

THE POSTMISTRESS.

Working hours were over in the Great White canyon. Mary Verne pulled down the little window of the postoffice...

With that soft glance burning into his brain and those gentle words pulsing in his ears, Beauty Paul swung himself into his penk saddle and sent his horse full speed down the hill to Ffolliott's saloon.

It was for Rubie's sake that the following Sunday Paul dressed himself in his best, brought a two wheeled cart with bells and bright colors to Mary's door and asked her to drive out with him.

The day was fair, and Beauty Paul amused her with stories of Rubie, and when they came to an end he told her of his own home in the heart of a green country in England.

As weeks and months went by and the green of the canyon changed to red and gold Paul found that if he was to look after Mary he had to give up the saloon.
