Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Lutheran Sabbath School and Union Bible Class of Rockwood, Pa.

WHEREAS, an all-wise Providence in His influite wisdom; has removed by death Brother Foilip Smilb, assistant superintendent of the Jutheran Sabbath School and teacher of the Union Bible Class, of whom nothing but what is noble and christian like in the highest sense can be remembered. THEREFORE,

Resolved, that in his death we have lost an efficient teacher who for years past was known to be a realous and exemplary man in the cause of Christ, and while we bow submissively to the Divine will, we have the assurance that our loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, "hat we carnestly extend our heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved wife, commending her to God who has promised to be a comforter to the widows and goblins and all that weird company who we pray that the Lord may comfort her are supposed to hold high carnival on heart in this great affliction and sustain Bulletin," Mrs. G.
