

SMALLPOX PATIENTS.

How They Are Handled in the City of Chicago.

The Usual Course of the Men Who Contract the Virus of the Dread Disease from Their Homes to the Pest House.

When the electric call bell rings it is for no pleasure drive which the officers of the health department are about to embark. It is one of the dangers of every precaution taken to prevent the disease from which the patient they are called upon to remove is suffering from setting themselves.

It is quite an easy matter, says the Chicago Herald, for a person afflicted with smallpox to be removed to the hospital before the disease has reached its most dangerous stage.

When the case is a confluent one the arrangements necessary become of a more complicated nature and the two officials concerned have a much longer and more difficult task.

The greatest trouble is caused by delirious patients who constantly kick off their shoes and smash them against the door of the hospital.

When death occurs outside the pest-house to pay a call. The gloves are of heavy leather and the cap upon the head and not upon the living. It is not with a desire to pay their respects to the living that it is made, but it is that the living and observe healthy people of the city may have a plague spot in their midst an hour longer than is absolutely necessary.

Even when the body has thus been treated sufficient care has not been taken to prevent the disease from spreading, and the body has to be wrapped in clothes provided with the deceased's friends all saturated with carbolic acid.

It is then sweetened and beaten and when cold is beaten to a stiff foam with a few drops of oil of poppies, until it is stiff and just like whipped cream. It is then sweetened and beaten again and used like real cream.

It is a very healthy food, and so the Paris board of health has ordered that it be served up to them in the dining-rooms. Parisians of the inferior classes are also great eaters of fried snails, but unwittingly so, for the reptiles are poisoned off them as well.

The monitor Saurus, that took part in Admiral David Porter's bombardment of Fort Fisher in December, 1864, now lies dismantled at the Philadelphia wharf awaiting a purchaser who needs a coal barge. Her armor has been stripped off and the spinning turned removed.

MANUFACTURING ANTIQUITIES.

It Has Been a Flourishing Trade for at Least Four Centuries.

Much curious information is contained in Sir John Evans' article in Longman's of the "Foggy Old Forge."

The fabrication of lapidary inscriptions is said to have begun some four centuries ago. The number and verisimilitude of the forgeries in the first half of this century was so great as to render considerably the value of genuine antique coins.

It is probable that more than half of the old Dresden china now exposed for sale is not the genuine article. The forgery of ancient carved ivories has developed two distinct schools, one in southern France, the other near Constantinople.

The German Becker seems to have been the modern prince of antique coiners. He engraved dies for a great number of the forgers, and principally Roman, and as most of these were struck in gold—a metal that does not change in appearance with time—he realized large sums from tawdry collectors.

How to take off the appearance of novelty from the forgers' stock is a question that is a difficult solution. He solved it thus: He had a small box constructed, which he partly filled with genuine coins, and the other part with his forgeries.

Whenever excavations are carried on when coins are required for the sale, he is sure to be present. The forger's work is a "realistic" implement takes rank as one of the finest arts in the valley of the Somme and in the neighborhood of London.

It can be said without fear of contradiction that no medicine has had greater success in curing Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness and Consumption than Pan-Tina. This celebrated remedy stops coughing, soothes the throat and lungs, and induces a good night's rest.

It is said that a man was lynched in this town yesterday, said the new investor. "A base slander, sir," said the real estate agent; "the rope broke and he got away."

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds.

One of the cases where a cheap article is often at least as good as a dear one is in the matter of non-living. How often it happens that the plain, cheap soap in the market is better than the expensive and more highly advertised article.

Two Valuable Friends.

A physician cannot be always had. Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bruises and Burns occur often and sometimes when least expected.

Two may a pious life could be saved that is being racked to death with that terrible cough. Secure a good night's rest by investing 25 cents for a bottle of Pan-Tina, the great remedy for coughs, colds and consumption.

Do not forget that if you accomplish a little every day it will amount to a good deal in a year. If you pursue somebody you will have acquired an amount of knowledge in three hundred and sixty-five days that will surprise you.

The authentic witness of any man's character are those who know him in his own family, and see him without any restraint or rule of conduct, but such as he voluntarily prescribes himself.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. It can be said without fear of contradiction that no medicine has had greater success in curing Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness and Consumption than Pan-Tina.

What you dislike in another take care to correct in yourself. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds.

A Natural Success. "Papa," said Benny Blivens, "New York is called the Empire State, isn't it?" "Yes," said the father.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a complaint that we have not cured.

Mother and Child Cured. Mrs. Lizzie M. Botts, of South Williamsport, Pa., writes: "Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured my little girl of scrofula. She was cured over a year ago and she is as well as ever now. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for pain in my side and on my lungs. I have taken two bottles and the pain has all left me. I believe if I had not taken it I should have had consumption."

Tides in the affairs of man naturally come under the head of current events. "My face is my fortune, sir," she said. "You must be in debt," said the man ill-bred.

The woman who works and is tired, will find a special help in Dr. Pierce's Fatigue Prescription. Perfectly harmless in any condition of the female system.
