AT CANDLE LIGHTING.

I think it better to believe, And be even as the children-they The children of the early day -Who let the kindly dreams deceive And joyed in all the mind may weave Of dear conceit-better, 1 cay, To let wild fancy have her way, To trust her, than to know and grieve. A poet of old Colophon A notion held I think was right, No matter how or whence he gat it-The stars are snuffed out every dawn And newly lighted every night. I hope to eatch the angels at it. -John Vance Cheney in Century

PARDONED.

It was long past midnight, but the governor still sat slone in his library, hard at work on his forthcoming mes-

Absolute quiet reigned in the mansion, and not a light was to be seen in any of the neighboring houses.

The governor's wife was visiting friends in the country, and the servants were all asleep in their quarters in a separate building.

The governor's pen moved rapidly over shoet after sheet of paper.

Finally the writer paused and for a moment was absorbed in profound thought.

Then he rose and slowly paced the room, occasionally stopping, apparently in another part of the house. to her.

He felt that his work had overtaxed him, and a nervous feeling came over him, due partly to physical exhaustion and partly to his sense of utter loneli-11000

'I wish that I had told John to sit up," he said to himself, "but he is like ed to be of any use." He resumed his chair and took up his pen. What was that in the hall? Was it a footstep?

Nearer and nearer came the stealthy, shuffling steps.

The governor could no longer doubt the testimony of his own cars, but a strange numbress seized him, and he felt muble to rise from his chair.

In another moment it was too late. The door opened softly, and a man walked in-a big, stout fellow, roughly clad, with hard, wicked face and bold, disting eves.

The intruder quietly locked the door and took a chair on the side of the table opposite the governor.

"Keep your seat, governor," he said, with a peculiar leer. "My business won't take long. Ten minutes will be enough.

"Who are you," gasped the governor, "and how did you get in?" "Red Hube is what they call me."

was the reply, "and I walked in at the two hours ago, when he left the house,

Rube was one of the worst desperadoes that have been sent to the penitentiary in many years, and his midnight visit cor-

The Matches Inventor

suits me. If you offer no reward, I can get away, and if they ever find out who I am when I get out west this pardon will protect me. Walk to the door with me, governor." The other followed without a word to the back door of the hall. "Goodby, old man. " whispered Rube. Janos Irinvi : 'No tricks, you know." "I shall say nothing and offer no reward, " said the master of the mansion. Red Rube disappeared in the darkness, softly chuckling as he went. "Pardoned by the governor !" he kept repeating to himself. The governor locked the door and returned to the library. All night long he walked the floor, and it was not until morning that he sought his bed after a short talk with the servant who had given up the key. Fortunately for him, Red Rube was never heard of again. If he had been I was anxious about him, and, wishing prince. The Japanese are very sensi-

A Refreshing.

she should get up except that she was everyone of them taking fire. His pro- must fill his eyes, but all must be done and assimilated with the glue. This proper language nis most devoted ad-Though in happier moods she could paste he mixed with brown peroxyde miration. -St. Louis Post-Disputch.

remember much in her life that was of lead and the matchsticks, first imbright and joyous, and was ready to mersed in molten sulphur, were then admit that she had her fair share of dipped into the paste. A merchant

"How do men and women keep go-French Easier Than German. ng till they are 90?" she asked her-

French is much easier to read than elt very old and worn just and then the structure of the sentence is very structor, Free. All of which is guar- ry Balsam. It relieved my throat at years old, yet searcely more than an inhe thought with curiosty of her aged simple, writes Professor Alece Fortier anteed to do you good and cost you once, and I slept all through that night fant in size and appearance. Itis height Mrs. Browning, travel the same old over the student of German, inasmuch Berlin, Pa.

tunid road for fifty years more-dress as he is able to begin reading earlier and undress, eat and sleep, talk noth- and to read more works in a given ags with people for whom she did not time. While the beginner in German are, wash dishes, cook and sweep, buy must devote considerable time in trying rowns and boots and bonnets, and to unravel a complicated sentence the wear them out? Oh, the sickening beginner in French has already read monotony of it all ! a whole page or more. Both languages, But was there not some way out? however, have an admirable literature, What was the meaning of the command and the chief aim of the student, both o live in the world and not of it? Did of French and German, should be to mean that while the hands and the acquire an accurate knowledge of the eet, the various physical ergans persrmed the duties for which they were only be done by careful and extensive

From this point Mrs. Browning went When studying with a good teacher, on to ask: "What am I, body or soul? and in a place where there is opportu-

Writing Lessons in Japan.

One of the most remarkable occur-In Vienna a controversy has arisen as to who is the inventor of the phosphorus rences one meets in Japan is the inmatch. The famous chemist, E. Jensch, struction in chirography given to a settles the dispute by relating the fol- Daimio, a member of the Japanese lowing story of the Hungarian inventor, military nobility.

The writing teacher, who is called a "It was in 1825 when Irinyi, then 19 professor there, as well as here, precears old and a student at the Poly- pares the copies in secret, so they can technicum of Vienna, attended Profes- be used only for the little prince in sor Meissner's lectures on chemistry. question. A swarm of maids is busy

He became greatly interested in a waiting on the Daimio, fetching and demonstration of the reaction produced preparing what pupil and teacher need. cough that forboded Consumption, but prominent family of eight brothers and upon peroxyde of lead and sulphur be- At the appointed hour the professor they have given way to health and ing rubbed together. He immediately makes his appearance. Without sayconcluded that the reaction must be con- ing a word, and with the most funeral siderably intensified by substituting countenance, he approaches his pupil.

experience was related:phosphorus for salphur. The next few A white napkin covers his mouth, so "For a long time I suffered from Salt days Irinyi did not attend the lectures. that his breath cannot offend the little captured, the developments might have to find out if he was sick, I called at his tive in this regard. After exhausting knee, which made it worse. I can't perform manual labor, but that where

"Get out, you Dutchman ; I am work- and begins the instruction. When the ing on an invention." We saw him a Daimio has scribbled over several of would say I could not live long, and I sion allowed from the date of the claim, Mrs. Browning awoke with a feeling few days later, and he joined us glee- the lines it is the duty of the teacher to thought so too. Well, I heard of Dr. Mrs. Browning awoke with a feeling of profound discouragement. There of profound discouragement. There seemed no reason in the world why matches, which he struck on the wall, ent of the youngster. Tears of joy I commenced using them, and in three weeks I walked out of doors. Last shut her eyes and lie perfectly still for of glue, shaking it until the phosphorus permitted to do is to call the head Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and Salt and the couple dashed in death. Mr. ter my doctor told me I was incurable. society.

nally Cured.

All Free.

good times; yet depressed as she was named Roemer, whose firm still exists New Discovery know its value, and David Kennedy's Cherry Balsam. I all the other servants, too sleepy head dreary, uphill road, and the future held tion of Irinyi for about 9000 florins portunity to try it free. Call on the post fifteen years, the best doctors in places a hand on the shoulder of her no hope bright enough to tempt her ($3500). Irinyi is still living at advertised druggist and get a trial bot- the state united in saying that it was young-brother, a slender youth, the Southwestern Express.

and get a sample box of Dr. King's out-my sleep was restless, I would lie as strange. New Life Pills, Free, as well as a copy awake for hours. I well recollect the A remarkable colored lad died in herry as the sunshine. Would she, dent of French has a great advantage Somerset, Pa., or Brallier's drug store, eral years. It seemed like a miracle, I life had be uttered a word or been able to Day Express Supply and Demand.

cures asthuna, bronchitis, coughs, colds, the 17 years of his life in bed. He was so As a rule, the relie-seeker does a great incipient consumption, whooping helpless that he could not raise his hand deal of damage to historical sites and cough or croop. Taken with Favorice to his month, which necessities his hav-places of interest, but it seems that it is Remedy, it never fails. Price 25c, 50c, ing to be fed. sometimes possible to meet his demand and $1.00 a bottle. Dr. David Kenne- Friday afternoon Mr. Lynn McPher-dy's Salt Rheam Cream is sold at 50c son, a prominent farmer of near Clearfield, without doing any harm. A Washington paper says that re- a package. Dr. David Kennedy's Fav. on his return from shooting crows, placed cently, as a lady who had been stand- orite Remedy costs $1.00 a bottle or six his gun in a wagon box. On taking it out ing before the tomb of the Father of bottles for $5.00. his Country at Mount Vernon, turaed Favorite Remedy ranks with the to go away, she stooped furtively and medical profession as the most perfect and four buckshot penetrated his breast, picked up a pebble. She intended to of all blood and nerve medicines. It shattering the lones and passing through

FOR

LITTLE MONEY.

Flere's the idea Of the Non-pull-out Now the gan by the barrel and drew it toward The great which saver. Saves the watch him, when the wenpen was discharge I, from they and falls-cannot be pulled off the case-to go to the house with a friend, he caught a twenty-page journal, is the leading Republican family poper of the United States. It is a National Family Paper, and gives all the general news of the United States. It gives the events of foreign hands in a ran-

WEEKLY NEWS

OF THE WORLD

FOR A TRIFLE.

