Be Patient

Are there ever any days in your life when everything seems to go wrong and you just hate yourself and everybody will be given. Don't forget that I keep on hand He has made the race for Congress in his to give to those who get out of bed wrong

Any one of us can be sweet and cheerwhen everything goes just as we want Populist principles and populist men as to spoken of it's a very different matter to well known. He has received his reward, regret the next day. But if we can only gain the victory over the hasty speech or unkind action we will feel so much better than if we give our feelings full bent and then lay all the blame on the weather or some other thing not the least bit responsible. Now the next time one of those days comes around fight out the battle to the bitter end, and if you come out victor it will not be one-half as hard when next you are compelled to combat those foes of canni, the blues and headache, which frequently is only another name for heartache. If your are tempted to "talk back" don't do it. It won't do a bit of good and may lead to a serious quarrel. If you are tempted to shake the children just because you are out innocent little folks. Don't slam the ways that of course you deny ever indulging in, yet as you are human hasty actions long after their occurrence.
