a number of up 12 stories in an elevator among ladies clocks in the same building keep uni- with his bat on. form time has recently been adopted in The stock king is monarch of Christthree large public edifices in Berlin. By mas day - Brooklyn Life. this system the primary clock every hour starts an electric current, which opens a A Little Giri's Exparience In a waterjelock, allowing the water to flow through jets. In this manner the air in Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepthe tube of a ringing apparatus, of the ers of the Gav. Lighth so eat Sand Beach, secondary clocks is absorbed, each tube Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, being closed by leather membrane. four years old. Last April she was taken Upon carefaction of the air, the mem- down with Messies, followed with a brane lifts a bar, and the clock is worked dreadful cough and unning into a Fever. to the exact extent it has run down. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated There is a similar rarefaction in connec- her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, tion with the slriking apparatus. until she was a more "handful of bones."

Then she tried Dr. King's New Discov-

