

The Somerset Herald. GEORGE R. SCULL, Editor. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. No. 1101, at Somerset, Pa., on Monday, Nov. 11, 1893.

Valentine Hay, Esq., has returned from a ten days' visit to Chicago.

Two of Dr. Moore's children, in Berlin, were afflicted with scarlet fever.

Mr. H. Hill, Jr., has been appointed U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania, and is expected to be appointed to the office of the U. S. Marshal at Somerset.

Equipe William H. Miller and wife, of Quenahoning township, were the dining-room of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Lawyer James L. Pugh will spend the remainder of this and all next week at Rockwood, where he will look after the business affairs of his deceased uncle, Philip Smith.

William Pifer, aged about forty years, died Monday night of typhoid fever at his home on Pleasant street in this borough. He was afflicted with the disease for several days.

Lawyer James L. Pugh will spend the remainder of this and all next week at Rockwood, where he will look after the business affairs of his deceased uncle, Philip Smith.

Wm. Pifer, a native of this county, recently arrived at his home in Fayette county, Pa., aged seventy-five years, and was helpless from paralysis for a long time prior to his death.

Dr. Edgar Samuel Snyder, of Friedens, has become a resident of Berlin. He removed his family to that place Wednesday, where they occupy a house that the Judge has owned for some time.

Creditors of John K. and George B. White, bankers of Hyndman, Pa., who failed for half a million, are considering a settlement of the estate. It is said to be doubtful if they can get even that.

Mayor Wiley returned from the World's Fair in St. Louis, Mo., with a large number of the most enjoyable visits and is now better prepared than ever before to push the water question to a definite conclusion.

District Deputy Grand Master, John D. Carr, of the Masonic Order, accompanied by a number of the members of the Uniontown lodge, will pay an official visit to the Somerset lodge at the next meeting, Nov. 21st.

Among other decisions handed down by the Supreme Court at Pittsburgh, Monday, Oct. 24th, was that an appeal from the last of this county.

Christian Smith vs. the B. & O. R. R. Company applicant. Judgment affirmed.

Jose Lison vs. Jose Judgment affirmed.

John H. Hocking vs. S. M. Hamilton applicant. Judgment affirmed.

The case of Christian Smith against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company and Jeremiah Lison against the same company and can proceed by writ of habeas corpus to the Federal Court.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham and Miss Maggie Smith, who have been in the city for several days, are expected to leave for their home in this place Saturday.

Committees sending up programs of teachers local institutes and school reports will confer a favor by mailing them in time to reach Somerset not later than Wednesday of each week. All such communications will be given place on the first and fourth pages of the paper.

The pump for taking a quantity of water in the town of Berlin, with the trough, with a view to ascertaining if a supply of water sufficient to meet the demands of the town can be obtained from that source, is at the R. E. Station. The test will be made in a day or two.

Acme of Stonycreek Castle, No. 333, K. G., will celebrate their fourth anniversary on the 15th day of Nov. 1893, in an open meeting, for which a suitable programme has been arranged for the occasion. All are invited to attend.

The many Somerset county friends of lawyer J. J. Miller, of Pittsburgh, nearly all of whom had come to believe that he was a confirmed bachelor, will be surprised to learn that he has been married.

Mr. George H. Love, of the Somerset Dairy Co., has leased a house in Johnstown and will remove his family to that city in a few days when he will assume an active interest in the wholesale grocery house of Love, Brown & Co., 213 North Third street, Johnstown.

Wm. Walkey, of the Washington Overlook, has offered a reward of $100 for the conviction of the persons who have been robbing his paper.

Some of the students of Washington and Jefferson colleges perpetrated a practical joke on President Moffat by announcing in the Observer a resolution to be given by him had been received. This resolution was in the form of a petition to the Board of Trustees and some of the students are likely to be punished in accordance with the act passed by the Legislature providing for the punishment of persons who furnish false news.

If you want a new Hat or Bonnet, call at W. K. O'Connell's store, north-east corner of 13th and B.

The question, "What does a man buy when he purchases the title to a farm?" has been asked, but not satisfactorily decided. From the latest decisions on the subject it is gathered that the answer is "a deed and all the buildings erected thereon, whether mentioned or not, together with all the fences, but not and not including the crops growing thereon, except by specialty mention." He who is a lawyer is necessary to the farm, except in cases where a man buys a lot of land and a man buys a lot of land.

Two little boys, aged ten and eleven, on the night of the 10th inst., were playing in the street when they were struck by a horse and cart. The children had started out in the morning to "watch paper" but got on the wrong road. The distracted parents were searching in all directions when Sherman Hoover gladdened their hearts by driving up to their home with their darling in the buggy—Berlin Record.

Annie, wife of county treasurer John H. Weimer, died at her home in Main street, Somerset, at an early hour Friday morning, after a sickness of many years' duration. The immediate cause of death was blood poisoning. The deceased was in her sixty-second year and was one of the most estimable and kind-hearted women of the county. Her husband, John H. Weimer, was a member of the firm of Weimer, Pifer & Co., and was a prominent business man in this county. She was the daughter of the late George H. Weimer, a prominent merchant and banker of this county. Her funeral services will be held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Pifer, on Saturday morning next, at ten o'clock.

Captain Henry F. Picking, to whom the press dispatches published elsewhere in this issue refer as having succeeded Admiral Rogers in charge of the U. S. squadron in the bay of Rio, is now at the late Wm. H. Picking's place and the latter of Wm. H. Picking of Patriot street. Being in command of a squadron of marines, he is a man of high rank and is well known in the service. He is a man of high rank and is well known in the service.

A Sunday Night Blaze.
The large congregation in the Lutheran church Sunday evening had just been dismissed and the congregations in the several other churches were engaged in the concluding service of evening worship when a cry of "fire" was heard from the Lutheran church. A fire had broken out in the basement of the church building, and the flames were spreading rapidly. The fire was extinguished in about half an hour, but the damage done to the interior of the building was considerable. The cause of the fire is believed to have been a gas lamp in the basement.

Ruled Out.
Following is the opinion of Judge Longenecker, filed at Bedford, in the matter of the improper filing of the certificate of the Democratic candidate for Associate Judge in Bedford county:

The term of Hon. John C. Wright, one of the associate judges of Bedford county, will expire the first Monday of January, 1894, and the same on the 1st of that month will be assembled in convention, to nominate a candidate for that office. The Republican nominated Mr. Wright, and the Democratic convention named Thomas B. Weyant as its candidate for associate judge.

The term of Hon. John C. Wright, one of the associate judges of Bedford county, will expire the first Monday of January, 1894, and the same on the 1st of that month will be assembled in convention, to nominate a candidate for that office. The Republican nominated Mr. Wright, and the Democratic convention named Thomas B. Weyant as its candidate for associate judge.

Jumped His Board Bill.
About two years ago Samuel Critchfield, a Somerset county man, registered at the Pompeii Hotel, on Bedford street, but when he left he neglected to pay Luskard Harshbarger, who owned the hotel. Mr. Critchfield did not pay Harshbarger until the latter had died, and Harshbarger's heirs, the Harshbarger children, are now suing Critchfield for the amount of the bill. The case is now pending in the court.

Three Verdicts Affirmed.
Among other decisions handed down by the Supreme Court at Pittsburgh, Monday, Oct. 24th, was that an appeal from the last of this county.

Countryman, Francis J. Countryman.
one of the best of our boys and girls, died at his home in this county, on the 10th inst. He was a man of high rank and is well known in the service.

Babyland for November.
is a bright and interesting magazine, it is made from the best of materials, and is published monthly for the purpose of giving information to the young people of this county.

GOOD BREAD.
If you want good bread, buy the best of the best. The Somerset Bakery is now offering a special price on their best bread.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1893.
All rights, title, interest, claim and demand of the County of Somerset, Pa., in and to the land described in the following list, to wit:

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.
By virtue of a certain will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, the following real estate is being offered for sale at public sale, at the Court House, in Somerset, Pa., at 10 o'clock P. M., on the 24th day of November, 1893:

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1893.
All rights, title, interest, claim and demand of the County of Somerset, Pa., in and to the land described in the following list, to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

NOTICE.
The undersigned, Joseph C. Wright, Clerk of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of the will of Alan P. Pifer, deceased, as the same appears from the records of the Court of Somerset County, Pa., to wit:

High of all in Leavening Power. Latest U. S. Gov't Report. ABSOLUTELY PURE. 7th day of Nov. 1893. Here's the Place to Get Your Money Back! Valuable Real Estate. 100 ACRES 190. STENGER'S $15. $15. FIFTEEN DOLLARS has a power to draw, if correctly invested, which beats a lottery. For Fifteen Dollars you can draw a nice Chamber Suite—no blank tickets. Every Fifteen Dollars deposited gets one Suite SURE. It's like getting dollar for dollar. You have seen or heard of our $16 Suite. What you saw or heard of in that Suite you can find in this and more, you save a dollar too, which is an item to most of us. One thing sure, if you buy one of these $15 Suites you get a reliable article from a reliable firm. The Suite will "stand by" you and we "stand by" the Suite.