Memorial Day Exercises. Memorial Day dawned grey and cold and by shortly before nine o'clock and the sun shone forth in all its May time glory. The loyal citizens of Somerset were early and at ten o'clock the town presented a gala day appearance. The streets filled up rapidly with people from the surrounding country and at that hour there were not less than 2,000 strangers in town. The streets leading to the Court House were jammed with people before the hour for the exercises arrived. Promptly at ten o'clock the The most horrible butchery ever commit- procession formed according to the publish-John Hoy, his wife Mollie, and son and on arriving at the cometery the column daughter, William and Portia, were found tormed a square around the grave of Colonci
