THE BEECH CREEK EXTENSION.

From the Clearfield Coal Region to Pittsburgh.

The rumors that have been floating around for some time in regard to the proposed extension of the Beech Creek Railroad from Mahaffey, Clearfield county, to Connellaville, find confirmation in the following special from Chicago. The route of the road is as yet problematical. The large purchases of yet problematical. The large purchases of coal lands in the county by parties identified at 15 minutes before one o'clock. with the Vanderbilt interests, and the reported presence of two engineer corps in the north of the conney indicates that the line will pass through this region. The Chicago special says : " The most important and significant piece of railroad conuction in the United States is that which will next spring connect the Lake Eric system at Connellsville with the Clearfield & Beech Creek railroad at Mahaffey, twentyfive miles southwest of Clearfield. This connecting link will be about 75 miles in length. The Beech Creek would probably have been extended from Mabaffey to Pittsburgh some time ago, but for the difficulty in securing ternima! facilities.
