An Immense Lodge Scheme.

Members of the various secret and insternal societies throughout the State and beyond the borders of Pennsylvania are deeply interested in a movement in Johnstown, the famous Flood City, the like of which has never before been attempted and is regarded by those who are familiar with it as the most remarkable fraternal step ever proposed in the world,

It is the purpose to have mass meetings in Johnstown of all secret and fraternal societies in Cambria, Somerset, Westmoreland, Blair and surrounding counties on Wednesday and Thursday, August 15 and 16 next. Arrangements have already been perfected for the mass meetings, railroad excursion rates from various points are being arranged for, the committee on speakers is perfecting a program, the committee Among the various secret and fraternal societies that are active in the movement and are working to make the meetings notable successes are the Knights of the Golden Eagle, the ties. The executive committee having es and invitations to lodges in Indiana, Westmoreland, Somerset, Blair and other counties have been sent to the various lodges urging them to take necessarily in a body, but as large as circumstances will permit.
