After the Grip Sick, Lifeless, Dull

Healthy, Happy, Lively This Decided Change Brought About by Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.;
"Gentlemen-I wish to certify to the following facts: My little girl, Lilla May Guthrie, had a severe attack of the grip, and get seme-what better, but she did not seem to get right well. She lingered along from day to day, poer, weak and languid. We consulted a leading physicisn, and he said it was the dregs of the grip still about her. We gave the medicine he rdered, but she seemed to get More and More Delicate. She could scarcely ent anything, and what little she did take seemed to do her no good. Her little face. firsh was soft and not healthy, and she was stupid and dull with no ambition. We were very much concerned about her. No medicine seemed to have any effect until about two before she begun to eat heartily, and we could spirits high. She is full of life, and as mischley ous as she can be. All this ingrovement was brought about by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

My wife joins with me in recommending this med-leine as the best in the world for forbiding up the system." Has Gertherie, Heathville, Fenn. N. B. He sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, constitution. billiousness, jameflee, sick headache, indipostion.
