All Run Down, Always Tired, Sleepless and Without Appetite.

LAUGH A LITTLE BIT.

Here's a motto, just your fit: "Laugh a little bit." When you think you're trouble fit...

THE YOUNG SECRETARY.

And the Queer Way in Which Her Salary Was Paid.

Apples as Food.

It is not probable that we fully appreciate the true merits of the apple in part, because it is too often, if not generally, taken simply for the sake of gratifying a morbid appetite...

A Colored Preacher's Picture of the Day of Judgment.

"The most wonderful sermon I ever heard," said a business man, "was delivered by a colored preacher in South Carolina, in a slave pen which was being utilized as a church shortly after the war..."

Superstition Cuts Prices.

A curious custom prevails among the street peddlers and small storekeepers of New York that has its origin with the Russian Hebrews...

W. H. KOONTZ, K. KOONTZ & OGLE, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

The Somerset National Bank of Somerset, Pa. Capital, $50,000.

Device for Unloading Hay.

Following is a description of a device which works well in unloading hay. The inventor has placed in the roof of his barn a drive floor, four strong pulleys firmly attached to the rafters...

Fruit Should Be Pars.

The skins of fruit should never be eaten, not because they are not palatable or digestible or are unhealthily in themselves, but on account of the danger arising from microbes which have penetrated into the covering of the fruit...

Seeing the Editor.

The office boy, who was also guardian of the gate of the Occidentalist, was sunning himself lazily in front of the office when a rough-looking citizen, with his pantaloons in his boots and a gun in his coat-tail pocket, approached the portico.

Helpful Economies. The well-dressed woman is most often the one who takes good care of her clothes rather than the one who buys a great quantity of them.

Remove gloves by taking hold of the wrist and pulling them off wrong side out. Then turn and pull in shape.

Safety in Ugliness. She was an old maiden lady, who kept house in a thriving weaving village, and was much pestered by the young knights of the shuttle constantly entrapping her serving women into the willing maw of matrimony.

Threads of Thought. A mean man sees himself in the dark. A surgeon's knife wounds in kindness. Don't get above your business; it may do the same by you.

Why Did He Do It? A Southern magazine, by way of illustrating the transitoriness of fame, says that less than 25 years after the close of the civil war the following conversation took place at a Chicago railway station.

Watchmakers. The term "watchmaker," as it appears over the signs of small shops all over town, long since ceased to be a truthful indication of the business transacted within.

A Moment of Doubt. A good many soldiers, North and South, must remember incidents which still enable them to sympathize with the spirit of a question recorded in a Southern magazine.

Whales. Whales, though they are mammals, are fitted to live like fishes in water. The true whales are of two kinds of families—the sperm whale, which has teeth in the lower jaw, and the baleen whale, which has none.

Conching. There is nothing so irritable to a cough as a conch. Conching is precisely like scratching a wound on the outside of the foot. So long as it is continued the wound will not heal.

Had Struck Pay Dirt. The man who has gone West to grow up with the country, returned to the scenes of his childhood in less than three years, wearing good clothes and in many other ways giving competent testimony of prosperity.
